

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

THIS HYMNAL is offered to supply a real demand. The German Evangelical Synod of North America, organized over fifty years ago, is confronted by the necessity of giving to its children a Hymnal in the language of the country. The rising generation of this church, though of German ancestry, is gradually, in some sections even rapidly, drifting away from the language and customs of its forefathers, and is in danger of becoming estranged to a church, all of whose services hitherto have been conducted in the German language.

While there are many Hymnals in the English language, yet there is none that contains a sufficient number of the beautiful, lofty and dignified German chorales; to merit its introduction into the Evangelical congregations, with whom the knowledge of these chorales is the very essence of their musical taste and education.

In the General Conference of the Synod, held at Elmhurst, Illinois, A. D. 1895, it was resolved to publish a Hymnal in the English language, which should meet the requirements of the Evangelical Church. This work was assigned to the Rev. C. G. Haas, who in compliance with his instructions has endeavored to compile a Hymnal, based upon the noble German chorales with the very cream of English and American hymns, thereby giving to the Church at large a book, which, while being both a SELECTION and COLLECTION of choice tunes and distinctive Evangelical hymns, will very likely have a wide and lasting influence upon the hymnological literature of America, and tend greatly to improve it. The aggressiveness in eliminating a host of old English tunes, which have become obsolete and worthless, may call forth severe criticism from some quarters; yet we trust that the very fact that we have departed from this ultra-conservativeness and have given space only to the most exquisite music of ancient and modern date, will enhance the book in the eyes of all those who thoroughly examine it, and who deeply appreciate that which is beautiful, that which is sublime, and who believe with Jeremy Taylor, that "A church tune should be a holy thing, fit for a seraph to sing and angels to hear."

Melodies of rare metre and merit, never before published in America, have been adopted and new translations of choice German hymns introduced. The arrangement of hymns according to the Church-year and under many miscellaneous headings facilitates their selection.

A noteworthy department of hymns is the one entitled: "Children's Services," containing fifty-one carefully selected hymns and tunes especially adapted for children. This department—with other hymns and melodies throughout the book, which children can easily learn to sing, as auxiliaries—may well serve for Sunday School use. A great many of the Sunday School songbooks now extant lack altogether the sacred character and elevating influence which they necessarily should have. The heart of the child is very tender and susceptible, and therefore ought to be given that only which is truly elevating and sacred. Children should be taught to sing the same beautiful hymns, which they sing when older in the church. What they learn while young, will remain with them through life; and church-singing, which oftentimes is so lamentably poor, almost impossible without a strong choir, would surely be greatly improved. Let members of ONE CHURCH, young and old, have ONE BOOK!

To the hymns proper are added occasional Anthems and Canticles, also an appendix, comprising the Gospels and Epistles of the Church-year, Prayers that may be used for devotions at home and Psalms selected for Responsive Reading.

And now remains only the agreeable duty to record our deep sense of the great kindness shown to us in the hearty co-operation of many friends. The Editor would express his sincere gratitude to all who have answered his inquiries or in any way lightened his labors, most especially to Mr. U. C. Burnap, Mus. Doc., who has taken so deep an interest in the Hymnal and given him the benefit of his special knowledge and experience of long standing in the adaptation of melodies to the respective hymns with which they are associated, and who has so liberally contributed original and other compositions, not published hitherto in America. Thanks are due to the composers Chas. Geo. W. Jungk and Frederick G. Haas, who have set to music the hymns assigned to them.

Thanks are also given to the following owners of copyright tunes, who have generously permitted the use of them:—

Mr. Louis H. Redner;
 Mr. Beekman F. Ilsley;
 The Rev. J. Nevett Steele, Mus. Doc.;
 The Rev. Robert Lowry;
 The Rev. Jeremiah E. Rankin, D. D.
 Mr. Ernest Carter;
 Mr. Walter B. Gilbert, Mus. Doc.;
 Mr. U. C. Burnap, Mus. Doc.;
 The Rev. C. L. Hutchins, D. D.

Grateful acknowledgment is also made for kindness received from many known and unknown friends for permission to use the several hymns against which their names are placed, especially to the following:—

The Rev. Robert Lowry;
 The Rev. Jeremiah E. Rankin, D. D.;
 The Rev. Daniel March, D. D.;
 The Rev. Washington Gladden, D. D.;
 The Rev. Dennis Wortman, D. D.;
 The Rev. Louis J. Benson;
 Messrs. Houghton, Mifflin & Co., for the hymns of Oliver Wendell Holmes and John Greenleaf Whittier;

Miss A. M. Longfellow for the hymns of the late Rev. Samuel Longfellow.

Probably there are some copyright tunes and hymns used for which no permission has been obtained. It is hoped that such an accidental infringement of the Copyright Act will be readily forgiven, as every effort has been made to find the various owners and to solicit their permission previous to insertion. In future editions such omissions will be gladly rectified and acknowledged, if those whose rights have been trespassed upon will kindly give notice of the same.

The work is now submitted to the members of the Evangelical Church and to all lovers of hymns and tunes with the earnest hope that, by God's blessing, it may be acceptable and of some use in the private circle of the home as well as for the public services of the Church.

The Ten Commandments.

(Exodus 20, 1-17.)

GOD spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I.—Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II.—Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

III.—Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV.—Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

V.—Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI.—Thou shalt not kill.

VII.—Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII.—Thou shalt not steal.

IX.—Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X.—Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

Musical Responses, see Chant No. 918.

The Summary of the Law by our Lord Jesus Christ.

(St. Matth. 22, 37-40.)

Hear also what our Lord Jesus Christ saith:

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment.

And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

The Lord's Prayer.

(St. Matth. 6, 9-13.)

Our Father who art in heaven:

Hallowed be Thy Name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those that trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Beatitudes.

(St. Matth. 5, 3-12.)

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God.

Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

See Chant No. 919.

The Apostles' Creed.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord;

Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary;

Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried;

He descended into hell;

The third day He rose again from the dead;

He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;

From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost:

The holy Christian Church; the Communion of Saints;

The Forgiveness of sins;

The Resurrection of the body;

And the Life everlasting. Amen.

1 SOLI DEO GLORIA. 8. 7. 8. 7. 8. 8. 7.

Nicolaus Decius, 1526.

1. All glo - ry be to God on high, Who hath our race be - friend - ed! To us no harm shall now come nigh, The strife at last is ended; God showeth His good - will to men, And peace shall reign on earth a - gain, O thank Him for His goodness.

2 We praise, we worship Thee, we trust,
And give Thee thanks for ever,
O Father, that Thy rule is just,
And wise, and changes never:
Thy boundless power o'er all things reigns,
Thou dost whate'er Thy will ordains;
Well for us that Thou rulest!

3 O Jesus Christ, our God and Lord,
Son of Thy heavenly Father,
O Thou who hast our peace restored
And the lost sheep dost gather,
Thou Lamb of God, to Thee on high
From out our depths we sinners cry,
Have mercy on us, Jesus!

4 O Holy Ghost, Thou precious Gift,
Thou Comforter unfailing,
O'er Satan's snares our souls uplift,
And let Thy power availing
Avert our woes and calm our dread:
For us the Saviour's blood was shed;
We trust in Thee to save us!

T. Ken, 1709.

1 From all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise :
Let the Redeemer's praise be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

2 Eternal are Thy mercies, Lord !
Eternal truth attends Thy word ;
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

1. Before Je - ho - vah's' aw - ful throne, Ye nations, bow with sa - cred joy ; Know that the Lord is God a - lone, He can cre - ate, and He de - stroy, He can cre - ate, and He de - stroy.

2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and formed us men ;
And when like wandering sheep we strayed,
He brought us to His fold again.

3 We are His people, we His care,
Our souls, and all our mortal frame ;
What lasting honors shall we rear,
Almighty Maker, to Thy Name ?

4 We'll crowd Thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise ;
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill Thy courts with sounding praise.

5 Wide as the world is Thy command,
Vast as eternity Thy love ;
Firm as a rock Thy truth must stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

Rev. Isaac Watts, 1719, alt.

AT THE OPENING OF SERVICE.

5 SAMSON. L. M.

Arr. from Georg Friedrich Händel, 1742.

2 To Thee aloud all angels cry,
The heavens and all the powers on high:
Thee, holy, holy, holy King,
Lord God of hosts, they ever sing.

3 The apostles join the glorious throng;
The prophets swell the immortal song;
Thy martyrs' noble army raise
Eternal anthems to Thy praise.

4 From day to day, O Lord, do we Highly exalt and honor Thee!
Thy Name we worship and adore,
World without end, for evermore!

5 Vouchsafe, O Lord, we humbly pray,
To keep us safe from sin this day;
Have mercy, Lord! we trust in Thee;
O, let us ne'er confounded be!

Tr. in Cotterill's Selection, 1815.

L. M.

1 All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice:
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell,
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

2 The Lord ye know is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make:
We are His folk, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

3 O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His Name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

4 For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

W. Kethe, 1561.

L. M.

1 Lord Jesus Christ, be present now!
And let Thy Holy Spirit bow
All hearts in love and fear to-day,
To hear the truth and keep Thy way.

2 Open our lips to sing Thy praise,
Our hearts in true devotion raise,
Strengthen our faith, increase our light,
That we may know Thy Name aright:

3 Until we join the host that cry
Holy art Thou, O Lord most High!
And 'mid the light of that blest place
Shall gaze upon Thee face to face.

4 Glory to God, the Father, Son,
And Holy Spirit, Three in One!
To Thee, O blessed Trinity,
Be praise throughout eternity!

8 ITALIAN HYMN. 6. 6. 4. 6. 6. 6. 4.

F. de Giardini, 1769.
Arr. by U. C. Burnap, 1898.

1. Come, Thou Almighty King, Help us Thy Name to sing, Help us to praise! Father all glo - ri - ous O'er all vic - to - ri - ous, Come and reign o-ver us, Ancient of days.

9 6. 6. 4. 6. 6. 6. 4.

2 Jesus, our Lord, descend;
From all our foes defend,
Nor let us fall;
Let Thine almighty aid
Our sure defense be made,
Our souls on Thee be stayed;
Lord, hear our call.

3 Come, Thou incarnate Word
Gird on Thy mighty sword;
Our prayer attend;
Come, and Thy people bless;
Come, give Thy word success;
Spirit of holiness,
On us descend.

4 Come, holy Comforter
Thy sacred witness bear,
In this glad hour;
Thou, who almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power.

5 To the great One in Three,
The highest praises be,
Hence evermore;
His sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore.

1 Glory to God on high!
Let heaven and earth reply;
Praise ye His Name;
His love and grace adore,
Who all our sorrows bore;
And sing forevermore,
"Worthy the Lamb."

2 Ye who surround the throne,
Cheerfully join in one,
Praising His Name;
Ye who have felt His blood
Sealing your peace with God,
Sound His dear Name abroad,
"Worthy the Lamb."

3 Join, all ye ransomed race,
Our Lord and God to bless;
Praise ye His Name;
In Him we will rejoice,
And make a joyful noise,
Shouting with heart and voice,
"Worthy the Lamb."

4 Soon must we change our place;
Yet will we never cease
Praising His Name;
To Him our songs we'll bring,
Hail Him our gracious King,
And through all ages sing,
"Worthy the Lamb."

10 HERMANN. C. M.

Nicolaus Hermann, 1560.

2 Up to the hills where Christ is gone,
To plead for all His saints;
Presenting, at the Father's throne
||: Our songs and our complaints.:||

3 Thou art a God before whose sight
The wicked shall not stand:
Sinners shall ne'er be Thy delight.
||: Nor dwell at Thy right hand.:||

4 Now to Thy house I will resort
To taste Thy mercies there,
I will frequent Thy holy court
||: And worship in Thy fear.:||

5 O may Thy Spirit guide my feet
In ways of righteousness;
Make every path of duty straight,
||: And plain before my face.:||

Rev. Isaac Watts, 1719.

C. M.

1 Sing we the song of those who stand
Around th' eternal throne,
Of every kindred, clime, and land,—
||: A multitude unknown.:||

2 Life's poor distinctions vanish here;
To-day the young, the old,
Our Saviour and His flock appear,
||: One Shepherd and one fold.:||

3 Toil, trial, suffering, still await
On earth the pilgrim throng;
Yet learn we in our low estate
||: The Church triumphant's song.:||

4 "Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain,"
Cry the redeemed above,
"Blessing and honor to obtain,
||: And everlasting love." :||

5 "Worthy the Lamb," on earth we sing,
"Who died our souls to save:
Henceforth, O death, where is thy sting?
||: Thy victory, O grave?" :||

6 Then hallelujah, power and praise
To God in Christ be given;
May all who now this anthem raise,
||: Renew the song in heaven.:||

 To my heart O enter Thou,
 Let it be Thy temple now.

3 Here Thy praise is gladly chanted,
 Here Thy seed is duly sown;
 Let my soul, where it is planted,
 Bring forth precious sheaves alone;
 So that all I hear may be Fruitful unto life in me.

4 Thou my faith increase and quicken,
 Let me keep Thy gift divine,
 Howsoe'er temptations thicken;
 May Thy word still o'er me shine;
 As my pole-star through my life,
 As my comfort in my strife.

1. { Light of Light, en - lighten me! Now a - new the day is dawn - ing; }
 { Sun of grace, the shadows flee, Brighten Thou my Sab-bath morn - ing! }

With Thy joy - ous sun-shine blest, Hap - py is my day of rest.

- 2 Fount of all our joy and peace,
 To Thy living waters lead me;
 Thou from earth my soul release,
 And with grace and mercy feed me.
 Bless Thy word, that it may prove Rich in fruits that Thou dost love.

- 4 Let me with my heart to-day,
 Holy, holy, holy, singing,
 Rapt a while from earth away,
 All my soul to Thee up-springing,
 Have a foretaste, inly given,
 How they worship Thee in heaven.

- 3 Kindle Thou the sacrifice
 That upon my lips is lying;
 Clear the shadows from mine eyes,
 That, from every error flying,
 No strange fire may in me glow
 That Thine altar doth not know.

- 5 Rest in me and I in Thee,
 Build a paradise within me;
 O reveal Thyself to me,
 Blessed Love, who diedst to win me:
 Fed from Thine exhaustless urn,
 Pure and bright my lamp shall burn.

- 6 Hence all care, all vanity,
 For the day to God is holy:
 Come, Thou glorious Majesty,
 Deign to fill this temple lowly;
 Naught to-day my soul shall move,
 Simply resting in Thy love.

 Lie in deepest darkness shrouded,
 Till Thy Spirit breaks our night
 With the beams of truth unclouded.
 Thou alone to God canst win us,
 Thou must work all good within us.

- 3 Glorious Lord, Thyself impart!
 Light of Light, from God proceeding,
 Open Thou our ears and heart,
 Help us by Thy Spirit's pleading;
 Hear the cry Thy people raises,
 Hear, and bless our prayers and praises.

And all Thy work from day to day declare!
Is not our life with hourly mercies crowned?
Does not Thine arm encircle us around?
- 3 Alas, unworthy of Thy boundless love,
Too oft with careless feet from Thee we rove;
But now, encouraged by Thy voice, we come,
Returning sinners to a Father's home.
- 4 O by that Name in which all fulness dwells,
O by that love which every love excels,
O by that blood so freely shed for sin,
Open blest mercy's gate, and take us in!

His wrath and justice stand
To guard His holy law;
And where His love resolves to bless,
His truth confirms and seals the grace.

Surprising wisdom shines;
Confounds the powers of hell,

1. Christ is our Corner-stone, On Him a-lone we build; With His true saints alone

The courts of heaven are filled: On His great love our hopes we place

Of present grace and joys a-bove.

3 Here, gracious God, do Thou
For evermore draw nigh;
Accept each faithful vow,
And mark each suppliant sigh;
In copious shower on all who pray,
Each holy day, Thy blessings pour.

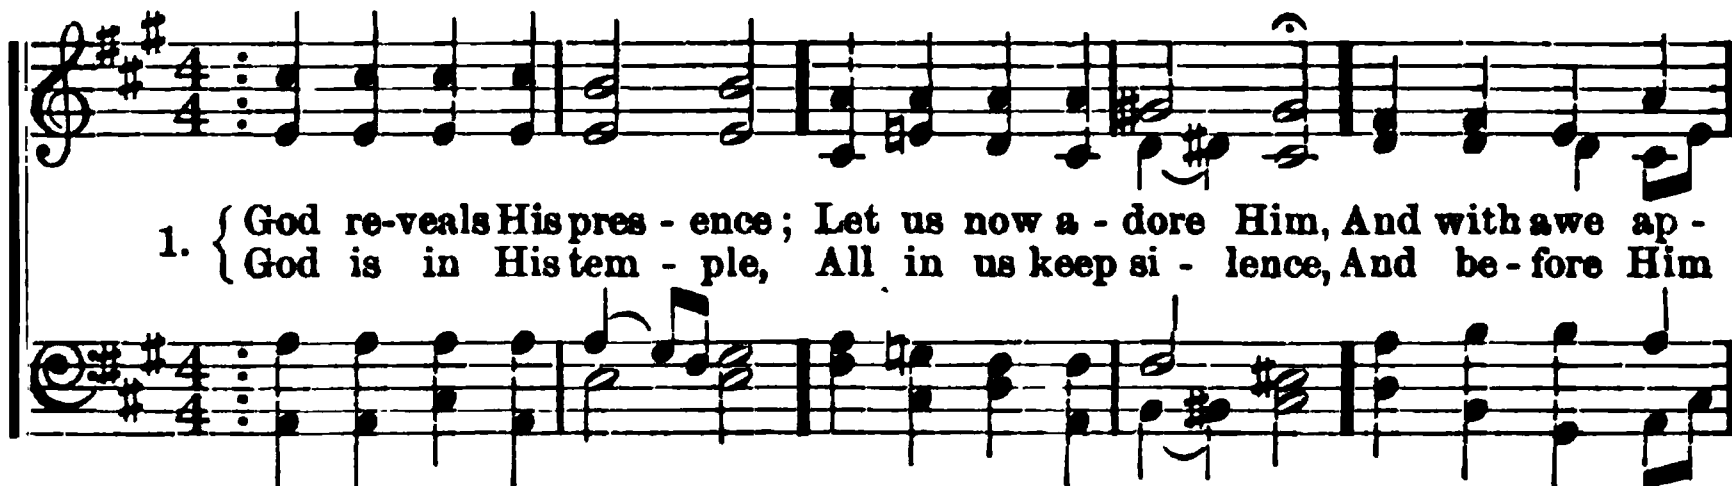

2 O then with hymns of praise
These hallowed courts shall ring;
Our voices we will raise
The Three in One to sing;
And thus proclaim in joyful song,
Both loud and long, that glorious Name.

4 Here may we gain from heaven
The grace which we implore;
And may that grace, once given,
Be with us evermore,
Until that day when all the blest
To endless rest are called away.

 Were our soul and body
 Thee to serve at all times ready:
 Might we, like the angels
 Who behold Thy glory
 In submission sink before Thee,
 And through grace—all our days
 In our whole demeanor,
 Give Thee praise and honor.

 Serve with awe in heavenly regions:
 Holy, Holy, Holy
 Sing the hosts of heaven;
 Praise to God be ever given:

 Graciously, O Jesus,
 To our songs and praises.

So pants my soul for Thee, great King of kings, So thirsts to reach Thy sa-cred dwell-ing - place.

2 Why throb, my heart? why sink, my saddening soul?
Why droop to earth, with various woes oppressed?
My years shall yet in blissful circles roll,
And peace be yet an inmate of this breast.

We, Thy people, now draw near;
Teach us to rejoice with trembling,
Speak, and let Thy servants hear—
Hear with meekness,
Hear Thy word with godly fear.

May we give them, Lord, to Thee;
Cheered by hope, and daily strengthened,
May we run, nor weary be,

Full enjoyment,
Full, unmixed, and evermore.

And Thou hast taken count of all
The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
The broken vow, the frequent fall.
Through life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus, be our Light.

4 Do more than pardon; give us joy,
Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
And loving hearts without alloy,

Through life's long day and death's dark

O gentle Jesus, be our Light.

3 Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
True absolution and release;

Each day returning to begin
With Thee, my God, in prayer.

2 Long hadst Thou reigned ere time began,
Or dust was fashioned into man;
And long Thy kingdom shall endure,
When earth and time shall be no more.

3 But man, weak man, is born to die,
Made up of guilt and vanity;
Thy dreadful sentence, Lord, was just—
"Return, ye sinners, to your dust."

4 Death, like an overflowing stream,
Sweeps us away; our life's a dream—
An empty tale—a morning flower,
Cut down and withered in an hour.

5 Teach us, O Lord, how frail is man;
And kindly lengthen out our span,
Till a wise care of piety
Fit us to die and dwell with Thee.

Rev. Isaac Watts, 1719.

Of all things Thou alone the end,
On Thee still fix our wavering heart,

To our dark souls Thy Light display,
The glory of Thy face disclose.

3 Thou, Lord, art Love; the Fountain Thou
Whence mercy unexhausted flows;
On barren hearts, O shed it now,
And make the desert bear the rose!

There mercy prints its trace;
In nature we Thy steps behold,
The gospel shows Thy face.

5 Thy chastisements are love; more deep
They stamp the seal Divine,
And by a sweet compulsion keep
Our spirits nearer Thine.

3 Thy ways are love; though they transcend
Our feeble range of sight,
They wind, through darkness, to their end
In everlasting light.

6 Thy heaven is the abode of Love:

Feels after Thee in vain,
Thee in these works of power to find
Or to Thy seat attain;
Thy messenger, the stormy wind,
Thy path, the trackless main.

3 These speak of Thee with loud acclaim;
They thunder forth Thy praise,
The glorious honor of Thy Name,
The wonders of Thy ways:
But Thou art not in tempest flame,
Nor in the solar blaze.

4 We hear Thy voice when thunders roll
Through the wide fields of air;
The waves obey Thy dread control;
Yet still Thou art not there;
Where shall I find Him, O my soul!
Who yet is everywhere?

5 O, not in circling depth or height,
But in the conscious breast,
Present to faith, though veiled from sight
There does His Spirit rest;
O come, Thou Presence infinite!

Rescues them from all their fear.

Hungry, fainting by the way,
Far from refuge, shelter, home :

Slow to anger, vast in love,
God is good to all creation ;
All His works His goodness prove.

6 All Thy works, O Lord, shall bless Thee ;
Thee shall all Thy saints adore :
King supreme shall they confess Thee,
And proclaim Thy sovereign power.

Jeremiah Clarke, 1700.

1. Great God, how in - fi - nite art Thou! What worthless worms are we!

Let the whole race of crea-tures bow, And pay their praise to Thee.

2 Thy throne eternal ages stood,
Ere seas or stars were made;
Thou art the ever-living God,
Were all the nations dead.

4 Our lives through various scenes are drawn,
And vexed with trifling cares;
While Thine eternal thoughts move on Thine undisturbed affairs.

3 Eternity, with all its years,
Stands present in Thy view;
To Thee there's nothing old appears—
Great God, there's nothing new.

5 Great God, how infinite art Thou!
What worthless worms are we!
Let the whole race of creatures bow,
And pay their praise to Thee.

2 He gives the conquest to the weak,
Supports the fainting heart,
And courage in the evil hour
His heavenly aids impart.

3 Mere human power shall fast decay,
And youthful vigor cease;
But they who wait upon the Lord,
In strength shall still increase.

4 They with unwearied feet shall tread
The path of life Divine;
With growing ardor onward move,
With growing brightness shine.

5 On eagles' wings they mount, they soar—
Their wings are faith and love;
Till, past the cloudy regions here,
They rise to heaven above.

Rev. Isaac Watts, 1707, alt.

1 My God, how wonderful Thou art!
Thy majesty how bright,
How glorious is Thy mercy seat
In depths of burning light.

2 Yet I may love Thee too, O Lord,
Almighty as Thou art;
For Thou hast stooped to ask of me
The love of my poor heart.

3 No earthly father loves like Thee,
No mother half so mild
Bears and forbears, as Thou hast done
With me, Thy sinful child.

4 My God, how wonderful Thou art,
Thou everlasting Friend!
On Thee I stay my trusting heart,
Till faith in vision end.

2 I hear Thee in the stormy wind
That turns the ocean wave to foam;
Nor less Thy wondrous power I find
When summer airs around me roam;
The tempest and the calm declare
Thyself—for Thou art everywhere.

3 I find Thee in the noon of night,
And read Thy Name in every star
That drinks in splendor from the light
That flows from mercy's beaming car:
Thy footstool, Lord, each starry gem
Composes—not Thy diadem.

1. O wor-ship the King, all glori-ous a - bove, And grate-ful - ly sing His won-der - ful love; Our Shield and De - fend - er, the Ancient of days, Pa - vil-ioned in splen-dor, and gird - ed with praise.

2 O tell of His might! O sing of His grace!
Whose robe is the light; whose canopy space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

3 The earth with its store of wonders untold,
Almighty, Thy power hath founded of old;
Hath 'stablished it fast by a changeless decree;
And round it hath cast, like a mantle, the sea.

4 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air; it shines in the light;
It streams from the hills; it descends to the plain;
And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.

5 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend!

6 O measureless Might! Ineffable Love!
While angels delight to hymn Thee above,
The humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
With true adoration shall lisp to Thy praise.

1. Praise the Lord : ye heav'ns a-dore Him; Praise Him, an-gels, in the height;

Sun and moon re-joice be-fore Him, Praise Him, all ye stars and light.

Praise the Lord for He hath spok-en; Worlds His might-y voice o-beyed;

Laws which nev-er shall be brok-en, For their guidance hath He made.

2 Praise the Lord, for He is glorious;
Never shall His promise fail:
God hath made His saints victorious;
Sin and death shall not prevail.
Praise the God of our salvation;
Hosts on high, His power proclaim;
Heaven and earth and all creation,
Laud and magnify His Name.

3 Worship, honor, glory, blessing,
Lord, we offer unto Thee;
Young and old, Thy praise expressing,
In glad homage bend the knee.
All the saints in heaven adore Thee;
We would bow before Thy Throne:
As Thine angels serve before Thee,
So on earth Thy will be done.

50 INTERCESSION, Old. L. M.

Old Latin Melody.

2 My thoughts, before they are my own,
Are to my God distinctly known;
He knows the words I mean to speak,
Ere from my opening lips they break.

3 Within Thy circling power I stand;
On every side I find Thy hand:
Awake, asleep, at home, abroad,
I am surrounded still with God.

4 Amazing knowledge, vast and great!
What large extent, what lofty height!
My soul, with all the powers I boast,
Is in the boundless prospect lost.

5 O may these thoughts possess my breast,
Where'er I rove, where'er I rest:
Nor let my weaker passions dare
Consent to sin, for God is there.

2 Not half so high His power hath spread
The starry heavens above our head
As His rich love exceeds our praise,
Exceeds the highest hopes we raise.

3 Not half so far has nature placed
The rising morning from the west

As His forgiving grace removes
The daily guilt of those He loves.

4 How slowly doth His wrath arise!
On swifter wings salvation flies:
And, if He lets His anger burn,
How soon His frowns to pity turn!

Let ev - 'ry heart and voice ac - cord, To sing that—God is Love.

2 This precious truth His word declares,
And all His mercies prove;
While Christ, th' atoning Lamb, appears,
To show that—God is Love.

3 Behold His loving-kindness waits
For those who from Him rove,
And calls for mercy reach their hearts,
To teach them—God is Love.

4 The work begun is carried on,
By power from heaven above;
And every step, from first to last,
Proclaims that—God is Love.

By strangers quickly told,
An unremaining glory
Of things that soon are old.

Teach us aright to number
Our years before they fail;

1. Let heav'n a - rise, let earth ap-pear Proclaimed E - ter - nal God,

The heav'n a - rose, the earth ap-peared At His cre - a - ting word.

2 But formless was the earth, and void,
Dark, sluggish, and confused;
Till o'er the mass the Spirit moved,
And quickening power diffused.

3 Then spake the Lord Omnipotent
The mandate, "Be there light:"
Light darted forth in vivid rays,
And scattered ancient night.

4 The glorious firmament He spread,
To part the earth and sky;
And fixed the upper elements
Within their spheres on high.

5 He bade the seas together flow;
They left the solid land:
And herbs, and plants, and fruitful trees,
Sprung forth at His command.

6 Above He formed the stars; and placed
Two greater orbs of light;
The radiant sun to rule the day,
The moon to rule the night.

7 To all the varied living tribes
He gave their wondrous birth:
Some formed within the watery deep,
Some from the teeming earth.

8 Then, chief o'er all His works below,
Man, honored man, was made;
His soul with God's pure image stamped,
With innocence arrayed.

9 Completed now the mighty work,
God His creation viewed;
And, pleased with all that He had made,
Pronounced it "very good."

We own Thy power Divine;
We hear Thy breath in every storm,
For all the winds are Thine.

2 Wide as they sweep their sounding way,
They work Thy sovereign will;
And, awed by Thy majestic voice,
Confusion shall be still.

3 Thy mercy tempers every blast

And mingles with the tempest's roar
The whispers of Thy grace.

Praise Him through the silent night.

4 See how through the boundless sky
Fresh and free the birds do fly ;
Fire and wind and storm are still Servants of His royal Will.

3 See how He hath everywhere
Made this earth so rich and fair ;
Hill and vale and fruitful land,
All things living, show His hand.

5 See the water's ceaseless flow,
Ever circling to and fro :
From the sources to the sea,
Still it rolls in praise to Thee.

That we may seek Thy face With thanks and ho - ly fear.

- 2 Thou callest what was not
 To life and conscious pleasure;
 And beings round Thee spread
 In numbers without measure;
 Thy nature all is love,
 And works of boundless skill
 Unceasingly employed,
 Thy schemes of love fulfill.
- 3 Thou speakest, and 'tis done;
 When but Thy word was given,
 The frame of nature rose—
 The earth and starry heaven.
 Thy will throughout the world
 Such deeds of power show,
 As creatures else would think
 Beyond all power to do.
- 4 'Tis Thine alone, to live
 And reign supreme for ever.
 Life's Thine to give or take,
 We breathe but by Thy favor.
 The soul that rules in us
 We have, Most High, from Thee;
 Were such Thy will, it dies,
 But Thou must ever be.

- 5 What we, immortal King,
 Are of Thy nature knowing,
 Thou hast Thyself revealed,
 Thy works and counsels showing.
 Creation speaks Thy power,
 More clearly still Thy Son
 Displays Thy wondrous grace,
 And makes Thy mercy known.
- 6 Yet, what we learn of Thee
 With shadows here is shrouded;
 But soon we hope a light
 And vision all unclouded,
 When we to God shall come,
 No shade or veil between;
 And there His glory see,
 As we ourselves are seen.
- 7 Meantime would we below
 Ne'er cease our honors bringing;
 Despise not, Lord, the praise
 Our stammering tongues are singing:
 When we shall rise to Thee
 In realms of light above,
 In higher, nobler strains,
 We'll sing the God of love.

Lightnings that flash over flood, over fell,
Own Thee the Master Almighty, and call

Sharing our nature, though sinless, Thy Son

2 The unwearied sun, from day to day,
Does his Creator's power display,
And publishes to every land
The work of an almighty hand.

3 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
And nightly to the listening earth
Repeats the story of her birth;

4 Whilst all the stars that round her burn,
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

5 What though in solemn silence all
Move round the dark terrestrial ball?
What though nor real voice nor sound
Amid their radiant orbs be found?

6 In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice;
For ever singing, as they sing,
"The hand that made us is Divine."

Joseph Addison, 1712.

1 High in the heavens, eternal God,
Thy goodness in full glory shines;
Thy truth shall break through every cloud
That veils and darkens Thy designs.

2 Forever firm Thy justice stands,
As mountains their foundations keep;
Wise are the wonders of Thy hands;
Thy judgments are a mighty deep.

3 Thy providence is kind and large;
Both man and beast Thy bounty share;
The whole creation is Thy charge,
But saints are Thy peculiar care.

4 My God, how excellent Thy grace!
Whence all our hope and comfort springs;
The sons of Adam, in distress,
Fly to the shadow of Thy wings.

5 From the provisions of Thy house
We shall be fed with sweet repast;
There mercy like a river flows,
And brings salvation to our taste.

6 Life, like a fountain rich and free,
Springs from the presence of my Lord,
And in Thy light our souls shall see
The glories promised in Thy word.

In harmony and light;
Before Him harps angelic hymn
His praises day and night;
Yet to the contrite, day and night,
In mercy turneth He:
My spirit thirsts for Thee, O Lord,
My spirit thirsts for Thee!

3 Yea, though His works are infinite,
His power upholds them all;
He clothes the lilies of the field,

My spirit thirsts for Thee!

Unnumbered comforts, to my soul,
Thy tender care bestowed,
Before my infant heart conceived
From whom those comforts flowed.

2 When, in the slippery paths of youth,
With heedless steps, I ran,
Thine arm, unseen, conveyed me safe,
And led me up to man.
Ten thousand, thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ;
Nor is the least a cheerful heart,
That tastes those gifts with joy.

3 Through every period of my life,
Thy goodness I'll pursue;
And after death, in distant worlds,
The glorious theme renew.
Through all eternity, to Thee
A joyful song I'll raise;
For, O, eternity's too short
To utter all Thy praise!

Of Thy unbounded grace.
 - 2 Here the dark veils of flesh and sense
My captive soul surround ;
Mysterious deeps of providence
My wondering thoughts confound.
 - 3 As through a glass, I dimly see
The wonders of Thy love ;
How little do I know of Thee,
Or of the joys above !
 - 4 'Tis but in part I know Thy will :
I bless Thee for the sight ;
When will Thy love the rest reveal,
In glory's clearer light ?
 - 5 With rapture shall I then survey
Thy providence and grace,
And spend an everlasting day
In wonder, love, and praise.

- 2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountain pant ;
To fertile vales and dewy meads
My weary wandering steps He leads,
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.
- 3 Though in a bare and rugged way,
Through devious lonely wilds I stray,
Thy bounty shall my pains beguile ;

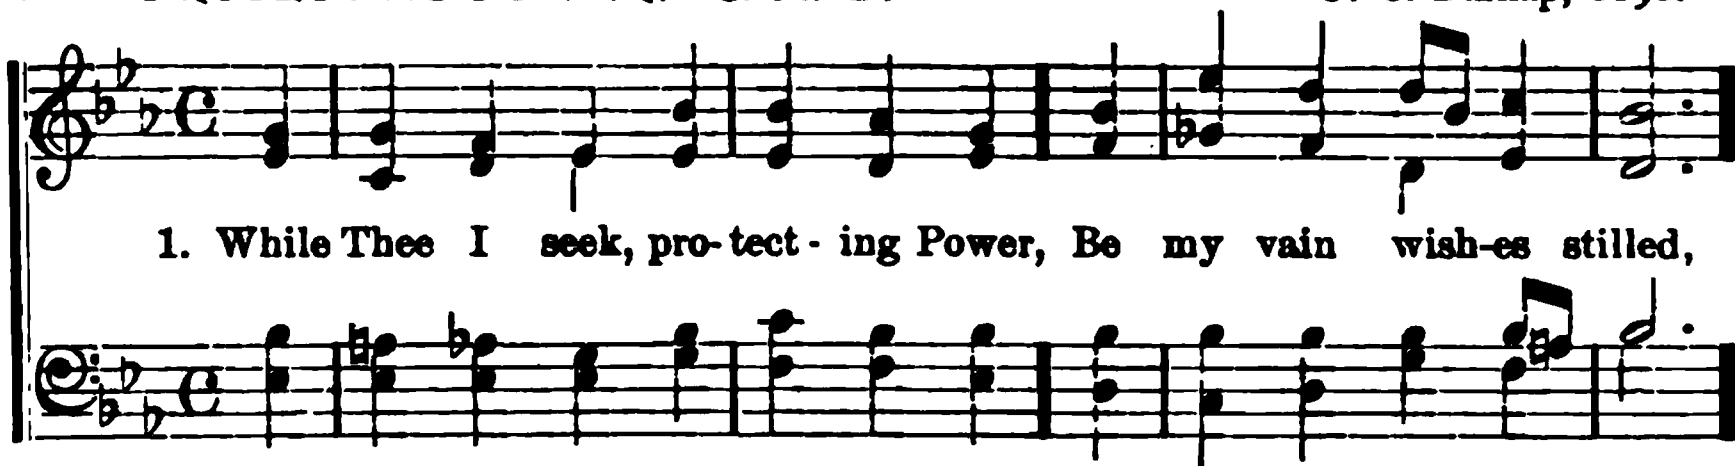

The barren wilderness shall smile,
With sudden greens and herbage crowned,
And streams shall murmur all around.

- 4 Though in the paths of death I tread,
With gloomy horrors overspread,
My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
For Thou, O Lord, art with me still :
Thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
And guide me through the dreadful shade.

2 In each event of life, how clear,
Thy ruling hand I see.
Each blessing to my soul more dear
Because conferred by Thee.
In every joy that crowns my days,
In every pain I bear,
My heart shall find delight in praise,
Or seek relief in prayer.

3 When gladness wings my favored hour,
Thy love my thoughts shall fill ;
Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
My soul shall meet Thy will.
My lifted eye, without a tear,
The lowering storm shall see ;
My steadfast heart shall know no fear ;
That heart will rest on Thee.

2 The Lord is King! who then shall dare
Resist His will, distrust His care,
Or murmur at His wise decrees,
Or doubt His royal promises?

3 The Lord is King! Child of the dust,
The Judge of all the earth is just;
Holy and true are all His ways:
Let every creature speak His praise.

4 O when His wisdom can mistake,
His might decay, His love forsake,

Then may His children cease to sing,
"The Lord Omnipotent is King!"

5 Alike pervaded by His eye,
All parts of His dominion lie;
This world of ours, and worlds unseen,
And thin the boundary between.

6 One Lord, one empire, all secures;
He reigns, and life and death are yours:
Through earth and heaven one song shall
"The Lord Omnipotent is King!" [ring,

Etienne Henri Mehul, 1807.

2 He overrules all mortal things,
And manages our mean affairs;
On humble souls the King of kings
Bestows His counsels and His cares.

3 Our sorrows and our tears we pour
Into the bosom of our God;

He hears us in the mournful hour,
And helps to bear the heavy load.

4 O, could our thankful hearts devise
A tribute equal to Thy grace,
To the third heaven our song should rise,
And teach the golden harps Thy praise.

1. O sing to God, The God of boundless pow - er; Great is His Name,

Ore - a - tor of all na - ture, And all the heav'ns are His do - main.

2 His robe is light,
His law eternal justice;
His government,
The life of man controlling,
Is wisdom, truth, and righteousness.

6 The bladed plant,
The flower, the springing fountains,
The air, the sea,
The meadows, dales, and mountains
Are rivals grand in nature's chant.

3 Supremely rich,
A source of sweetest blessing,
God without end,
And God without beginning,
His mercies wide all creatures reach.

7 The thirsty land
His rains make greenest pastures,
The night and day,
The grain and earth's vast treasures
Are tokens of His gracious hand.

4 When He is near
In safety I am resting;
My actions all
Omniscient God is testing;—
He searcheth every human heart.

8 He knows my prayer,
My soul's deep hidden craving,
And all I do
Of good or ill behaving;—
Unharm'd I rest in His good care.

5 Who can conceive
Creation's countless wonders?
The smallest dust,
The sun, the clouds, and thunders
To God their homage duly give.

9 All I may claim
To Him, my God, belongeth;
While I have breath
My soul sincerely longeth
To laud His great and glorious Name.

10 God is my Shield,
My good and sure Defender;
What care I now
For worldly pomp and splendor,—
'Gainst fiercest foe the sword I wield.

1. { How great Thy goodness, heav'nly Father! Is he a man that ev - er feels } { Thy countless mercies round him gather And yet no grat - i - tude re - veals? }

O that my high-est du - ty ev - er Be this: to fath-om His deep love;

The Lord hath me for-got-ten nev - er, Praise thou, my soul, the Lord a - bove.

(Or to Knecht.)

2 Who hath in heavenly wisdom made me?
 Thou God, who art omnipotent
 Who hath by patient guidance led me?
 The One; whose counsel brings content,
 Who giveth peace to troubled conscience,
 Who fills my heart with hope Divine
 And drives away the fear of vengeance?
 'Tis His strong arm and grace sublime.

3 Look, O my soul, into yon regions
 To which thy Maker calleth thee;
 When thou with glorious, happy legions
 Thy God forever clear shalt see.
 Rejoicing sweet beyond is offered,
 To every soul eternal life
 Since Jesus Christ, the Saviour, suffered
 And rose,—the Victor in the strife.

4 O worship God in truth and spirit,
 His loving-kindness understand!
 His solemn call, O seek to heed it,
 Press onward under His command;

His will upon my heart impress'd,
 And in His word distinctly taught,
 Doth render this the law most blessed:
 "Love thou thy neighbor and thy God!"

5 In gratitude, this law observing,
 To gain perfection, God I fear;
 And thus, from duty never swerving,
 The Maker's image may appear!
 If love Divine my soul doth quicken
 Each duty promptly to fulfill,
 I know, though sins around me thicken,
 I serve alone the Master's will.

6 O God display Thy loving-kindness
 My grandest vision e'er to be,
 To strengthen all my good impulses
 My life and all to give to Thee;
 Thy love my comfort when I languish,
 My guide in days of sunshine clear;
 In death's approach,—the final anguish,—
 Allay all doubt, allay all fear.

1. O God, my Strength and For - ti - tude, Of force I must love Thee;
Thou art my Cas - tle and De - fense In my ne - ces - si - ty.

2 The Lord Jehovah is my God,
My Rock, my Strength, my Wealth;
My strong Deliverer, and my Trust,
My spirit's only Health.

3 In my distress I sought my God,
I sought Jehovah's face:
My cry before Him came; He heard
Out of His holy place.

4 The Lord descended from above
And bowed the heavens most high,
And underneath His feet He cast
The darkness of the sky.

5 On cherub and on cherubim
Full royally He rode,
And on the wings of mighty winds
Came flying all abroad.

6 The voice of God did thunder high,
The lightnings answered keen;
The channels of the deep were bared,
The world's foundations seen.

7 And so delivered He my soul:
Who is a rock but He?
He liveth—blessèd be my Rock;
My God exalted be.

THE ANGELS.

81 TABOR. 8. 8. 8. 8.

Dr. Charles Steggall, 1826.

1. In - spir - er and Hear - er of prayer, Thou Shepherd and Guardian of Thine,
My all to Thy cov - e - nant care, I, sleep - ing or wak - ing, re - sign.

2 If Thou art my Shield and my Sun,
The night is no darkness to me;
And, fast as my minutes roll on,
They bring me but nearer to Thee.

3 A sovereign Protector I have,
Unseen, yet forever at hand;
Unchangeably faithful to save,
Almighty to rule and command.

4 His smiles and His comforts abound,
His grace, as the dew, shall descend;
And walls of salvation surround
The soul He delights to defend.

5 Thy ministering spirits descend.
To watch while Thy saints are asleep;

By day and by night they attend,
The heirs of salvation to keep.

6 Bright seraphs, dispatched from the throne,
Repair to their stations assigned;
And angels elect are sent down
To guard the elect of mankind.

7 Their worship no interval knows:
Their fervor is still on the wing;
And, while they protect my repose,
They chant to the praise of my King.

8 I, too, at the season ordained,
Their chorus forever shall join;
And love and adore, without end,
Their faithful Creator and mine.

Rev. A. M. Toplady, 1774.

80 ST. JOHN. 6. 6. 6. 6. 8. 8.

2 Their golden crowns they fling
Before His throne of light,
And strike the rapturous string,
Unceasing, day and night:
"Earth, heaven, and sea, Thy praise declare;
For Thine they are, and Thine shall be.

3 "O Holy, Holy Lord,
Creation's sovereign King!
Thy majesty adored
Let all creation sing;
Who wast, and art, and art to be;
Nor time shall see Thy sway depart.

4 "Great are Thy works of praise,
O God of boundless might;
All just and true Thy ways,
Thou King of saints, in light:
Let all above, and all below,
Conspire to show Thy power and love.

5 "Who shall not fear Thee, Lord,
And magnify Thy Name?
Thy judgments, sent abroad,
Thy holiness proclaim:
Nations shall throng from every shore,
And all adore in one loud song."

6 While thus the powers on high
Their swelling chorus raise,
Let earth and man reply,
And echo back the praise:
His glory own, first, last, and best;
God ever blest, and God alone.

Wittenberg, 1535.

2 He spoke to His beloved Son,
With infinite compassion:
"Go hence, my heart's most precious one
Be to the lost salvation;
Death, his relentless tyrant, stay,
And bear him from his sins away
With Thee to live forever!"

3 The Son came, saying: "Cling to me,
Thy sorrows now are ending;
Freely I give Myself to thee,
Thy life with mine defending;
For I am thine and thou art mine,
And when I am there thou shalt shine,
The foe shall never reach us."

4 "To heaven again I rise from hence,
High to my Father soaring,
Thy Master there to be, and thence
My Spirit on thee pouring:
In every grief to comfort thee,
And teach thee more and more of me,
Into all truth still guiding."

5 "What I have done and taught on earth,
Do thou, and teach, none dreading;
That so God's kingdom may go forth,
And His high praise be spreading;
And guard thee from the words of men,
Lest the great joy be lost again:
This my last charge I leave thee."

2 Can aught beneath a power Divine
The stubborn will subdue?
'Tis Thine, almighty Saviour, Thine,
To form the heart anew.

3 'Tis Thine the passions to recall,
And upward bid them rise,
And make the scales of error fall
From reason's darkened eyes;

4 To chase the shades of death away,
And bid the sinner live;
A beam of heaven, a vital ray,
'Tis Thine alone to give.

5 O change these wretched hearts of ours,
And give them life Divine!
Then shall our passions and our powers,
Almighty Lord, be Thine.

Anne Steele, 1760.

1 All that I was, my sin, my guilt,
My death, was all my own;
All that I am, I owe to Thee,
My gracious God, alone.

2 The evil of my former state
Was mine, and only mine;
The good in which I now rejoice
Is Thine, and only Thine.

3 The darkness of my former state,
The bondage, all was mine;
The light of life in which I walk,
The liberty, is Thine.

4 Thy grace first made me feel my sin,
It taught me to believe;
Then in believing, peace I found,
And now I live, I live.

5 All that I am, even here on earth,
All that I hope to be
When Jesus comes and glory dawns,
I owe it, Lord, to Thee.

1. Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates! Behold the King of glo-ry waits; The King of kings is drawing near, The Sav-iour of the world is here; Life and sal-va-tion

He doth bring, Wherefore re-joice, and glad-ly sing: We praise Thee, Father now,

Cre - a - tor, wise art Thou.

2 The Lord is just, a Helper tried,
Mercy is ever at His side;
His kingly crown is holiness,
His sceptre, pity in distress,
The end of all our woe He brings;
Wherefore the earth is glad and sings:
We praise Thee, Saviour, now,
Mighty in deed art Thou!

3 O blest the land, the city blest,
Where Christ the Ruler is confest!
O happy hearts and happy homes
To whom this King in triumph comes!

The cloudless Sun of joy He is,
Who bringeth pure delight and bliss:
O Comforter Divine,
What boundless grace is Thine!

4 Fling wide the portals of your heart;
Make it a temple, set apart
From earthly use for heaven's employ,
Adorned with prayer, and love, and joy;
So shall your Sovereign enter in,
And new and nobler life begin:
To Thee, O God, be praise,
For word and deed and grace!

5 Redeemer, come! I open wide
My heart to Thee; here, Lord, abide!
Let me Thy inner presence feel,
Thy grace and love in me reveal;
The Holy Spirit guide us on,
Until the glorious crown be won!
Eternal praise and fame
We offer to Thy Name.

2 O Sovereign, by no host attended!
Strong Champion, by no spear defended!
O Prince of Peace, and David's Son!—
Thy throne, from whose approach for ever,
The kings of earth Thy steps would sever,
Is by Thee, without battle, won.

4 And at Thy coming, clothed with power,
The sullen storm forgets to lower,
And waves grow calm beneath Thy tread;
The bonds, by man's rebellion blighted,
In a new covenant are united,
And sin and death in fetters led.

3 Unto the empire Thou hast founded,
Though not of earth, nor by earth bounded,
All earthly realms shall subject be:
Forth into every land and nation,
Thy servants, armed with Thy salvation,
March to prepare a way for Thee.

5 O Lord of grace and truth unending,
And love all reach of thought transcending,
Revisit us, so sorely tried!
Thine Advent once again is needed,
To form anew Thy peace, unheeded
By worldly haughtiness and pride.

6 O let Thy light, which ne'er shall vanish,
From earth the power of darkness banish!
The lurid flames of discord quell;
That we, the thrones and people loyal,
As brethren 'neath Thy sceptre royal,
In Thy great Father's house may dwell.

Where Thy light I do not see;
O my Saviour, blessed Lord!
When wilt Thou return to me?

3 Nearer is my soul's salvation.
Spent the night, the day at hand;
Keep me in my lowly station,
Watching for Thee, till I stand,
O my Saviour, blessed Lord!
In Thy bright, Thy promised land,

Swift to hear and slow to roam,
Watching for Thy glad returning
To restore me to my home.
Come my Saviour, blessed Lord!
Thou hast promised: quickly come.

In Satan's bondage held:
The gates of brass before Him burst,

The iron fetters yield,

4 He comes, from thickest films of vice
To clear the mental ray,
And on the eyeballs of the blind
To pour celestial day,
To pour celestial day.

5 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And would with treasures of His grace
Enrich the humble poor,
Enrich the humble poor.

1. While shepherds watched their flocks by night, All seat-ed on the ground; The an-gel of the Lord came down, And glo-ry shone a-round, And glo-ry shone a-round.

- 2 "Fear not," said he—for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind—
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring,
To you and all mankind.
3 "To you, in David's town this day,
Is born of David's line,
The Saviour, who is Christ, the Lord,
And this shall be the sign:
4 "The heavenly babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,

- All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."
5 Thus spake the seraph; and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels, praising God, who thus
Addressed their joyful song:
6 "All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
Good-will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin, and never cease!"

Choos-ing a man-ger for Thy throne, While worlds on worlds are Thine alone.

A Virgin's arms contain Thee now;
Angels, who did in Thee rejoice,
Now listen for Thine infant voice.
3 A little Child, Thou art our Guest
That weary ones in Thee may rest:
Forlorn and lowly is Thy birth,
That we may rise to heaven from earth.

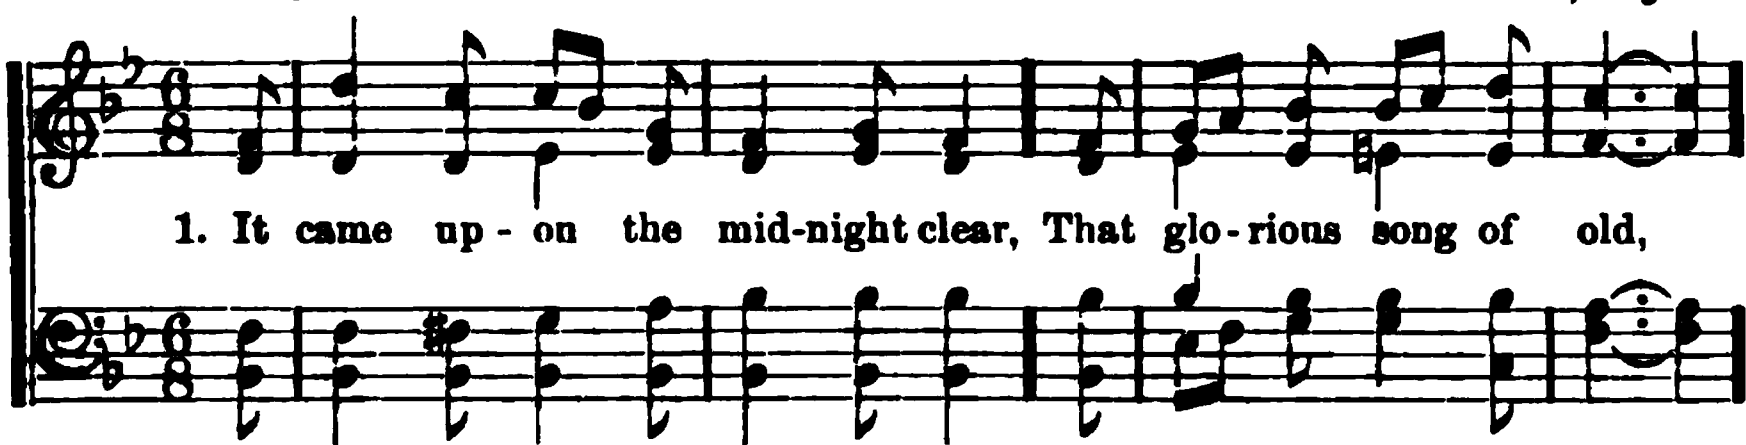

- 4 Thou comest in the darksome night,
To make us children of the light,
To make us, in the realms Divine,
Like Thine own angels, round Thee shine.
5 All this for us Thy love hath done;
By this to Thee our love is won;
For this we tune our cheerful lays,
And shout our thanks in ceaseless praise.

1. It came up - on the mid-night clear, That glo - rious song of old,

From an - gels bend-ing near the earth To touch their harps of gold :

"Peace on the earth, good will to men, From heaven's all gra - cious King :"

The world in sol - emn still - ness lay, To hear the an - gels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world :
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel-sounds
The blessed angels sing.

3 And ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow,—

Look now ! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing :
O rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

4 For lo, the days are hastening on,
By prophets bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold ;
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world give back the song
Which now the angels sing.

Sweet-est an - gel voic - es: "Christ is born," their choirs are sing - ing
Till the air ev - 'ry - where Now with joy is ring - ing.

2 Hark! a voice from yonder manger,
Soft and sweet, doth entreat:
"Flee from woe and danger;
Brethren, come: from all that grieves you
You are freed; all you need
I will surely give you."

3 Come, then, let us hasten yonder;
Here let all, great and small
Kneel in awe and wonder;
Love Him who with love is yearning;
Hail the Star, that from far
Bright with hope is burning!

4 Ye who pine in weary sadness,
Weep no more, for the door
Now is found of gladness.
Cling to Him, for He will guide you
Where no cross, pain or loss,
Can again betide you.

5 Hither come, ye heavy-hearted,
Who for sin, deep within,
Long and sore have smarted:

From the poisoned wounds you're feeling
Help is near; One is here
Mighty for their healing.

6 Hither come, ye poor and wretchèd;
Know His will is to fill
Every hand outstretchèd;
Here are riches without measure,
Here forget all regret
Fill your hearts with treasure.

7 Blessed Saviour, let me find Thee!
Keep Thou me close to Thee,
Cast me not behind Thee!
Life of life, my heart Thou stillest
Calm I rest, on Thy breast,
All this void Thou fillest.

8 Heedfully my Lord I'll cherish,
Live to Thee, and with Thee,
Dying, shall not perish;
But shall dwell with Thee forever,
Far on high, in the joy
That can alter never.

A Child, yet makest all things great ;
Poor, yet is earth Thy robe of state.

4 Now fearless I can look on Thee :
From sin and grief Thou set'st me free :
Thou bearest wrath, Thou conquerest death,
Fear turns to joy Thy glance beneath.

5 Thou art my Head, my Lord Divine :

2 For Christ is born of Mary,
And gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wond'ring love.
O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King
And peace to men on earth.

3 How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

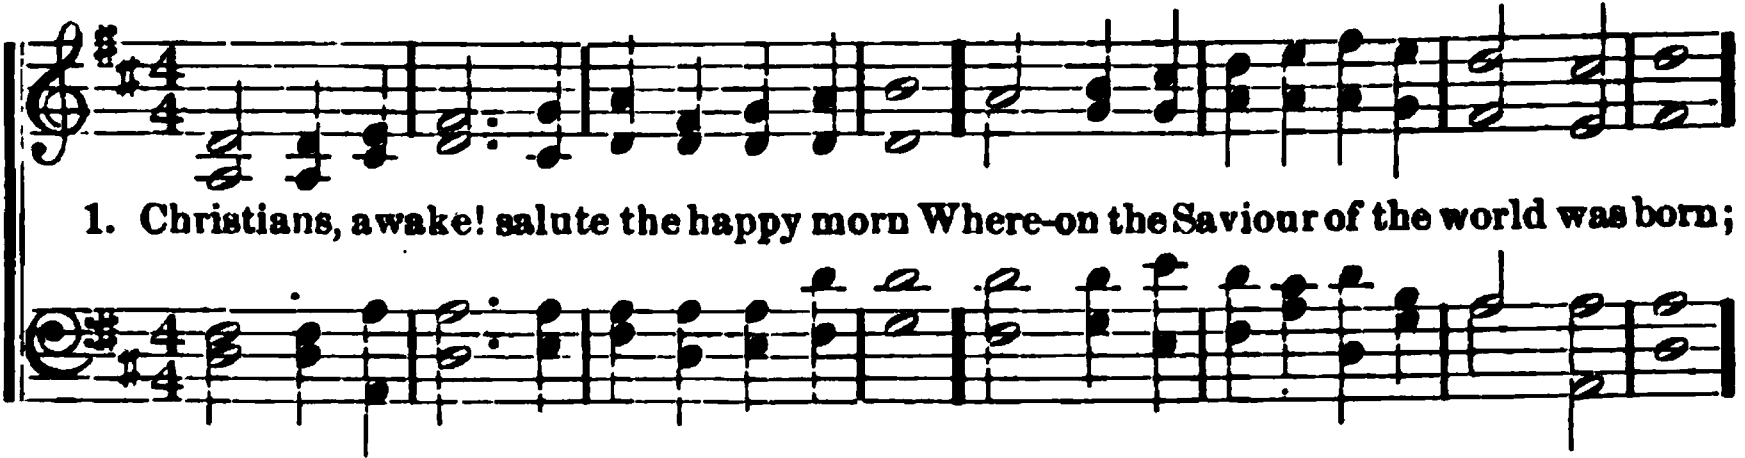

4 O Holy Child of Bethlehem!
Descend to us, we pray;

1. Christians, awake! salute the happy morn Where-on the Saviour of the world was born;

Rise to a-dore the mys-ter-y of love Which hosts of angels chanted from a - bove:

With them the joyful tidings first be-gun Of God In-carnate and the Vir-gin's Son.

- 2 Then to the watchful shepherd it was told,
Who heard the angelic herald's voice: "Behold,
I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth
To you, and all the nations upon earth:
This day hath God fulfilled His promised word;
This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord."
- 3 He spake: and straightway the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire;
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole orb with hallelujahs rang:
God's highest glory was their anthem still,
Peace upon earth, and mutual good will.
- 4 To Bethlehem straight the enlightened shepherds ran,
To see the wonder God had wrought for man;
And found, with Joseph and the blessed maid,
Her Son, the Saviour, in a manger laid:
Amazed, the wondrous story they proclaim,
The first apostles of His infant fame.
- 5 Let us, like these good shepherds, then, employ
Our grateful voices to proclaim the joy:
Trace we the Babe, who has retrieved our loss,
From His poor manger to His bitter cross;
Treading His steps, assisted by His grace,
Till man's first heavenly state again takes place.

2 Yes, Lord, Thy servants meet Thee,
E'en now, in every place
Where Thy true word hath promised
That they should see Thy face.
Thou yet wilt gently grant us,
Who gather round Thee here,
In faith's strong arms to bear Thee,
As once that aged seer.

3 Be Thou our joy, our brightness,
That shines 'mid pain and loss,
Our Sun in times of terror,
The glory round our cross;
A glow in sinking spirits,
A sunbeam in distress,
Physician, Friend in sickness,
In death our happiness.

4 Let us, O Lord, be faithful
With Simeon to the end,
That so his dying song may
From all our hearts ascend:
"O Lord, let now Thy servant
Depart in peace for aye,
Since I have seen my Saviour,
Have here beheld His day."

5 My Saviour, I behold Thee
Now with the eye of faith:
No foe of Thee can rob me,
Though bitter words he saith.

As Thou dost dwell in me,
No pain, no death hath terrors
To part my soul from Thee!

1 Hail to the Lord's Anointed,
Great David's greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression,
To set the captive free;
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

2 He comes with succor speedy
To those who suffer wrong;
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing;
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemned and dying,
Were precious in His sight.

3 He shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth;
And love, joy, hope, like flowers,
Spring in His path to birth.
Before Him, on the mountains,
Shall peace, the herald, go;
And righteousness, in fountains,
From hill to valley flow.

4 For Him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing,
A kingdom without end.
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove;
His Name shall stand for ever;
That Name to us is Love.

1. What star is this, with beams so bright, Which shame the sun's less radiant light?

It shines to show a new-born King, Glad tidings of our God to bring.

2 'Tis now fulfilled what God decreed,—
"From Jacob shall a Star proceed:"
And lo, the eastern sages stand,
To read in heaven the Lord's command.

4 True love can brook no dull delay,
Nor toil nor dangers stop their way:
Home, kindred, fatherland, and all,
They leave at once, at God's high call.

3 While outward signs the star displays,
An inward light the Lord conveys,
And urges them, with force benign,
To seek the Giver of the sign.

5 O Jesus, while the star of grace
Invites us now to seek Thy face,
May we no more that grace repel,
Or quench that light which shines so well!

May every tongue and nation raise
An endless song of thankful praise!

 Pure and free from sin's alloy,
 All our costliest treasures bring,
 Christ! to Thee our heav'nly King.

4 Holy Jesus! every day
 Keep us in the narrow way;
 And, when earthly things are past,
 Bring our ransomed souls at last
 Where they need no star to guide,
 Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

5 In the heav'nly country bright,
 Need they no created light;
 Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,
 Thou its Sun which goes not down,
 There forever may we sing
 Hallelujah to our King.

1. With - in the Fa-ther's house The Son hath found His home;

And to His tem-ple sud-den - ly The Lord of Life hath come.

2 The doctors of the law
Gaze on the wondrous child,
And marvel at His gracious words
Of wisdom undefiled.

5 Lord, visit Thou our souls
And teach us by Thy grace,
Each dim revealing of Thyself
With loving awe to trace;

3 Yet not to them is given
The mighty truth to know,
To lift the earthly veil which hides
Incarnate God below.

6 Till from our darkened sight
The cloud shall pass away,
And on the cleansed soul shall burst
The everlasting day;

4 The secret of the Lord
Escapes each human eye,
And faithful pondering hearts await
The full Epiphany.

7 Till we behold Thy face,
And know, as we are known,
Thee, Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
Co-equal Three in One.

1. How beauteous were the marks Di-vine, That in Thy meekness used to shine;
That lit Thy lone-ly path-way trod In wondrous love, O Son of God!

2 O who like Thee so calm, so bright,
Thou Son of Man, Thou Light of light?
O who like Thee did ever go
So patient through a world of woe!

3 O who like Thee so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men, before;
So meek, forgiving, Godlike, high,
So glorious in humility!

4 And all Thy life's unchanging years,
A man of sorrows and of tears,

The cross, where all our sins were laid,
Upon Thy bending shoulders weighed;

5 And death, which sets the prisoner free,
Was pang and scoff and scorn to Thee;
Yet love through all Thy torture glowed,
And mercy with Thy life-blood flowed.

6 O in Thy light be mine to go,
Illuming all my way of woe!

2 O Way, thro' whom our souls draw near
To yon eternal home of peace,
Where perfect love shall cast out fear,
And earth's vain toil and wand'ring cease;
In strength or weakness may we see
Our heavenward path, O Lord, thro' Thee.

3 O Truth, before whose shrine we bow,
Thou priceless pearl for all who seek,
To Thee our earliest strength we vow,
Thy love will bless the pure and meek;
When dreams or mists beguile our sight,
Turn Thou our darkness into light.

4 O Life, the well that ever flows
To slake the thirst of those that faint,
Thy power to bless what seraph knows?
The joy supreme what words can paint?
In earth's last hour of fleeting breath
Be Thou our Conqueror over death.

5 O Light, O Way, O Truth, O Life,
O Jesus, born mankind to save,
Give Thou Thy peace in deadliest strife,
Shed Thou Thy calm on stormiest wave;
Be Thou our hope, our joy, our dread,
Lord of the living and the dead.

1. Be-hold, the Mas - ter pass - eth by! O see'st thou not His plead-ing eye?

With low sad voice He call - eth thee, "Leave this vain world, and fol-low Me."

- 2 O soul, bowed down with harrowing care,
Hast thou no thought for heaven to spare?
From earthly toils lift up thine eyes;
Behold, the Master passeth by!
- 3 One heard Him calling long ago,
And straightway left all things below,
Counting his earthly gain as loss
For Jesus and His blessed cross.
- 4 That "Follow Me" his faithful ear
Seemed every day afresh to hear:
Its echoes stirred his spirit still,
And fired his hope, and nerved his will.
- 5 God gently calls us every day:
Why should we then our bliss delay?
Thou, Lord, e'en now art calling me;
I will leave all, and follow Thee.

- 1 My dear Redeemer, and my Lord!
I read my duty in Thy word;
But in Thy life the law appears,
Drawn out in living characters.
- 2 Such was Thy truth, and such Thy zeal,
Such deference to Thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so Divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.
- 3 Cold mountains and the midnight air
Witnessed the fervor of Thy prayer;
The desert Thy temptations knew,
Thy conflict and Thy victory too.

2 The weary bird hath left the air,
And sunk into his sheltered nest;
The wandering beast has sought his lair,
And laid him down to welcome rest.

3 Still near the lake, with weary tread
Lingers a form of human kind;
And on His lone, unsheltered head,
Flows the chill night-damp of the wind.

4 Why seeks He not a home of rest?
Why seeks He not a pillowed bed?
Beasts have their dens, the bird its nest,
He hath not where to lay His head.

And through His poverty there flows
A rich, full stream of heavenly grace.

1. What grace, O Lord, and beau-ty shone A - round Thy steps be - low ;

What pa - tient love was seen in all Thy life and death of woe.

- 2 For, ever on Thy burdened heart
A weight of sorrow hung ;
Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
Escaped Thy silent tongue.
- 3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
Thy friends unfaithful prove ;
Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.
- 4 O give us hearts to love like Thee !
Like Thee, O Lord, to grieve
Far more for others' sin than all
The wrongs that we receive.
- 5 One with Thyself, may every eye,
In us, Thy brethren, see
The gentleness and grace that spring
From union, Lord, with Thee.

- 1 Thou art the Way ; to Thee alone
From sin and death we flee ;
And he who would the Father seek Must seek Him, Lord, by Thee.
- 2 Thou art the Truth ; Thy word alone
True wisdom can impart ;
Thou only canst inform the mind,
And purify the heart.
- 3 Thou art the Life ; the rending tomb
Proclaims Thy conquering arm ;
And those who put their trust in Thee
Nor death nor hell shall harm.

The life of toil, the mean abode,
The faithless kiss, the crown of thorn,—
Are these the consecrated road?

3 'Twas thus He suffered, though a Son,
Foreknowing, choosing, feeling all,
Until the perfect work was done,
And drunk the bitter cup of gall.

4 Lord, should my path through suffering lie,
Forbid it I should e'er repine;
Still let me turn to Calvary,
Nor heed my griefs, remembering Thine.

5 O let me think how Thou didst leave
Untasted every pure delight,
To fast, to faint, to watch, to grieve,
The toilsome day, the homeless night:—

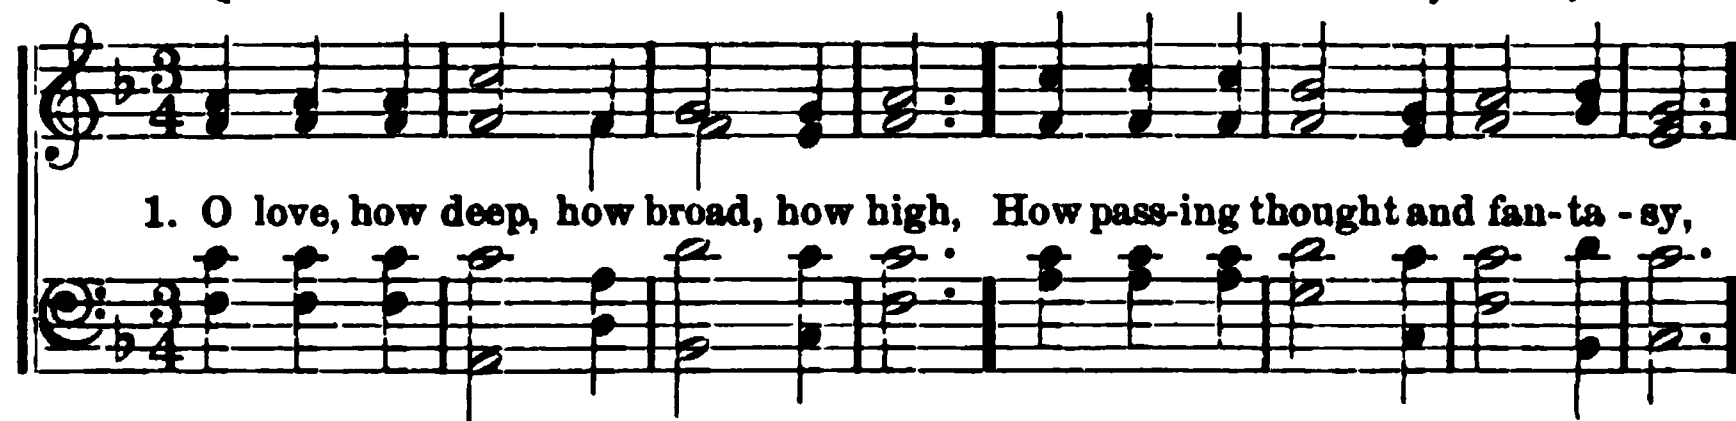

6 To faint, to grieve, to die for me!
Thou camest, not Thyself to please;
And, dear as earthly comforts be,
Shall I not love Thee more than these?

2 Our outward lips confess the Name
All other names above;
Love only knoweth whence it came,
And comprehendeth love.

3 We may not climb the heavenly steeps
To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For Him no depths can drown.

4 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is He;
And faith has still its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.

5 The healing of His seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.

6 Thro' Him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame,
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with His Name.

141 LAND OF REST. C. M. D.

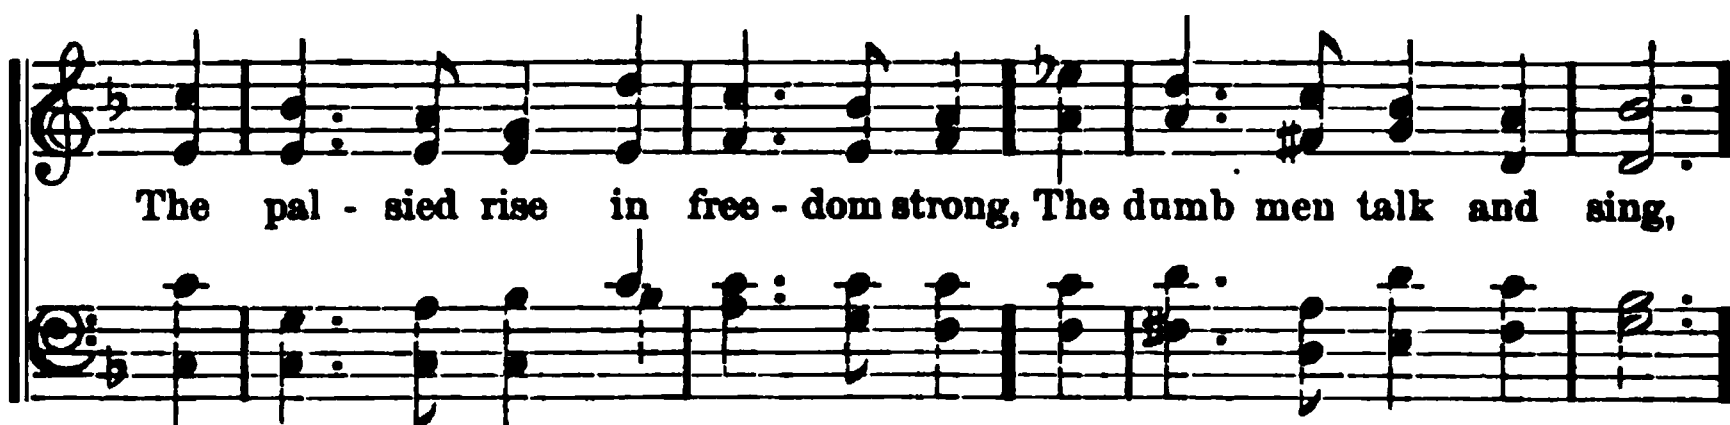

Richard S. Newman, 1879.

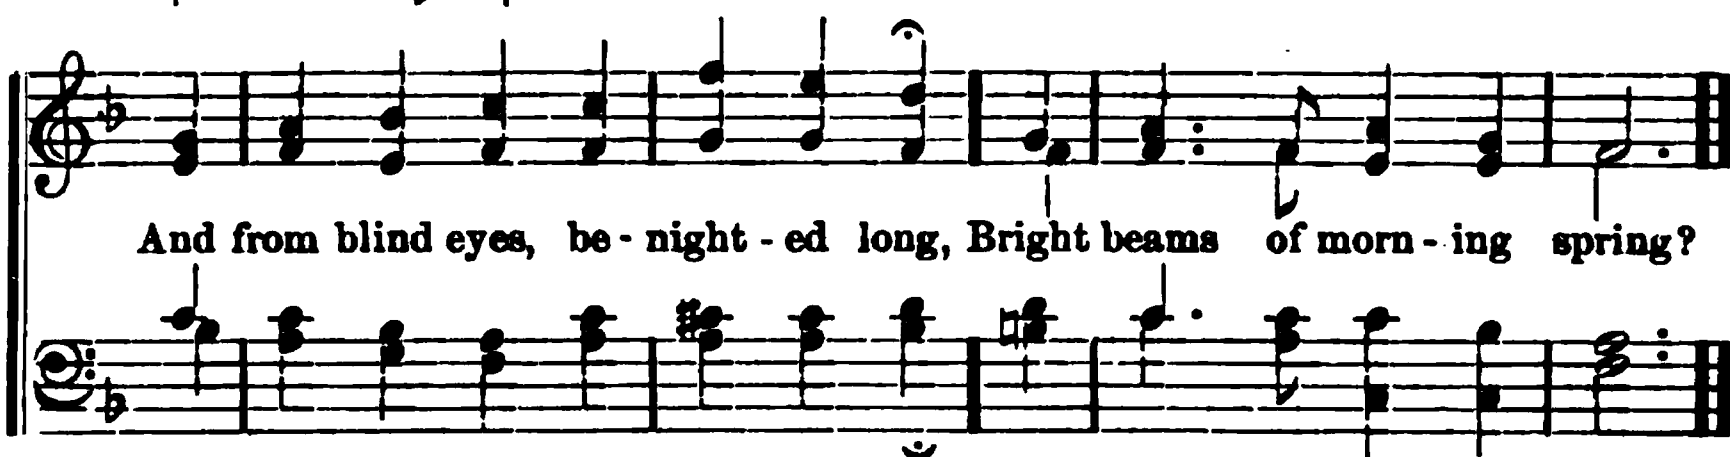

1. O where is He that trod the sea, O where is He that spake,

And de - mons from their vic-tims flee, The dead their slum-bers break:

The pal - sied rise in free - dom strong, The dumb men talk and sing,

And from blind eyes, be - night - ed long, Bright beams of morn - ing spring?

2 O where is He that trod the sea,
O where is He that spake,
And piercing words of liberty
The deaf ears open shake;
And mildest words arrest the haste
Of fever's daily fire,
And strong ones heal the weak who waste
Their life in sad desire?

3 O where is He that trod the sea,
O where is He that spake,
And dark waves rolling heavily
A glassy smoothness take;
And lepers, whose own flesh has been
A solitary grave,
See with amaze that they are clean,
And cry, "'Tis He can save?"

4 O where is He that trod the sea?
'Tis only He can save;
To thousands hungering wearily
A wondrous meal He gave;
Full soon, celestially fed,
Their rustic fare they take;
'Twas springtide when He blest the bread,
And harvest when He brake.

5 O where is He that trod the sea?
My soul, the Lord is here:
Let all thy fears be hushed in thee;
To leap, to look, to hear
Be thine: thy needs He'll satisfy.
Art thou diseased or dumb,
Or dost thou in thine hunger cry?
"I come," saith Christ, "I come."

2 All is dying: hearts are breaking,
Which to ours were once fast bound;
And the lips have ceased from speaking
Which once uttered such sweet sound;
And the arms are powerless lying
Which were our support and stay;
And the eyes are dim and dying,
Which once watched us night and day.

3 Every thing we love and cherish
Hastens onward to the grave
Earthly joys and pleasures perish
And whate'er the world e'er gave:
All is fading, all is fleeing,
Earthly flames must cease to glow;
Earthly beings cease from being,
Earthly blossoms cease to blow.

4 Yet unchanged, while all decayeth,
Jesus stands above the dust;
"Lean on Me alone," He sayeth,
"Hope and love and firmly trust!"
O abide, abide with Jesus,
Who Himself for ever lives,
Who from death eternal frees us,
Yea, who life eternal gives!

And songs the break of day.

3 "Come unto Me, ye fainting,

O, peaceful voice of Jesus,
Which comes to end our strife:

The foe is stern and eager,
The fight is fierce and long;
But Thou hast made me mighty,
And stronger than the strong.

4 "And whosoever cometh

2 We pray Thee, grant us strength to take
Our daily cross, whate'er it be,
And gladly for Thine own dear sake
In paths of pain to follow Thee.

3 As on our daily way we go,
Through light or shade, in calm or strife,
O may we bear Thy marks below
In conquered sin and chastened life.

4 And week by week this day we ask
That holy memories of Thy cross
May sanctify each common task,
And turn to gain each earthly loss.

5 Grant us, dear Lord, our cross to bear
Till at Thy feet we lay it down,
Win through Thy blood our pardon there,
And through the cross attain the crown.

 O Love, O Love! how strong art Thou!
 In shroud and grave Thou lay'st Him low
 Whose word the mountain rendeth!
- 3 Jesus, I never can forget
 The pangs Thou hast sustained:
 I'll Thee, long as my pulse doth beat,
 Adore with thanks unfeignèd;
 Yea, Thou shalt be my soul's delight;

In danger's path, in sorrow's night,
 My guide and consolation:
 In life and death I will be Thine,
 And on Thy faithfulness recline
 With humble resignation.

- 4 My song in Thy great loveliness
 Both day and night shall centre;
 Amidst all wants and feebleness
 I'll on Thy service venture.
 My life's whole stream for Thee shall flow;
 O may, by all I speak or do,
 Thy holy Name be praised,
 And all that Thou hast done for me,
 Upon my heart indelibly
 Forever I'll impress it.

THE PASSION.

5 True comfort Thou to me canst yield
 In my life's various stations;
 In combat Thou dost prove my shield,
 In grief, my exultation;
 In joy, the music of my feast;
 And when all else has lost its zest
 This manna shall support me
 In thirst, my drink; in want, my food,
 My company in solitude,
 At home and on a journey.

6 What harm can I from death sustain,
 Since Thou art my salvation;
 From heat my shade, my ease in pain,
 In grief, my consolation;
 When gloomy thoughts oppress my breast,

Thou, Lord, alone canst give me rest;
 'Tis by Thy power I conquer:
 Thou art, when storms of trial blow,
 And toss my vessel to and fro,
 My sure and steadfast anchor.

7 And when at last Thou ledest me
 Into Thy joy and heaven,
 Thy blood and righteousness shall be
 My glorious decoration:
 Then on my head a crown wilt place,
 Then shall I stand before the face
 Of Thy dear heavenly Father
 Dressed in salvation's robe, with Thee
 To live through all eternity
 In bliss no tongue can utter.

1. Go to dark Geth - sem - a - ne, Ye that feel the tempter's pow'r;
 Your Re - deem - er's con - flict see; Watch with Him one bit - ter hour:
 Turn not from His griefs a - way; Learn of Je - sus Christ to pray.

2 Follow to the judgment-hall;
 View the Lord of life arraigned:
 O the wormwood and the gall!
 O the pangs His soul sustained!
 Shun not suffering, shame, or loss;
 Learn of Him to bear the cross.

3 Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
 There, adoring at His feet,
 Mark that miracle of time,
 God's own Sacrifice complete:
 "It is finished," hear Him cry:
 Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

4 Early hasten to the tomb,
 Where they laid His breathless clay;
 All is solitude and gloom,
 —Who hath taken Him away?
 Christ is risen; He meets our eyes;
 Saviour, teach us so to rise.

152 HERZLIEBSTER JESU. 11. 11. 11. 5.

Johann Crüger, 1640.

1. What laws, my bless - ed Sav - iour, hast Thou bro - ken,
That so se - vere a sentence should be spo - ken? How hast Thou 'gainst Thy Fa - ther's will con - ten - ded, In what of - fen - ded?

- 2 With scourges, blows and spitting, they reviled Thee:
They crowned Thy brow with thorns while King they styled Thee;
When, faint with pains Thy tortured body suffered,
Then gall they offered.
- 3 Dear Saviour, why by woes wast Thou surrounded?
Ah, Lord, for my transgressions Thou wast wounded,
God took the guilt from me, who should have paid it;
On Thee He laid it!
- 4 How strange and marvellous was this correction!
Falls the good Shepherd in His sheep's protection;
The servants' debt behold the Master paying,
For them obeying.
- 5 The Righteous dies, who walked with God true-hearted:
The sinner lives, who has from God departed;
By man came death, yet Man its fetters breaketh;
God it o'ertaketh.
- 6 Eternal King! in power and love excelling,
Fain would my heart and mouth Thy praise be telling;
But how can man's weak powers at all come nigh Thee,
How magnify Thee?
- 7 For Thee, my God, I'll bear all griefs and losses:
No persecution, no disgrace or crosses,
No pains of death or tortures e'er shall move me,
Howe'er they prove me.

THE PASSION.

8 This, though at little value Thou dost set it,
Yet Thou, O gracious Lord, wilt not forget it;
E'en this Thou wilt accept with grace and favor,
My blessèd Saviour.

9 But since I have not strength to flee temptation
To crucify each sinful inclination,
O let Thy Spirit, grace, and strength provide me,
And gently guide me.

10 And when, O Christ, before Thy throne so glorious,
Upon my head is placed the crown victorious,
Thy praise I will, while heaven's full choir is ringing,
Be ever singing.

Thou-sand, thou-sand thanks shall be, Blessed Je - sus, un - to Thee.

2 Thou, ah, Thou, hast taken on Thee
Bitter strokes, a cruel rod;
Pain and scorn were heaped upon Thee,
O Thou sinless Son of God!
Only thus for me to win
Rescue from the bonds of sin;
Thousand, thousand thanks shall be,
Blessèd Jesus, unto Thee.

3 Thou didst bear the smiting, only
That it might not fall on me;
Stoodest falsely charged and lonely,
That I might be safe and free;

Comfortless, that I might know
Comfort from Thy boundless woe;
Thousand, thousand thanks shall be,
Blessèd Jesus, unto Thee.

4 Then for all that wrought our pardon,
For Thy sorrows deep and sore,
For Thine anguish in the garden,

Thank Thee with my latest breath
For Thy sad and cruel death;
For that last and bitter cry,
Praise Thee evermore on high.

1. 'Tis midnight; and on Ol-ive's brow The star is dimm'd that lately shone:

'Tis midnight; in the gar-den now, The suff'ring Saviour prays a-lone.

2 'Tis midnight—and, from all removed,
Emmanuel wrestles lone, with fears;
E'en the disciple that He loved
Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.

3 'Tis midnight—and, for others' guilt,
The Man of sorrows weeps in blood;

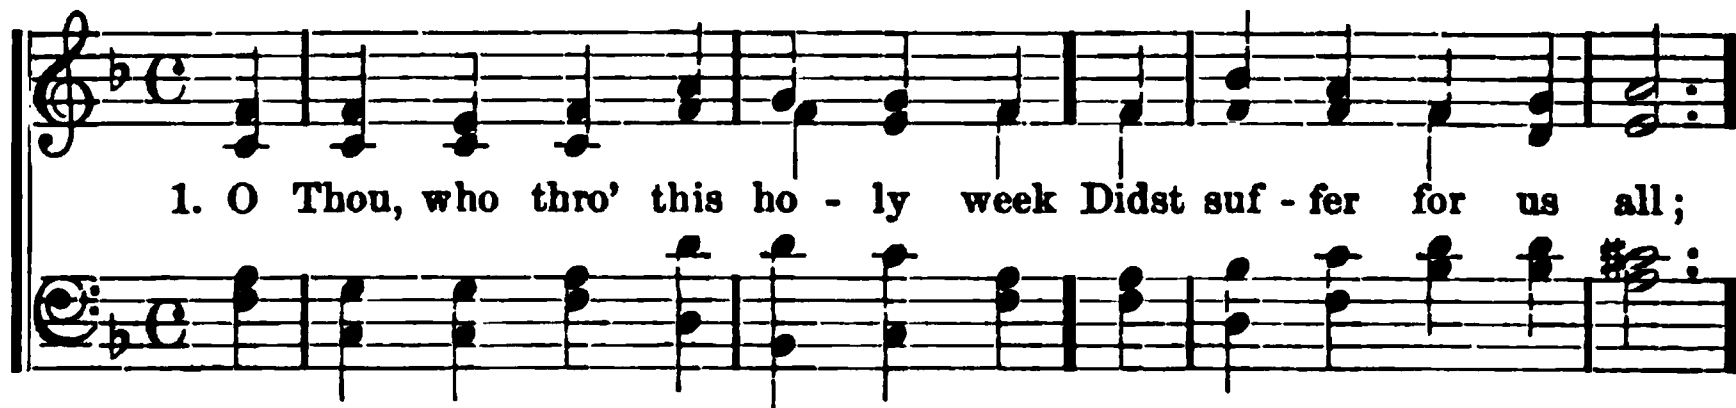

Yet He, who hath in anguish knelt,
Is not forsaken by His God.

4 'Tis midnight—from the heavenly plains,
Is borne the song that angels know;
Unheard by mortals are the strains
That sweetly soothe the Saviour's woe.

John Daye's Psalter, 1562.

1. O Thou, who thro' this ho-ly week Didst suf-fer for us all;

The sick to heal, the lost to seek, To raise up them that fall:

2 We cannot understand the woe
Thy love was pleased to bear:
O Lamb of God, we only know
That all our hopes are there.

3 Thy feet the path of suffering trod,
Thy hand the victory won:

What shall we render to our God
For all that He hath done?

4 To God, the blessed Three in One,
All praise and glory be:
Crown, Lord, Thy servants who have won
The victory through Thee.

2 Sweet resting-place of every heart
That feels the plague of sin,
Yet knows that deep mysterious joy,
The peace of God within.

3 Dear suffering Lamb, Thy bleeding wounds,
With cords of love Divine,
Have drawn our willing hearts to Thee,
And linked our life with Thine.

4 Thy sympathies and hopes are ours;
Dear Lord, we wait to see
Creation, all, below, above,
Redeemed and blest by Thee.

5 Our longing eyes would fain behold
That bright and blessed brow,
Once wrung with bitterest anguish, wear
Its crown of glory now.

6 Why linger, then? Come, Saviour, come,
Responsive to our call!
Come, claim Thine ancient power and reign
The heir and Lord of all.

Sir Samuel Denny, 1839.

1 Alas! and did my Saviour bleed?
And did my Sov'reign die?
Would He devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?

2 Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When He, the mighty Maker, died
For man, the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face
While His dear cross appears,
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.

| 2 Draw near, O world! and mark Him well;
Behold the drops of blood that tell
How sore His conflict with the foe;
And hark! how from that noble heart
Sigh after sigh doth slowly start,
From depths of yet unfathomed woe. | 5 'Tis I to whom these pains belong,
'Tis I should suffer for my wrong,
Bound hand and foot in heavy chains;
Thy scourge, Thy fetters, whatso'er
Thou bearest, 'tis my soul should bear,
For she hath well deserved such pains. |
| 3 Alas! my Saviour, who could dare
Bid Thee such bitter anguish bear,
What evil heart entreat Thee thus?
For Thou art good, hast wronged none;
As we and ours too oft have done:
Thou hast not sinned, dear Lord, like us. | 6 Yet Thou dost even for my sake
On Thee, in love, the burdens take,
That weighed my spirit to the ground.
Yea: Thou art made a curse for me,
That I might yet be blest through Thee:
My healing in Thy wounds is found. |
| 4 I and my sins, that number more
Than yonder sands upon the shore,
Have brought to pass this agony.
'Tis I have caused the floods of woe
That now Thy dying soul o'erflow,
And those sad hearts that watch by Thee. | 7 Thy cross shall be before my sight
My hope, my joy by day and night,
Whate'er I do, where'er I rove;
And, gazing, I will gather thence
The form of spotless innocence,
The seal of faultless truth and love. |

THE PASSION.

8 And I will nail me to Thy cross,
And learn to count all things but dross
Wherein the flesh doth pleasure take:
Whate'er is hateful in Thine eyes,
With all the strength that in me lies,
Will I cast from me and forsake.

9 Thy heavy groans, Thy bitter sighs,
The tears that from Thy dying eyes
Were shed when Thou wast sore oppressed,
Shall be with me, when at the last
Myself on Thee I wholly cast,
And enter with Thee into rest.

2 Behold the Lamb of God!
Into the sacred flood
Of Thy most precious blood
My soul I cast;
Wash me and make me clean within,
And keep me pure from every sin,
Till life be past.

3 Behold the Lamb of God!
All hail, Incarnate Word,
Thou everlasting Lord,
Saviour most blest;
Fill us with love that never faints,
Grant us, with all Thy blessed saints,
Eternal rest.

4 Behold the Lamb of God!
Worthy is He alone
That sitteth on the throne
Of God above;
One with the Ancient of all days,
One with the Comforter in praise,
All light and love.

160 PASSION CHORALE. 7. 6. 7. 6. D.

Hans Leo Hassler, 1601.
Harmonized by Joh. Sebastian Bach, 1729.

1. { O sa - cred Head, now wounded, With grief and shame weighed down; }
 { Now scorn-ful - ly sur - round-ed With thorns, Thine on - ly crown; }

O sa - cred Head, what glo - ry, What bliss till now was Thine!

Yet, though de-spised and go - ry, I joy to call Thee mine.

2 O noblest brow and dearest,
 In other days the world
 All feared when Thou appearedst;
 What shame on Thee is hurled!
 How art Thou pale with anguish,
 With sore abuse and scorn;
 How does that visage languish
 Which once was bright as morn!

3 What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered
 Was all for sinners' gain:
 Mine, mine was the transgression,
 But Thine the deadly pain..
 Lo, here I fall, my Saviour!
 'Tis I deserve Thy place;
 Look on me with Thy favor,
 Vouchsafe to me Thy grace.

4 Receive me, my Redeemer:
 My Shepherd, make me Thine;
 Of every good the fountain,
 Thou art the spring of mine.

Thy lips with love distilling,
 And milk of truth sincere,
 With heaven's bliss are filling
 The soul that trembles here.

5 The joy can ne'er be spoken,
 Above all joys beside,
 When in Thy body broken
 I thus with safety hide:
 My Lord of Life, desiring
 Thy glory now to see,
 Beside Thy cross expiring,
 I'd breathe my soul to Thee.

6 What language shall I borrow
 To thank Thee, dearest Friend,
 For this Thy dying sorrow,
 Thy pity without end?
 O make me Thine for ever;
 And should I fainting be,
 Lord, let me never, never
 Outlive my love to Thee.

THE PASSION.

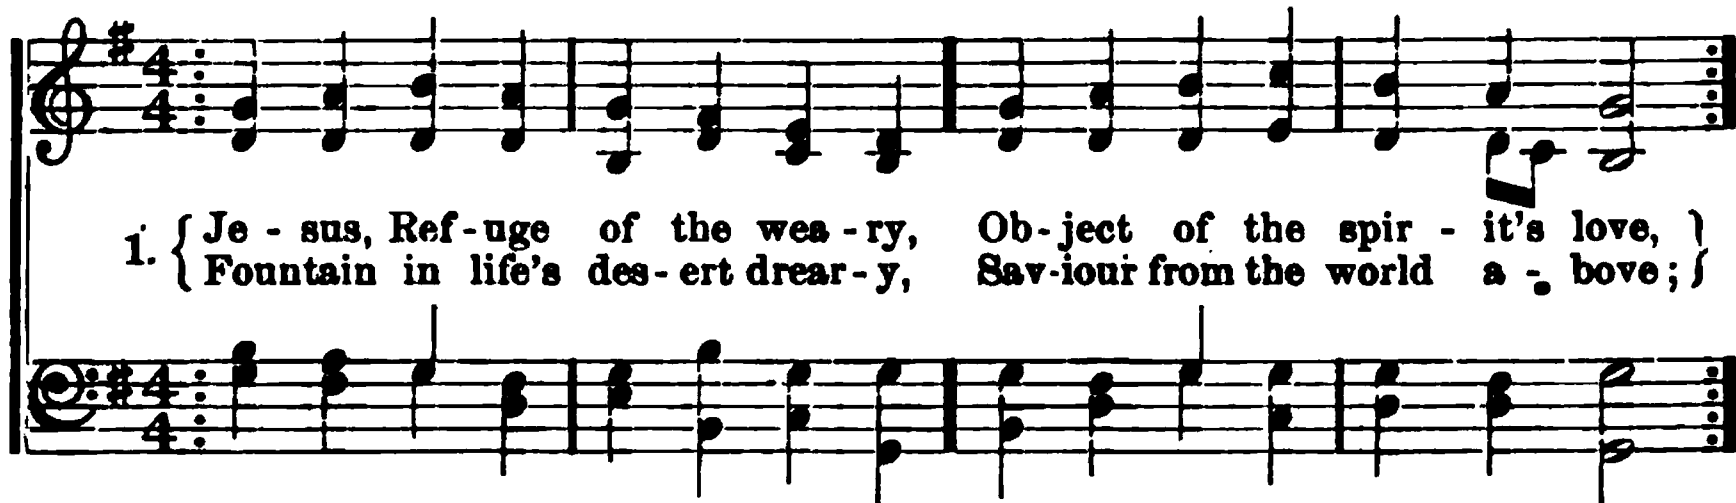

7 And when I am departing,
O part not Thou from me!
When mortal pangs are darting,
Come, Lord, and set me free!
And when my heart must languish
Amidst the final throes,
Release me from mine anguish,
By Thine own pain and woe.

8 Be near when I am dying,
O show Thy cross to me;
And for my succor flying,
Come, Lord, to set me free:
These eyes, new faith receiving,
From Jesus shall not move;
For he who dies believing,
Dies safely, through Thy love.

1. { Je - sus, Ref - uge of the wea - ry, Ob - ject of the spir - it's love, }
Fountain in life's des - ert drear - y, Sav - iour from the world a - bove; }

O how oft Thine eyes of - fend - ed, Gaze up - on the sin - ner's fall!

Yet up - on the cross ex - tend - ed Thou didst bear the pain of all.

2 Do we pass that cross unheeding,
Breathing no repentant vow,
Though we see Thee wounded bleeding,
See Thy thorn - encircled brow?
Yet Thy sinless death hath brought us
Life eternal, peace and rest;
Only what Thy grace hath taught us
Calms the sinner's stormy breast.

3 Jesus, may our hearts be burning,
With more fervent love for Thee;
May our eyes be ever turning
To Thy cross of agony;
Till in glory, parted never
From the blessed Saviour's side,
Graven in our hearts for ever,
Dwell the cross, the Crucified.

bowed be - neath Thy load of woe: For me, a sin - ner, is Thy life-blood pour-ing; For Thee, my Sav-iour, scarce my tears will flow.

2 Thine own disciple to the Jews has sold Thee;
With friendship's kiss and loyal word he came:
How oft of faithful love my lips have told Thee,
While Thou hast seen my falsehood and my shame.

3 With taunts and scoffs they mock what seems Thy weakness,
With blows and outrage adding pain to pain:
Thou art unmoved and steadfast in Thy meekness;
When I am wronged how quickly I complain.

4 My Lord, my Saviour, when I see Thee wearing
Upon Thy bleeding brow the crown of thorn,
Shall I for pleasure live, or shrink from bearing
Whate'er my lot may be of pain or scorn?

5 O Victim of Thy love! O pangs most healing!
O saving death! O wounds that I adore!
O shame most glorious! Christ, before Thee kneeling,
I pray Thee keep me Thine for evermore.

Tell a - loud the won-drous sto - ry Of His bo - dy cru - ci - fied;

How up - on the cross a vic - tim, Van - quish-ing in death, He died.

2 Eating of the tree forbidden,
Man has sunk in Satan's snare,
When our pitying Creator
Did this second tree prepare,
Destined, many ages later,
That first evil to repair.

3 So, when now at length the fullness
Of the time foretold drew nigh,
God the Son, the world's Creator,
Left His Father's throne on high,
From the Virgin's womb appearing Clothed in our humanity.

4 Thus did Christ to perfect manhood
In our mortal flesh attain;
Then of His free choice He goeth
To a death of bitter pain;
He, the Lamb upon the altar
Of the cross, for us was slain.

5 Lo, with gall His thirst He quenches
See the thorns upon His brow;
Nails His tender flesh are rending;
See, His side is piercèd now;
Whence, to cleanse the whole creation,
Streams of blood and water flow.

6 Christ, to Thee with God the Father,
And, O Holy Ghost, to Thee,
Hymn and chant and high thanksgiving,
And unwearied praises be:
Honor, glory and dominion
And eternal victory.

1. Sweet the moments, rich in bless-ing, Which be - fore the cross I spend;

Life and health and peace pos-sess-ing Thro' the sin-ner's dy-ing Friend.

(Or to Rathbun.)

2 Here I'll sit, for ever viewing
Mercy's streams in streams of blood;
Precious drops, my soul bedewing,
Plead and claim my peace with God.

3 Truly blessed is this station,
Low before His cross to lie,
While I see Divine compassion
Pleading in His languid eye.

4 Here I find my hope of heaven,
While upon the Lamb I gaze;
Loving much, and much forgiven,
Let my heart o'erflow with praise.

5 Lord, in loving contemplation
Fix my heart and eyes on Thee,
Till I taste Thy full salvation,
And Thine unveiled glories see.

6 For Thy sorrows I adore Thee,
For the griefs that wrought our peace;
Gracious Saviour, I implore Thee,
In my heart Thy love increase.

7 Love and grief my heart dividing,
With my tears His feet I'll bathe;
Constant still in faith abiding,
Life deriving from His death.

8 May I still enjoy this feeling,
In all need to Jesus go;
Prove His blood each day more healing,
And Himself must deeply know.

Which on yonder cross He bore;
How did soul and body languish
Till the toil of death was o'er:
But that toil, so fierce and dread,

Where all the wicked from their troubling cease.
Thy tranquil Sabbath in the grave to keep:
Thy Father giveth His Belovèd sleep.

3 Yet in Thy glory, on the throne above,
Thou wast abiding ever, Love of Love,
Eternal, filling all created things
With Thine own presence, Jesus, King of kings!

4 E'en now our place is with Thee on the throne,
For Thou abidest ever with Thine own;
Yet in the tomb with Thee, we watch for day;
O let Thine angel roll the stone away!

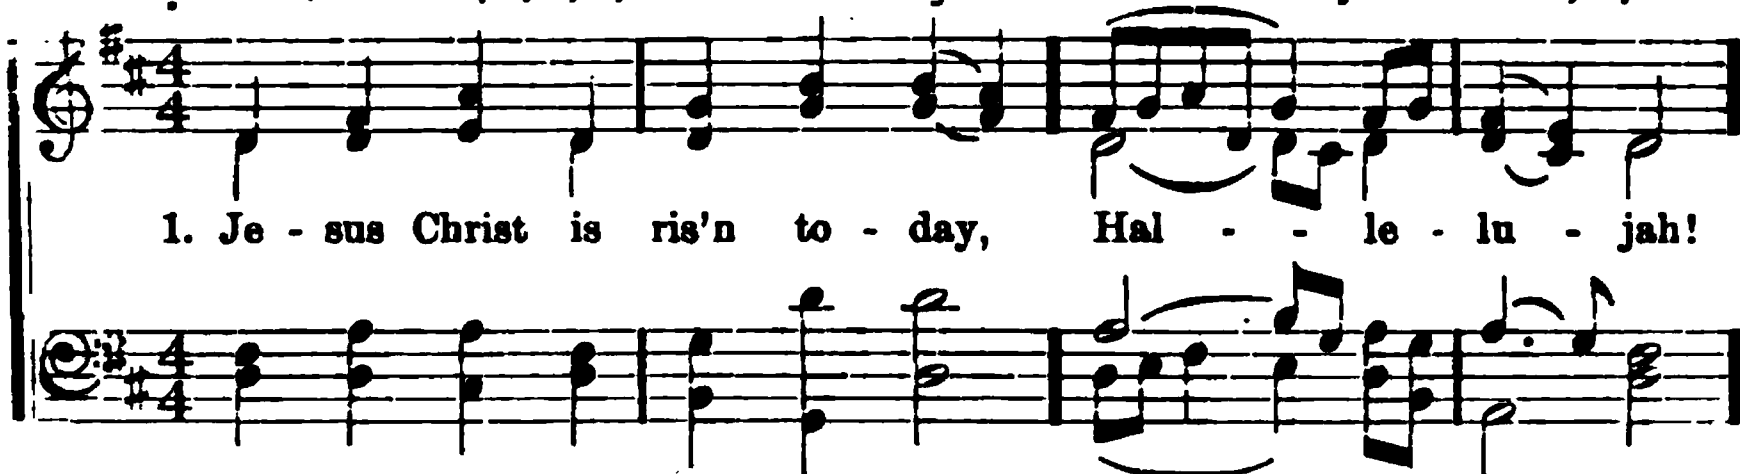

5 O by Thy life within us, set us free!
Reveal the glory that is hid with Thee!
Glory to God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Holy Spirit, ever One.

The Resurrection.

173. WORGAN. 7. 7. 7. 7. With Hallelujah.

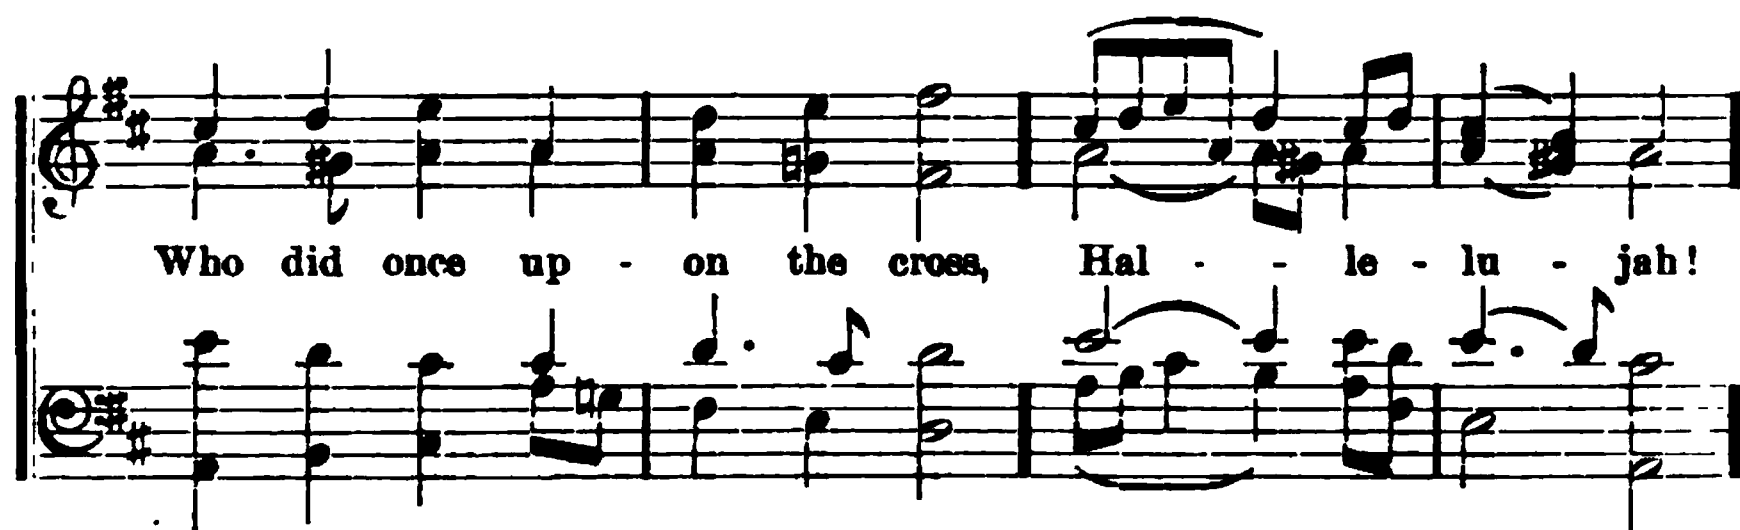

Lyra Davidica, 1708.

1. Je - sus Christ is ris'n to - day, Hal - le - lu - jah!

Our tri - umph-ant ho - ly day, Hal - le - lu - jah!

Who did once up - on the cross, Hal - le - lu - jah!

Suf - fer to re - deem our loss. Hal - le - lu - jah!

2 Hymns of praise then let us sing
Unto Christ, our heavenly King,
Who endured the cross and grave,
Sinners to redeem and save.
Hallelujah!

3 But the pains which He endured,
Our salvation have procured;
Now above the sky He's King,
Where the angels ever sing,
Hallelujah!

4 Now be God the Father praised,
With the Son, from death upraised,
And the Spirit, ever blest,
One true God, by all confessed.
Hallelujah!

174 SALVE, FESTA DIES. II. II. II. II.

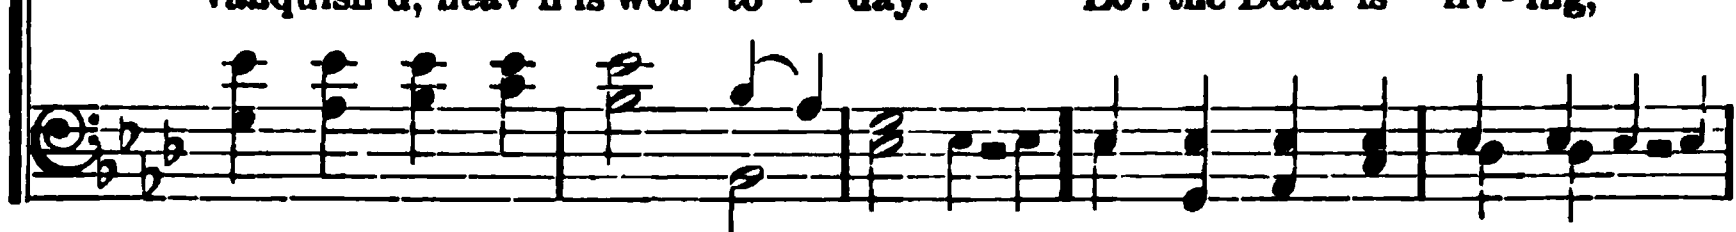

John Baptiste Calkin, 1870.

1. Welcome, hap-py morn-ing! age to age shall say, Hell to-day is vauquish'd, heav'n is won to-day. Lo! the Dead is liv-ing,

God for ev-er-more; Him, their true Creator, all His works a-dore.

ff Refrain in unison.

Welcome, happy morn-ing! age to age shall say, Hell to-day is

THE RESURRECTION.

vanquish'd, heav'n is won to-day. Lo! the Dead is liv-ing,

God for ev-er-more; Him, their true Cre-a-tor, all His works adore.

- 2 Earth her joy confesses, clothing her for spring,
All good gifts returned with her returning King;
Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
Speak His sorrow ended, hail His triumph now.
Welcome, happy morning, etc.
- 3 Months in due succession, days of lengthening light,
Hours and passing moments praise Thee in their flight;
Brightness of the morning, sky and fields and sea,
Vanquisher of darkness, bring their praise to Thee.
Welcome, happy morning, etc.
- 4 Maker and Redeemer, life and health of all,
Thou from heaven beholding human nature's fall,
Of the Father's Godhead true and only Son,
Manhood to deliver, manhood didst put on.
Welcome, happy morning, etc.
- 5 Thou, of life the Author, death didst undergo,
Tread the path of darkness, saving strength to show,
Come then, True and Faithful, now fulfill Thy word;
'Tis Thine own third morning: rise, O buried Lord!
Welcome, happy morning, etc.
- 6 Loose the souls long prisoned, bound with Satan's chain,
All that now is fallen raise to life again;
Show Thy face in brightness, bid the nations see,
Bring again our daylight; day returns with Thee.
Welcome, happy morning, etc.

- 1 Angels, roll the rock away ;
Death, yield up thy mighty prey :
See, He rises from the tomb,
Glowing with immortal bloom.
Hallelujah !
- 2 'Tis the Saviour : angels, raise
Fame's eternal trump of praise ;
Let the earth's remotest bound
Hear the joy-inspiring sound.
Hallelujah !
- 3 Praise Him, all ye heavenly choirs,
Praise, and sweep your golden lyres :
Shout, O earth, in rapturous song, -
Let the strains be sweet and strong.

177 GLORIOUS DAY. L. M.

Nicolaus Hermann, 1559.

1. Ere yet the dawn has filled the skies, Be - hold my Saviour, Christ a - rise,

THE RESURRECTION.

He chaseth from us sin and night, And brings us joy, and life and light, Hal-le - lu - jah!

2 O stronger Thou than death and hell!
Where is the foe Thou canst not quell,
What heavy stone Thou canst not roll,
From off the prison'd anguished soul?
Hallelujah!

4 He feeds me, comforts and defends,
And when I die His angel sends
To bear me whither He is gone,
For of His own He loseth none:
Hallelujah!

3 If Jesus lives, can I be sad?
I know He loves me, and am glad;
Though all the world were dead to me,
Enough, O Christ, if I have Thee!
Hallelujah!

5 No more to fear or grief I bow,
God and the angels love me now;
The joys prepared for me to-day
Drive fear and mourning far away:
Hallelujah!

6 Strong Champion! For this comfort see
The whole world brings her thanks to Thee;
And once we, too, shall raise above
More sweet and loud the song of love:
Hallelujah!

1. { Je - sus lives and so shall I; Death, thy sting is gone for - ev - er. }
{ He, who deigned for me to die, Lives, the bands of death to sev - er. }

He shall raise me with the just: Je - sus is my Hope and Trust.

2 Jesus lives and reigns supreme,
And, His Kingdom still remaining.
I shall also be with Him,
Ever living, ever reigning.
God has promised; be it must;
Jesus is my Hope and Trust.

4 Jesus lives, and by His grace,
Vict'ry o'er my passions giving,
I will cleanse my heart and ways,
Ever to His glory living.
Th' weak He raises from the dust:
Jesus is my Hope and Trust.

3 Jesus lives, and God extends
Grace to each returning sinner.
Rebels He receives as friends,
And exalts to highest honor.
God is true as He is just:
Jesus is my Hope and Trust.

5 Jesus lives, and death is now
But my entrance into glory.
Courage! then, my soul, for thou
Hast a crown of life before thee;
Thou shalt find thy hopes were just:
Jesus is the Christian's Trust.

8. 8. 8. 4.

2 The Prince of Life with death has striven,
To cleanse the earth His blood has given;
Has rent the veil, and opened heaven;
Hallelujah!

3 Our bodies mouldering to decay,
Are sure to rise to heavenly day;
For He by rising burst the way:
Hallelujah!

4 And he, dear Lord, that with Thee dies,
And fleshly passions crucifies,
In body like to Thine shall rise.
Hallelujah!

5 O praise the Father and the Son,
Who has for us the triumph won,
And Holy Ghost, the Three in One:
Hallelujah!

Nicolas le Tourneaux, 1640-1686.
Tr. William Cooke, 1872.

1 The strife is o'er, the battle done:
The victory of Life is won:
The song of triumph has begun,—
Hallelujah!

2 The three sad days are quickly sped,
He rises glorious from the dead;
All glory to our risen Head!
Hallelujah!

3 He closed the yawning gates of hell,
The bars from heaven's high portals fell;
Let hymns of praise His triumphs tell,
Hallelujah!

4 Lord, by the stripes which wounded Thee,
From death's dread sting Thy servants free,
That he may live and sing to Thee,
Hallelujah!

THE RESURRECTION.

182 HASTINGS. 8. 6. 8. 6. 8. 8.

Hymns of the Church, 1869.

1. How calm and beau - ti - ful the morn That gilds the sa - cred tomb,
Where once the Cru - ci - fled was borne, And veiled in mid-night gloom!
O weep no more the Sav-iour slain; The Lord is risen—He lives a - gain.

2 Ye mourning saints! dry every tear
For your departed Lord;
"Behold the place—He is not there,"
The tomb is all unbarred:
The gates of death were closed in vain:
The Lord is risen—He lives again.

3 Now cheerful to the house of prayer
Your early footsteps bend,
The Saviour will Himself be there,
Your Advocate and Friend:
Once by the law your hopes were slain,
But now in Christ ye live again.

4 How tranquil now the rising day!
'Tis Jesus still appears,
A risen Lord to chase away
Your unbelieving fears:
O weep no more your comforts slain,
The Lord is risen—He lives again.

5 And when the shades of evening fall,
When life's last hour draws nigh,
If Jesus shine upon the soul,
How blissful then to die:
Since He has risen who once was slain,
Ye die in Christ to live again.

Thomas Hastings, 1832.

181 POSEN. 7. 7. 7. 7.

2 Love's redeeming work is done,
Fought the fight, the battle won:
Lo! our Sun's eclipse is o'er;
Lo! He sets in blood no more.

3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal;
Christ hath burst the gates of hell:
Death in vain forbids His rise,
Christ hath opened paradise.

4 Lives again our glorious King!
Where, O death, is now thy sting?

Once He died our souls to save;
Where thy victory, O grave?

5 Soar we now where Christ has led,
Following our exalted Head:
Made like Him, like Him we rise,
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

6 Hail the Lord of earth and heaven!
Praise to Thee by both be given;
Thee we greet triumphant now,
Hail! the resurrection Thou.

| 2 And what I say, let each this morn
Go tell it to his friend,
That soon in every place shall dawn
His Kingdom without end. | 1 Hosanna to the Prince of Light,
Who cloth'd Himself in clay,
Entered the iron gates of death,
And tore the bars away. |
| 3 The fears of death and of the grave
Are whelmed beneath the sea ;
And every heart, now light and brave,
May face the things to be. | 2 Death is no more the king of dread,
Since our Emmanuel rose ;
He took the tyrant's sting away,
And spoiled our hellish foes. |
| 4 The way of darkness that He trod
To heaven at last shall come,
And he who harkens to His word
Shall reach His Father's home. | 3 See how the Conqueror mounts aloft,
And to His Father flies,
With scars of honor in His flesh,
And triumph in His eyes. |
| 5 Now let the mourner grieve no more,
Though his belovèd sleep :
A happier meeting shall restore
Their light to eyes that weep. | 4 Raise your devotion, mortal tongues,
To reach His blest abode ;
Sweet be the accents of your songs
'To our incarnate God. |
| 6 He lives! His presence hath not ceased,
Though foes and fears be rife ;
And thus we hail in Easter's feast.
A world renewed to life ! | 5 Bright angels, strike your loudest strings,
Your sweetest voices raise ;
Let heaven, and all created things,
Sound our Emmanuel's praise. |

2 Jesus triumphs! sing ye praises;
By His death He overcame:
Thus the Lord His glory raises,
Thus He fills His foes with shame.
Sing ye praises, sing ye praises!
Praises to the Victor's Name.

3 Jesus triumphs! countless legions
Come from heaven to meet their King;
Soon, in yonder blessed regions,

1. Lift up, lift up your voices now; The whole wide world rejoic-es now:

The Lord hath triumphed glorious-ly, The Lord shall reign vic-to-rious-ly.

2 In vain with stone the cave they barred;
In vain the watch kept ward and guard:
Majestic from the spoiled tomb,
In pomp of triumph Christ is come.

3 He binds in chains the ancient foe;
A countless host He frees from woe,
And heaven's high portal open flies,
For Christ has risen, and man shall rise.

4 And all He did, and all He bare,
He gives us as our own to share;

And hope-and joy and peace begin,
For Christ has won, and man shall win.

5 O Victor, aid us in the fight,
And lead through death to realms of light;
And safely pass where Thou hast trod;
In Thee we die to rise to God.

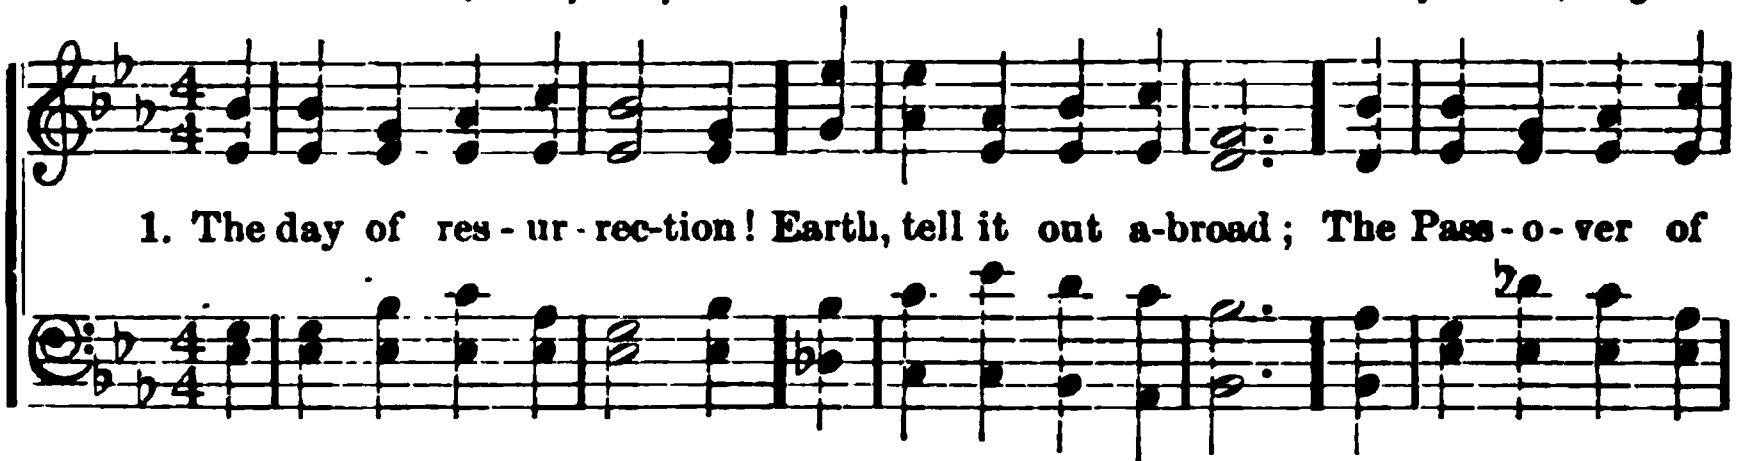

6 Thy flock, from sin and death set free,
Glad Hallelujahs raise to Thee;
And ever with the heavenly host
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
Of resurrection-light;
And, listening to His accents,
May hear, so calm and plain,
His own "All hail!" and hearing,
May raise the victor-strain.

3 Now let the heavens be joyful,
Let earth her song begin;
Let the round world keep triumph,
And all that is therein;
Invisible and visible,
Their notes let all things blend,
For Christ the Lord hath risen,
Our Joy that hath no end.

- 2 O what glory, far exceeding
All that eye has yet perceived!
Holiest hearts for ages pleading,
Never that full joy conceived.
God has promised, Christ prepares it,
There on high our welcome waits;
Every humble spirit shares it,
Christ has passed the eternal gates.
- 3 Life eternal! heaven rejoices,
Jesus lives who once was dead;
Join, O man, the deathless voices,
Child of God, lift up thy head!
Patriarchs from the distant ages,
Saints all longing for their heaven,
Prophets, psalmists, seers and sages,
All await the glory given.
- 4 Life eternal! O what wonders
Crowd on faith; what joy unknown,
When, amidst earth's closing thunders,
Saints shall stand before the throne!
O, to enter that bright portal,
See that glowing firmament,
Know, with Thee, O God immortal,
"Jesus Christ whom Thou hast sent!"

- 1 Hallelujah! hallelujah!
Hearts to heaven and voices raise;
Sing to God a hymn of gladness,
Sing to God a hymn of praise;

He, who on the cross a Victim
For the world's salvation bled,
Jesus Christ, the King of Glory
Now is risen from the dead.

- 2 Now the iron bars are broken,
Christ from death to life is born,
Glorious life, and life immortal,
On this holy Easter morn:
Christ has triumph'd, and we conquer
By His mighty enterprise,
We with Him to life eternal
By His resurrection rise.
- 3 Christ is risen, Christ the first-fruits
Of the holy harvest-field,
Which will all its full abundance
At His second coming yield,
When the golden ears of harvest
Will their heads before Him wave,
Ripened by His glorious sunshine,
From the furrows of the grave.
- 4 Christ is risen; we are risen;
Shed upon us heavenly grace,
Rain and dew, and gleams of glory
From the brightness of Thy face,
That we, with our hearts in heaven,
Here on earth may fruitful be,
And by angel-hands be gathered,
And be ever, Lord, with Thee.

1. Why should these eyes be tear - ful For years too quick - ly fled?

And why these feet be fear - ful The on - ward path to tread?

Why should a chill come o'er me At thoughts of death as near?

Or when I see be - fore me The si - lent gates ap - pear?

(Or to St. Theodulph.)

- 2 Behold my Saviour dying!
I hear His parting breath;
Entombed I see Him lying,
A captive held of death;
Yet peacefully He sleepeth,
No foe disturbs Him now,
And love Divine still keepeth
Its impress on His brow.
- 3 But lo! the seal is broken!
Roll back the mighty stone,
In vain was set the token
That friend and foe should own.
The weeping Mary bending
Sees not her Saviour there;
But sons of light attending
A joyful message bear.

- 4 The Lord is risen: He liveth,
The First-born from the dead;
To Him the Father giveth
To be creation's Head.
The grave, no more appalling,
Invites me to repose;
Asleep in Jesus falling,
To rise as Jesus rose.
- 5 O, when to life awaking,
The night for ever gone,
My soul, this dust forsaking,
Puts incorruption on,
Lord, in Thy lustre shining,
In Thine own beauty dressed
My sun no more declining,
Thy service be my rest!

1. A - wake, glad soul a - wake, a - wake! Thy Lord hath ris - en long;
Go to His grave, and with thee take Both tune - ful heart and song;
Where life is wak - ing all a - round, Where love's sweet voices sing,
The first bright Blossom may be found Of an e - ter - nal spring.

2 O Love! which lightens all distress,
Love, death cannot destroy:
O grave! whose very emptiness
To Faith is full of joy;
Let but that Love our hearts supply
From heaven's exhaustless spring,
Then, grave, where is thy victory?
And, death, where is thy sting?

3 The shade and gloom of life are fled
This resurrection-day;
Henceforth in Christ are no more dead,
The grave hath no more prey:
In Christ we live, in Christ we sleep,
In Christ we wake and rise;
And the sad tears death makes us weep,
He wipes from all our eyes.

4 And every bird and every tree
And every opening flower
Proclaim His glorious victory,
His resurrection-power:
The folds are glad, the fields rejoice,
With vernal verdure spread:
The little hills lift up their voice,
And shout that death is dead.

5 Then wake, glad heart! awake! awake!
And seek thy risen Lord,
Joy in His resurrection take,
And comfort in His word;
And let thy life, through all its ways,
One long thanksgiving be,
Its theme of joy, its song of praise,
"Christ died, and rose for me."

To - day we tri - umph in Thy Life, A - round Thy emp - ty grave.

2 Our enemy is put to shame,
His short lived triumph o'er;
Our God is with us, we exclaim,
We fear our foe no more.

3 The dwellings of the just resound
With songs of victory;
For in their midst Thou, Lord, art found,
And brightest peace with Thee.

4 O let Thy conquering banner wave
O'er hearts Thou makest free:
And point the path that from the grave
Leads heavenward up to Thee.

5 We bury all our sin and crime
Deep in our Saviour's tomb,
And seek the treasure there, that time
Nor change can e'er consume.

6 Fearless we lay us in the tomb,
And sleep the night away,
If Thou art there to break the gloom,
And call us back to day.

7 Death hurts us not: his power is gone,

God's favor now on us hath shown,
Joy filleth all our hearts.

Thou Lamb, once slain!

3 Enter, incarnate God!
No feet but Thine have trod
The serpent down:
Blow the full trumpets, blow!
Wider yon portals throw!
Saviour, triumphant, go
And take Thy crown!

4 Lion of Judah—Hail!—
And let Thy Name prevail
From age to age:
Lord of the rolling years—
Claim for Thine own the spheres,
For Thou hast bought with tears
Thy heritage:

5 And then was heard afar
Star answering to star—
“Lo! these have come,
Followers of Him who gave
His life their lives to save;
And now their palms they wave,
Brought safely home.”

2 I find Him lifting up my head;
He brings salvation near:
His presence makes me free indeed,
And He will soon appear.

3 He wills that I should holy be;
What can withstand His will?
The counsel of His grace in me
He surely shall fulfill.

4 Jesus, I cling unto Thy word;

2 With joy in heaven resonnding
 Christ's glad return to see;
 Behold the saints surrounding
 The Lord who set them free:
 Bright myriads thronging come
 The cherub band rejoices
 And loud seraphic voices
 Welcome Messiah home.

3 No more the way is hidden
 Since Christ our Head arose:
 No more to man forbidden
 The road to heaven that goes
 Our Lord is gone before,
 But here He will not leave us;
 In heaven He'll soon receive us:
 He opens wide the door.

4 Christ is our place preparing
 To heaven we, too, shall rise,
 And, joys angelic sharing,
 Be where our treasure lies:

There may each heart be found!
 Where Jesus Christ has entered,
 There let our hopes be centered,
 Our course still heavenward bound!

5 May we, His servants, thither
 In heart and mind ascend;
 And let us sing together,
 "We seek Thee, Christ our Friend,
 Thee, God's anointed Son!
 Our Life, and Way to heaven,
 To whom all power is given,
 Our Joy and Hope and Crown!"

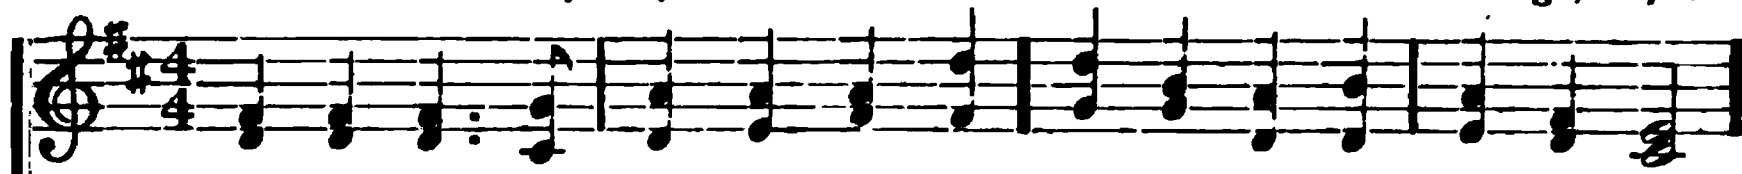

6 When, on our vision dawning,
 Will break the wished-for hour
 Of that all-glorious morning,
 When Christ shall come with power?
 O come, thou welcome Day!
 When we, our Saviour meeting,
 His second advent greeting,
 Shall hail the heaven-sent ray.

He who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan,
He by death has spoiled His foes.

3 While He raised His hands in blessing,
He was parted from His friends;
While their eager eyes behold Him,
He upon the clouds ascends;
He who walked with God, and pleased Him,
Preaching truth and doom to come,
Christ, our Enoch, is translated
To His everlasting home.

4 Now our heavenly Aaron enters,
With His blood, within the veil;
Joshua now is come to Canaan,
And the kings before Him quail;
Now He plants the tribes of Israel
In their promised resting-place;
Now our great Elijah offers
Double portion of His grace.

5 Thou hast raised our human nature
In the clouds to God's right hand;
There we sit in heavenly places,
There with Thee in glory stand:
Jesus reigns, adored by angels,
Man with God is on the throne;
Mighty Lord, in Thine ascension
We by faith behold our own.

199 CORONÆ. 8. 7. 8. 7. 4. 7.

William H. Monk, 1871.

1. Look, ye saints; the sight is glorious: See the Man of Sor - rows, now;

From the fight re - turned vic - to - rious, Ev - 'ry knee to Him shall bow: Crown Him! Crown Him! Crowns become the Vic - tor's brow.

2 Crown the Saviour, angels, crown Him.
Rich the trophies Jesus brings;
In the seat of power enthrone Him,
While the vault of heaven rings:
Crown Him! Crown Him!
Crown the Saviour King of kings.

3 Sinners in derision crowned Him,
Mocking thus the Saviour's claim;
Saints and angels crowd around Him,
Own His title, praise His Name:
Crown Him! Crown Him!
Spread abroad the Victor's fame.

4 Hark, those bursts of acclamation!
Hark, those loud triumphant chords
Jesus takes the highest station;
O what joy the sight affords:
Crown Him! Crown Him!
King of kings, and Lord of lords.

Rev. Thomas Kelly, 1809.

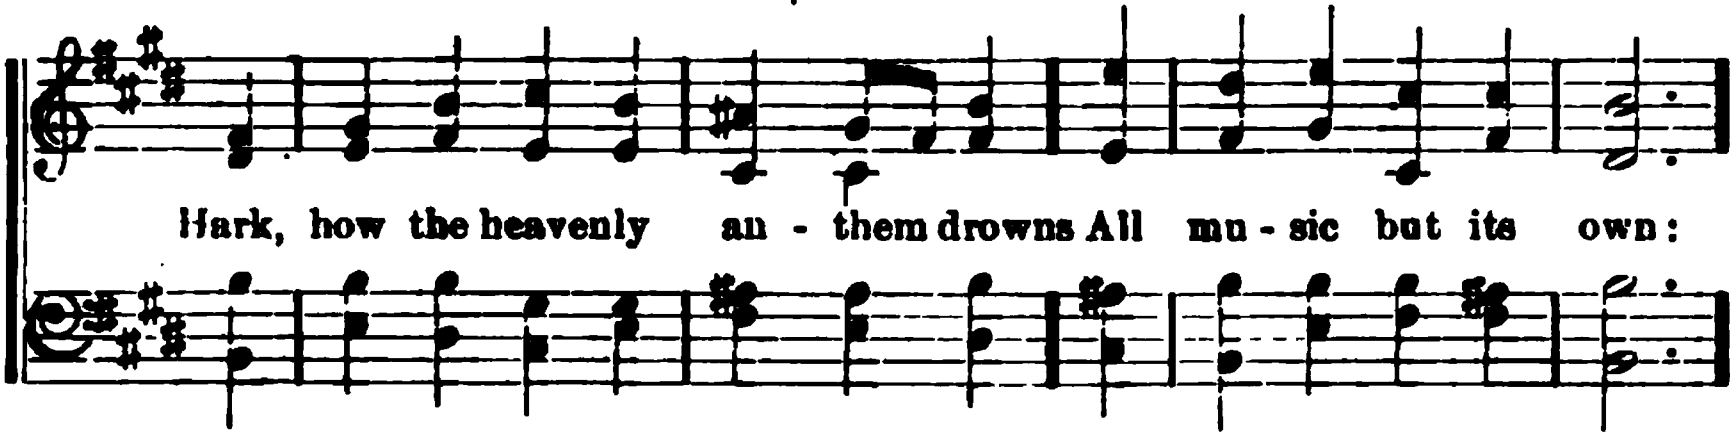

THE ASCENSION.

200 DIADEMATA. S. M. D.

Sir George J. Elvey, 1868.

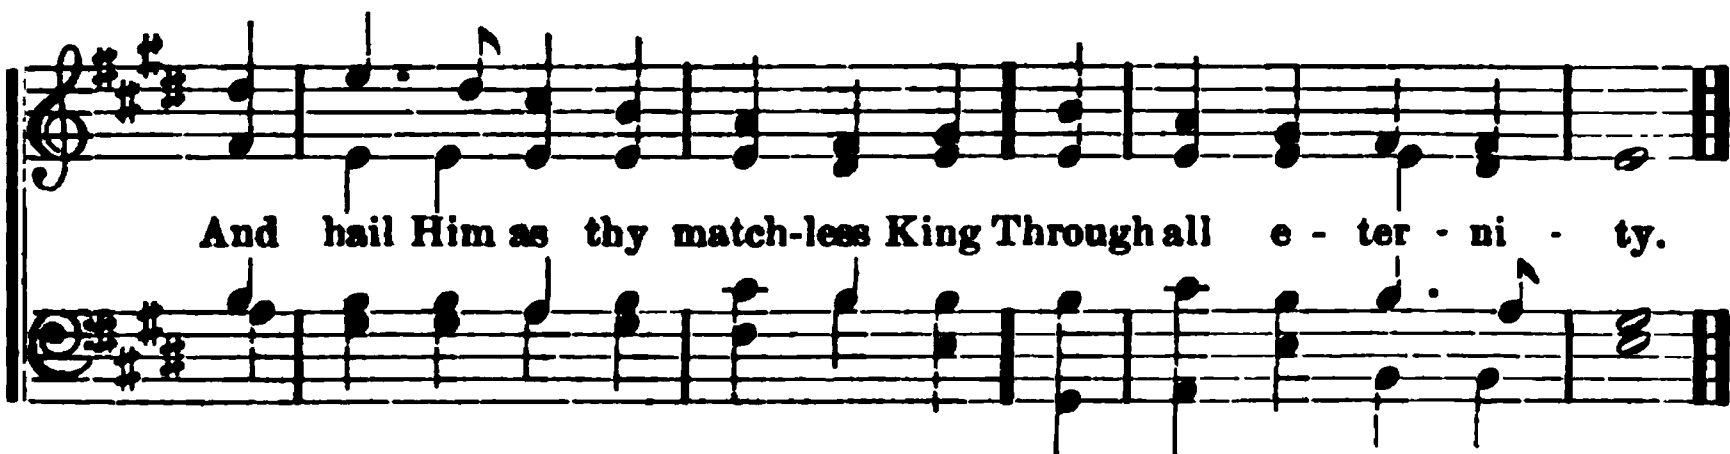

1. Crown Him with ma - ny crowns, The Lamb up - on His throne;

Hark, how the heavenly an - them drowns All mu - sic but its own:

A - wake, my soul, and sing Of Him who died for thee,

And hail Him as thy match-less King Through all e - ter - ni - ty.

2 Crown Him the Lord of love
Behold His hands and side,
Rich wounds, yet visible above,
In beauty glorified:
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his burning eye
At mysteries so bright.

3 Crown Him the Lord of peace;
Whose power a sceptre sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
Absorbed in prayer and praise:
His reign shall know no end;
And round His pierced feet
Fair flowers of Paradise extend
Their fragrance ever sweet.

4 Crown Him the Lord of years,
The Potentate of time;
Creator of the rolling spheres
Ineffably sublime:
And hail, Redeemer, hail!
'For Thou hast died for me:
Thy praise shall never, never fail
Throughout eternity.

See, He sits on yonder throne; Je - sus rules the world alone.
 See, He sits on yonder throne; Je - sus rules the world alone.

2 Jesus, hail, whose glory brightens
 All above, and makes it fair:
 Lord of life, Thy smile enlightens,
 Cheers, and charms Thy people here.
 When we think of love like Thine,
 Lord, we own it love Divine.

3 King of Glory, reign for ever;
 Thine an everlasting crown:
 Nothing from Thy love shall sever
 Those whom Thou hast made Thine own;
 Happy objects of Thy grace,
 Destined to behold Thy face.

4 Saviour, hasten Thine appearing;
 Bring, O bring the glorious day,
 When, the awful summons hearing,
 Heaven and earth shall pass away.
 Then, with golden harps, we'll sing,
 "Glory, glory to our King."

Rev. John B. Dykes, 1857.

2 Thou art gone where now is given
What no mortal might could gain,
On the eternal throne of heaven
In Thy Father's power to reign.

4 We, O Lord, with hearts adoring,
Follow Thee beyond the sky :
Hear our prayers Thy grace imploring,
Lift our souls to Thee on high.

3 There Thy kingdoms all adore Thee,
Heaven above and earth below ;
While the depths of hell before Thee
Trembling and amazed bow.

5 So when Thou again in glory
On the clouds of heaven shalt shine,
We Thy flock may stand before Thee,
Owned for evermore as Thine.

6 Hail ! all hail ! In Thee confiding,
Jesus, Thee shall all adore,
In Thy Father's might abiding
With one Spirit evermore.

2 Thou art gone up before us, Lord,
To make for us a place,
That we may be where now Thou art,
And look upon Thy face.

4 Lift up our hearts, lift up our minds :
Let Thy dear grace be given,
That while we wander here below,
Our treasure be in heaven ;

3 And ever on our earthly path
A gleam of glory lies,
A light still breaks behind the cloud
That veiled Thee from our eyes.

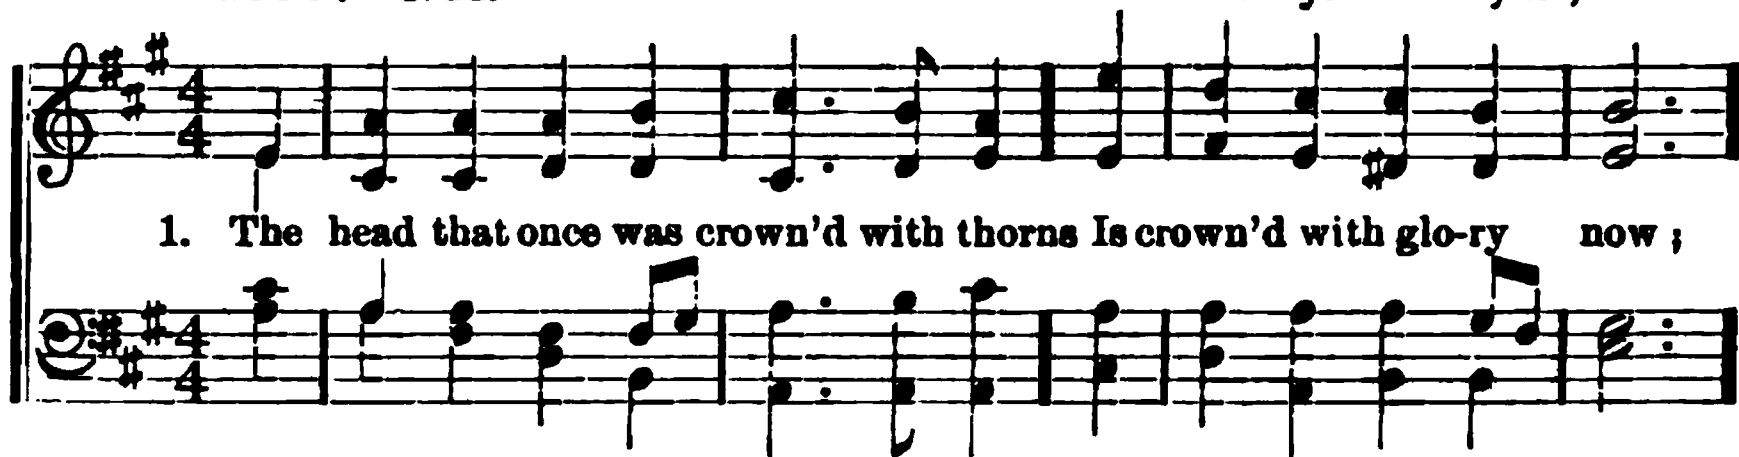

5 That where Thou art, at God's right hand,
Our hope, our love may be :
Dwell Thou in us, that we may dwell
For evermore in Thee.

1. The head that once was crown'd with thorns Is crown'd with glo-ry now ;

A' roy - al di - a - dem a-dorns The might-y Vic - tor's brow.

2 The highest place that heaven affords
Is His, is His by right,
The King of kings, and Lord of lords,
And heaven's eternal Light :

3 The joy of all who dwell above,
The joy of all below
To whom He manifests His love,
And grants His Name to know.

4 To them the cross, with all its shame,
With all its grace, is given ;
Their name an everlasting name,
Their joy the joy of heaven.

5 They suffer with their Lord below,
They reign with Him above ;
Their profit and their joy to know
The mystery of His love.

6 The cross He bore is life and health,
Though shame and death to Him ;
His people's hope, His people's wealth,
Their everlasting theme.

1. Re - joice, the Lord is King! Your Lord and King a - dore!

Mor - tals, give thanks and sing, And tri - umph ev - er - more:

Lift up your heart; lift up your voice; Re-joyce! a-gain I say, re-joyce!

2 Jesus the Saviour reigns,
The God of truth and love:
When He had purged our stains,
He took His seat above.
Lift up your heart; lift up your voice;
Rejoice! again I say, rejoice!

3 He sits at God's right hand,
Till all His foes submit,
And bow to His command,

And fall beneath His feet,
Lift up your heart; lift up your voice;
Rejoice! again I say, rejoice!

4 Rejoice in glorious hope,

2 My name is graven on His hands;
My name is written on His heart;
O, know that while in heaven He stands
No tongue can bid me thence depart.

3 When Satan tempts me to despair,
And tells me of the guilt within,
Upward I look, and see Him there,
Who made an end of all my sin.

6 One with Himself, I cannot die;
My life is purchased by His blood;
My life is hid with Christ on high,
With Christ, my Saviour and my God.

4 Because the sinless Saviour died,
My sinful soul is counted free;
For God, the Just, is satisfied
To look on Him, and pardon me.

5 Behold Him there, the bleeding Lamb!
My perfect, spotless righteousness,
The great unchangeable 'I Am,'
The King of glory and of grace.

1. All hail the pow'r of Je - sus' Name! Let angels prostrate fall; Bring forth the royal di - a - dem,

And crown Him Lord of all; Bring forth the royal di - a - dem, And crown Him Lord of all.

2 Crown Him, ye morning stars of light,
Who fixed this floating ball;
Now hail the strength of Israel's might,
And crown Him Lord of all.

3 Crown Him, ye martyrs of your God
Who from His altar call;
Extol the Stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown Him Lord of all.

4 Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
Ye ransomed of the fall,
Hail Him who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him Lord of all.

5 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go, spread your trophies at His feet,
And crown Him Lord of all.

6 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all.

7 O that with yonder sacred throng
We at His feet may fall;
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Arr. from Michael Haydn, 1737-1806.

1 Ye ser-vants of God, your Mas-ter pro-claim, And pub-lish a - broad His won-der-ful Name; The Name, all-vic-to-rious, of Je-sus ex-tol; His king-dom is glo-rious, and rules o-ver all.

2 God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
And still He is nigh—His presence we have:
The great congregation His triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus, our King.

3 Salvation to God, who sits on the throne!
Let all cry aloud, and honor the Son:
The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces and worship the Lamb.

4 Then let us adore, and give Him His right,
All glory and power, and wisdom and might,
All honor and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never ceasing, and infinite love.

2 No mortal can with Him compare
Among the sons of men;
Fairer He is than all the fair
That fill the heavenly train.

3 He saw me plunged in deep distress,
He flew to my relief;
For me He bore the shameful cross,
And carried all my grief.

4 To Him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death,
And saves me from the grave.

5 To heaven, the place of His abode,
He brings my weary feet;
Shows me the glories of my God,
And makes my joys complete.

6 Since from His bounty I receive
Such proofs of love Divine,
Had I a thousand hearts to give,
Lord, they should all be Thine!

That from earth's dead - liest smart, O'er all the heav - ens hast bound - - ed.

- 2 Thou in the depths wert to mortals the highest revealing,
 God in humanity veiled, Thy full glory concealing!
 "Worthy art Thou!"
 Shouteth eternity now,
 Praise to Thee endlessly pealing.
- 3 Heavenly Love, in the language of earth past expression:
 Lord of all worlds, unto whom every tongue owes confession!
 Didst Thou not go,—
 And, under sentence of woe,
 Rescue the doomed by transgression?
- 4 O'er the abyss of the grave, and its horrors infernal,
 Victory's palm Thou art waving in triumph supernal:
 Who to Thee cling,
 Circled by hope, shall now bring
 Out of its gulf life eternal.
- 5 Son of Man, Saviour, in whom, with deep tenderness blending,
 Infinite Pity to wretches her balm is extending,
 On Thy dear breast,
 Weary and numb, they may rest,
 Quickened to joy never ending.
- 6 Sweetly persuasive, to me, too, Thy call has resounded;
 Melting my heart so obdurate, Thy love has abounded;
 Back to the fold,
 Led by Thy hand, I behold
 Grace all my path has surrounded.
- 7 Bless thou the Lord, O my soul! who, thy pardon assuring,
 Heals thy diseases, and grants thee new life all enduring,
 Joy amid woe.
 Peace amid strife here below,
 Unto thee ever securing.

8 Upward, on pinions celestial, to regions of pleasure,
 Into the land whose bright glories no mortal can measure,
 Strong hope and love
 Bear Thee, the fulness to prove
 Of Thy salvation's rich treasure.

9 There, as He is, we shall view Him, with rapture abiding,
 Cheered even here by His glance, when the darkness dividing
 Lets down a ray,
 Over the perilous way
 Thousands of wanderers guiding.

10 Join, O my voice! the vast chorus, with trembling emotion:
 Chorus of saints, who, though sundered by land and by ocean,
 With sweet accord
 Praise the same glorious Lord,
 One in their ceaseless devotion.

11 Break forth, O nature! in song, when the spring tide is highest;
 World that hast seen His salvation, no longer thou sighest!
 Shout, starry train,
 From your empyreal plain,
 "Glory to God in the highest!"

Henry W. Greatorex, 1849.

1. Hail to the Prince of Life and Peace, Who holds the keys of death and hell!

The spacious world unseen is His, And sovereign power becomes Him well.

2 In shame and torment once He died;
 But now He lives forevermore:
 Bow down, ye saints around His seat,
 And, all ye angel-bands, adore.

4 Worthy Thy hands to hold the keys,
 Guided by wisdom and by love;
 Worthy to rule o'er mortal life,
 O'er worlds below and worlds above.

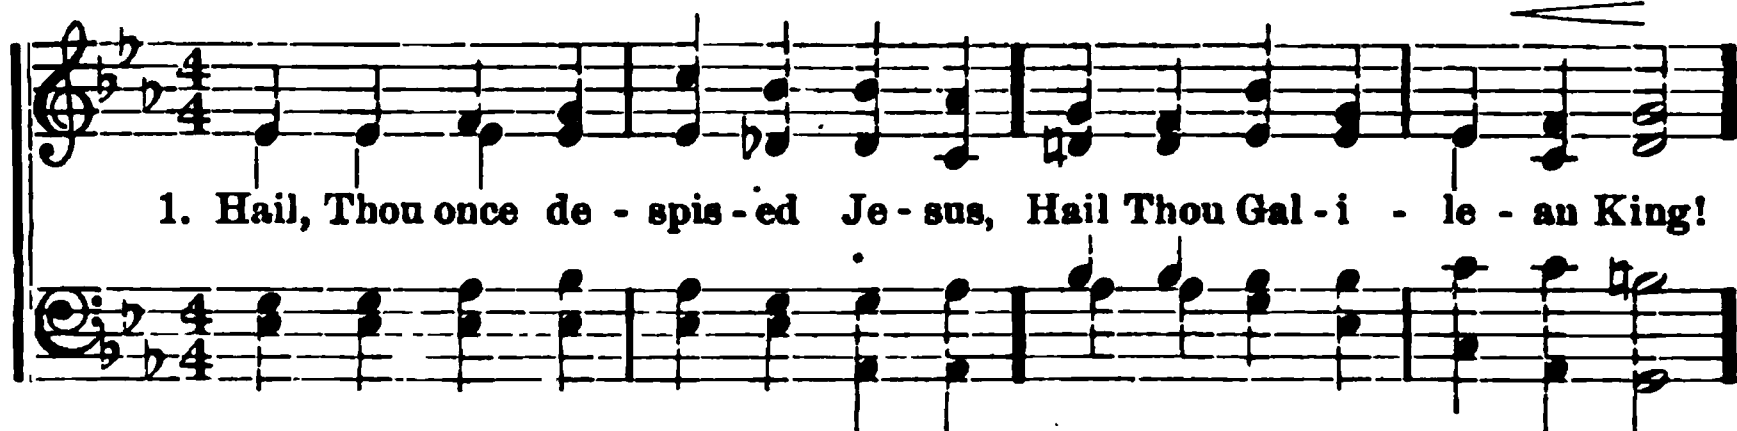

3 So live forever glorious Lord,
 To crush Thy foes and guard Thy friends!
 While all Thy chosen tribes rejoice
 That Thy dominion never ends.

5 Forever reign, victorious King!
 Wide thro' the earth Thy Name be known.
 And call my longing soul to sing
 Sublimed anthems near Thy throne.

2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
All our sins on Thee were laid;
By almighty Love anointed,
Thou hast full atonement made.
All Thy people are forgiven
Through the virtue of Thy blood:
Opened is the gate of heaven;
Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

3 Jesus, hail! enthroned in glory,
There for ever to abide;
All the heavenly hosts adore Thee,
Seated at Thy Father's side:
There for sinners Thou art pleading,
There Thou dost our place prepare.
Ever for us interceding,
Till in glory we appear.

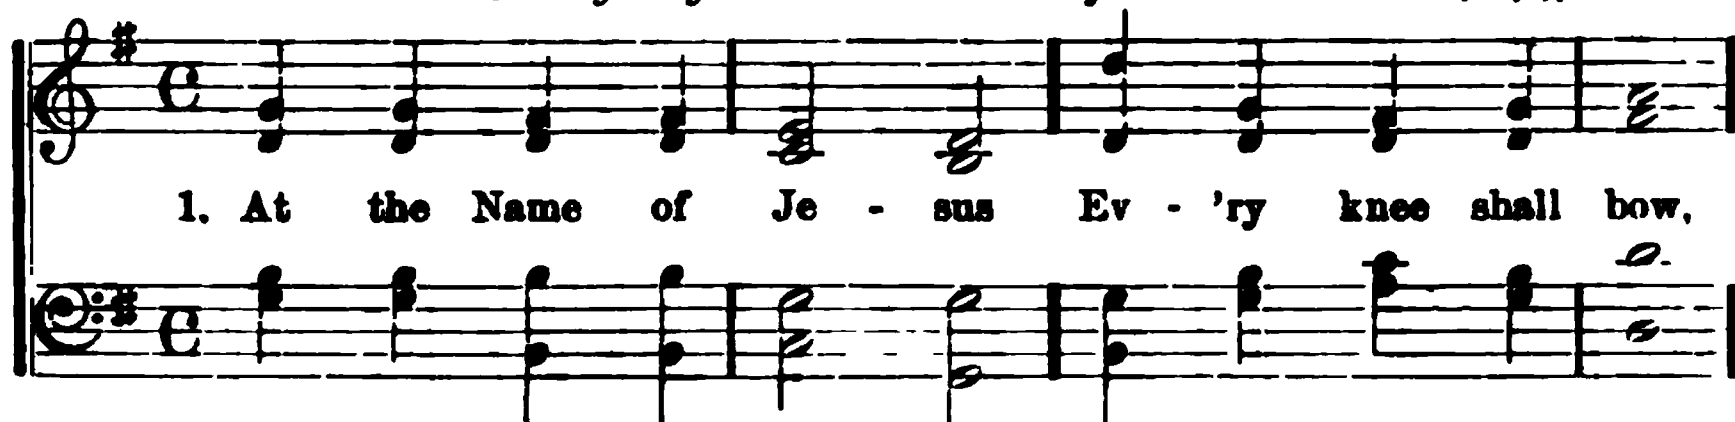

4 Worship, honor, power, and blessing,
Thou art worthy to receive;
Loudest praises, without ceasing,
Meet it is for us to give.
Help, ye bright angelic spirits,
Bring your sweetest, noblest lays;
Help to sing our Saviour's merits,
Help to chant Emmanuel's praise.

Ev - 'ry tongue con - fess Him King of glo - ry now.

'Tis the Fa - ther's pleas - ure We should call Him Lord,

Who from the be - gin - ning Was the might - y Word.

- 2 At His voice creation
Sprang at once to sight,
All the angel faces,
All the hosts of light,
Thrones and dominations,
Stars upon their way,
All the heavenly orders
In their great array.
- 3 Humbled for a season,
To receive a Name
From the lips of sinners
Unto whom He came,
Faithfully He bore it
Spotless to the last,
Brought it back victorious
When from death He passed.

- 4 In your hearts enthrone Him;
There let Him subdue
All that is not holy,
All that is not true:
Crown Him as your Captain
In temptation's hour:
Let His will enfold you
In its light and power.
- 5 Brothers, this Lord Jesus
Shall return again,
With His Father's glory,
With His angel train;
For all wreaths of empire
Meet upon His brow,
And our hearts confess Him
King of glory now.

2 O haste, ye ransomed race!
For all His gifts of grace
Praise ye His Name:
He wondrous things hath done;
Triumph o'er death hath won;
Heaven's gate hath open thrown;
"Worthy the Lamb."

3 Come, all ye hosts above!
Join in one song of love,
Praising His Name:
To Him ascribed be
Honor and majesty
Through all eternity:
"Worthy the Lamb."

4 Blessed and Holy Three,
Glorious Trinity,
Praise to Thy Name:

3 Let wonder still with love unite,
 And gratitude and joy ;
 Be Jesus our supreme delight,
 His praise our best employ.

4 Jesus, who left His throne on high,
 Left the bright realms of bliss,

And came on earth to bleed and die—
 Was ever love like this ?

5 Dear Lord, while we adoring pay
 Our humble thanks to Thee,
 May every heart with rapture say,
 The Saviour died for me.

6 O may the sweet, the blissful theme
 Fill every heart and tongue,
 Till strangers love Thy charming Name,
 And join the sacred song.

near - er roll - ing; He comes; prepare, ye (Omit. . . .) } virgins wise.

Rise up, with will-ing feet Go forth, the Bridegroom meet: Halle - lu - jah!

Bear thro' the night your well-trimm'd light, Speed forth to join the marriage rite.

2 Zion hears the watchmen singing,
Her heart with deep delight is springing,
She wakes, she rises from her gloom;
For her Lord comes down all glorious,
The strong in grace, in truth victorious,
Her Star is risen, her Light is come!
Ah come, Thou blessed One,
God's own beloved Son,
Hallelujah!
We haste along, in pomp of song,
And gladsome join the marriage throng.

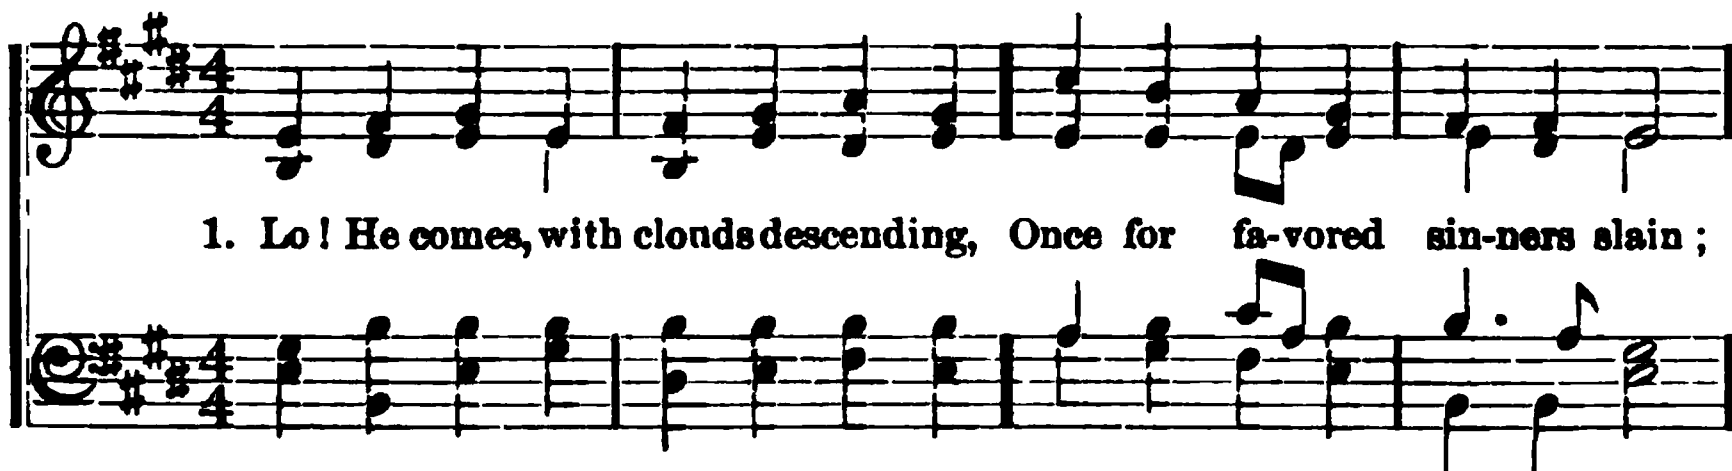

3 Now let all the heavens adore Thee,
And men and angels sing before Thee,
With harp and cymbal's clearest tone;
Of one pearl each shining portal,
Where we are with the choir immortal,
Of angels round Thy dazzling throne;
No vision ever brought
No ear hath ever caught,
Such enjoyment:
But we rejoice, and sing to Thee
Our hymns of joy eternally.

THE SECOND COMING.

218 HOLYWOOD. 8. 7. 8. 7. 8. 7.

Samuel Webbe's Collection, 1792.

1. Lo ! He comes, with clouds descending, Once for fa-vored sin-ners slain ;

Thou-sand thousand saints at-tend-ing Swell the tri-umph of His train :

Hal - le - lu - jah, hal - le - lu-jah ! God ap - pears on earth to reign.

2 Every eye shall now behold Him,
Robed in dreadful majesty ;
Those who set at naught and sold Him,
Pierced, and nailed Him to the Tree,
Deeply wailing, deeply wailing,
Shall the true Messiah see.

4 Now Redemption, long expected,
See in solemn pomp appear !
All His saints, by man rejected,
Now shall meet Him in the air :
Hallelujah, hallelujah !
See the day of God appear !

3 Every island, sea, and mountain,
Heaven and earth, shall flee away ;
All who hate Him must, confounded,
Hear the trump proclaim the day ;
Come to judgment, come to judgment !
Come to judgment, come away !

5 Answer Thine own Bride and Spirit ;
Hasten, Lord, the general doom ;
The new heaven and earth to inherit
Take Thy pining exiles home :
All creation, all creation
Travails, groans, and bids Thee come.

6 Yea, Amen ! let all adore Thee,
High on Thine eternal throne :
Saviour, take the power and glory ;
Claim the kingdom for Thine own :
O come quickly, O come quickly ;
Hallelujah ! come, Lord, come.

1. In us the hope of glo - ry, O ris - en Lord, art Thou;
The first - fruits of the Spir - it Are in us now.

2 Yet still in dust and ashes
Before Thy throne we kneel;
And in our hearts is hidden
Thy living seal.

3 The whole creation groaneth
In prison-chains for Thee.
O rend the veil asunder,
And set us free.

4 Raise up Thy holy sleepers,
And change Thy saints on earth,
In all, as one, revealing
The second birth.

5 O come in all Thy glory,
Our great Emmanuel!
Come forth, our Prince and Saviour,
With us to dwell!

6 Bring Thine eternal Sabbath,
Bring Thine eternal day,
And cause all grief and sighing
To flee away.

7 To Thee, Almighty Father,
O Saviour, unto Thee,
To Thee, Creator-Spirit,
All glory be!

THE SECOND COMING.

221 DUTY. S. M.

Samuel P. Tuckerman, 1848.

1. The Church has wait - ed long Her ab - sent Lord to see;

And still in lone - li - ness she waits, A friendless stran - ger she.

2 Age after age has gone,
Sun after sun has set,
And still, in weeds of widowhood,
She weeps a mourner yet.

4 We laid them down to sleep,
But not in hope forlorn;
We laid them but to ripen there
Till the last glorious morn.

3 Saint after saint on earth
Has lived, and loved, and died;
And as they left us one by one,
We laid them side by side:

5 The whole creation groans,
And waits to hear that voice
That shall restore her comeliness,
And make her wastes rejoice.

6 Come, Lord, and wipe away
The curse, the sin, the stain,
And make this blighted world of ours
Thine own fair world again.

Rev. Horatius Bonar, 1846

220 ST. BRIDE. S. M.

2 Come, for Thy saints still wait;
Daily ascends their sigh;
The Spirit and the Bride say, "Come:"
Dost Thou not hear the cry?

5 Come in Thy glorious might,
Come with the iron rod,
Scattering Thy foes before Thy face,
Most mighty Son of God!

3 Come, for creation groans,
Impatient of Thy stay,
Worn out with these long years of ill,
These ages of delay.

6 Come and make all things new;
Build up this ruined earth;
Restore our faded Paradise,
Creation's second birth.

4 Come, for love waxes cold,
Its steps are faint and slow;
Faith now is lost in unbelief,
Hope's lamp burns dim and low.

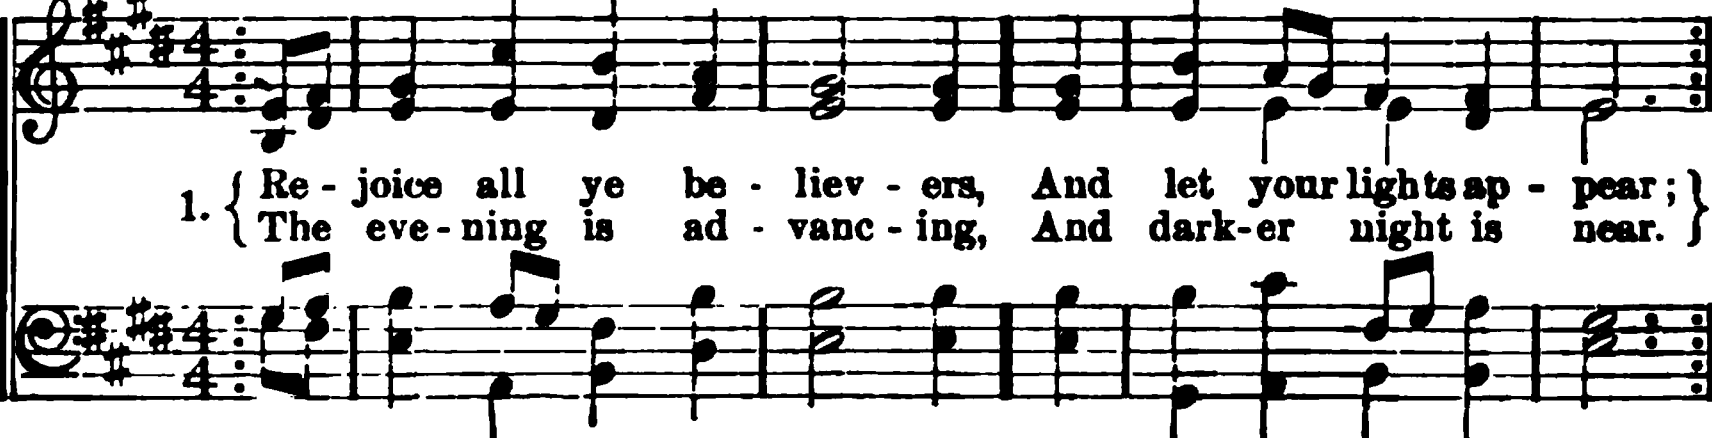

7 Come and begin Thy reign
Of everlasting peace;
Come, take the kingdom to Thyself,
Great King of Righteousness.

2 See that your lamps are burning,
Replenish them with oil ;
Look now for your salvation,
The end of sin and toil.
The watchers on the mountain
Proclaim the Bridegroom near,
Go meet Him as He cometh
With hallelujahs clear.

3 Ye wise and holy virgins,
Now raise your voices higher,
Until, in songs of triumph,
They meet the angel-choir.
The marriage-feast is waiting,
The gates wide open stand ;
Up ! up ! ye heirs of glory :
The Bridegroom is at hand !

4 Ye saints, who here in patience
Your cross and sufferings bore
Shall live and reign forever,
When sorrow is no more ;

Around the Throne of glory
The Lamb ye shall behold,
In triumph cast before Him
Your diadems of gold.

5 There flourish palms of victory ;
There radiant garments are ;
There stands the peaceful harver
Beyond the reach of war.
There, after stormy winter,
The flowers of earth arise,
And from the grave's long slumber
Shall meet again our eyes.

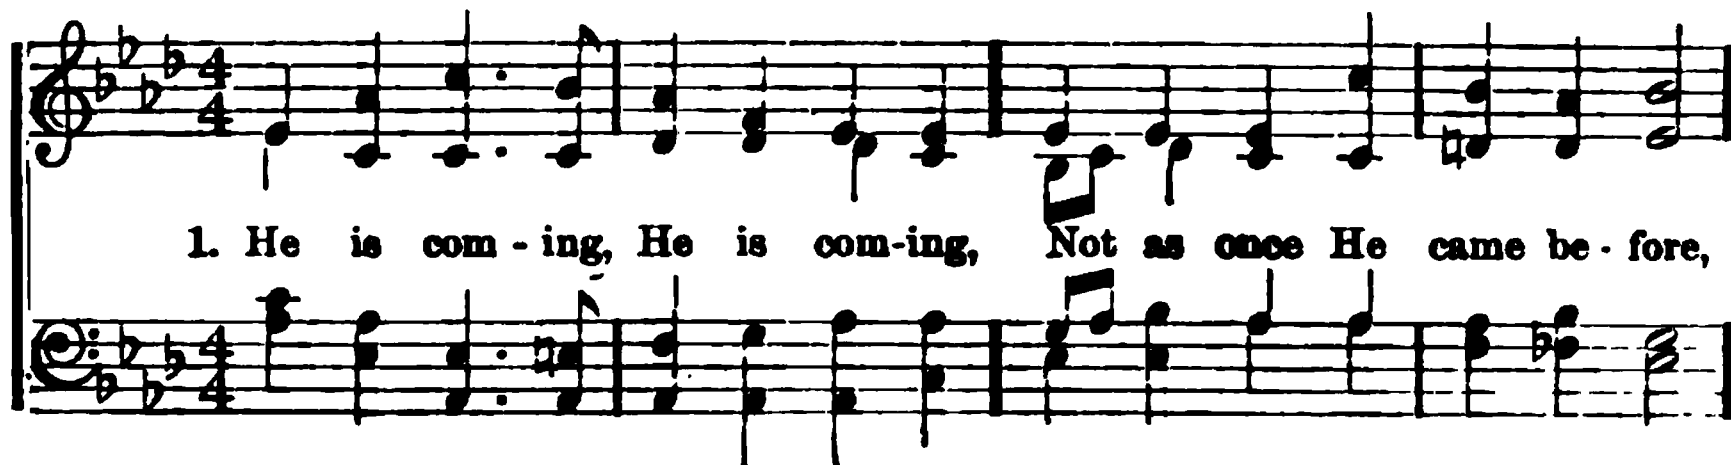

6 Our Hope and Expectation,
O Jesus, now appear ;
Arise, thou Sun so longed for,
O'er this benighted sphere.
With hearts and hands uplifted,
We plead, O Lord, to see
The day of earth's redemption,
And ever be with Thee.

THE SECOND COMING.

223 SANCTUARY. 8. 7. 8. 7. D.

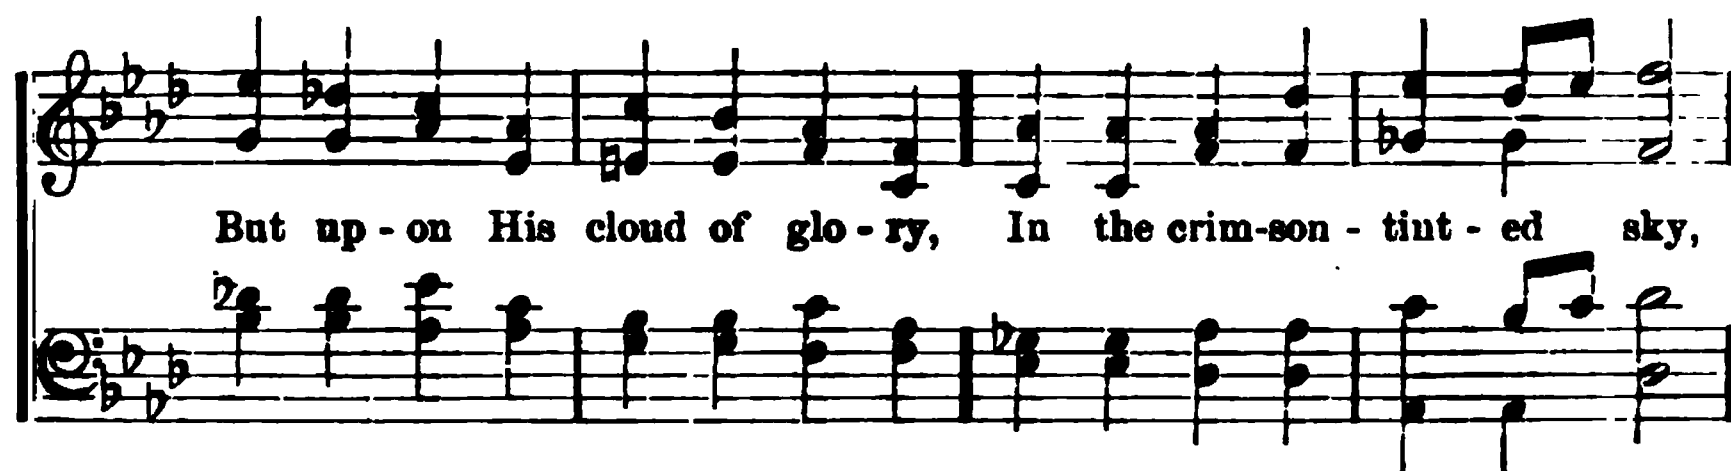

Rev. John B. Dykes, 1871.

1. He is com - ing, He is com-ing, Not as once He came be - fore,

Wail-ing in - fant, born in weak-ness On a low - ly sta - ble floor:

But up - on His cloud of glo - ry, In the crim-son - tint - ed sky,

Where we see the gold - en sun-rise In the ro - sy dis-tance lie.

2 He is coming, He is coming,
Not in pain, and shame, and woe,
With the thorn-crown on His forehead,
And the blood-drops trickling slow;
But with diadem upon Him,
And the scepter in His hand,
And the dead all ranged before Him,
Raised from death, hell, sea, and land.

3 He is coming, He is coming,
Not as once He wandered through
All the hostile land of Judah,
With His followers poor and few:

But with all the holy angels
Waiting round His judgment-seat,
And the chosen twelve apostles
Sitting crownèd at His feet.

4 He is coming, He is coming;
Let His lowly first estate,
And His tender love, so teach us
That in faith and hope we wait,
Till in glory eastward burning,
Our redemption draweth near;
And we see the sign in heaven
Of our Judge and Saviour dear.

1. { Light of those whose drear-y dwelling Bor-ders on the shades of death! }
 { Rise on us, Thy-self re-veal-ing— Rise and chase the clouds beneath. }

Thou of heav'n and earth Cre-a-tor! In our deep-est darkness rise;

Scat-ter all the night of na-ture, Pour the day up-on our eyes!

2 Still we wait for Thine appearing;
 Life and joy Thy beams impart,
 Chasing all our fears, and cheering
 Every meek, benighted heart.
 Come and manifest the favor
 God hath for our ransomed race;
 Come, Thou universal Saviour,
 Come, and bring the gospel grace.

3 Save us, in Thy great compassion,
 O Thou mild, pacific Prince!
 Give the knowledge of salvation,
 Give the pardon of our sins.
 By Thine all-restoring merit,
 Every burdened soul release;
 Every weary, waudering spirit
 Guide into Thy perfect peace.

THE SECOND COMING.

2 We wait for Thee, mid toil and pain,
In weariness and sighing;
But glad that Thou our guilt hast borne,
And cancelled it by dying.

Hence, cheerfully,
May we, with Thee
Take up our cross, and bear it,
Till we relief inherit.

3 We wait for Thee; here Thou hast won
Our hearts to hope and duty;
But while our spirits feel Thee near,
Our eyes would see Thy beauty;

We fain would be
At rest with Thee
In peace and joy supernal,
In glorious life eternal.

4 We wait for Thee; sure Thou wilt come;
The time is swiftly nearing;
In this we also now rejoice,
And long for Thine appearing.

O, bliss 'twill be
When Thee we see,
Homeward Thy people bringing,
With transport and with singing!

2 Come, blessed Lord, bid every shore
And answering island sing
The praises of Thy royal Name,
And own Thee as their King.

3 Bid the whole earth, responsive now
To the bright world above,
Break forth in rapturous strains of joy
In memory of Thy love.

4 Lord, Lord, Thy fair creation groans,
The air, the earth, the sea,
In unison with all our hearts,
And calls aloud for Thee.

5 Come, then, with all Thy quickening
With one awakening smile, [power,
And bid the serpent's trail no more

2 Left to ourselves, we shall but stray;
O lead us on the narrow way,
With wisest counsel guide us,
And give us steadfastness, that we May henceforth truly follow Thee.
Whatever woes betide us:
Heal Thou gently,
Hearts now broken,
Give some token
Thou art near us,
Whom we trust to light and cheer us.

3 O mighty Rock! O Source of Life,
Let Thy dear word, 'mid doubt and strife,
Be so within us burning,
That we be faithful unto death,
In Thy pure love and holy faith,
From Thee true wisdom learning!
Lord, Thy graces,
On us shower,
By Thy power
Christ confessing,
Let us win His grace and blessing.

4 O gentle Dew, from heaven now fall
With power upon the hearts of all,
Thy tenderness instilling;
That heart to heart more closely bound,
Fruitful in kindly deeds be found,
The law of love fulfilling:
No wrath, no strife,
Here shall grieve Thee,
We receive Thee,
Where Thou livest
Peace and love and joy Thou givest.

5 Grant that our days, while life shall last,
In purest holiness be passed;
Our minds so rule and strengthen
That they may rise o'er things of earth,
The hopes and joys that here have birth;
And if our course Thou lengthen,
Keep Thou pure, Lord,
From offences,
Heart and senses;
Blessed Spirit,
Bid us thus true life inherit.

1 Why should the children of a King
Go mourning all their days?
Great Comforter, descend and bring
Some tokens of Thy grace.

2 Dost Thou not dwell in all the saints,
And seal the heirs of heaven?
When wilt Thou banish my complaints,

4 Enlighten our dark souls, till they

Assist our minds, by nature frail,
With Thy celestial grace.

5 Drive far from us the mortal foe
And give us peace within,

Kin-dle a flame of sa - cred love, In these cold hearts of ours.

- 2 Look how we grovel here below,
Fond of these earthly toys;
Our souls, how heavily they go,
To reach eternal joys.
- 3 In vain we tune our formal songs,—
In vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

At this poor dying rate;
Our love so faint, so cold to Thee,
And Thine to us so great!

Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

2 Faith, that mountains could remove,
Tongues of earth or heaven above,
Knowledge—all things—empty prove,
Without heavenly love.

3 Love is kind, and suffers long;
Love is meek, and thinks no wrong;
Love, than death itself more strong
Give us heavenly love.

4 Prophecy will fade away,
Melting in the light of day;
Love will ever with us stay:
Give us heavenly love.

5 Faith will vanish into sight;
Hope be emptied in delight;
Love in heaven will shine more bright:

6 Faith and hope and love we see
Joining hand in hand agree;
But the greatest of the three,

Shed on us, who to Thee sing,

Earth takes up the angels' cry,
"Holy, Holy, Holy," singing,
"Lord of Hosts, the Lord most High."
With His seraph train before Him,
With His holy Church below,
Thus unite we to adore Him,
Bid we thus our anthem flow :

3 "Lord, Thy glory fills the heaven,
Earth is with Thy fullness stored ;
Unto Thee be glory given,
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord."
Thus Thy glorious Name confessing,
With Thine angel hosts we cry
"Holy, Holy, Holy, blessing
Thee, the Lord of Hosts most high.

1. We give im - mor - tal praise To God the Fa - ther's love,

For all our com - forts here, And all our hopes a - bove:

He sent His own e - ter - nal Son To die for sins that man hath done.

(Or to Gospel.)

2 To God the Son belongs
Immortal glory too,
Who saved us by His blood
From everlasting woe:
And now He lives, and now He reigns,
And sees the fruit of all His pains.

3 To God the Spirit praise
And endless worship give,
Whose new-creating power
Makes the dead sinner live:
His work completes the great design,
And fills the soul with joy Divine.

4 Almighty God, to Thee
Be endless honors done;
The sacred Persons Three,
The Godhead only One;
Where reason fails with all her powers,
There faith prevails, and love adores.

1. { Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts! when heav'n and earth, } All Thy works before Thee stood,
 { Out of dark ness, at Thy word Is-sued in-to glorious birth, }

And Thine eyes beheld them good, While they sung with sweet accord, Ho-ly, Ho-ly, Ho-ly Lord!

2 Holy, Holy, Holy! Thee,
 One Jehovah evermore,
 Father, Son, and Spirit! we,
 Dust and ashes, would adore:
 Lightly by the world esteemed,
 From that world by Thee redeemed,
 Sing we here with glad accord,
 Holy, Holy, Holy Lord!

3 Holy, Holy, Holy! all
 Heaven's triumphant choir shall sing,
 While the ransomed nations fall
 At the footstool of their King:
 Then shall saints and seraphim,
 Harps and voices, swell one hymn,
 Blending in sublime accord,
 Holy, Holy, Holy Lord!

- 2 To Thee all angels cry aloud;
To Thee the powers on high,
Both cherubim and seraphim,
Continually do cry:—
- 3 O Holy, Holy, Holy Lord,
Whom heavenly hosts obey,
The world is with the glory filled
Of Thy majestic ray.

- 4 The apostles' glorious company,
And prophets crowned with light,
With all the martyrs' noble host,
Thy constant praise recite.

4 Cherubim and seraphim
Veil their faces with their wings;
Eyes of angels are too dim
To behold the King of kings,
While they sing eternally
To the blessed Trinity.

3 Thousands, tens of thousands, stand,
Spirits blest, before Thy throne,
Speeding thence at Thy command;
And, when Thy behests are done,
Singing everlastingly
To the blessed Trinity.

5 Thee apostles, prophets Thee,
Thee the noble martyr band,
Praise with solemn jubilee,
Thee the Church in every land;
Singing everlastingly

Its Nature, Warfare and Guidance.

256 AURELIA. 7. 6. 7. 6. D.

Samuel S. Wesley, 1864.

1. The Church's one Foun-da-tion Is Je-sus Christ her Lord; She is His new crea-tion By wa-ter and the word: From heav'n He came and sought her To be His ho-ly Bride; With His own blood He bought her, And for her life He died.

- 2 Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation
One Lord, one faith, one birth
One holy Name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.
- 3 Though with a scornful wonder,
Men see her sore oppressed,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distressed;
Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up, "How long?"
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

- 4 'Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore;
Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious
Shall be the Church at rest.
- 5 Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won;
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace, that we,
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with Thee.

257 AUSTRIAN HYMN. 8. 7. 8. 7. D.

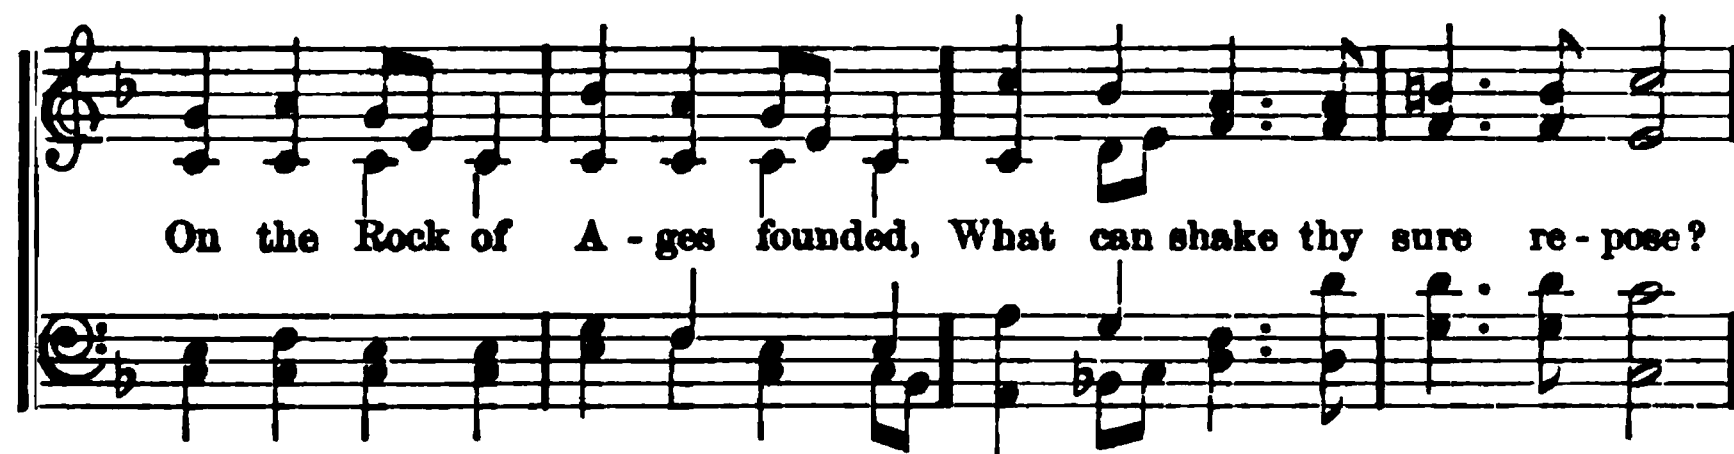

Franz Joseph Haydn, 1797.

1. Glo-rious things of thee are spok-en, Zi-on, cit-y of our God;

He whose word can-not be bro-ken Formed thee for His own a-bode:

On the Rock of A-ges founded, What can shake thy sure re-pose?

With sal-va-tion's walls sur-round-ed, Thou mayst smile at all thy foes.

2 See the streams of living waters,
Springing from eternal Love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove:
Who can faint, when such a river
Ever flows their thirst to assuage;
Grace, which, like the Lord the Giver,
Never fails from age to age?

3 Round each habitation hovering,
See the cloud and fire appear
For a glory and a covering,
Showing that the Lord is near,

Thus deriving from their banner
Light by night, and shade by day,
Safe they feed upon the manna
Which He gives them when they pray.

4 Saviour, if of Zion's city
I, through grace, a member am,
Let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in Thy Name:
Fading is the worldling's pleasure,
All his boasted pomp and show;
Solid joys and lasting treasure
None but Zion's children know.

2 There, like streams that feed the garden,
Pleasures without end shall flow;
For the Lord, your faith rewarding,
All His bounty shall bestow.
Still in undisturbed possession
Peace and righteousness shall reign;
Never shall you feel oppression,
Hear the voice of war again.

3 Ye, no more your suns descending,
Waning moon no more shall see,
But, your griefs for ever ending,
Find eternal noon in me.
God shall rise, and shining o'er you,
Change to day the gloom of night;
He, the Lord, shall be your Glory,
God, your everlasting Light.

William Cowper, 1790.

1 Praise the Rock of our salvation,
Laud His Name from zone to zone;
On that Rock the Church is built,
Christ Himself the Corner-stone;
Vain against our rock-built Zion
Winds and waters, fire and hail,
Christ is in her midst; against her
Sin and hell shall not prevail.

2 Where Thou reignest, King of Glory,
Throned in everlasting light,
Midst Thy saints, no more is needed
Sun by day, nor moon by night;
Soon may we those portals enter
When this earthly strife is o'er,
There to dwell with saints and angels
In Thy presence evermore.

We lift our hearts and voi - ces With blest an - tic - i - pa - tion,

And cry a - loud, And give to God The praise of our sal - va - tion.

2 While in affliction's furnace,
And passing through the fire,
Thy love we praise
Which knows our days,
And ever brings us nigher :
We lift our hands exulting
In Thine almighty favor ;
The love Divine
Which made us Thine
Shall keep us Thine for ever.

3 Thou dost conduct Thy people
Through torrents of temptation ;
Nor shall we fear,
While Thou art near,
The fire of tribulation :

The world, with sin and Satan,
In vain our march opposes ;
Through Thee we shall Break through them all,
And sing the song of Moses.

4 By faith we see the glory
To which Thou shalt restore us,
The cross despise
For that high prize
Which Thou hast set before us ;
And if Thou count us worthy,
We each, as dying Stephen,
Shall see Thee stand
At God's right hand
To take us up to heaven.'

2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

3 We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

4 When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

5 This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way;
While each in expectation lives
And longs to see the day.

6 From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin, we shall be free,
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

Rev. John Fawcett, 1772.

1 I love Thy kingdom, Lord,
The house of Thine abode,
The Church our blest Redeemer saved
With His own precious blood.

2 I love Thy Church, O God;
Her walls before Thee stand,
Dear as the apple of Thine eye,
And graven on Thy hand.

3 For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend;
To her my cares and toils be given
Till toils and cares shall end.

4 Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.

5 Jesus, Thou Friend Divine,
Our Saviour and our King,
Thy hand from every snare and foe
Shall great deliverance bring.

1. Who are these like stars ap-pear-ing, These be-fore God's throne who stand?

Each a gold-en crown is wear-ing; Who are all this glo-rious band?

Hal-le-lu-jah! hark, they sing, Prais-ing loud their heav-en-ly King.

2 Who are these of dazzling brightness,
These in God's own truth arrayed,
Clad in robes of purest whiteness,
Robes whose lustre ne'er shall fade,
Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand?
Whence comes all this glorious band?

4 These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified;
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.

3 These are they who have contended
For their Saviour's honor long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
Following not the sinful throng;
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph through the 'Lamb have gained.

5 These like priests have watched and waited,
Offering up to Christ their will;
Soul and body consecrated,
Day and night they serve Him still:
Now in God's most holy place
Blest they stand before His face.

6 Lo, the Lamb Himself now feeds them
On Mount Zion's pastures fair;
From His central throne He leads them
By the living fountains there;
Lamb and Shepherd, Good Supreme,
Free He gives the cooling stream.

Mul - ti-tude which none can num-ber, Like the stars, in glo - ry stands,

Clothed in white ap - par - el, hold-ing Palms of vic-t'ry in their hands.

2 They have come from tribulation,
And have washed their robes in blood,
Washed them in the blood of Jesus;
Tried they were, and firm they stood;
Mocked, imprisoned, stoned, tormented,
Sawn asunder, slain with sword,
They have conquered death and Satan
By the might of Christ the Lord.

3 Marching with Thy cross their banner,
They have triumphed, following
Thee the Captain of salvation,
Thee their Saviour and their King;

Gladly, Lord, with Thee they suffered,
Gladly, Lord, with Thee they died,
And by death to life immortal
They were born and glorified.

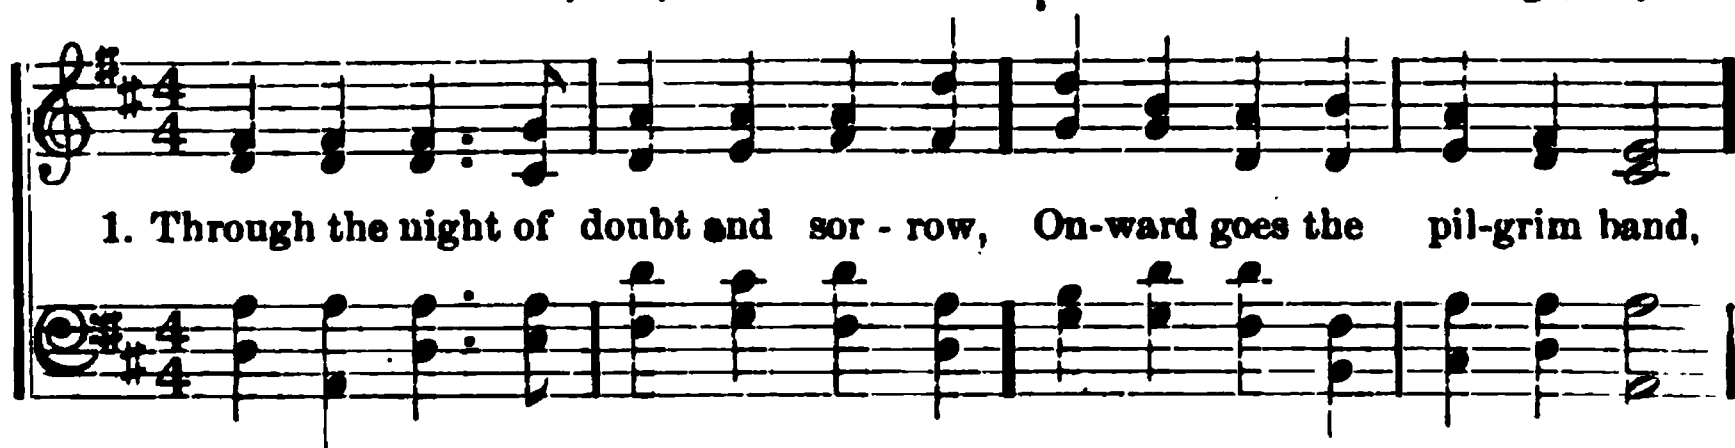

4 Now they reign in heavenly glory,

Chasing far the gloom and terror,

One the object of our journey,
One the faith which never tires,
One the earnest looking forward,
One the hope our God inspires.

3 One the strain the lips of thousands

3 How happy are our ears,
That hear this joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought but never found!

4 How blessed are our eyes,
That see this heavenly light!
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.

Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.

2 If you cannot cross the ocean,
And the heathen lands explore,
You can find the heathen nearer,
You can help them at your door;
If you cannot give your thousands,
You can give the widow's mite,
And the least you give to Jesus
Will be precious in His sight.

3 If you cannot speak like angels,
If you cannot preach like Paul,
You can tell the love of Jesus,
You can say He died for all.

If you cannot rouse the wicked
With the judgment's dread alarms,
You can lead the little children
To the Saviour's waiting arms.

4 Let none hear you idly saying,
"There is nothing I can do,"
While the souls of men are dying,
And the Master calls for you.
Take the task He gives you gladly,
Let His work your pleasure be;
Answer quickly when He calleth—
"Here am I, send me, send me."

Welcome to the priceless treasure

Ceaseless tread of countless hosts.

2 Did we in our own strength confide,
 Our striving would be losing;
 Were not the right man on our side,
 The man of God's own choosing:
 Dost ask who that may be?
 Christ Jesus, it is He;
 Lord Sabaoth His Name,
 From age to age the same,
 And He must win the battle.

3 And though this world, with devils filled,
 Should threaten to undo us;
 We will not fear, for God hath willed
 His truth to triumph through us:
 The prince of darkness grim,—
 We tremble not for him;
 His rage we can endure,
 For lo! his doom is sure,
 One little word shall fell him.

4 That word above all earthly powers,
 No thanks to them, abideth;
 The Spirit and the gifts are ours
 Through Him who with us sideth:
 Let goods and kindred go,
 This mortal life also;
 The body they may kill:
 God's truth abideth still,
 His kingdom lasts for ever.

In bliss returns to reign.
Bishop Reginald Heber, 1819.

1 When shall the voice of singing
Flow joyfully along?
When hill and valley, ringing
With one triumphant song,
Proclaim the contest ended,
And Him, who once was slain,
Again to earth descended,
In righteousness to reign?

2 Then from the craggy mountains
The sacred shout shall fly;
And shady vales and fountains
Shall echo the reply:
High tower and lowly dwelling
Shall send the chorus round,
All hallelujah swelling
In one eternal sound.

1 Hark! the song of Jubilee,
 Loud as mighty thunders roar,
 Or the fullness of the sea,
 When it breaks upon the shore:
 Hallelujah! for the Lord
 God Omnipotent shall reign;
 Hallelujah! let the word
 Echo round the earth and main.

2 Hallelujah!—Hark the sound,
 From the centre to the skies,
 Wakes above, beneath, around,
 All creation's harmonies:
 See Jehovah's banner furled; [done,
 Sheathed His sword: He speaks—'tis
 And the kingdoms of this world
 Are the kingdoms of His Son.

3 He shall reign from pole to pole
 With illimitable sway;
 He shall reign, when like a scroll,
 Yonder heavens have passed away.
 Then the end;—beneath His rod,
 Man's last enemy shall fall;
 Hallelujah! Christ in God,
 God in Christ, is All in all.

2 For Him shall endless prayer be made,
And praises throng to crown His head ;
His Name, like sweet perfume, shall rise
With every morning sacrifice ;

3 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on His love with sweetest song ;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on His Name.

4 Blessings abound where'er He reigns ;

2 The glorious sky, embracing all,
Is like the Maker's love,
Wherewith encompassed great and small
In peace and order move.
The moon above, the Church below,
A wondrous race they run;
But all their radiance, all their glow,
Each borrows of its sun.

3 The Saviour lends the light and heat
That crowns His holy hill;
The saints, like stars, around His seat
Perform their courses still.
The dew of heaven is like Thy grace,
It steals in silence down;
But, where it lights, the favored place
By richest fruits is known.

4 One Name above all glorious names,
With its ten thousand tongues,
The everlasting sea proclaims,
Echoing angelic songs.
The raging fire, the roaring wind,
Thy boundless power display;
But in the gentler breeze we find
The Spirit's viewless way.

5 Two worlds are ours: 'tis only sin
Forbids us to descry
The mystic heaven and earth within,
Plain as the sea and sky

And love this sight so fair,
Give me a heart to find out Thee
And read Thee everywhere.

- 4 There Jesus bids my sorrows cease,
And gives my lab'ring conscience peace;
Raises my grateful thoughts on high,
And points to mansions in the sky.
- 5 For love like this, O let my song,
Through endless years, Thy praise prolong;
Let distant climes thy Name adore,
Till time and nature are no more.

- 1 Upon the gospel's sacred page
The gathered beams of ages shine;
And, as it hastens, every age
But makes its brightness more Divine.
- 2 On mightier wing, in loftier flight,
From year to year does knowledge soar;
And, as it soars, the gospel light
Becomes effulgent more and more.
- 3 More glorious, still, as centuries roll,
New regions blest, new powers unfurled,
Expanding with the expanding soul,
Its radiance shall o'erflow the world.—
- 4 Flow to restore, but not destroy;
As when the cloudless lamp of day
Pours out its floods of light and joy,
And sweeps the lingering mists away.

2 Thanks and praise, thanks and praise,
Thanks and praise be ever Thine,
That Thy word to us is given,
Teaching us with power Divine,
That the Lord of earth and heav'n,
Everlasting life for us to gain,
Once was slain, once was slain.

3 Lord, our God; Lord, our God;
May Thy precious saving word,
Till our race is here completed,
Light unto our path afford;
And, when in Thy presence seated,
We to Thee will render for Thy grace
Ceaseless praise, ceaseless praise.

3 Word of life, most pure and strong,
Lo, for Thee the nations long:

To souls be-night - ed and dis-trest! Thy pre-cepts guide my doubtful way,

Thy fear for - bids my feet to stray, Thy prom-ise leads my heart to rest.

2 From the discoveries of Thy law,
The perfect rules of life I draw;
These are my study and delight;
Not honey so invites the taste,
Nor gold that has the furnace passed,
Appears so pleasing to the sight.

3 Who knows the errors of his thoughts?
My God, forgive my secret faults,
And from presumptuous sins restrain;
Accept my poor attempts of praise,
That I have read Thy book of grace,
And book of nature not in vain.

- 2 My flesh would rest in Thine abode,
My panting heart cries out for God;
My God! my King! why should I be
So far from all my joys, and Thee?
- 3 Blest are the saints who sit on high,
Around Thy throne of majesty;
Thy brightest glories shine above,
And all their work is praise and love.
- 4 Blest are the souls who find a place
Within the temple of Thy grace;
There they behold Thy gentler rays,
And seek Thy face, and learn Thy praise.

Till all shall meet in heaven at length;
Till all before Thy face appear,
And join in nobler worship there.

- 1 This day at Thy creating word
First o'er the earth the light was poured:
O Lord, this day upon us shine,
And fill our souls with light Divine.
- 2 This day the Lord for sinners slain
In might victorious rose again:
O Jesus, may we raised be
From death of sin, to life in Thee.
- 3 This day the Holy Spirit came
With fiery tongues of cloven-flame:
O Spirit, fill our hearts this day
With grace to hear, and grace to pray.

Thy hallowed hours, best gift of love,
Give we again to God above!

THE LORD'S DAY AND SANCTUARY.

- 2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest ;
No mortal care shall seize my breast ;
O may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound.
- 3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless His works, and bless His word :
Thy works of grace, how bright they shine!
How deep Thy counsels, how Divine !
- 4 Fools never raise their thoughts so high ;
Like brutes they live, like brutes they die ;

- Like grass they flourish till Thy breath
Blasts them in everlasting death.
- 5 But I shall share a glorious part
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil to cheer my head.
- 6 Then shall I see, and hear, and know,
All I desired or wished below ;
And every power find sweet employ
In that eternal world of joy.

Resounding from immortal tongues ;

How sweet to hail the evening's close

1. Pleasant are Thy courts a-bove, In the land of light and love; Pleasant are Thy courts below In this land of sin and woe. O my spirit longs and fairs For the converse of Thy saints, For the brightness of Thy face, King of glo-ry, God of grace!

- 2 Happy birds that sing and fly,
Round Thy altars, O Most High!
Happier souls that find a rest,
In their heavenly Father's breast!
Like the wandering dove that found
No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair,
And enjoy it ever there.
- 3 Happy souls, their praises flow,
Ever in this vale of woe;
Waters in the desert rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies;
On they go from strength to strength,
Till they reach Thy throne at length;
At Thy feet adoring fall,
Who hast led them safe through all.
- 4 Lord, be mine this prize to win;
Guide me through this world of sin;
Keep me by Thy saving grace,
Give me at Thy side a place;
Sun and shield alike Thou art,
Guide and guard my erring heart;
Grace and glory flow from Thee,
Shower, O shower them, Lord, on me.

- 1 Lord, remove the vail away,
Let us see Thyself to-day:
Thou Who camest from on high,
For our sins to bleed and die,
Help us now to cast aside
All that would our hearts divide;
With the Father and the Son
Let Thy living church be one.
- 2 O, from earthly cares set free,
Let us find our rest in Thee;
May our toils and conflicts cease
In the calm of Sabbath peace;
That Thy people here below
Something of the bliss may know,
Something of the rest and love,
In the Sabbath-home above.
- 3 Give our souls the spotless dress
Of Thy perfect righteousness;
So at length each welcome guest,
Then shall enter to the feast,
Take the harp and raise the song,
All Thy ransomed ones among;
Earthly cares and sorrows o'er,

On thee the high and low - ly, Through a - ges joined in tune,

Sing Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly, To the great God 'Tri - une.

2 On thee, at the creation,
The light first had its birth;
On thee, for our salvation,
Christ rose from depths of earth;
On thee our Lord, victorious,
The Spirit sent from heaven;
And thus on thee, most glorious,
A triple light was given.

3 Thou art a port protected
From storms that round us rise;
A garden intersected
With streams of Paradise;
Thou art a cooling fountain
In life's dry, dreary sand;
From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
We view our promised land.

4 To-day on weary nations
The heavenly manna falls:
To holy convocations
The silver trumpet calls,
Where gospel light is glowing
With pure and radiant beams,
And living water flowing
With soul-refreshing streams.

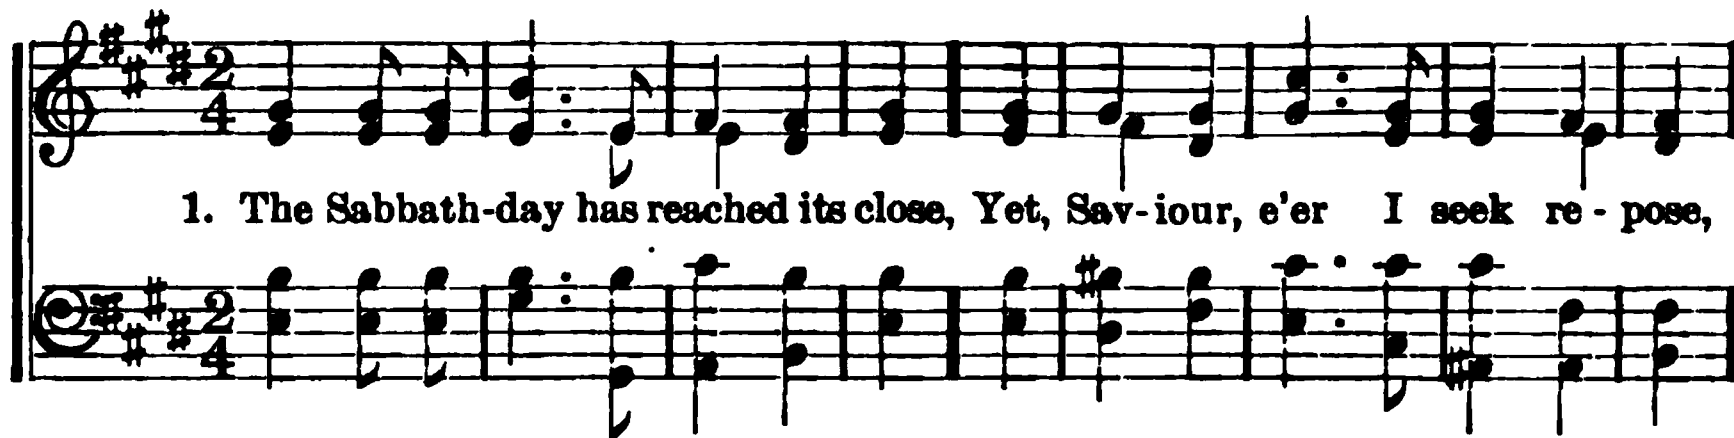

5 New graces ever gaining
From this our day of rest,
We reach the rest remaining
To spirits of the blest.

O'er island, continent, and deep,
Thy far-spread family awoke,
Sabbath all round the world to keep.

3 From east to west the sun surveyed,
From north to south, adoring throngs;
And still where evening stretched her shade,
The stars came forth to hear their songs.

4 And not a prayer, a tear, a sigh,

Yet pass not from us with the sun, True Light that light-enest all.

2 Around Thy throne on high,
Where night can never be,
The white-robed harpers of the sky
Bring ceaseless hymns to Thee.

4 Yet, Lord, to Thy dear will
If Thou attune the heart,
We in Thine angels' music still
May bear our lower part.

3 Too faint our anthems here :
Too soon of praise we tire ;
But O, the strains how full and clear
Of that eternal choir !

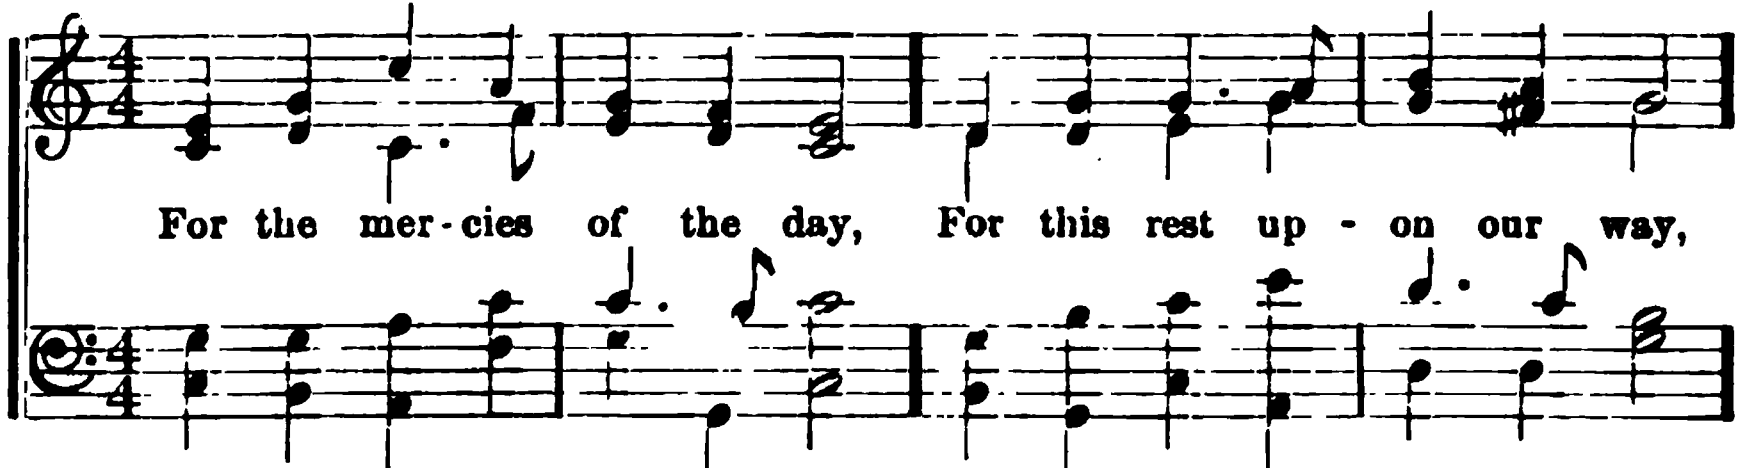

'Tis Thine each soul to calm,
Each wayward thought reclaim,
And make our daily life a psalm

1. Lord of the worlds a - bove, How pleasant and how fair The dwellings of Thy love, Thine earthly temples are; To Thine abode my heart aspires, With warm desires to see my God.

2 O happy souls that pray
Where God appoints to hear!
O happy men that pay
Their constant service there!
They praise Thee still; and happy they
That love the way to Zion's hill.

3 They go from strength to strength,
Through this dark vale of tears,
Till each arrives at length,
Till each in heaven appears:
O glorious seat! Thou, God our King,
Shalt thither bring our willing feet.

4 The Lord His people loves;
His hand no good withholds
From those His heart approves,
From humble, contrite souls:
Thrice happy he, O God of hosts,
Whose spirit trusts alone in Thee!

- 2 Within Thy temple when we stand
To teach the truth, as taught by Thee,
Saviour, like stars in Thy right hand
The angels of the churches be!
- 3 Wisdom, and zeal, and faith impart,
Firmness, with meekness from above,
To bear Thy people on our heart,
And love the souls whom Thou dost love;
- 4 To watch, and pray, and never faint,
By day and night strict guard to keep,
To warn the sinner, cheer the saint,
Nourish Thy lambs, and feed Thy sheep.
- 5 Then, when our work is finished here,
In humble hope our charge resign!
When the Chief Shepherd shall appear,
O God, may they and we be Thine!

James Montgomery, 1825.

- 1 Father of mercies, bow Thine ear,
Attentive to our earnest prayer;
We plead for those who plead for Thee
Successful pleaders may they be!
- 2 How great their work, how vast their charge!
Do Thou their anxious souls enlarge;
To them Thy sacred truth reveal,
Suppress their fear, inflame their zeal.
- 3 Teach them to sow the precious seed;
Teach them Thy chosen flock to feed;
Teach them immortal souls to gain,
Souls that will well reward their pain.
- 4 Let thronging multitudes around
Hear from their lips the joyful sound,
In humble strains Thy grace implore,
And feel Thy new-creating power.

Rev. Benjamin Beddome, 1787.

367 ALPHA. 7. 7. 7. 7.

- 2 While Thy glorious Name is sung,
Touch my lips,—unloose my tongue;
That my joyful soul may bless
Thee, the Lord, my Righteousness.
- 3 I through Him am reconciled,
I through Him become Thy child:
Abba, Father! give me grace
In Thy courts to seek Thy face.
- 4 While the prayers of saints ascend,
God of love, to mine attend;
Hear me, for Thy Spirit pleads;
Hear, for Jesus intercedes.

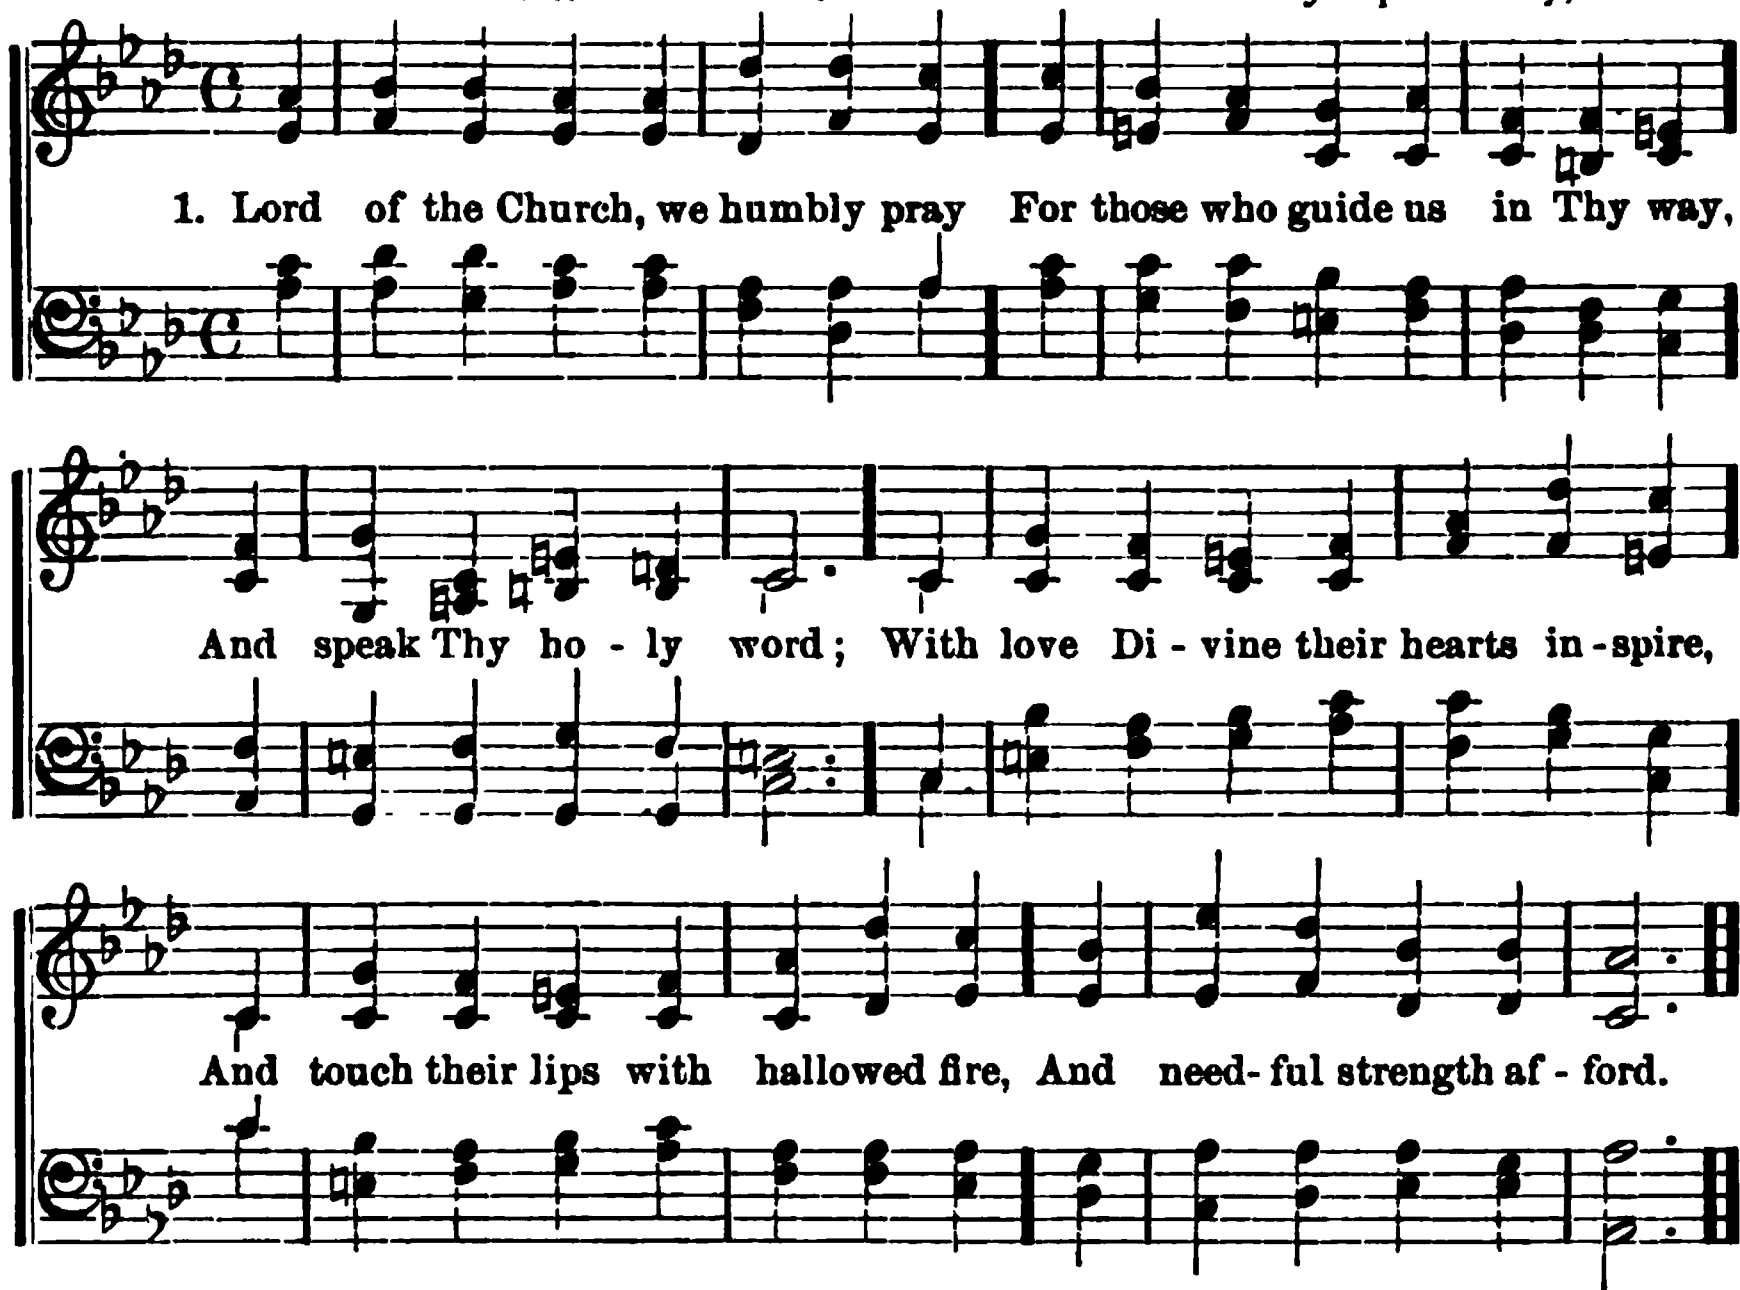

- 5 While I hearken to Thy law,
Fill my soul with humble awe;
Till Thy gospel bring to me
Life and immortality.
- 6 While Thy ministers proclaim
Peace and pardon in Thy Name,
Through their voice, by faith, may I
Hear Thee speaking from the sky.
- 7 From Thy house when I return,
May my heart within me burn,
And at evening let me say,
I have walked with God to-day.

And speak Thy ho - ly word; With love Di - vine their hearts in - spire,
And touch their lips with hallowed fire, And need - ful strength af - ford.

2 Help them to preach the truth of God,

1. A-wake, Thon Spir-it, who didst fire The watchmen of the Church's youth,
Who faced the foe's en-ven-omed ire, Who witnessed day and night Thy truth,
Whose voic-es loud are ring-ing still, And bringing hosts to know Thy will.

2 Lord, let our earnest prayer be heard,
The prayer Thy Son hath bid us pray,
For lo, Thy children's hearts are stirred
In every land in this our day,
To cry with fervent soul to Thee,
O help us, Lord! so let it be!

3 O haste to help, ere we are lost!
Send preachers forth, in spirit strong,
Armed with Thy word, a dauntless host,
Bold to attack the rule of wrong;
Let them the earth for Thee reclaim,
Thy heritage, to know Thy Name.

4 And let Thy word have speedy course,
Through every land be glorified,
Till all the heathen know its force,
And fill Thy churches far and wide;
Wake Israel from her sleep, O Lord,
And spread the conquests of Thy word!

5 Thy Church's desert paths restore;
Let stumbling-blocks that in them lie
Hinder Thy word henceforth no more:
Error destroy, and heresy,
And let Thy Church, from hirelings free,
Bloom as a garden fair to Thee!

2 Give tongues of fire and hearts of love
To preach the reconciling word;
Give power and unction from above,
Whene'er the joyful sound is heard.

3 Be darkness, at Thy coming, light;
Confusion, order in Thy path;
Souls without strength inspire with might;
Bid mercy triumph over wrath.

4 O spirit of the Lord, prepare
All the round earth her God to meet;
Breathe Thou abroad like morning air,
Till hearts of stone begin to beat.

5 Baptize the nations; far and nigh

The Name of Jesus glorify,
Till every kindred call Him Lord.

3 Anoint them Priests! Strong intercessors they
For pardon, and for charity and peace.
Ah, if with them the world might pass, astray,
Into the dear Christ's life of sacrifice!

4 Anoint them Kings! Aye kingly Kings, O Lord!
Anoint them with the spirit of Thy Son:
Theirs, not a jewelled crown, a blood-stained sword;
Theirs, by sweet love, for Christ a kingdom won.

5 Make them Apostles! Heralds of Thy cross,
Forth may they fare to tell all realms Thy grace
Inspired of Thee, may they count all but loss,

But if I, alas ! have broken

These my vows, hide not Thy face ;
And from falling
O restore me to Thy grace !

All I have, and all I am ;
Make my heart more true and tender,
Glorify in me Thy Name.
Let obedience

1 Dear Saviour, we are Thine
By everlasting bands;
Our hearts, our souls, we would resign
Entirely to Thy hands.

2 To Thee we still would cleave
With ever-growing zeal;
If millions tempt us Christ to leave,
O let them ne'er prevail.

3 Thy Spirit shall unite
Our souls to Thee, our Head:
Shall form us to Thy image bright,
And teach Thy paths to tread.

4 Death may our souls divide
From these abodes of clay:
But love shall keep us near Thy side,
Through all the gloomy way.

5 Since Christ and we are one,
Why should we doubt or fear?
If He in heaven hath fixed His throne,
He'll fix His members there.

Well may this glow - ing heart re - joice, And tell its raptures all a-broad.

2 O happy bond, that seals my vows
To Him who merits all my love:
Let cheerful anthems fill His house,
While to that sacred shrine I move.

3 'Tis done, the great transaction's done:
I am my Lord's, and He is mine:
He drew me, and I followed on,
Charmed to confess the voice Divine.

4 Now, rest, my long-divided heart,
Fixed on this blissful centre rest;
With ashes who would grudge to part,
When called on angel's bread to feast.

5 High heaven, that heard the solemn vow,
That vow renewed shall daily hear;
Till in life's latest hour I bow,
And bless in death a bond so dear.

Life in me Thy life pro-duc - es, And gives vig - or to my heart,

As the wine doth liv - ing juic - es To the pur - ple grape im - part.

2 Could I be in other places,
Half so happy as with Thee,
Who so many gifts and graces
Hast Thyself prepared for me?
No place could be half so fitted
To impart true joy, I ween,
Since to Thee, O Lord! committed
Power in heaven and earth hath been

3 Where shall I find such a Master,
Who hath done my soul such good,
And retrieved the great disaster
Sin first caused, by His own blood?
Is not He my rightful owner,
Who for me His own life gave?
Were it not a foul dishonor
Not to love Him to the grave?

4 Yes, Lord Jesus, I am ever
Thine in sorrow and in joy;
Death the union shall not sever
Nor eternity destroy.

I am waiting, yea, am sighing
For my summons to depart;
He is best prepared for dying
Who in life is Thine in heart.

5 Let Thy light on me be shining
When the day is almost gone,
When the evening is declining,
And the night is drawing on:
Bless me, O my Saviour! laying
Thy hands on my weary head;
"Here thy day is ended," saying,
"Yonder live the faithful dead."

6 Stay beside me, when the stillness
And the icy touch of death
Fills my trembling soul with chillness,
Like the morning's frosty breath;
As my failing eyes grow dimmer,
Let my spirit grow more bright,
As I see the first faint glimmer
Of the everlasting light.

Here is love's off'ring to my King, Which, a glad sac - ri - fice, I bring— Here is my heart.

2 Here is my heart! surely the gift, though poor,
 My God will not despise;
 Vainly and long I sought to make it pure,
 To meet Thy searching eyes;
 Corrupted first in Adam's fall,
 The stains of sin pollute it all—
 My guilty heart!

4 Here is my heart!—ah Holy Spirit, come,
 Its nature to renew,
 And consecrate it wholly as Thy home,
 A temple fair and true.
 Teach it to love and serve Thee more,
 To fear Thee, trust Thee, and adore—
 My cleansèd heart!

3 Here is my heart! in Christ it's longings end,
 Near to His cross it draws;
 It says, "Thou art my portion, O my Friend,
 Thy blood my ransom was!"
 And in the Saviour it has found
 What blessedness and peace abound—
 My trust in heart!

5 Here is my heart!—teach it, O Lord, to cling
 In gladness unto Thee;
 And in the day of sorrow still to sing,
 "Welcome my God's decree."
 Believing, all its journeys through,
 That Thou art wise, and just, and true—
 My waiting heart!

6 Here is my heart!—O Friend of friends be near,
 To make each tempter fly,
 And when at last—I death await with fear,
 Give me the victory!
 Then gladly on Thy love reposing,
 Let me say, when my life is closing—
 Here is my heart!

2 Before the cross of Him who died,
Behold, I prostrate fall;
Let every sin be crucified,
Let Christ be all in all!

1 O that the Lord would guide my ways,

2 Order my footsteps by Thy word,

Let sin have no dominion, Lord,
But keep my conscience clear.

4 May the dear blood, once shed for me,

1. Je-sus, and shall it ev - er be, A mortal man a-shamed of Thee!

THE CONFIRMATION.

Ashamed of Thee, whom angels praise, Whose glories shine thro' end-less days!

2 Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far
Let evening blush to own a star:
He sheds the beams of light Divine
O'er this benighted soul of mine.

3 Ashamed of Jesus! just as soon
Let midnight be ashamed of noon:
'Tis midnight with my soul till He,
Bright Morning Star, bid darkness flee.

4 Ashamed of Jesus, that dear Friend
On whom my hopes of heaven depend!

No; when I blush, be this my shame,
That I no more revere His Name.

5 Ashamed of Jesus! yes, I may
When I've no guilt to wash away,
No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
No fears to quell, no soul to save.

6 Till then—nor is my boasting vain—
Till then I boast a Saviour slain;
And O may this my glory be,
That Christ is not ashamed of me.

{ Meekly kneel - ing at Thy foot - stool For Thy seven - fold gifts we pray; }

Guide us all our earth - ly jour - ney In the true and nar - row way.

2 Foes on every hand are round us,
And our hearts are weak and frail;
Gird us with Thy heavenly armor;
Never let us yield or quail;
Give us victory in the struggle,
When the hosts of sin assail.

3 Blessèd Jesus, draw Thou near us,
As before Thy cross we bow;
Help us to be true and faithful,
Seal our sacramental vow;
We Thy soldiers are, and servants;
Hear our solemn promise now.

4 Lead us by Thy guiding presence
Through the waste, with danger rife;
Feed us with the heavenly manna,
That we faint not in the strife;
Slake our weary spirits' thirsting,
From the living well of life.

5 Looking ever unto Jesus,
Leaning on His staff and rod;
May we follow in His footsteps,
Tread the path that He has trod,
Till we dwell with Him forever
In the Paradise of God.

2 No such mercy can we claim,
 But our blessed Lord hath spoken;
 He hath sworn by His great Name,
 And His word cannot be broken.
 Heaven is open! I believe
 Jesus sinners doth receive.

3 As the shepherd seeks to find
 His lost sheep that from him strayeth,
 So hath Christ each soul in mind,
 And for its salvation prayeth;
 Fain He'd have each wanderer live—
 Jesus sinners doth receive.

4 Come then, all by guilt oppressed,
 Jesus calls, and He would make you
 God's own children, pure and blest,
 And to glory He would take you;
 Think on this, and well believe,
 Jesus sinners doth receive.

5 In my grief I now draw near,
 All my sinfulness confessing;
 Saviour, my petition hear,
 Grant me pardon and Thy blessing;
 Help, O help me to believe,
 Jesus sinners doth receive.

6 Cheered at thought of peace with God,
 Darkness yields to hopeful brightness;
 Through the merit of Thy blood
 Scarlet sins are turned to whiteness,
 As I say, and now believe,
 Jesus sinners doth receive.

7 Now my conscience is at peace;
 From the law I stand acquitted;
 Christ hath purchased my release,
 And my every sin remitted.
 Naught remains my soul to grieve,
 Jesus sinners doth receive!

2 Son of the living God, O call us
 Once and again to follow Thee;
 And give us strength, whate'er befall us,
 Thy true disciples still to be.

3 When fears appall, and faith is failing,
 Make Thy voice heard o'er wind and wave,
 "Why doubt?" and in Thy love prevailing
 Put forth Thine hand to help and save.

4 And if our coward hearts deny Thee,
 In inmost thought, in deed, or word,
 Let not our hardness still defy Thee,
 But with a look subdue us, Lord.

5 O strengthen Thou our weak endeavor

 To give ourselves to Thee for ever,
 And find Thee with us to the end.

2 Here would I feed upon the bread of God,
Here drink with Thee the royal wine of heaven
Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.

3 This is the hour of banquet and of song;
This is the heavenly table spread for me:
Here let me feast, and, feasting, still prolong
The brief, bright hour of fellowship with Thee

4 I have no help but Thine, nor do I need
Another arm save Thine to lean upon:
It is enough, my Lord, enough indeed;
My strength is in Thy might, Thy might alone.

5 Mine is the sin, but Thine the righteousness;
Mine is the guilt, but Thine the cleansing blood;
Here is my robe, my refuge, and my peace,
Thy blood, Thy righteousness, O Lord my God

6 Feast after feast thus comes, and passes by;

2 Hasten as a bride to meet Him,
And with loving reverence greet Him,

Help me that I'll ne'er turn from Thee.

3 Now I sink before Thee, lowly,
Filled with joy most deep and holy,
As with trembling awe and wonder
On Thy mighty works I ponder,

How by mystery surrounded,
Depths no man has ever sounded,
None may dare to pierce, unbidden,
Secrets that with Thee are hidden.

4 Sun, who all my life dost brighten,
Light, who dost my soul enlighten,
Joy, the sweetest man e'er knoweth,

2 Where the paschal blood is poured,
Death's dark angel sheathes his sword ;
Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe.
Praise we Christ, whose blood is shed,
Paschal Victim, Paschal Bread ;
With sincerity and love
Eat we mauna from above.

3 Mighty Victim from the sky,
Powers of hell beneath Thee lie ;
Death is conquered in the fight,
Thou hast brought us life and light :
Paschal triumph, paschal joy,
Only sin can this destroy ;
From the death of sin set free
Souls re-born, dear Lord, in Thee.

To the feast by Jesus given,
Come and taste the bread of heaven.
Why, with proud excuse and vain,
Spurn His mercy once again ?

2 From amidst life's social ties,
From the farm and merchandise,
Come, for all is now prepared ;
Freely given, be freely shared.
Blessèd are the lips that taste
Our Redeemer's marriage feast ;
Blessèd who on Him shall feed,
Bread of Life, and drink indeed.

3 Blessèd, for their thirst is o'er,
They shall never hunger more.
Make, then, once again your choice,
Hear to-day His calling voice ;
Servants, do your Master's will ;
Bidden guests, His table fill ;
Come, before His wrath shall swear :
Ye shall never enter there.

I sleep, but my heart waketh, Lord,

421 LAMPARDIUS. L. M.

Arthur H. Mann, 1894.

1. From ev-'ry storm-y wind that blows, From ev-'ry swell-ing tide of woes,

There is a calm, a sure re-treat; 'Tis found be-neath the mer-cy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,
A place than all besides more sweet;
It is the blood-stained mercy-seat.

3 There is a spot where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend,
Though sundered far; by faith they meet
Around the common mercy-seat.

4 Ah, whither could we flee for aid,
When tempted, desolate, dismayed,
Or how the hosts of hell defeat,
Had suffering saints no mercy-seat?

5 There, there on eagle wings we soar,
And time and sense seem all no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

PRAYER AND ASPIRATION.

422 NORTHREPPS. C. M.

Josiah Booth, 1887.

2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,—
The falling of a tear,—
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.

8 O Thou, by whom we come to God,
The Life, the Truth, the Way—
The path of prayer Thyself hast trod :—
Lord, teach us how to pray !

James Montgomery, 1818.

3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try ;
Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

423

C. M.

4 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air ;
His watchword at the gates of death,—
He enters heaven with prayer.

1 There is an eye that never sleeps
Beneath the wing of night ;
There is an ear that never shuts
When sink the beams of light.

2 There is an arm that never tires,
When human strength gives way ;
There is a love that never fails,
When earthly loves decay.

5 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
Returning from his ways ;
While angels, in their songs rejoice,
And cry,—“ Behold, he prays ! ”

3 That eye is fixed on seraph throngs ;
That arm upholds the sky ;
That ear is filled with angel songs ;
That love is throned on high.

6 The saints in prayer appear as one,
In word, and deed, and mind,
While with the Father and the Son
Sweet fellowship they find.

4 But there's a power which man can wield
When mortal aid is vain,
That eye, that arm, that love to reach,
That listening ear to gain.

7 Nor prayer is made by man alone,
The Holy Spirit pleads ;
And Jesus on th' eternal throne
For mourner's intercedes.

5 That power is prayer, which soars on high,
Through Jesus, to the throne ;
And moves the hand which moves the world,
To bring salvation down !

2 I do not ask that flowers should always spring
Beneath my feet;
I know too well the poison and the sting
Of things too sweet.

4 I do not ask, O Lord, that Thou shouldst shed
Full radiance here;
Give but a ray of peace, that I may tread
Without a fear.

3 For one thing only, Lord, dear Lord I plead:
Lead me aright,
Though strength should falter and though heart should bleed,
Through peace to light.

5 I do not ask my cross to understand,
My way to see;
Better in darkness just to feel Thy hand,
And follow Thee.

6 Joy is like restless day; but peace Divine
Like quiet night:
Lead me, O Lord, till perfect day shall shine,
Through peace to light.

- 2 Show us some token of Thy love,
Our feeble hopes to raise;
And pour Thy blessing from above,
That we may render praise.
- 3 Within these walls let holy peace,
And love and concord dwell;
Here give the troubled conscience ease,
The wounded spirit heal.
- 4 The hearing ear, the watchful eye,
The contrite heart bestow:
And shine upon us from on high,
To make our graces grow.
- 5 May we in faith receive Thy word,
In faith address our prayers;
And in the presence of the Lord
Unbosom all our cares.
- 6 And may Thy gospel's joyful sound,
Enforced by grace Divine,
Awaken many sinners round,
And bend their wills to Thine.

Rev. John Newton, 1779.

- 1 O for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free;
A heart that always feels Thy blood
So freely shed for me!
- 2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My dear Redeemer's throne;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone!
- 3 O for a lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean!
Which neither life nor death can part
From Him that dwells within.
- 4 A heart in every thought renewed,
And filled with love Divine;
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good;
An image, Lord! of Thine.
- 5 Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart;
Come quickly from above;
Write Thy new Name upon my heart,—
Thy new, best Name of Love.

- 2 Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest;
I hate the sins that made Thee mourn,
And drove Thee from my breast.

- 3 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
And worship only Thee.

- 4 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

2 Wash out its stains, refine its dross;
Nail my affections to the cross;
Hallow each thought; let all within
Be clean, as Thou, my Lord, art clean.

3 If in this darksome wild I stray,
Be Thou my Light, be Thou my Way;
No foes, no violence I fear,
No harm, while Thou, my God, art near.

4 When rising floods my head o'erflow,
When sinks my heart in waves of woe,
Jesus, Thy timely aid impart,
And raise my head, and cheer my heart.

5 Saviour, where'er Thy steps I see,
Dauntless, untired, I follow Thee:
O let Thy hand support me still,
And lead me to Thy holy hill.

6 If rough and thorny be my way,
My strength proportion to my day;
Till toil and grief and pain shall cease
Where all is calm and joy and peace.

1 My God, permit me not to be
A stranger to myself and Thee;
Amidst a thousand thoughts I rove,
Forgetful of my highest love.

2 Why should my passions mix with earth,
And thus debase my highest birth?

Why should I cleave to things below,
And let my God, my Saviour, go?

3 Call me away from flesh and sense:
One sovereign word can draw me thence;
I would obey the voice Divine,
And all inferior joys resign.

4 Be earth, with all her scenes, withdrawn,
Let noise and vanity be gone;
In secret silence of the mind
My heaven, and there my God, I find.

Rev. Isaac Watts, 1709.

1 What various hind'rances we meet,
In coming to a mercy seat?
Yet who that knows the worth of prayer,
But wishes to be often there?

2 Prayer makes the darkened clouds withdraw;
Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw,
Gives exercise to faith and love,
Brings every blessing from above.

3 Restraining prayer, we cease to fight;
Prayer makes the Christian's armor bright;
And Satan trembles when he sees
The weakest saint upon his knees.

4 When half the breath thus vainly spent,
To heaven in supplication sent,
Our cheerful song would oftener be,
"Hear what the Lord hath done for me."

And let my ear - ly cries pre - vail To taste Thy love Di - vine.

2 My thirsty, fainting soul
Thy mercy doth implore;
Not travelers in desert lands
Can pant for water more.

3 In wakeful hours at night,
I call my God to mind;
I think how wise Thy counsels are,
And all Thy dealings kind.

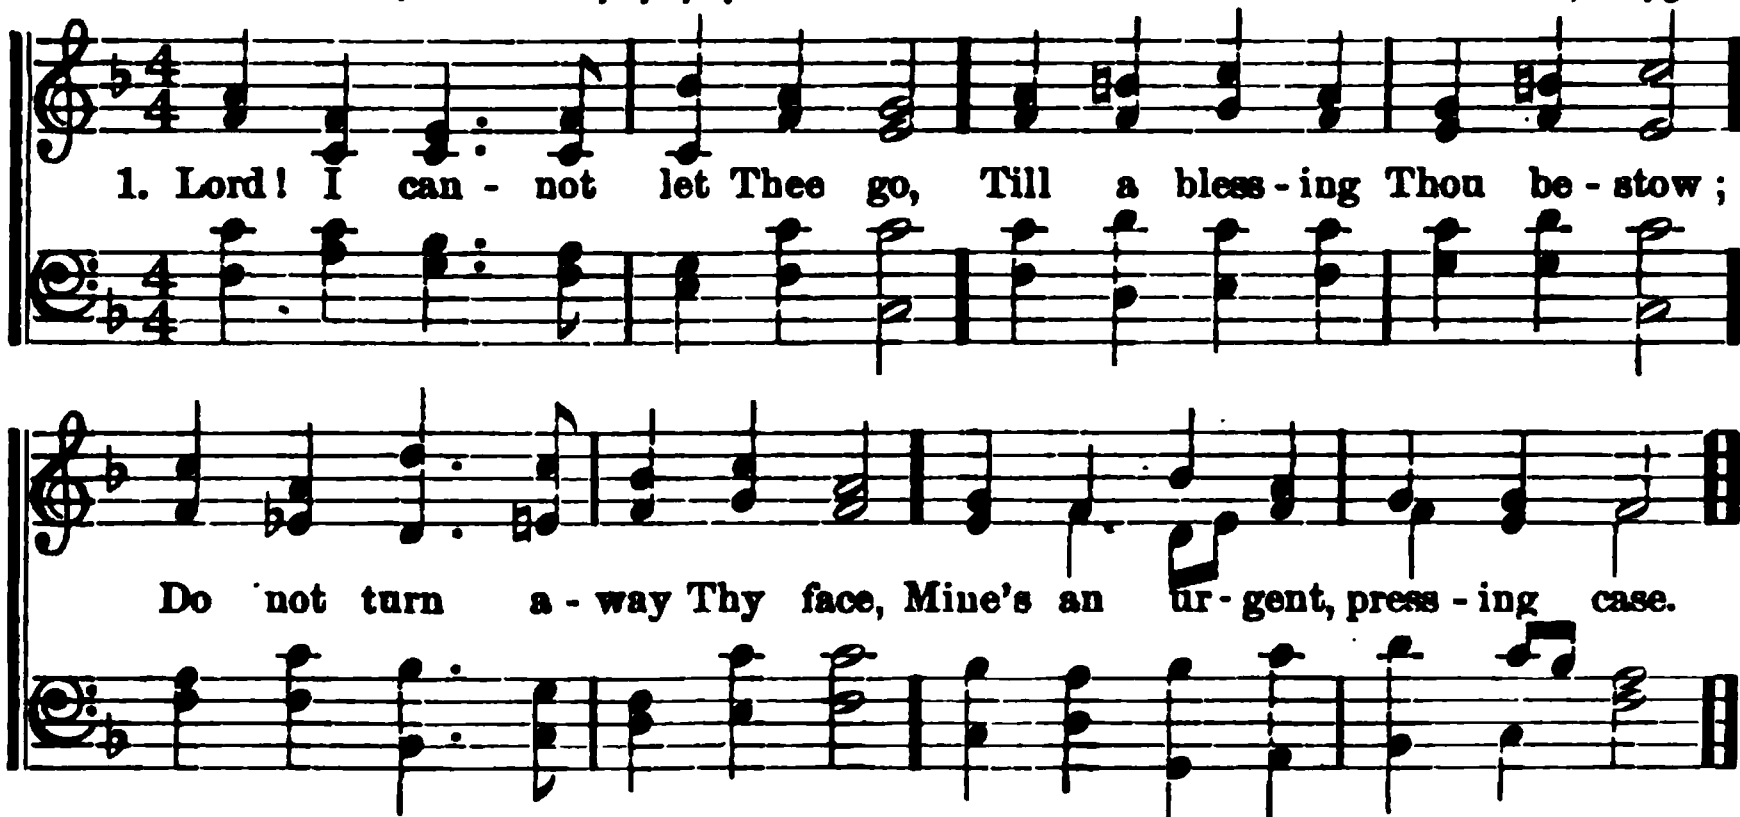

4 Since Thou hast been my help,
To Thee my spirit flies;

My cheerful hopes relies.

2 Once a sinner, in despair,
Sought Thy mercy-seat by prayer;
Mercy heard and set him free—
Lord! that mercy came to me.

3 Many days have passed since then,
Many changes I have seen;
Yet have been upheld till now;
Who could hold me up but Thou?

4 Thou hast helped in every need—
This emboldens me to plead;
After so much mercy passed,
Canst Thou let me sink at last?

1. More love to Thee, O Christ, More love to Thee! Hear Thou the prayer I make On bend-ed knee; This is my ear-nest plea,
More love, O Christ, to Thee, More love, O Christ, to Thee, More love to Thee!

2 Once earthly joy I craved,
Sought peace and rest;
Now Thee alone I seek,
Give what is best:
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

3 Let sorrow do its work,
Send grief and pain;
Sweet are Thy messengers,
Sweet their refrain,
When they can sing with me,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

4 Then shall my latest breath
Whisper Thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to Thee,
More love to Thee!

1. Lead us, O Father, in the paths of peace; With-out Thy guiding hand we go a - stray,

And doubts ap-pal, and sorrows still in-crease: Lead us thro' Christ, the true and liv-ing Way.

Lead us, O Father, in the paths of truth;
Uphelped by Thee, in error's maze we grope,
While passion stains and folly dims our youth,
And age comes on uncheered by faith and hope.

3 Lead us, O Father, in the paths of right;
Blindly we stumble when we walk alone,
Involved in shadows of a moral night;
Only with Thee we journey safely on.

4 Lead us, O Father, to Thy heavenly rest,
However rough and steep the path may be;
Through joy or sorrow, as Thou deemest best,
Until our lives are perfected in Thee.

Let Thine outstretchèd wing
Be like the shade of Elim's palm

- 3 Yes, keep me calm, though loud and rude
The sounds my ear that greet,
Calm in the closet's solitude,
Calm in the bustling street;
- 4 Calm in the hour of buoyant health,
Calm in my hour of pain;
Calm in my poverty or wealth,
Calm in my loss or gain;
- 5 Calm in the sufferance of wrong,
Like Him who bore my shame,
Calm 'mid the threatening, taunting throng
Who hate Thy holy Name;
- 6 Calm as the ray of sun or star
Which storms assail in vain;
Moving unruffled through earth's war,
The eternal calm to gain.

Rev. Horatius Bonar, 1857.

- 1 Dear refuge of my weary soul,
On Thee, when sorrows rise,
On Thee, when waves of trouble roll,
My fainting hope relies.
- 2 To Thee I tell each rising grief,
For Thou alone canst heal;
Thy word can bring a sweet relief
For every pain I feel.
- 3 But O, when gloomy doubts prevail,
I fear to call Thee mine;
The springs of comfort seem to fail,
And all my hopes decline.
- 4 Yet, gracious God, where shall I flee?
Thou art my only trust;
And still my soul would cleave to Thee,
Though prostrate in the dust.
- 5 Thy mercy-seat is open still;
Here let my soul retreat,
With humble hope attend Thy will,
And wait beneath Thy feet.

2 Though dark my path and sad my lot,
Let me be still and murmur not,
Or breathe the prayer divinely taught,
Thy will be done.

3 What though in lonely grief I sigh
For friends beloved, no longer nigh,
Submissive still would I reply,
Thy will be done.

4 If Thou shouldst call me to resign
What most I prize, it ne'er was mine
I only yield Thee what was Thine:
Thy will be done.

5 If but my fainting heart be blest
With Thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
My God, to Thee I leave the rest;
Thy will be done.

6 Renew my will from day to day;
Blend it with Thine, and take away
And that now makes it hard to say,
Thy will be done.

7 Then, when on earth I breathe no more
The prayer oft mixed with tears before,
I'll sing upon a happier shore,
Thy will be done.

Charlotte Elliott, 1834.

1 My God, is any hour so sweet,
From blush of morn to evening star,
As that which calls me to Thy feet—
The hour of prayer?

2 Then in my strength by Thee renewed;
Then are my sins by Thee forgiven;
Then dost Thou cheer my solitude,
With hopes of heaven.

3 No words can tell what sweet relief
Here for my every want I find:
What strength for warfare, balm for grief,
What peace of mind!

4 Hushed is each doubt, gone every fear;
My spirit seems in heaven to stay;
And e'en the penitential tear
Is wiped away.

5 Lord, till I reach yon blissful shore,
No privilege so dear shall be
As thus my inmost soul to pour
In prayer to Thee.

3 Come, Almighty, to deliver,
Let us all Thy life receive;
Graciously return, and never,
Never more Thy temples leave!
Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve Thee as Thy hosts above,
Pray and praise Thee without ceasing,
Glory in Thy perfect love.

4 Finish then Thy new creation,
Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see Thy great salvation
Perfectly restored in Thee!
Changed from glory into glory,

8. 7. 8. 7. D.

1 Souls of men, why will ye scatter
Like a crowd of frightened sheep?
Foolish hearts, why will ye wander
From a love so true and deep?
Was there ever kinder shepherd,
Half so gentle, half so sweet,
As the Saviour, who would have us
Come and gather round His feet?

2 It is God ; His love looks mighty,
But is mightier than it seems,
'Tis our Father, and His fondness
Goes far out beyond our dreams.

There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good ;
There is mercy with the Saviour,
There is healing in His blood.

3 There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed ;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.
Pining souls, come nearer Jesus !
And O come not doubting thus,
But with faith that trusts more bravely
His huge tenderness for us.

2 There's no place where earthly sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There's no place where earthly failings
Have such kindly judgment given.—REF.

3 For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of man's mind,
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.—REF.

4 But we make His love too narrow
By false limits of our own,
And we magnify His strictness
With a zeal He will not own.—REF.

5 If our love were but more simple,
We should take Him at His word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.—REF.

1. The way is long and drear-y, The path is bleak and bare, Our feet are worn and wea-ry, But we will not de-spair. More heav-y was Thy bur-den, More des-o-late Thy way: O Lamb of God, who tak-est

The sin of the world a-way, Have mer-cy up-on us!

2 The snows lie thick around us
In dark and gloomy night,
The tempest roars above us,
The stars have hid their light;
But blacker was the darkness
Round Calvary's cross that day:
O Lamb of God, who takest
The sin of the world away,
Have mercy upon us!

3 Our hearts are faint with sorrow,
Heavy and sad to bear;
We dread the bitter morrow,
But we will not despair.
Thou knowest all our anguish,
And Thou wilt bid it cease:
O Lamb of God, who takest
The sin of the world away,
O give to us Thy peace!

- 2 Thy promise is my only plea,
With this I venture nigh;
Thou callest burdened souls to Thee,
And such, O Lord, am I.
- 3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely prest,
By war without, and fear within,
I come to Thee for rest.
- 4 Be Thou my Shield and Hiding-place,
That, sheltered near Thy side,
I may my fierce accuser face,
And tell him, Thou hast died.
- 5 O wondrous Love, to bleed and die,
To bear the cross and shame,
That guilty sinners, such as I,
Might plead Thy gracious Name!

Rev. John Newton, 1779.

- 1 Prostrate, dear Jesus, at Thy feet
A guilty rebel lies,
And upward to the mercy-seat
Presumes to lift his eyes.
- 2 If tears of sorrow would suffice
To pay the debt I owe,
Tears should from both my weeping eyes
In ceaseless torrents flow.
- 3 But no such sacrifice I plead
To expiate my guilt;
No tears but those which Thou hast shed,
No blood but Thou hast spilt.
- 4 Think of Thy sorrows, dearest Lord,
And all my sins forgive:
Justice will well approve the word
That bids the sinner live.

1. O Lord, turn not Thy face a - way From them that low - ly lie,

La - ment - ing sore their sin - ful life With tears and bit - ter cry.

2 Thy mercy-gates are open wide
To them that mourn their sin ;
O shut them not against us, Lord,
But let us enter in.

4 Wherefore, to beg and to entreat,
With tears we come to Thee,
As children that have done amiss
Fall at their father's knee.

3 We need not to confess our fault,
For surely Thou canst tell ;
What we have done, and what we are,
Thou knowest very well.

5 And need we, then, O Lord, repeat
The blessing which we crave,
When Thou dost know, before we speak,
The thing that we would have?

6 Mercy, O Lord, mercy we seek,
This is the total sum ;
For mercy, Lord, is all our prayer ;
O let Thy mercy come.

2 When, weary in the Christian race,
Far off appears my resting-place,
And, fainting, I mistrust Thy grace,
Then, Saviour, plead for me.

4 When Satan, by my sins made bold,
Strives from Thy cross to loose my hold,
Then with Thy pitying arms enfold,
And plead, O plead for me.

3 When I have erred and gone astray,
As far from Thine and wisdom's way,
And see no glimmering guiding ray,
Still, Saviour, plead for me.

5 And when my dying hour draws near,
O'er cast with sorrow, pain, and fear,
Then to my fainting sight appear,
Pleading in heaven for me.

6 When the full light of heavenly day
Reveals my sins in dread array,
Say Thou hast washed them all away ;
O say Thou plead'st for me.

1. Out of the depths I cry to Thee, Lord, hear me, I implore Thee; Bend down Thy gracious ear to me, Let my prayer come be - fore Thee! On my mis-deeds in mer-cy look O deign to blot them from Thy book, Or who can stand be - fore Thee?

2 Thy sovereign grace and boundless love
Make Thee, O Lord, forgiving;
My purest thoughts and deeds but prove
Sin in my heart is living:
None guiltless in Thy sight appear;
All who approach Thy throne must fear,
And humbly trust Thy mercy.

3 Thou canst be merciful while just,—
This is my hope's foundation;
On Thy redeeming grace I trust,
Grant me, then, Thy salvation.
Shielded by Thee, I stand secure;
Thy word is firm, Thy promise sure,
And I rely upon Thee.

4 Like those who watch for midnight's hour
To hail the dawning morrow,
I wait for Thee, I trust Thy power,
Unmoved by doubt or sorrow.
So thus let Israel hope in Thee,
And he shall find Thy mercy free,
And Thy redemption plenteous.

5 Where'er the greatest sins abound,
By grace they are exceeded;
Thy helping hand is always found
With aid, where aid is needed:
Thy hand, the only hand to save,
Will rescue Israel from the grave,
And pardon his transgression.

1 For help, O whither shall I flee?
Who now to peace will guide me?
To none, dear Saviour, but to Thee,
Can I with hope confide me.
'Tis Thine to give the weary rest,
The mourning soul in Thee is blest,—
Help, Jesus, the afflicted!

2 My sin, O Lord, is now my grief,
Against my will it rages:—
Thy grace alone can bring relief,
While sin its warfare wages.
All that I need is known to Thee,
And now a part myself can see,—
Help, Jesus, the sin-burdened!

3 Good Shepherd, bearest Thou the weak?
Sustain me in my weakness!
Thou great Physician of the sick,
Heal Thou my moral sickness!
A prey to death I helpless fall,—
For health and strength to Thee I call,
Save, Jesus, or I perish!

4 To those who trust Thee!—"Nothing fear!
I am the Life!"—Thou criest.
Seeks not my soul, with strong desire,
The Life which Thou suppliest?
Through all my sorrows Thou canst lead,
In death provide for every need—
Help, Jesus, the confiding.

5 I would do good, but still I fail,—
Must I thus always waver?
What grief it gives Thou knowest well;
Who shall my soul deliver,
And set the slave for ever free
From sin and death to live with Thee?—
I thank Thee, God, through Jesus?

1. I was a wan-dering sheep, I did not love the fold;

I did not love my Shepherd's voice, I would not be con - trolled.

I was a way - ward child, I did not love my home;

I did not love my Fa-ther's voice, I loved a - far to roam.

2 The Shepherd sought His sheep,
The Father sought His child;
They followed me o'er vale and hill,
O'er deserts waste and wild:
They found me nigh to death,
Famished and faint and lone;
They bound me with the bands of love,
They saved the wandering one.

3 Jesus my Shepherd is;
'Twas He that loved my soul,
'Twas He that washed me in His blood,
'Twas He that made me whole;

'Twas He that sought the lost,
That found the wandering sheep,
'Twas He that brought me to the fold,
'Twas He that still doth keep.

4 I was a wandering sheep,
I would not be controlled;
But now I love my Shepherd's voice,
I love, I love the fold.
I was a wayward child,
I once preferred to roam;
But now I love my Father's voice,
I love, I love His home.

1. I lay my sins on Je - sus, The spotless Lamb of God; He bears them all, and frees us From the ac-curs-ed load. I bring my guilt to Je - sus, To wash my crimson stains White in His blood most pre - cious, Till not a stain re-mains.
(Or to St. Theodulph.)

- 2 I lay my wants on Jesus,
All fullness dwells in Him;
He healeth my diseases,
He doth my soul redeem;
I lay my griefs on Jesus,
My burdens and my cares;
He from them all releases,
He all my sorrow shares.
- 3 I rest my soul on Jesus,
This weary soul of mine;
His right hand me embraces,
I on His breast recline.
I love the Name of Jesus,
Emmanuel, Christ, the Lord;
Like fragrance on the breezes,
His Name abroad is poured.
- 4 I long to be like Jesus,
Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
I long to be like Jesus,
The Father's holy Child;
I long to be with Jesus
Amid the heavenly throng,
To sing with saints His praises,
To learn the angels' song.

Rev. Horatius Bonar, 1857.

- 1 In holy contemplation,
Now let our souls pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new:
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
Let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may.
- 2 It can bring with it nothing,
But He will bear us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing,
Will clothe His people too:
Beneath the spreading heavens,
No creature but is fed;
And He who feeds the ravens,
Will give His children bread.
- 3 Though vine nor fig-tree neither,
Their wonted fruit should bear,
Though all the fields should wither,
Nor flocks nor herds be there;
Yet, God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice;
For while in Him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice.

Sir George Job Elvey, 1865.

1. Je-sus, Thy blood and righteous-ness, My beauty are, my glo-rious dress,

'Midst flaming worlds, in these ar-rayed, With joy shall I lift up my head.

2 Bold shall I stand in that great day,
For who aught to my charge shall lay?
Fully through these absolved I am
From sin and fear, from guilt and shame.

3 The holy, meek, unspotted Lamb,
Who from the Father's bosom came,
Who died for me, e'en me to atone,
Now for my Lord and God I own.

4 Lord, I believe Thy precious blood,
Which at the mercy-seat of God
For ever doth for sinners plead,
For me—e'en for my soul—was shed.

5 Lord, I believe were sinners more
Than sands upon the ocean shore,
Thou hast for all a ransom paid,
For all a full atonement made.

6 When from the dust of death I rise
To claim my mansion in the skies,
E'en then, this shall be all my plea:
Jesus hath lived, and died for me.

7 Jesus, be endless praise to Thee,
Whose boundless mercy hath for me,
For me, and all Thy hands have made,
An everlasting ransom paid.

481 VOX DILECTI. C. M. D.

Rev. John B. Dykes, 1868.

1. I heard the voice of Je-sus say, "Come unto Me and rest; Lay down, thou weary one, lay down Thy head upon My breast." I came to Je-sus as I was, So wea-ry, worn and sad; I found in Him a resting place, And He has made me glad.

2 I heard the voice of Jesus,
"Behold, I freely give
The living water; thirsty one,
Stoop down and drink, and live."
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in Him.

3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"I am this dark world's Light;
Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise,
And all thy day be bright."
I looked to Jesus, and I found
In Him my Star, my Sun;
And in that Light of life I'll walk,
Till travelling days are done.

2 Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot, [spot,
To Thee, whose blood can cleanse each
O Lamb of God, I come!

3 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come!

4 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind,
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come!

5 Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come!

6 Just as I am, Thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down;
Now, to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come!

1. { I now have found for hope in heav-en, An anchor-ground that firm will stand }
{ 'Twas thro' the cross of Je - sus giv - en, By God ap-pointed from of old, }

A ground that shall en - dur - ing stay, When earth and skies have passed a - way.

2 'Tis God's own mercy, never ending,
Its measure all our thoughts exceeds;
While Jesus too, His arms extending,—
Whose heart for guilty sinners bleeds,—
Now with compassion calls His foes
To flee from sin and endless woes.

6 Should earthly cares still gather round me
And joined with griefs should malice rise,
Together striving to confound me,
Or into sin my soul surprise,
Should sorrows high o'er sorrows swell,
Let Mercy smile, and all is well.

3 And why should we be lost for ever,
Since God to us commends His love?
His Son, with message of His favor,
Invites to holy joys above:
To win our hearts, as oft before,
He now is knocking at the door.

7 Whenever I review my doings,
The best of all that I have done,—
Much wrong and weakness I discover,
And boasting is for ever gone:
But in one thing I can confide,—
'Tis mercy,—and in nought beside.

4 This love's a deep, our follies hiding;
The death of Christ—a matchless grace,
To life and peace our spirits guiding,
Where wrath no more shall find a place.
His blood for us is pleading still—
"Let mercy all its work fulfill!"

8 He leads, and always will be nigh me,
Who has on me His mercy set;
With all I need He will supply me,
Nor let my soul His grace forget:
What joys or sorrows may befall,
I'll trust His grace alike in all.

From this will I my comfort borrow,
With joy will trust my Saviour's plea,
And while for sin I deeply sorrow,
Now to the Father's pity flee,—
In Him I'll ever seek a friend
Whose grace in Christ will never end.

9 Upon this ground I rest most firmly,
Long as the earth my dwelling prove;
And wish to serve my God and Saviour,
Till, dying, I shall rise above,
And there, rejoicing, shall adore—
Unbounded mercy evermore.

2 Jesus, I may trust Thee, Name of matchless worth,
Spoken by the angel at Thy wondrous birth;
Written, and forever, on Thy cross of shame:
Sinners, read and worship, trusting in that Name.

3 Jesus, I must trust Thee, pondering Thy ways,
Full of love and mercy all Thine earthly days:
Sinners gathered round Thee, lepers sought Thy face—
None too vile or loathsome for a Saviour's grace.

4 Jesus, I can trust Thee, trust Thy written word,
Though Thy voice of pity I have never heard.
When Thy Spirit teacheth, to my taste how sweet—
Only may I hearken, sitting at Thy feet.

5 Jesus, I do trust Thee, trust without a doubt:

1. I know in whom I put my trust, I know what stand-eth fast,

When all things here dis-solve like dust, Or smoke be-fore the blast:

I know what still en-dures, how-e'er All else may quake and fall,

When lies the pru-dent men en-snare, And dreams the wise in-thrall.

2 It is the Dayspring from on high,
The adamant Rock,
Whence never storm can make me fly,
That fears no earthquake's shock;
My Jesus Christ, my sure Defence,
My Saviour, and my Light,
That shines within, and scatters thence
Dark phantoms of the night;

3 Who once was borne, betrayed, and slain,
At evening to the grave;
Whom God awoke, who rose again,
A Conqueror strong to save;

Who pardons all my sin, who sends
His Spirit pure and mild;
Whose grace my every step befriends,
Who ne'er forgets His child!

4 Therefore I know in whom I trust,
I know what standeth fast,
When all things formed of earthly dust
Are whirling in the blast:
The terrors of the final foe
Can rob me not of this,
And this shall crown me once, I know,
With never-fading bliss.

2 If my sin's burden would oppress me,
 Or voice of conscience me affright,

 'Gainst Satan's darts and sin's infection,
 Thou art my Shield and Hiding-place;
 Though foes assail me in great numbers
 Who shall condemn, O Lord, Thy children?
 My hope lies anchored in Thy grace.

3 Through deserts of the cross Thou leadest,
 I follow leaning on Thy hand;
 From out the clouds Thy child Thou feedest,
 And rocks give drink at Thy command.
 Thy wondrous ways will have an ending,
 My Friend, I trust, in love and blessing,
 Enough if Thou art ever near!
 I know, that who would see Thy glory
 O'er sun and stars rise high in victory
 Must pass thro' depths and darkness here.

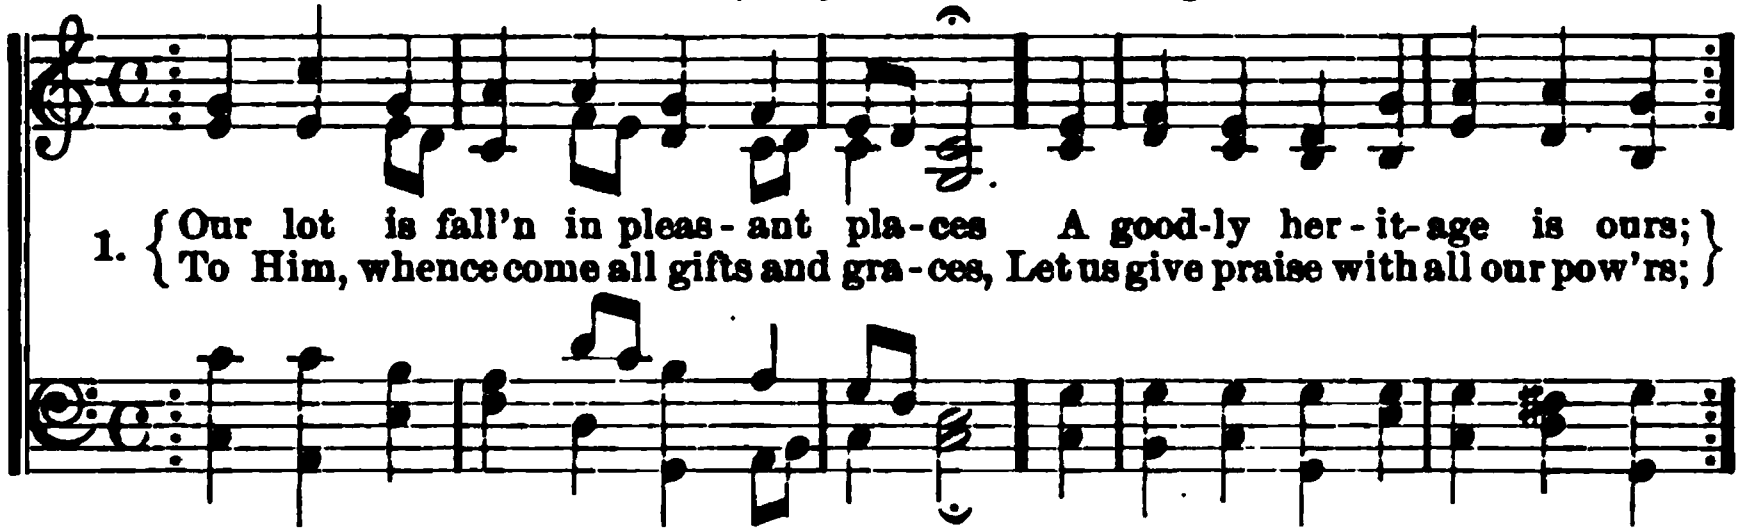

FAITH AND SALVATION.

4 To others death seems dark and fearful,
But not, Thou Life of life, to me;
For Thou dost ne'er forsake Thy faithful,
Whose heart and spirit rest in Thee.
Who fears the end of life's sore journey
If from its days so dark and stormy
He then finds safety and release?
With joyful heart from this dark region
Would I depart to dwell forever
In Thy eternal light and peace.

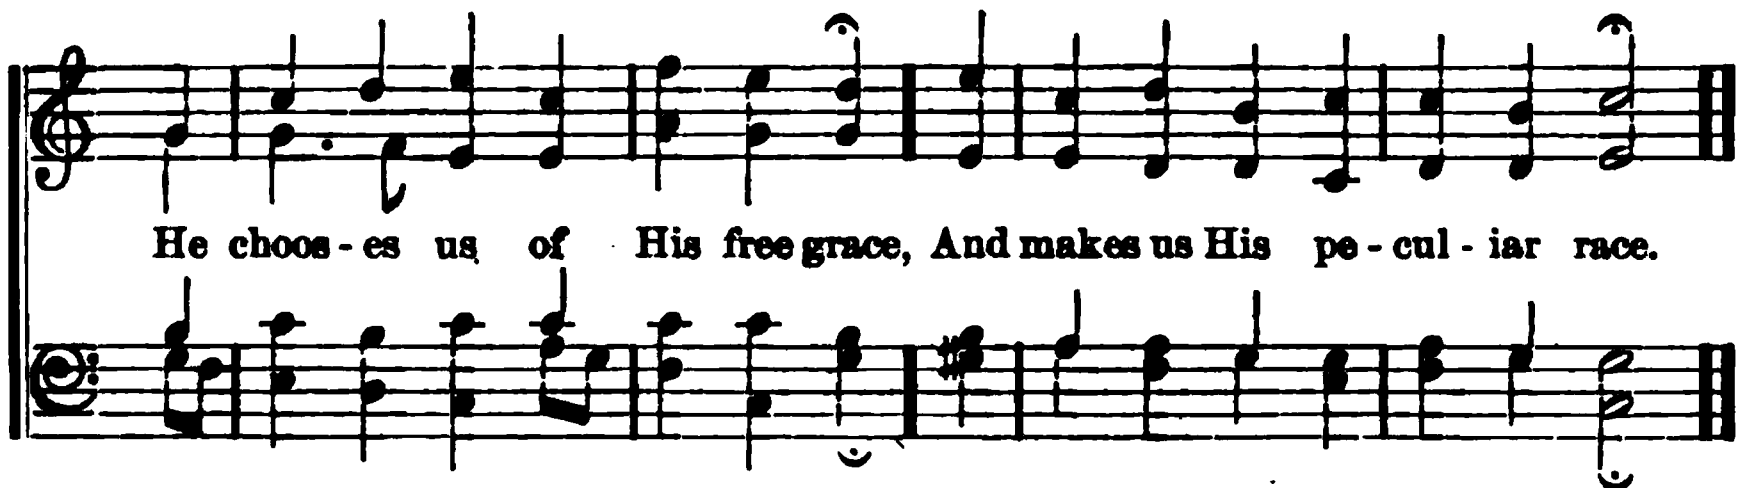

5 Friend of my soul, O how contented,
Am I, when leaning upon Thee:
By sin I am no more tormented
Since Thou dost aid and comfort me,
O may the heart-reviving feeling
I have of Thy most gracious dealing
A foretaste yield of joys above;
I scorn, vain world, thy dull cold flattering
In Jesus all my joys are centering,
O rich delight, my Friend is mine.

1. { Our lot is fall'n in pleas-ant pla-ces A good-ly her-it-age is ours; }
{ To Him, whence come all gifts and gra-ces, Let us give praise with all our pow'rs; }

He choos-es us of His free grace, And makes us His pe-cul-iar race.

2 He undertook our soul's salvation,
Our sad condition moved him so;
And came to us, from pure compassion,
To raise us from our depths of woe:
O wonderful, surpassing love,
Which brought Him to us from above!

4 Then, moved at heart with deep compassion,
The Lord stretched out His arm to save:
And His own life for our salvation,
And therewith all things, freely gave,— Adoption, sonship, and with this
A whole eternity of bliss.

3 He saw in us no real beauty,
No virtue, nor intrinsic worth:
Not one there was that did his duty,
For all were sinners from their birth;
Nor was there one, who could redress
Our misery in such distress.

5 O Lord of goodness so amazing,
Not one is worthy, no! not one;
We stand in shame and wonder gazing
At wondrous things which Thou hast done:
Thy crowning grace and precious blood
Have reconcled us with our God.

6 We feel quite certain of obtaining
Nothing but goodness from Thy hand,
And wend our way, without complaining
Through dreary mist and barren land
With heaven in view, where we shall be,
Joined through eternity to Thee.

- 2 We see not with our eyes Thy friendly face,
So full of kindness, love, and gentle grace;
But in our hearts we know that Thou art here,
For Thou canst make us feel Thy presence near Although unseen.
- 3 Whoever makes it life's chief aim and end
To have his happiness on Thee depend,
In him a well of joy for ever springs,
And all day long his heart is glad, and sings
Who is like Thee?
- 4 To meet us ever with a friendly face,
In mercy, patience, and the kindest grace
Dally Thy rich forgiveness to bestow,
To comfort, heal, in peace to bid us go,
Is Thy delight.
- 5 Lord, for Thy rich salvation, hear our prayer,
And daily give us an abounding share;
And let our souls, in all their poverty,
From deep-felt love be looking unto Thee
Till life's last end.
- 6 In sorrowing hours may our e'erflowing eyes
For comfort look to Thy dear sacrifice;
And, with Thy cross before us, may we find
Thy genuine image stamped upon our mind,
In constant view!

FAITH AND SALVATION.

7 Lord, at all times mayst Thou within us find
A loving spirit and a childlike mind ;
And from Thy wounds may we receive the power,
Through all life's weal and woe, in every hour
To cling to Thee.

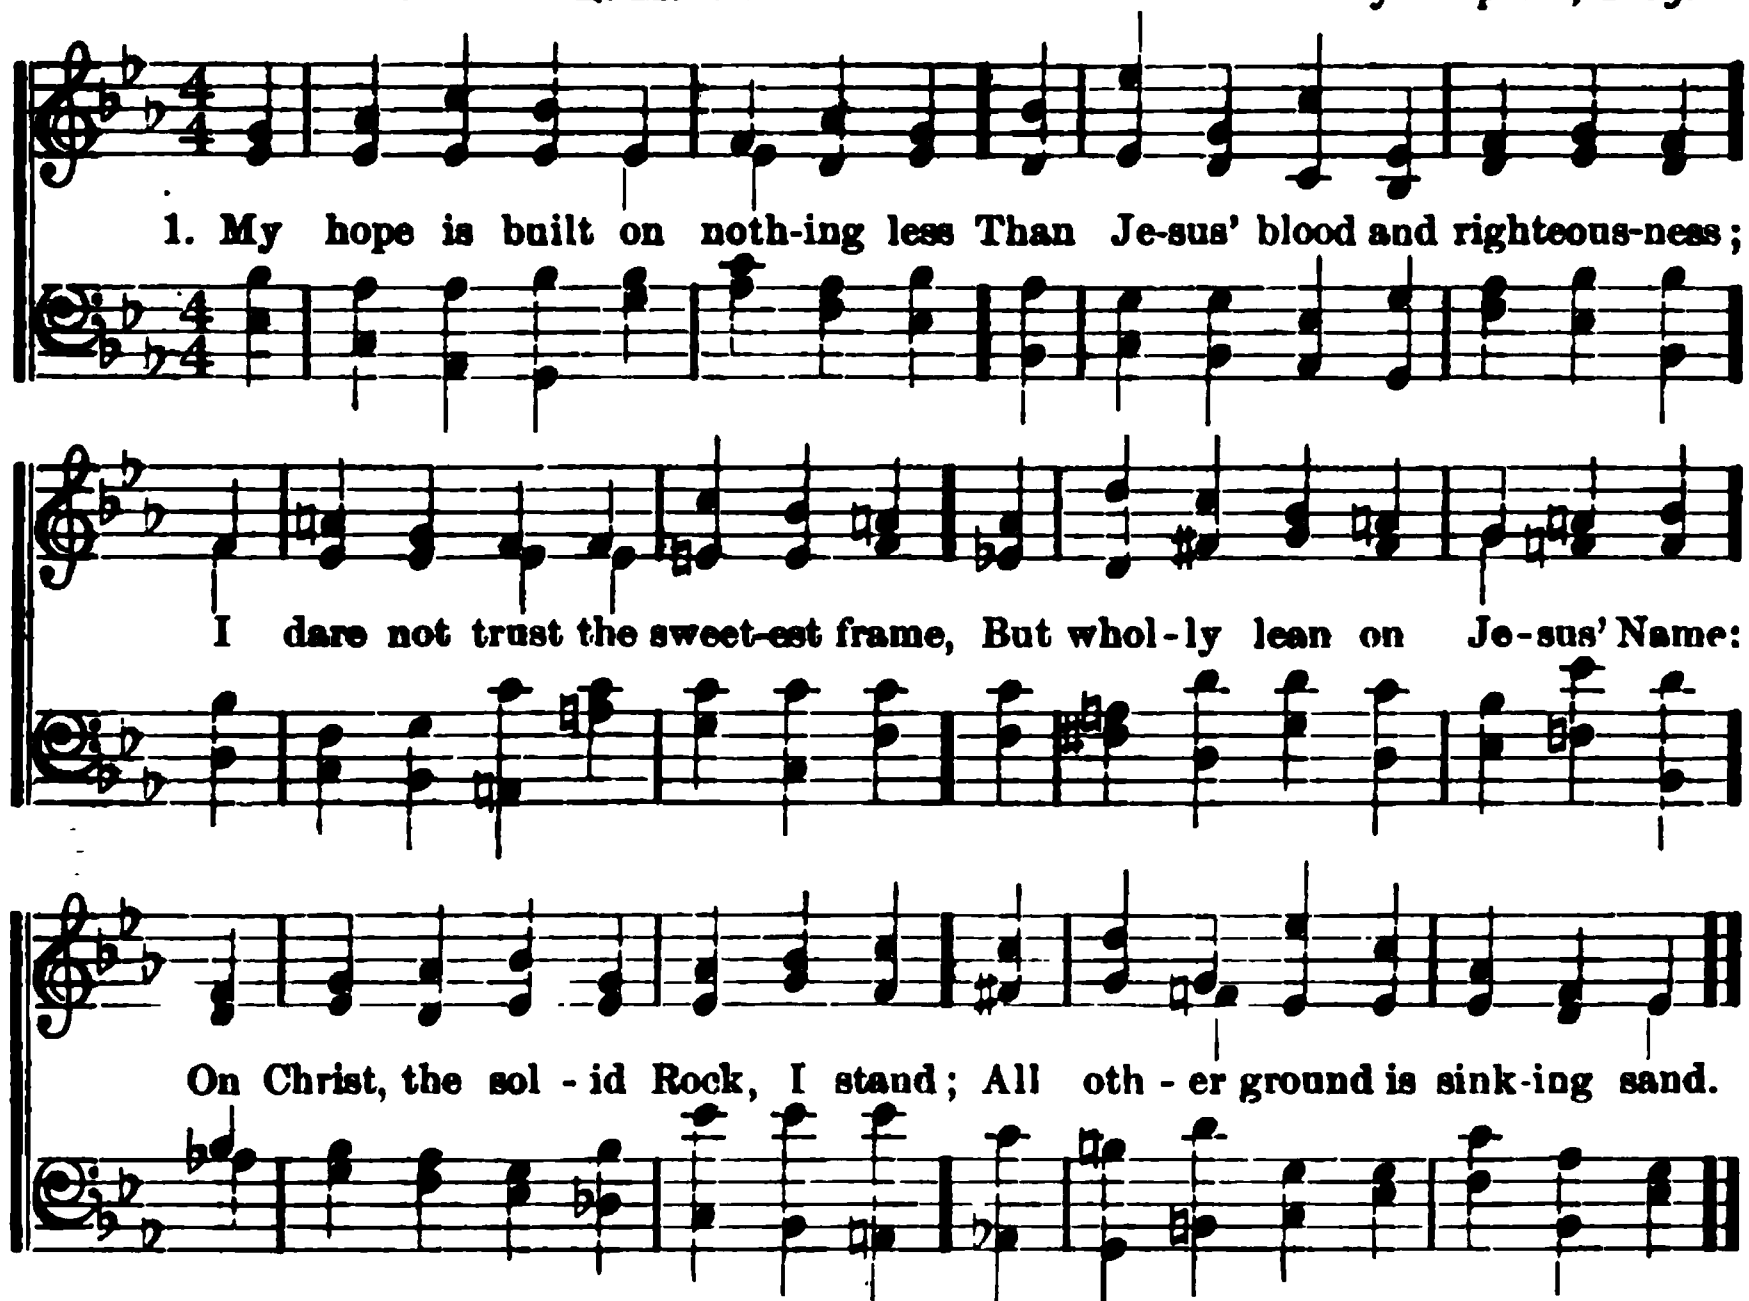

8 Thus, till the heavens receive us, shall we be Like children, finding all our joys in Thee ;
And though the tears of sorrow oft must fall,
Yet, if Thou to our hearts art all in all,
Sweet peace will come.

9 Thy wounded hand, dear Saviour, as a friend,
Thou dost to us in faithfulness extend ;
At the sad sight our tears must flow,
And conscious shame come o'er us as we go,
With thankful praise.

3 His oath, His covenant, and His blood
Support me in the sinking flood ;
When all around my soul gives way,

He then is all my Hope and Stay,
On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand ;
All other ground is sinking sand.

4 When I shall launch in worlds unseen,

Dressed in His righteousness alone,
Faultless to stand before the throne.

3 Aid me, my God, to sing Thy praise,
Thine ageless love, Thy matchless grace,
In Christ our Lord appearing.
When such a gift God gave for thee,
When such a brother true is He,
Why still, my soul, be fearing?
Choose Him, know Him, greatest, dearest,
Best, and nearest, to befriend thee
'Gainst all foes who may offend thee.

4 To Him who conquered death and hell,
To Him let joyous anthems swell
Throughout heaven's great Forever.
Praise to the Lamb that once was slain,
Glory to Him who bore our pain,

2 We would see Jesus, the great Rock Foundation
Whereon our feet were set by sovereign grace:
Nor life nor death, with all their agitation,
Can thence remove us, if we see His face.

3 We would see Jesus: other lights are paling,
Which for long years we have rejoiced to see;
The blessings of our pilgrimage are failing;
We would not mourn them, for we go to Thee.

4 We would see Jesus; yet the spirit lingers
Round the dear objects it has loved so long.
And earth from earth can scarce unclasp its fingers;
Our love to Thee makes not this love less strong.

5 We would see Jesus: sense is all too binding,
And heaven appears too dim, too far away;
We would see Thee, Thyself our hearts reminding
What Thou hast suffered, our great debt to pay.

6 We would see Jesus: this is all we're needing;
Strength, joy, and willingness come with the sight;
We would see Jesus, dying, risen, pleading;
Then welcome day, and farewell mortal night.

C. M.

1 O Jesus, when I think of Thee,
Thy manger, cross, and throne,
My spirit trusts exultingly
In Thee, and Thee alone.

2 I see Thee in Thy weakness first;
Then, glorious from Thy shame,
I see Thee death's strong fetters burst,
And reach heaven's mightiest Name.

3 In each, a brother's love I trace
By power Divine exprest,
One in Thy Father God's embrace,
As on Thy mother's breast.

4 For me Thou didst become a man,
For me didst weep and die;
For me achieve Thy wondrous plan,
For me ascend on high.

5 O let me share Thy holy birth,
Thy faith, Thy death to sin?
And, strong amidst the toils of earth,
My heavenly life begin.

6 Then shall I know what means the strain
Triumphant of Saint Paul:
"To live is Christ, to die is gain;"
"Christ is my All in all."

Rev. George W. Bethune, 1847.

1 Fountain of good, to own Thy love
Our thankful hearts incline;
What can we render, Lord, to Thee,
When all the worlds are Thine?

2 But Thou hast needy brethren here,
Partakers of Thy grace,
Whose names Thou wilt Thyself confess
Before the Father's face.

3 In each sad accent of distress
Thy pleading voice is heard;
In them Thou may'st be clothed and fed,
And visited, and cheered.

4 Help us then, Lord, Thy yoke to wear,
And joy to do Thy will;
Each other's burdens gladly bear,
And love's sweet law fulfill.

5 Thy face with reverence and with love
We in Thy poor would see;
And while we minister to them,
Would do it as to Thee.

6 Do Thou, O Lord, our alms accept,
And with Thy blessing speed;
Bless us in giving; greatly bless
Our gifts to them that need.

4 Still let Thy love point out my way;
How wondrous things Thy love hath
Still lead me, lest I go astray; [wrought!
Direct my work, inspire my thought;
And if I fall, soon may I hear
Thy voice, and know that love is near.

5 In suffering, be Thy love my peace;
In weakness, be Thy love my power;
And when the storms of life shall cease,
Jesus, in that important hour,
In death, as life, be Thou my Guide,
And save me, who for me hast died.

How can I love Thee as I ought?
And how extol Thy matchless fame,
The glorious beauty of Thy Name?
Jesus, my Lord, I Thee adore;
O make me love Thee more and more.

That Thou hast dealt so lovingly?
How great the joy that Thou hast brought,
So far exceeding hope or thought!
Jesus, my Lord, I Thee adore;
So make me love Thee more and more.

2 In darkness willingly I strayed;
I sought Thee, yet, from Thee I roved;
For wide my wandering tho'ts were spread;
Thy creatures more than Thee I loved;
And now, if more at length I see
'Tis through Thy light, and comes from Thee.

3 Uphold me in the doubtful race,
Nor suffer me again to stray;
Strengthen my feet, with steady pace
Still to press forward in Thy way;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

4 Thee will I love, my Joy, my Crown;
Thee will I love, my Lord, my God!
Thee will I love, beneath Thy frown
Or smile, Thy sceptre or Thy rod.
What though my flesh and heart decay?
Thee shall I love in endless day.

1 Jesus, Thou Source of calm repose,
All fullness dwells in Thee Divine;
Our Strength to quell the proudest foes;
Our Light, in deepest gloom to shine;
Thou art our Fortress, Strength and Tower,
Our Trust and Portion, evermore.

2 Jesus, our Comforter Thou art;
Our Rest in toil, our Ease in pain;
The Balm to heal each broken heart,
In storms our Peace, in loss our Gain;
Our Joy beneath the worldling's frown;
In shame, our Glory and our Crown;—

3 In want, our plentiful Supply;
In weakness, our almighty Power;
In bonds, our perfect Liberty;
Our Refuge in temptation's hour;
Our Comfort when in grief and thrall;
Our Life in death; our All in all.

1. Do not I love Thee, O my Lord? Be - hold my heart and see;
And turn the dear - est i - dol out That dares to riv - al Thee.

- 2 Is not Thy Name melodious still
To mine attentive ear?
Doth not each pulse with pleasure bound,
My Saviour's voice to hear?
- 3 Hast Thou a lamb in all Thy flock
I would disdain to feed?
Hast Thou a foe before whose face
I fear Thy cause to plead?
- 4 Would not my heart pour forth its blood
In honor of Thy Name?
And challenge the cold hand of death
To damp th' immortal flame?
- 5 Thou know'st I love Thee, dearest Lord;
But O, I long to soar
Far from the sphere of mortal joys,
And learn to love Thee more.

- 1 Jesus, I love Thy charming Name,
'Tis music to mine ear;
Fain would I sound it out so loud,
That earth and heaven should hear.
- 2 Yes!—Thou art precious to my soul,
My Transport and my Trust;
Jewels, to Thee, are gaudy toys,
And gold is sordid dust.
- 3 All my capacious powers can wish,
In Thee doth richly meet;
Not to mine eyes is light so dear,
Nor friendship half so sweet.
- 4 Thy grace still dwells upon my heart,
And sheds its fragrance there;—
The noblest balm of all its wounds,
The cordial of its care.

To do the will of Jesus, this is rest.

On Jesus' bosom naught but calm is found.

In Jesus' keeping we are safe, and they.

Jesus we know, and He is on the throne.
- 6 Peace, perfect peace, death shadowing us

Jesus has vanquish'd death and all its pow'rs.

Thou Sweetness most in - eff - a - ble, In whom all joys are found!

2 When once Thou visitest the heart,
Then truth begins to shine,
Then earthly vanities depart,
Then kindles love Divine.

3 O Jesus, Light of all below,
Thou Fount of life and fire,
Surpassing all the joys we know,
And all we can desire!

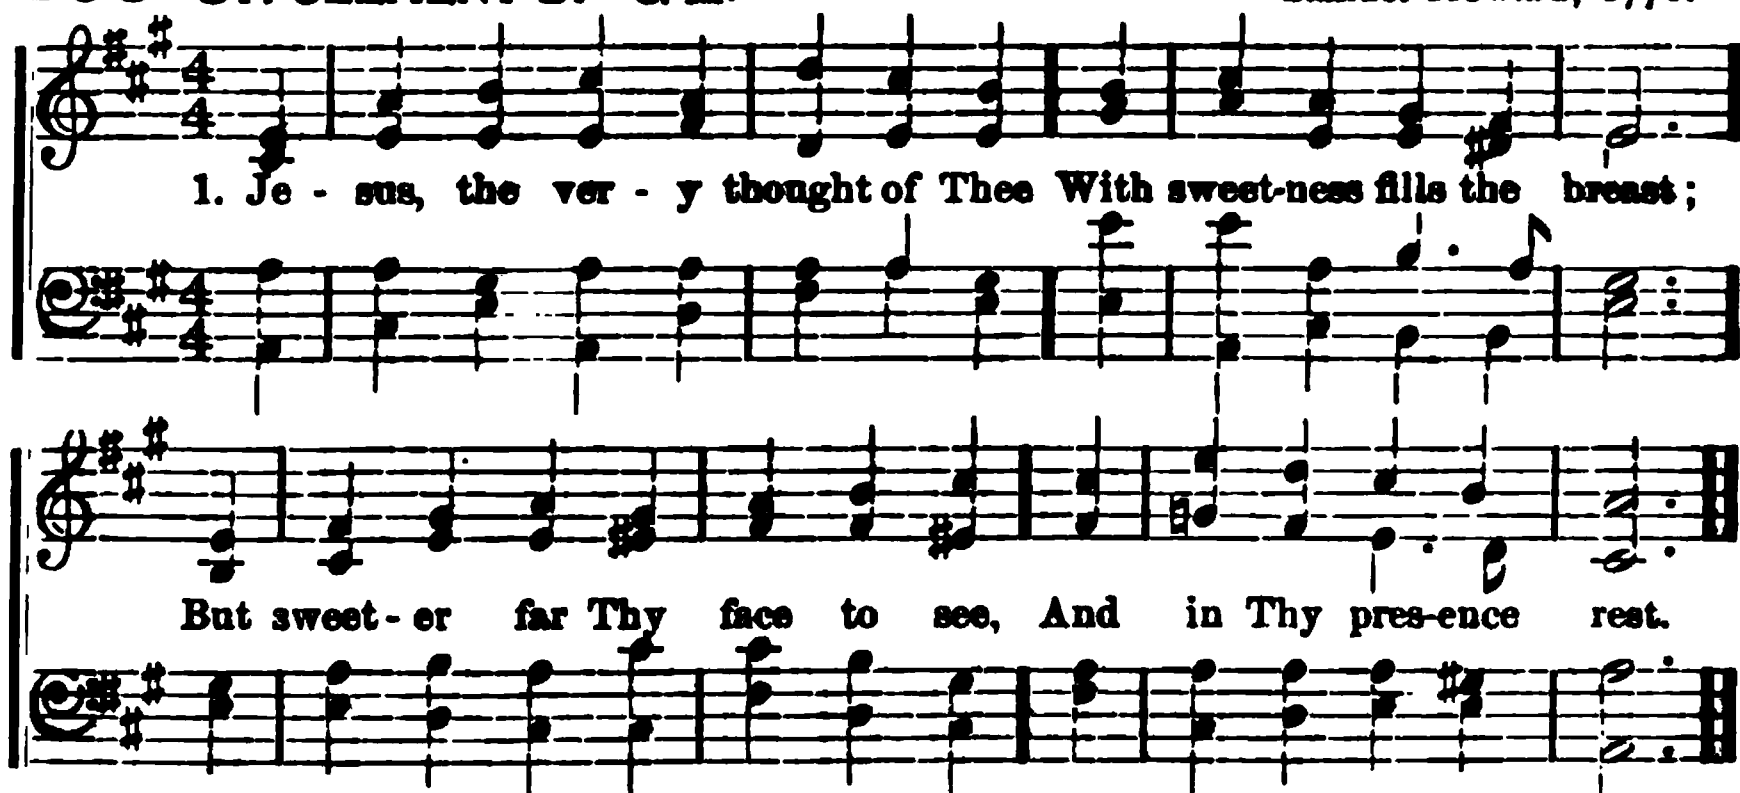

4 May every heart confess Thy Name,
And ever Thee adore;
And seeking Thee, itself inflame
To seek Thee more and more.

5 'Thee may our tongues for ever bless;
Thee may we love alone;
And ever in our lives express

And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis Manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary Rest.

3 Dear Name! the Rock on which I build,
My Shield and Hiding-place,
My never-failing Treasury, filled
With boundless stores of grace;

4 By Thee my prayers acceptance gain,
Although with sin defiled;
Satan accuses me in vain,
And I am owned a child.

5 Jesus, my Shepherd, Brother, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King,
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.

6 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought;
But when I see Thee as Thou art,
I'll praise Thee as I ought.

7 Till then I would Thy love proclaim
With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of Thy Name
Refresh my soul in death.

Rev. John Newton, 1779, alt.

1 My God, I love Thee, not because
I hope for heaven thereby,
Nor yet because who love Thee not,
Must die eternally.

2 Thou, O my Jesus, Thou didst me
Upon the cross embrace;
For me didst bear the nails and spear
And manifold disgrace;

3 And griefs and torments numberless,
And sweat of agony;
E'en death itself; and all for one
Who was Thine enemy.

4 Then why, O blessed Jesus Christ,
Should I not love Thee well?
Not for the hope of winning heaven,
Or of escaping hell;

5 Nor with the hope of gaining aught,
Nor seeking a reward;
But as Thyself hast loved me,
O ever-loving Lord?

6 E'en so I love Thee, and will love,
And in Thy praise will sing;
Solely because Thou art my God,
And my Eternal King.

Thy load of sin lay down;

For thee the thorny crown.

3 Rest in His love, and cast away
Each anxious doubt and care:
Thy griefs, thy sorrows, on Him lay;
The burden He will bear.

4 Rest in His truth, and thou shalt find
That perfect peace is thine—

The peace that keepeth heart and mind,
And guards them as its shrine.

5 Rest in the Lord—He cannot fail,
His promise standeth sure;
Though stars shall wane, and suns grow pale
His word shall aye endure.

2 Which of all our friends, to save us,
Could or would have shed their blood?
But our Jesus died to have us
Reconciled in Him to God;
This was boundless love indeed,
Jesus is a Friend in need!

4 Could we bear from one another
What He daily bears from us?
Yet this glorious Friend and Brother
Loves us though we treat Him thus:
Though for good we render ill,
He accounts us brethren still.

3 When He lived on earth abased,
"Friend of sinners" was His Name;
Now above all glory raised,
He rejoices in the same;
Still He calls them "Brethren—friends,"
And to all their wants attends.

5 O for grace our hearts to soften!
Teach us, Lord, at length to love;
We, alas! forget too often,
What a Friend we have above;
But when home our souls are brought,
We will love Thee as we ought.

1. Je - sus, Thy Name I love All oth - er names a - bove, Je - sus, my Lord: O Thou art all to me; Noth - ing to please I see, Noth - ing a - part from Thee, Je - sus, my Lord.

2 Thou, blessèd Son of God,
 Hast bought me with Thy blood,
 Jesus, my Lord:
 O how great is Thy love,
 All other loves above,
 Love that I daily prove,
 Jesus, my Lord.

3 When unto Thee I flee,
 Thou wilt my Refuge be,
 Jesus, my Lord:
 What need I now to fear,
 What earthly grief or care,
 Since Thou art ever near?
 Jesus, my Lord.

4 Soon Thou wilt come again -
 I shall be happy then,
 Jesus, my Lord:
 Then Thine own face I'll see,
 Then I shall like Thee be,
 Then evermore with Thee,
 Jesus, my Lord.

523 CANTONE. 7. 7. 7. 7.

2 When the morning paints the skies,
 When the golden sunbeams rise,
 Then my Saviour's form I find
 Brightly imaged on my mind.
 3 When the day-beams pierce the night,
 Oft I think on Jesus' light,
 Think how bright that light will be,
 Shining through eternity.
 4 When, as moonlight softly steals,
 Heaven its thousand eyes reveals,

Then I think: who made their light
 Is a thousand times more bright.

5 When I see in spring-tide gay,
 Fields their varied tints display,
 Wakes the thrilling thought in me
 What must their Creator be

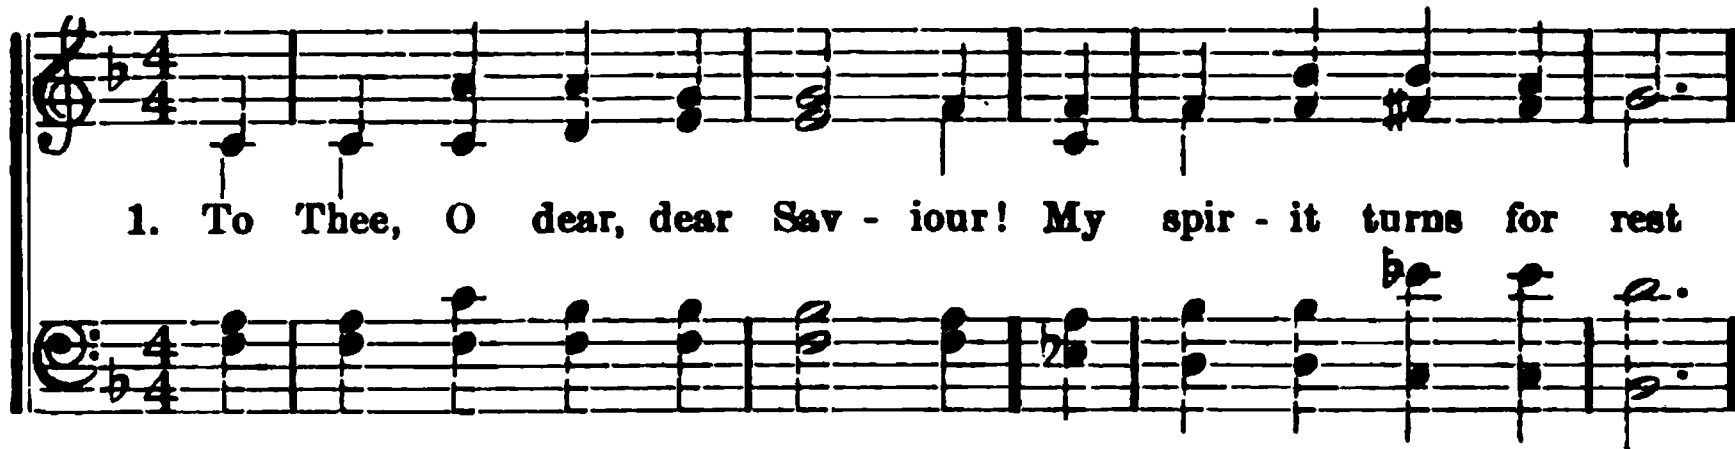

6 Lord of all that's fair to see,
 Come, reveal Thyself to me!
 Let me, 'mid Thy radiant light,
 See Thine unveiled glories bright.

1. To Thee, O dear, dear Sav - iour! My spir - it turns for rest

My peace is in Thy fa - vor, My pil - low on Thy breast;

Though all the world de - ceive me, I know that I am Thine,

And Thou wilt nev - er leave me, O bless - ed Sav - iour mine.

2 In Thee my trust abideth,
On Thee my hope relies,
O Thou whose love provideth
For all beneath the skies;
O Thou whose mercy found me,
From bondage set me free,
And then for ever bound me
With threefold cords to Thee.

3 My grief is in the dullness
With which this sluggish heart
Doth open to the fullness
Of all Thou wouldst impart
My joy is in Thy beauty
Of holiness Divine,
My comfort in the duty
That binds my life in Thine.

4 Alas, that I should ever
Have failed in love to Thee
The only One who never Forgot or slighted me!
O for a heart to love Thee
More truly as I ought,
And nothing place above Thee
In deed, or word, or thought.

5 O for that choicest blessing
Of living in Thy love,
And thus on earth possessing
The peace of heaven above;
O for the bliss that by it
The soul securely knows
The holy calm and quiet
Of faith's serene repose.

526 CHESHIRE. C. M.

Este's Psalter.

1. O Sav-iour, may we nev - er rest Till Thou art form'd with - in,

Till Thou hast calm'd our troubled breast, And crush'd the pow'r of sin.

2 O may we gaze upon Thy cross
Until the wondrous sight
Makes earthly treasures seem but dross,
And earthly sorrows light;

3 Until, released from carnal ties,
Our spirt upward springs,

And sees true peace above the skies,
True joy in heavenly things.

4 There, as we gaze, may we become United, Lord, to Thee,
And in a fairer, happier home
Thy perfect beauty see.

Sweet - er les - son can - not be, — Lov - ing Him, who first loved me.

2 With a child-like heart of love,
At Thy bidding may I move;
Prompt to serve and follow Thee,
Loving Him who first loved me.

3 Teach me all Thy steps to trace,
Strong to follow in Thy grace;
Learning how to love from Thee,
Loving Him who first loved me.

4 Love in loving finds employ—
In obedience all her joy;
Ever new that joy will be,
Loving Him who first loved me.

5 Thus may I rejoice to show
That I feel the love I owe;
Singing, till Thy face I see,
Of His love who first loved me.

For blest are they that fol - low Where Thou dost lead the way :

In fresh - est prime of morn - ing, Or full - est glow of noon,

The note of heavenly warn - ing Can nev - er come too soon.

2 O Master, where 'Thou callest,
No foot may shrink in fear,
For they who trust Thee wholly

Where Thou, Lord, rulest only,
Shall precious produce yield.

3 O Master, whom Thou callest,
No heart may dare refuse ;
'Tis honor, highest honor,
When Thou dost deign to use :

Our brightest and our fairest,
Our dearest—all are Thine ;
Thou who for each one carest,
We hail Thy love's design.

4 They who go forth to serve Thee,
We too who serve at home,
May watch and pray together
Until Thy kingdom come :
In Thee for age united,
Our song of hope we raise,
Till that blest shore is sighted
When all shall turn to praise.

529 ORA LABORA. 4. 10. 10. 10. 4.

Sir Robert P. Stewart, 1875.

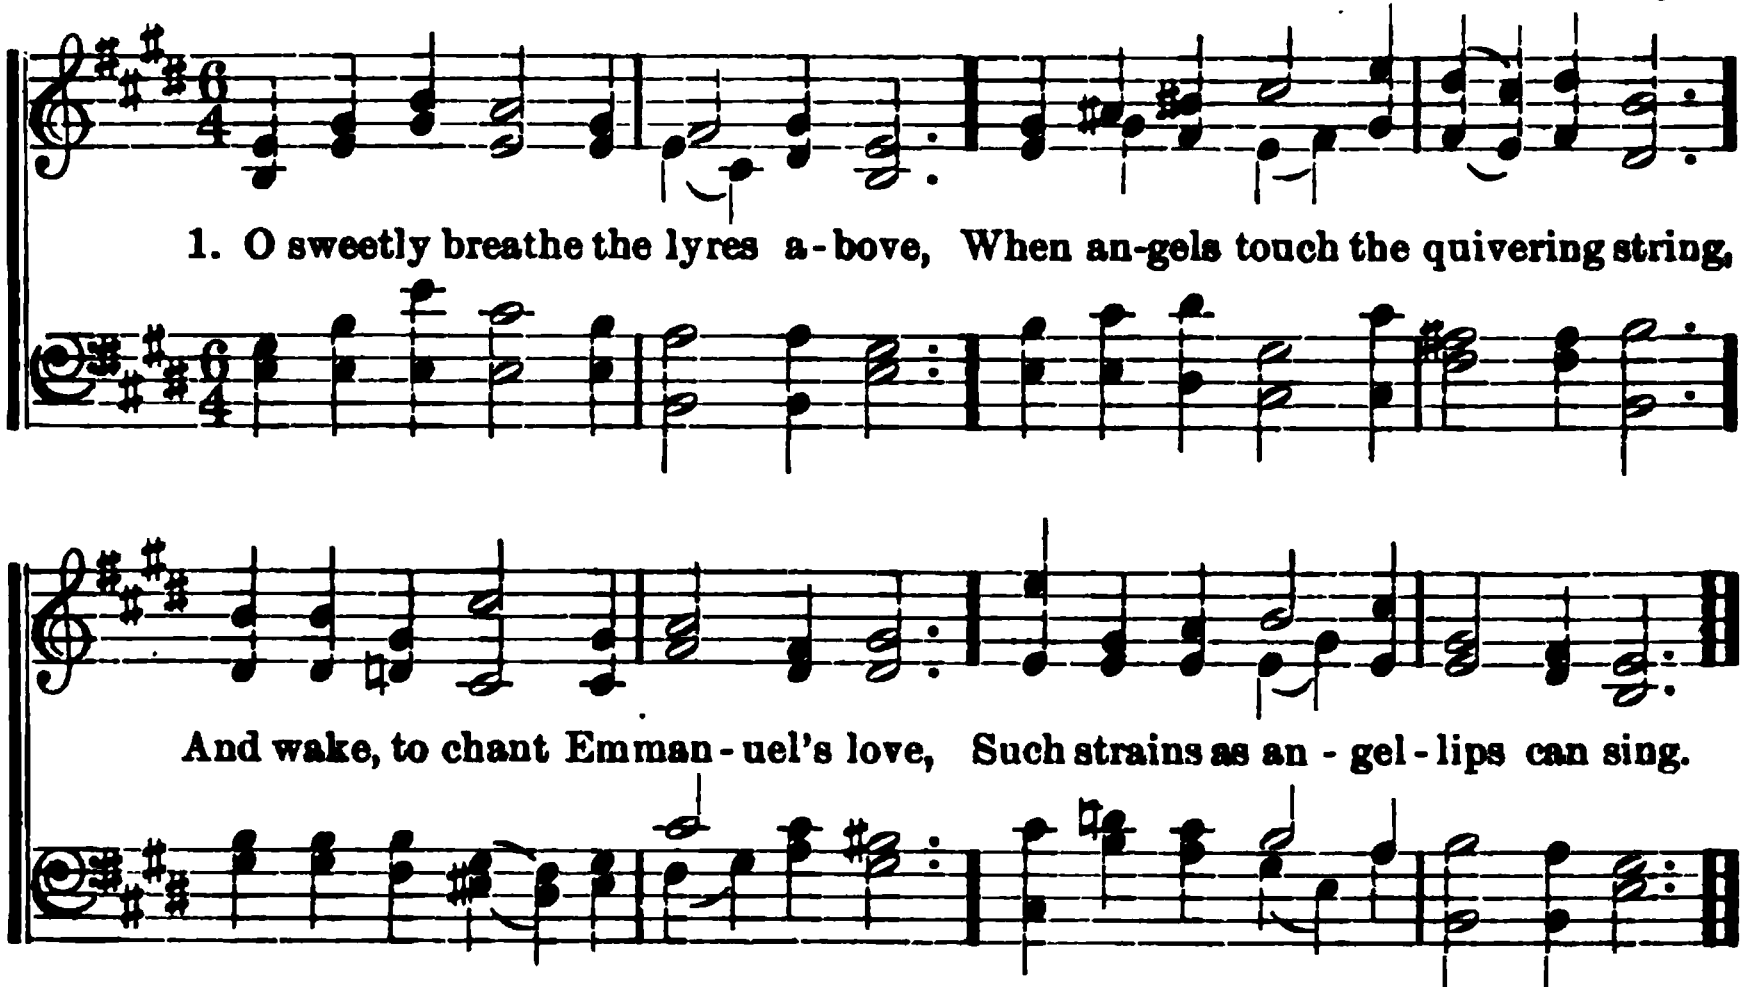

- 2 Come, labor on.
Claim the high calling angels cannot share—
To young and old the gospel-gladness bear:
Redeem the time; its hours too swiftly fly
The night draws nigh.
- 3 Come, labor on.
The laborers are few, the field is wide
New stations must be filled and blanks supplied;
From voices distant far, or near at home
The call is "Come."
- 4 Come, labor on.
Away with gloomy doubts and faithless fear!
No arm so weak but may do service here:
By feeblest agents can our God fulfill
His righteous will.
- 5 Come, labor on.
No time for rest, till glows the western sky
While the long shadows o'er our pathway lie,
And a glad sound comes with the setting sun—
"Servants, well done."
- 6 Come, labor on.
The toil is pleasant, the reward is sure,
Blessèd are those who to the end endure,
How full their joy, how deep their rest shall be
O Lord, with Thee.

| 2 And sweet, on earth, the chorals swell.
From mortal tongues, of glad some lays,
When pardoned souls their raptures tell,
And, grateful, hymn Emmanuel's praise. | 1 My glorious Victor, Prince Divine,
Clasp these surrendered hands in Thine;
At length my will is all Thine own,
Glad vassal of a Saviour's throne. |
| 3 Jesus, Thy Name our souls adore;
We own the bond that makes us Thine;
And carnal joys that charmed before,
For Thy dear sake we now resign. | 2 My Master, lead me to Thy door;
Pierce this now willing ear once more;
Thy bonds are freedom, let me stay
With Thee to toil, endure, obey. |

Accept Thine offered grace to-day;
Beneath the cross, with blood bedewed,
We bow, and give ourselves away. | 3 Yes, ear and hand, and thought and will,
Use all in Thy dear slav'ry still,
Life's weary liberties I cast
Beneath Thy feet; then keep them fast. |

Take my hands, and let them move At the im-pulse of Thy love;

2 Take my feet, and let them be
Swift and beautiful for Thee;
Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only, for my King.

3 Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from Thee!
Take my silver and my gold,
Not a mite would I withhold;

4 Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise;
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as Thou shalt choose.

5 Take my will, and make it Thine:
It shall be no longer mine;
Take my heart, it is Thine own!
It shall be Thy royal throne;

6 Take my love; my Lord, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure-store;
Take myself, and I will be,
Ever, only, all, for Thee!

That death alone can cure.

5 What are they but His jewels
Of right celestial worth?
What are they but the ladder

Des - ti - tute, de - spised, for - sak - en, Thou, from hence, my all shalt be.

Per - ish ev - 'ry fond am - bi - tion, All I've sought, and hoped, and known,

Yet how rich is my con - di - tion! God and heav'n are still my own.

2 Let the world despise and leave me;
They have left my Saviour, too;
Human hearts and looks deceive me:
Thou art not, like them, untrue;
And while Thou shalt smile upon me,
God of wisdom, love, and might,
Foes may hate, and friends may shun me;
Show Thy face and all is bright.

3 Go then, earthly fame and treasure!
Come disaster, scorn and pain!
In Thy service, pain is pleasure;
With Thy favor, loss is gain.

I have called Thee Abba, Father;
I have stayed my heart on Thee:
Storms may howl, and clouds may gather,
All must work for good to me.

4 Man may trouble and distress me,
'Twill but drive me to Thy breast;
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.
O, 'tis not in grief to harm me,
While Thy love is left to me;
O, 'twere not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with Thee.

CONSECRATION AND SERVICE.

5 Take, my soul, thy full salvation ;
 Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care ;
 Joy to find, in every station,
 Something still to do or bear.
 Think what Spirit dwells within thee,
 What a Father's smile is thine,
 What a Saviour died to win thee :
 Child of heaven, shouldst thou repine?

6 Haste, then, on from grace to glory,
 Armed by faith, and winged by prayer ;
 Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
 God's own hand shall guide thee there.
 Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
 Swift shall pass thy pilgrim days,
 Hope soon change to glad fruition,
 Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

2 Guide me, O Saviour, with Thy hand
 And so control my thoughts and deeds,
 That I may tread the path which leads
 Right onward to the blessed land.

1 Now I resolve with all my heart,
 With all my powers to serve the Lord ;
 Nor from His precepts e'er depart,
 Whose service is a rich reward.

3 Help me, O Saviour, here to trace
 The sacred footsteps Thou hast trod ;
 And, meekly walking with my God,
 To grow in goodness, truth and grace.

2 O be His service all my joy !
 Around let my example shine,
 Till others love the blest employ,
 And join in labors so Divine.

4 Guard me, O Lord, that I may ne'er
 Forsake the right, or do the wrong :
 Against temptation make me strong,
 And round me spread Thy sheltering care.

3 Be this the purpose of my soul,
 My solemn, my determined choice,
 To yield to His supreme control,
 And in His kind commands rejoice.

5 Bless me in every task, O Lord,
 Begun, continued, done for Thee :
 Fulfill Thy perfect work in me ;
 And Thine abounding grace afford.

His army shall He lead, Till ev-'ry foe is vanquished, And Christ is Lord indeed.

(Or to Webb.)

2 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
The trumpet call obey,
Forth to the mighty conflict,
In this His glorious day:
'Ye that are men, now serve Him,'
Against unnumbered foes;
Your courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
Stand in His strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you—
Ye dare not trust your own:

Put on the gospel armor,
And, watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls or danger,
Be never wanting there!

4 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song:
To him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of glory
Shall reign eternally.

2 The martyr first, whose eagle eye
Could pierce beyond the grave,
Who saw his Master in the sky,
And called on Him to save:
Like Him, with pardon on his tongue
In midst of mortal pain,
He prayed for them that did the wrong:
Who follows in his train?

3 A glorious band, the chosen few
On whom the Spirit came,
Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,
And mocked the cross and flame:

They met the tyrant's brandished steel,
The lion's gory mane;
They bowed their necks the death to feel:

Who follows in their train?

4 A noble army, men and boys,
The matron and the maid,
Around the Saviour's throne rejoice,
In robes of light arrayed:
They climbed the steep ascent of heaven
Through peril, toil, and pain:
O God, to us may grace be given
To follow in their train.

Through evil or through good report
Still keeping by Thy side;

Let Christ be magnified.

Work through the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon.
Give every flying minute,

549 GO, LABOR ON. L. M.

E. Pieruccini.

1. Go, la - bor on: spend, and be spent, Thy joy to do the Fa - ther's will;

It is the way the Mas - ter went; Should not the serv - ant tread it still?

2 Go, labor on, 'tis not for naught;
Thy earthly loss is heavenly gain;
Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not;
The Master praises:—what are men?

3 Go, labor on: enough while here
If He shall praise thee, if He deign
Thy willing heart to mark and cheer;
No toil for Him shall be in vain.

4 Go, labor on while it is day,
The world's dark night is hastening on:
Speed, speed thy work, cast sloth away;
It is not thus that souls are won.

5 Toil on, faint not, keep watch and pray;
Be wise the erring soul to win;
Go forth into the world's highway,
Compel the wanderer to come in.

6 Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice;
For toil comes rest, for exile home;
Soon shalt thou hear the Bridegroom's voice,
The midnight peal, "Behold, I come."

550 HERIOT. 10. 10.-10. 10.

J. T. Musgrave, 1890.

1. O fill me with Thy Spir - it, gra-cious Lord! I ask not for a meas - ure poor or scant; The full - ness of Thy gift to me ac - cord, Not less, not low - er is the grace I want.

2 Fill me with faith, that where I do not see
I still may rest all trustful on Thy love,
From fears unchildlike and from doubts set free,
My heart a shrine for peace, that holy dove.

3 Fill me with wisdom from the Source of light,
That I may walk the world unstained
And keep my raiment spotless, pure, and white,
Blameless in act without and thought within.

4 Fill me with power—it only comes from Thee
Who art my soul's salvation and desire—
That in Thy blessed service I may be
Subtle and quick as flame of living fire.

5 Fill me with love, O God, from day to day,
For this can make all bitter things most sweet,
And this can turn the roughest, hardest way
Into a flow'ry sward beneath the feet.

6 For, knowing then Thy great, surpassing love,
Thy love so deep, so high, so wide, so broad,
I shall be filled, like happy saints above,
With all Thy glorious fullness, O my God.

1. O Je - sus Christ, grow Thou in me, And all things else re - ceive!

My heart be dai - ly near - er Thee, From sin be dai - ly freed.

2 Each day let Thy supporting might
My weakness still embrace;
My darkness vanish in Thy light,
Thy life my death efface.

3 In Thy bright beams which on me fall
Fade every evil thought;
That I am nothing, Thou art all,
I would be daily taught.

4 More of Thy glory let me see,
Thou Holy, Wise, and True!

I would Thy living image be,
In joy and sorrow too.

5 Fill me with gladness from above,
Hold me by strength Divine;
Lord, let the glow of Thy great love
Through all my being shine.

6 Make this poor self grow less and less,
Be Thou my life, my aim;
O make me daily by Thy grace
More meet to bear Thy Name,

Johann Caspar Lavater, 1780.
Tr. Elizabeth L. Smith, 1860.

552 CHURT. 8. 4. 8. 4.

J. Walch, 1888.

1. Lord, for to-mor-row and its needs I do not pray; Keep me, my God, from stain of sin, Just for to - day.

2 Let me both diligently work,
And daily pray;
Let me be kind in word and deed,
Just for to-day.

3 Let me be slow to do my will,
Prompt to obey;

Help me to sacrifice myself,
Just for to-day.

4 Let me no wrong or idle word
Unthinking say;
Set Thou a seal upon my lips,
Just for to-day.

5 Cleanse and receive my parting soul,
Be Thou my stay;
O bid me, if to-day I die,
Go home to-day.

6 So for to-morrow and its needs
I do not pray;
But keep me, guide me, hold me Lord
Just for to-day.

Rev. John B. Dykes, 1875.

2 But, bowed in lowliness of mind,
I make my humble wishes known;
I only ask a will resigned,
O Father, to Thine own.

3 In vain I task my aching brain,
In vain the sage's thoughts I scan;

I only feel how weak I am,
How poor and blind is man.

4 And now my spirit sighs for home,
And longs for light whereby to see;
And, like a weary child, would come,
O Father, unto Thee.

2 O watch, and fight, and pray;
The battle ne'er give o'er;
Renew it boldly every day,
And help Divine implore.

3 Ne'er think the victory won,
Nor lay thine armor down;

Thy arduous work will not be done,
Till thou obtain the crown.

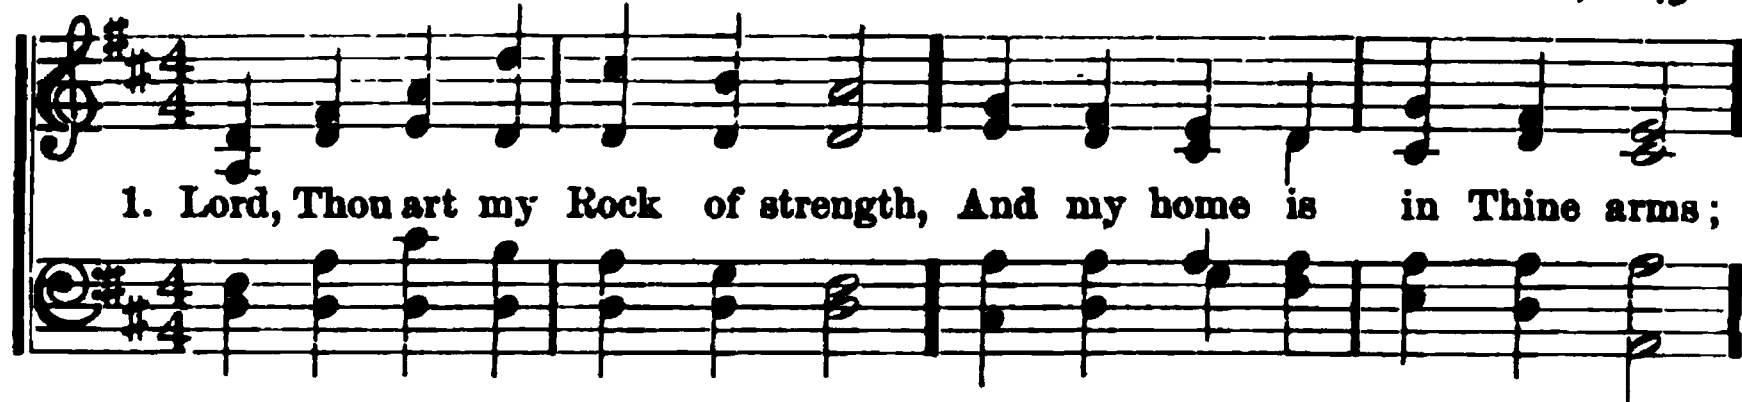

4 Fight on, my soul, till death
Shall bring thee to thy God;
He'll take thee, at thy parting breath,
Up to His blest abode.

Edwin Flood, 1845.

1. Lord, Thou art my Rock of strength, And my home is in Thine arms;

Thou wilt send me help at length, And I feel no wild a-larms.

Sin nor death can pierce the shield Thy de-fence has o'er me thrown;

Up to Thee my-self I yield, And my sor-rows are Thine own.

2 When my trials tarry long,
Unto Thee I look and wait,
Knowing none, though keen and strong,
Can my trust in Thee abate.
And this faith I long have nursed,
Comes alone, O God, from Thee;
Thou my heart didst open first,
Thou didst set this hope in me.

3 Mercy's wings o'er me outspread,
Ever keep me close to Thee;
In the peace Thy love doth shed,
Let me dwell eternally.
Be my All; in all I do,
Let me only seek Thy will,
Where the heart to Thee is true,
All is peaceful, calm, and still.

August Hermann Franke, 1711.
Tr. Catherine Winkworth, 1855.

556 LABAN. S. M.

1 If, through unruffled seas,
Toward heaven we calmly sail,
With grateful hearts, O God, to Thee,
We'll own the favoring gale.

2 But should the surges rise,
And rest delay to come,
Blest be the sorrow—kind the storm,
Which drives us nearer home.

3 Soon shall our doubts and fears
All yield to Thy control:
Thy tender mercies shall illumine
The midnight of the soul.

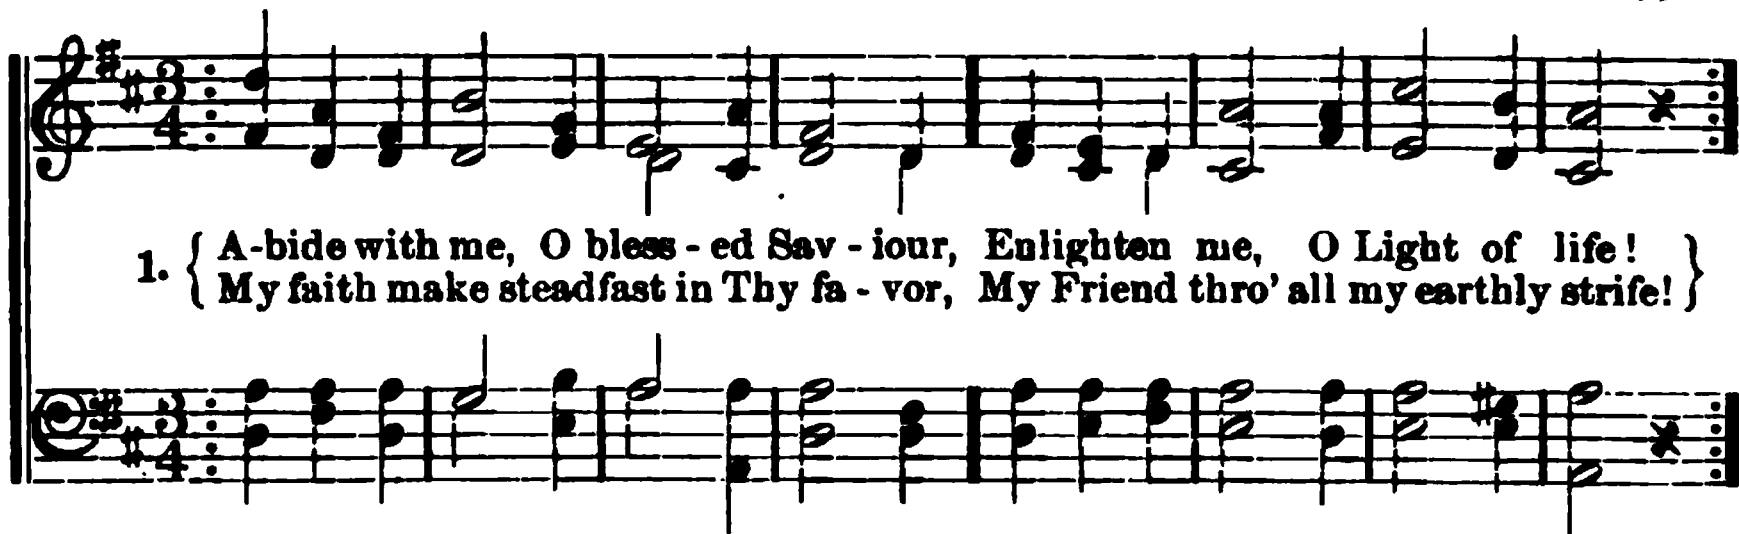

4 Teach us, in every state,
To make Thy will our own;
And when the joys of sense depart,
To live by faith alone.

1. { A-bide with me, O bless - ed Sav - iour, Enlighten me, O Light of life!
My faith make steadfast in Thy fa - vor, My Friend thro' all my earthly strife! }

Thro' all my days of tri - al lead me The path, which oft I can - not find!

A pilgrim, like my fa - thers, save me Dear Help - er, mer - ci - ful and kind.

(Or to Gellert.)

2 O answer Thou my humble calling
And gird my soul with power Divine;
Make me a warrior never falling
Equipped with arms of Thy design:
And when the foe, like lions roaring,
Thy child is seeking to devour,
Then shield my soul, Thy help imploring,
Uphold me in temptation's hour.

3 For Thee I sigh, O let me find Thee,
My thirsty soul on Thee doth wait;
Reveal Thy face, when sins surround me,
Receive me ere it is too late!
Would God with sin-born man be pleading,
Who doth in mortal weakness groan,
Then, in the highest court's proceeding,
None righteousness could claim, not one!

4 In sweetest joy to know my Maker,
To see Thee, Prince of Life and Peace,
In God's grand army made partaker,
To join in songs that never cease,
Away all dangers, tears and sorrow,
To gain more bliss, than e'er I sought,
Such, Lord, when comes the glorious morrow
I hope will be Thy servant's lot.

5 O grant true faith unto Thy warrior,
Faith, that in love is shining bright;
A spirit humble, pure and peaceful
And filled with Christian hope's delight;
A heart with sympathetic feeling,
In prayer strong, and calm in scorn,
Prepared for death, soul's rest revealing,
Though poor, yet rich and heaven-born!

2 By Thy mercies ever tender,
By Thy kindness yet untold,
Lord, I plead, be my Defender
And my Helper as of old.
For Jesus' sake may Thy love
Now give heed to my confessions ;
When Thou lookest from above
Turn Thy face from my transgressions.

3 Sins of all men Thou abhorrest
Yet wouldst save the sinner still ;
With all pride of sin Thou warrest,
But wouldst teach the meek Thy will.
Lord, in whom is all my trust,
In compassion, God all-holy,
Lift Thou me now from the dust,
Lead me as Thou dost the lowly.

559 SURSUM CORDA. C. M.

George Friedrich Händel, 1748.

1. Am I a sol-dier of the cross? A fol-lower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own His cause, Or blush to speak His Name?

2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease?
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?
3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?
4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord;

I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by Thy word.
5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die;
They view the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.
6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all Thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies—
The glory shall be Thine.

2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
 From heavenly wisdom's narrow way,
 To fly the good I would pursue,
 Or do the sin I would not do,
 Still He, who felt temptation's power,
 Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.

4 If vexing thoughts within me rise,
 And, sore dismayed, my spirit dies,
 Still He, who once vouchsafed to bear
 The sickening anguish of despair,
 Shall sweetly soothe, shall gently dry,
 The throbbing heart, the streaming eye.

3 If wounded love my bosom swell,
 Deceived by those I prized too well,
 He shall His pitying aid bestow,
 Who felt on earth severer woe,—
 At once betrayed, denied, or fled,
 By those who shared His daily bread.

5 When, sorrowing, o'er some stone I bend,
 Which covers what was once a friend,
 And from His voice, His hand, His smile,
 Divides me for a little while,—
 Thou, Saviour, mark'st the tears I shed,
 For Thou didst weep o'er Lazarus dead.

6 And O, when I have safely past
 Through every conflict but the last;
 Still, still unchanging, watch beside
 My painful bed, for Thou hast died:
 Then point to realms of cloudless day,
 And wipe the latest tear away.

3 I am bewildered on my way,
Dark and tempestuous is the night;
O send Thou forth some cheering ray:

When Thou sayest to them, "Be still."
Wondrous Sovereign of the sea,
Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

3 When at last I near the shore,

'Twixt me and the peaceful rest,
Then, while leaning on Thy breast,
May I hear Thee say to me,
"Fear not, I will pilot thee."

2 Principalities and powers,
Mustering their unseen array,
Wait for thy unguarded hours:
Watch and pray.

4 Hear the victors who o'ercame;
Still they mark each warrior's way;
All with one sweet voice proclaim,
"Watch and pray."

3 Gird thy heavenly armor on,
Wear it ever, night and day;
Ambushed lies the evil one:
Watch and pray.

5 Hear, above all, hear Thy Lord,
Him thou lovest to obey;
Hide within thy heart His word,
"Watch and pray."

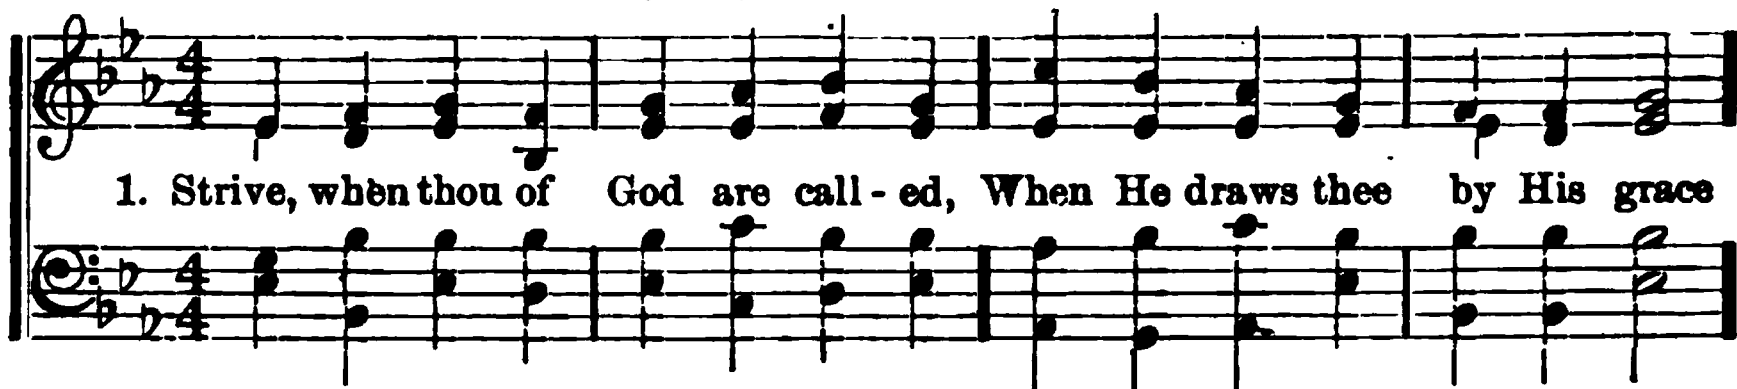

6 Watch, as if on that alone
Hung the issue of the day;
Pray, that help may be sent down:
Watch and pray.

1. Strive, when thou of God are call - ed, When He draws thee by His grace

Strive to cast a - way the bur - den That would clog thee in the race.

2 Fight, though now thy fight be fiercer,
Storm the kingdom, but prevail,
Let not Satan's heaviest weapons
Make thee, warrior, faint or quail.

3 Wrestle, till in all thy actions
Love and strength are growing warm,
Love, that dares the worldly factions;
Half-love will not bide the storm.

4 Wrestle, with strong prayers and crying,
Think no time too much to spend,
Though the night be passed in sighing
Though all day thy voice ascend.

5 Hast thou won the peace most valued
Think not thou hast reached the goal,
Every sin must first be conquered
That had power to harm thy soul.

6 Art thou faithful, then oppose them,
Sin and wrong, with all thy might;
Care not how e'er blows the tempest,
Only care to win the fight.

7 Art thou faithful, waking, watching,
Love with all thy heart Christ's ways
Seek not each, that is but transient
Look not for reward or praise.

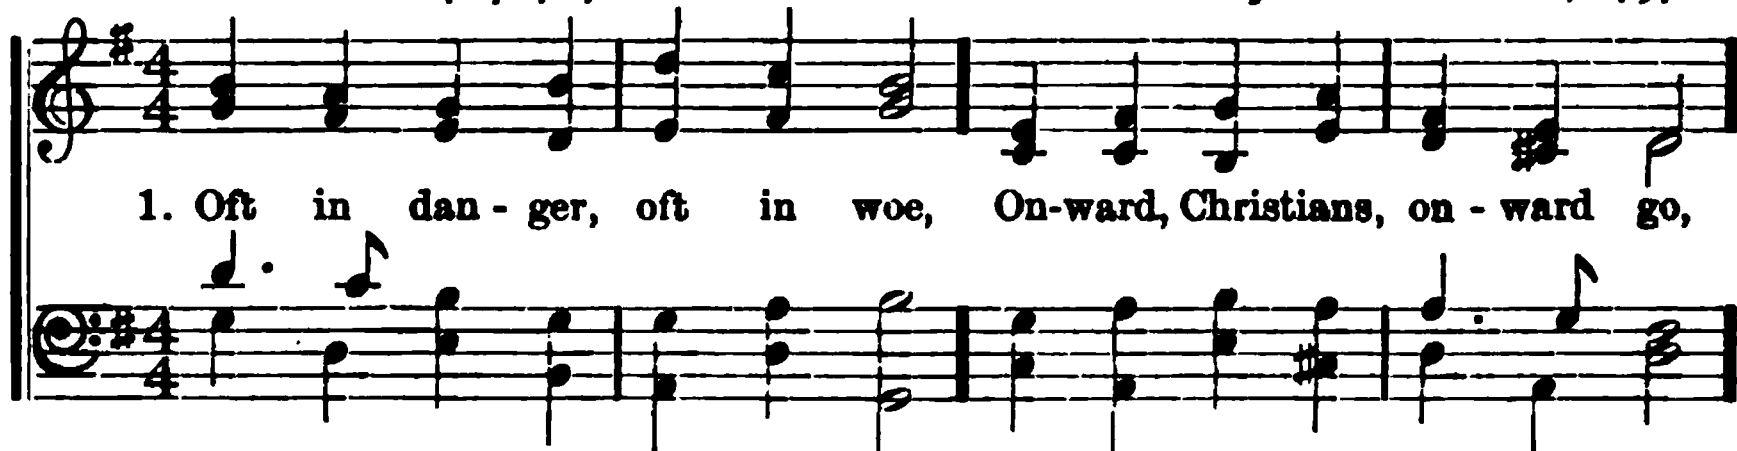

8 From all worldly hope and pleasure,
Thou must faithful stand apart;
On the heaven where lies our treasures,
Yonder fix thy hopes and heart.

9 Soldiers of the cross be steadfast
Watch and war 'mid fear and pain
Daily conquering all temptation
Till our King o'er earth shall reign.

2 Onward, Christians, onward go,
Join the war, and face the foe;
Faint not: much doth yet remain;
Dreary is the long campaign.

3 Let your drooping hearts be glad;
March, in heavenly armor clad;
Fight, nor think the battle long;
Victory soon shall tune your song.

4 Let not sorrow dim your eye,
Soon shall every tear be dry;
Let not woe your course impede,
Great your strength, if great your need.

1. Thou art' my Hid-ing place, O Lord, In Thee I put my trust;

Eu-cour-aged by Thy ho-ly word, A fee-ble child of dust:

I have no ar-gu-ment be-side, I urge no oth-er plea;

And 'tis e-nough my Sav-iour died, My Sav-iour died for me.

2 When storms of fierce temptation beat,
And furious foes assail,
My refuge is the mercy-seat,
My hope within the veil.
From strife of tongues and bitter words
My spirit flies to Thee:
Joy to my heart the thought affords,
My Saviour died for me.

3 'Mid trials heavy to be borne,
When mortal strength is vain,
A heart with grief and anguish torn,
A body racked with pain;
Ah! what could give the sufferer rest,
Bid every murmur flee,
But this, the witness in my breast
That Jesus died for me?

4 And when Thine awful voice commands
This body to decay,
And life, in its last lingering sands,
Is ebbing fast away,—
Then, though it be in accents weak,
And faint and tremblingly,
O give me strength in death to speak,
"My Saviour died for me."

 But, Jesus, draw Thou nearer,

3 O let me hear 'Thee speaking
 In accents clear and still,
 Above the storms of passion,

 O speak to re-assure me,

 O speak, and make me listen,
 Thou Guardian of my soul!

4 O Jesus, Thou hast promised

1. There's a fight to be fought, there's a work to be done, And a foe to be met ere the set of the sun. And the call is gone out o'er the land far and wide;

Who'll fol - low the ban-ner, who's on the Lord's side?

ff Refrain.
O hark! the call of bat-tle re-sounds far and wide: Who'll follow the banner, who's on the Lord's side?

2 O'er the waters it soundeth, from lands far away,
Where the rebel usurper holds fair realms in sway:
There are chains to be severed, and souls to be freed;
Our Captain is calling, Himself takes the lead.—REF.

3 O, true hearts have gone forth, glad and strong, to the war,
And the fame of their exploits has echoed afar;
And though brave ones have fallen, yet rich their reward,
Who dies is crowned victor by Jesus our Lord.—REF.

4 'Tis not each one is called in the front rank to fight,
And there's room for us all though our strength may be slight,
And the weakest and poorest some succor may bring,
If only he follows the flag of his King.—REF.

5 When the warfare is finished, the long struggle o'er,
And the name of our Master all nations adore,
Then the glad shout of triumph shall ring far and wide;
O, joy to the victor who's on the Lord's side!

And when our hearts are cold and dead,
O help us, Lord, the more.

3 O help us, through the prayer of faith

4 O help us, Jesus, from on high;
We know no help but Thee:
O help us so to live and die
As Thine in heaven to be.

2 Though fierce temptations lie in wait,
What need have I to care?
Thou wilt not suffer them to hurt
Beyond my strength to bear.

3 What storms may beat, what burdens fall,
My soul would not avoid;
Who follow Thee, O Lord, may be
Cast down, but not destroyed.

4 Though over steep and rugged ways
My weary feet be brought,
Still following where Thy footprints lead,
I take no anxious thought.

No care, no vain alarms;
Beneath my every cross I find

1. O Lord, how hap-py should we be, If we could cast our care on Thee,
If we from self could rest; And feel at heart that One a - bove,
In per - fect wis-dom, per-fect love, Is ev - er work-ing for the best!

2 How far from this our daily life,
How oft disturbed by anxious strife,
By sudden wild alarms;
O could we but relinquish all
Our earthly props, and simply fall
O Lord on Thine almighty arms!

3 Could we but kneel and cast our load,
E'en while we pray, upon our God,
Then rise with lightened cheer;
Sure that the Father, who is nigh
To still the famished raven's cry,
Will surely hear in that we fear.

4 We cannot trust Him as we should;
So chafes weak nature's restless mood
To cast its peace away;
But birds and flowerets round us preach,
All, all the present evil teach
Sufficient for the present day.

5 Lord, make these faithless hearts of ours
Thy lessons learn from birds and flowers;
Make them from self to cease,
Father! we trust; and we lie still;
Leave all things to Thy Holy will,
And so at last find perfect peace.

2 The light of smiles shall fill again,
The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.

3 There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide an evening guest,
But joy shall come with early light.

4 And thou, who o'er thy friend's low bier
Sheddest the bitter drops like rain,

Hope that a brighter, happier sphere
Will give him to thy arms again.

5 Nor let the good man's trust depart,
Though life its common gifts deny;
Though, with a pierced and broken heart,
And spurned of men, he goes to die.

6 For God has marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear,
And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all His children suffer here.

2 The friends who in our sunshine live,
When winter comes, are flown;
And he who has but tears to give,
Must weep those tears alone.

3 But Christ can heal the broken heart,
Which, like the plants that throw
Their fragrance from the wounded part,
Breathes sweetness out of woe.

4 When joy no longer soothes or cheers,
And e'en the hope that threw
A moment's sparkle o'er our tears
Is dimmed and vanished too.

5 O, who could bear life's stormy doom,
Did not His wing of love
Come, brightly wafting through the gloom,
Our peace-branch from above?

6 Then sorrow, touched by Him, grows bright,
With more than rapture's ray;
As darkness shows us worlds of light,
We never saw by day.

Thomas Moore, 1816.

1 One prayer I have—all prayers in one—
When I am wholly Thine;
Thy will, my God, Thy will be done,
And let that will be mine.

May all Thy bounties flow.

4 And though Thy wisdom takes away,
Shall I arraign Thy will?
No, let me bless Thy Name and say,

1. Lead us, heaven-ly Fa-ther, lead us O'er the world's tempestuous sea;

Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us, For we have no help but Thee;

Yet pos-sess-ing ev-'ry bless-ing, If our God our Fa-ther be.

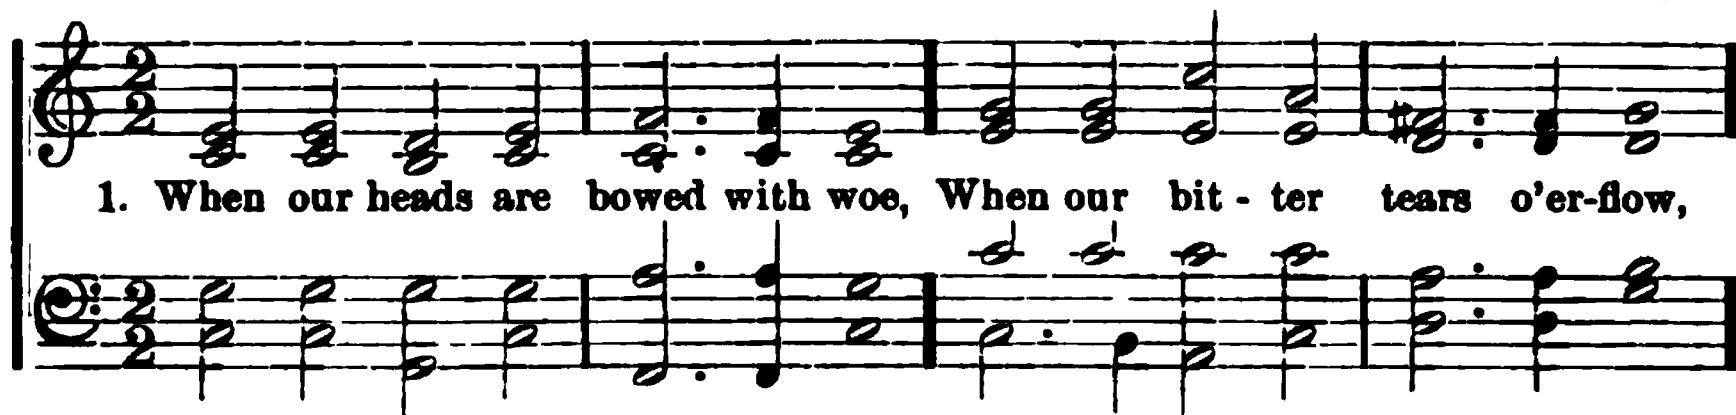

2 Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us;
All our weakness Thou dost know;
Thou didst tread this earth before us,
Thou didst feel its keenest woe;
Lone and dreary, faint and weary,
Through the desert Thou didst go.

3 Spirit of our God, descending,
Fill our hearts with heavenly joy;
Love with every passion blending,
Pleasure that can never cloy;
Thus provided, pardoned, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy.

1. If God Himself be for me, I may a host de - fy; For when I pray, be - for me My foes confounded fly. If Christ, the Head, befriend me, If God be my sup-port, The mischief they intend me Shall quickly come to naught.

2 I build on this foundation,
That Jesus and His blood
Alone are my salvation,
The true eternal good:
Without Him, all that pleases
Is valueless on earth:
The gifts I owe to Jesus
Alone my love are worth.

3 His Holy Spirit dwelleth
Within my willing heart,
Tames it when it rebelleth,
And soothes the keenest smart.

He crowns His work with blessing,
And helpeth me to cry
"My Father!" without ceasing
To Him who reigns on high.

4 To mine His Spirit speaketh
Sweet words of soothing power,
How God to him that seeketh
For rest, hath rest in store—
How God Himself prepareth
My heritage and lot,
And though my body weareth,
My heaven shall fail me not.

2 Thou our feeble flesh hast worn;
Thou our mortal griefs hast borne;
Thou hast shed the human tear:
"Jesus, Son of David," hear!

3 Thou hast bowed the dying head;
Thou the blood of life hast shed;
Thou hast filled a mortal bier:
"Jesus, Son of David," hear!

4 When the heart is sad within,
With the thought of all its sin;

When the spirit shrinks with fear,
"Jesus, Son of David," hear!

5 Thou the shame, the grief, hast known;
Though the sins were not Thine own,
Thou hast deigned their load to bear:
"Jesus, Son of David," hear!

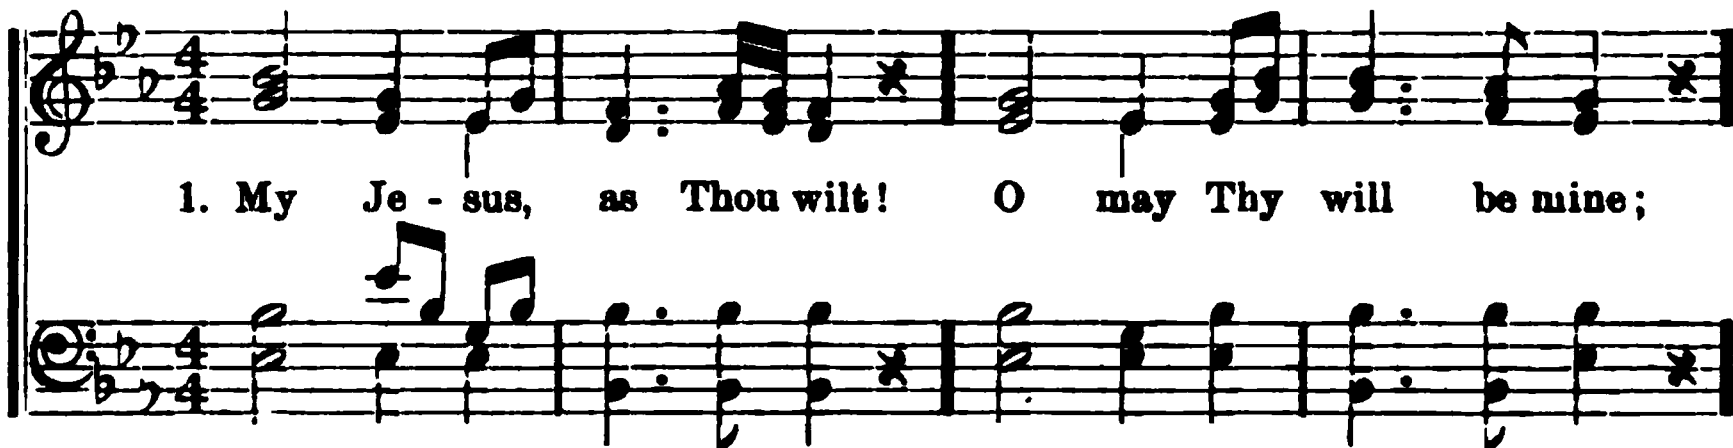

6 When our eyes grow dim in death;
When we heave the parting breath;
When our solemn doom is near,
"Jesus, Son of David," hear!

1. My Je - sus, as Thou wilt! O may Thy will be mine;

In - to Thy hand of love I would my all re - sign.

Through sor - row, or thro' joy, Con - duct me as Thine own;

And help me still to say, My Lord, Thy will be done.

2 My Jesus, as Thou wilt!
If needy here and poor,
Give me Thy people's bread,
Their portion rich and sure.
The manna of Thy word
Let my soul feed upon;
And if all else should fail,
My Lord, Thy will be done.

3 My Jesus, as Thou wilt!
Though seen through many a tear,
Let not my star of hope
Grow dim or disappear,

Since Thou on earth hast wept
And sorrowed oft alone,
If I must weep with Thee,
My Lord, Thy will be done.

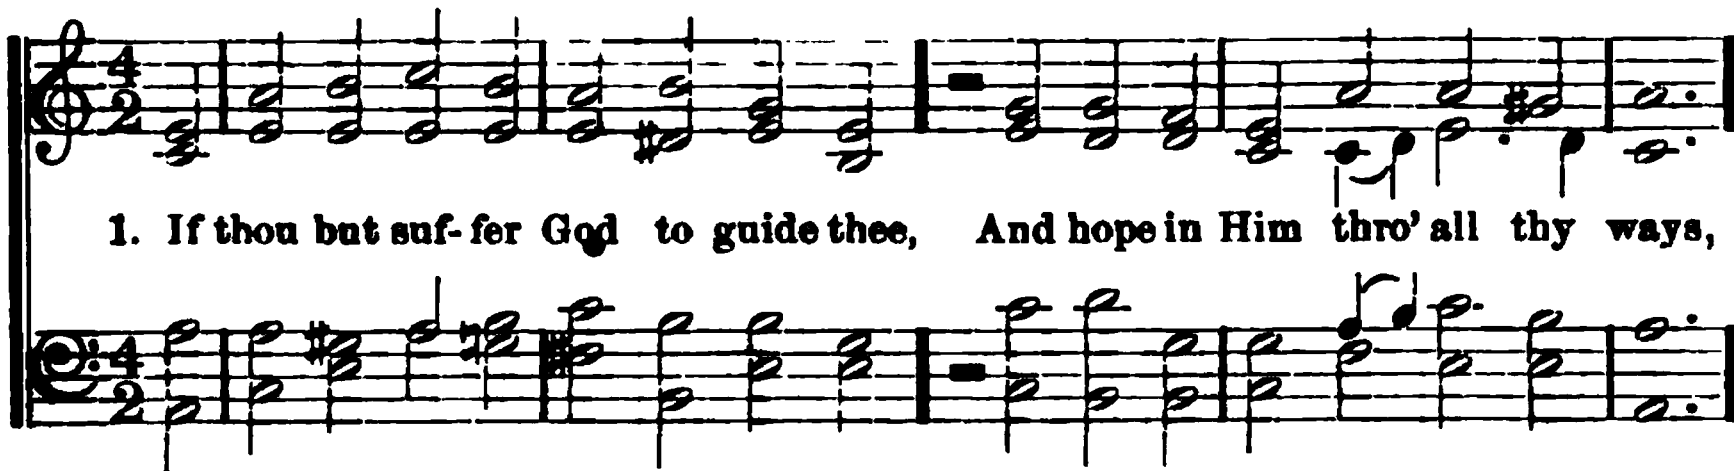

4 My Jesus, as Thou wilt!
All shall be well for me;
Each changing future scene
I gladly trust with Thee.
Straight to my home above
I travel calmly on,
And sing, in life or death,
My Lord, Thy will be done.

George Neumark, 1657.

1. If thou but suf-fer God to guide thee, And hope in Him thro' all thy ways,

He'll give thee strength whate'er betide thee, And bear thee thro' the e - vil days:

Who trusts in God's un-chang-ing love Builds on the rock that naught can move.

2 What can these anxious cares avail thee—
These never-ceasing moans and sighs?
What can it help, if thou bewail thee
O'er each dark moment as it flies?
Our cross and trials do but press
The heavier for our bitterness.

4 God knows full well the hour when gladness
Shall be the needful thing for thee.
When He has tried thy soul with sadness
And from all guile has found thee free,
He comes to thee all unaware,
And makes thee own His loving care.

3 Keep peace at heart, and wait His leisure
In cheerful hope, and be content
To take whate'er thy Father's pleasure
And all-deserving love hath sent;
Nor doubt our inmost wants are known
To Him who chose us for His own.

5 All are alike before the Highest;
'Tis easy to our God, we know,
To raise thee up though low thou liest,
To make the rich man poor and low;
True wonders still by Him are wrought
Who setteth up and brings to naught.

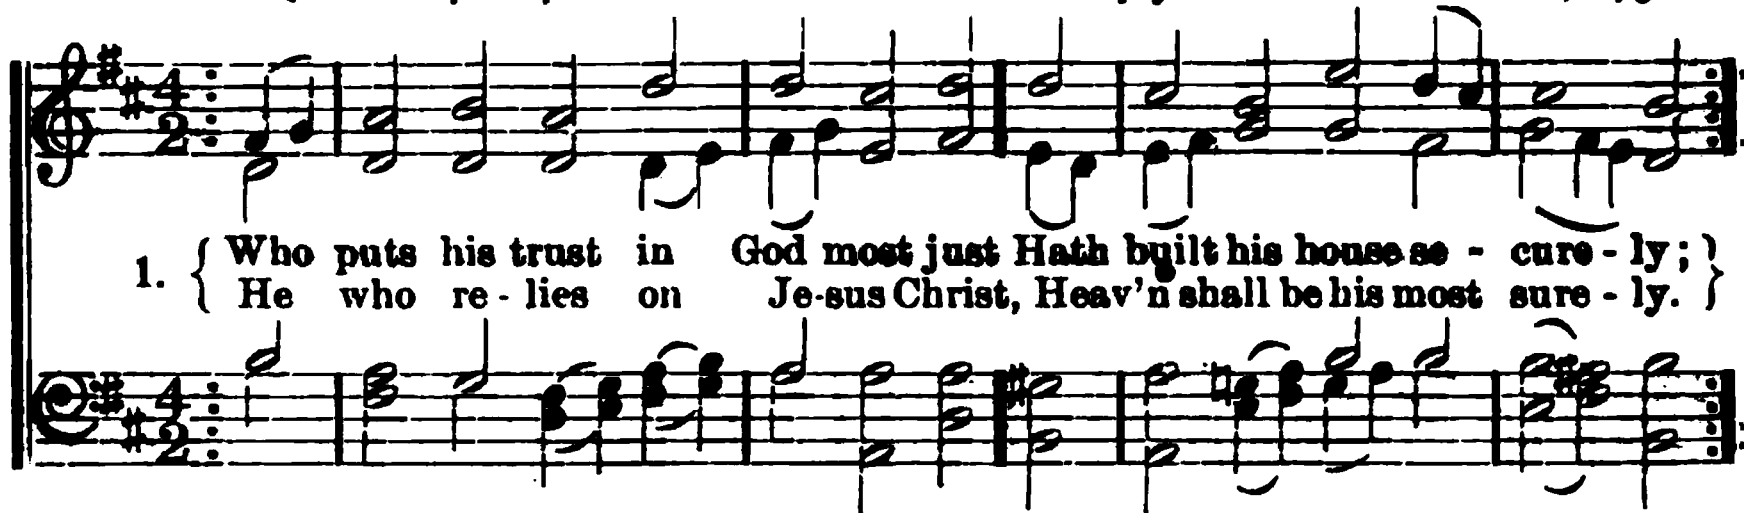

6 Sing, pray, and keep His ways unswerving,
So do thine own part faithfully,
And trust His word,—though undeserving,
Thou yet shalt find it true for thee;
God never yet forsook at need
The soul that trusted Him indeed.

THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE.

liv - ing na-ture, Man, the stamp of thy Cre-ator, Praise ye, praise ye, God the Lord!

2 Sun and moon bright,
Night and moonlight,
Starry temples, azure-floored,
Clouds and rain, and wild wind's madness,
Sons of God, that shout for gladness,
Praise ye, praise ye, God the Lord!

3 Ocean hoary
Tell His glory,
Cliffs where trembling seas have roared!
Pulse of waters blithely beating,
Wave advancing, wave retreating,
Praise ye, praise ye, God the Lord!

4 Rock and highland,
Wood and island,
Crag where eagle's pride hath soared,
Mighty mountains purple-breasted,
Peaks cloud-cleaving, snowy-crested,
Praise ye, praise ye, God the Lord!

5 Rolling river,
Praise Him ever,
From the mountain's deep vein poured,
Silver fountain clearly gushing,
Troubled torrent, wildly rushing,
Praise ye, praise ye, God the Lord!

6 Bond and free man,
Land and sea man,
Earth with peoples wisely stored,
Wanderer lone o'er prairies ample,
Full-voiced choir in costly temple,
Praise ye, praise ye, God the Lord!

7 Praise Him ever,
Bounteous Giver;
Praise Him, Father, Friend, and Lord!
Each glad soul its free course winging,
Each glad voice its free song singing,
Praise the great and mighty Lord!

2 To Him, the Lamb, our sacrifice,
Who gave His life our ransom-price,
Sing we Hallelujah!

3 To Him who died, that we might die
To sin, and live with Him on high,
Sing we Hallelujah!

4 To Him who rose, that we might rise
And reign with Him beyond the skies,
Sing we Hallelujah!

5 To Him who now for us doth plead,
And helpeth us in all our need,
Sing we Hallelujah!

6 To Him who doth prepare on high
Our home in immortality,
Sing we Hallelujah!

7 To Him be glory evermore;

1. Sav-iour, bless-ed Sav-iour, Lis-ten while we sing; Hearts and voic-es rais-ing Prais-es to our King: All we have we of-fer, All we hope to be, Bod-y, soul, and spir-it, All we yield to Thee.

- 2 Nearer, ever nearer,
Christ, we draw to Thee,
Deep in adoration
Bending low the knee:
Thou for our redemption
Cam'st on earth to die;
Thou, that we might follow,
Hast gone up on high.
- 3 Great and ever greater
Are Thy mercies here;
True and everlasting
Are the glories there,
Where no pain nor sorrow,
Toil nor care is known,
Where the angel-legions
Circle round Thy throne.
- 4 Brighter still and brighter
Glow the western sun,
Shedding all its gladness
O'er our work that's done:

Time will soon be over,
Toil and sorrow past,
May we, blessed Saviour,
Find a rest at last.

- 5 Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o'er the road
Worn by saints before us,
Journeying on to God;
Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking
Till the prize is won.

- 6 Higher, then, and higher,
Bear the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgetting,
Saviour, to its goal;
Where in joys unthought of Saints with angels sing,
Never weary, raising
Praises to their King.

1. When morn-ing gilds the skies, My heart a-wak-ing cries

May Je-sus Christ be praised: A-like at work and prayer

To Je-sus I re-pair; May Je-sus Christ be praised.

2 When sleep her balm denies,
My silent spirit sighs
May Jesus Christ be praised:
When evil thoughts molest,
With this I shield my breast,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

3 Does sadness fill my mind?
A solace here I find,
May Jesus Christ be praised:
Or fades my earthly bliss?
My comfort still is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

6 Be this, while life is mine,
My canticle Divine,
May Jesus Christ be praised:
Be this the eternal song,
Through all the ages on,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

4 In heaven's eternal bliss
The loveliest strain is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised:
The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

5 Let earth's wide circle round
In joyful notes resound,
May Jesus Christ be praised:
Let air and sea and sky,
From depth to height, reply,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

J. Balth. König's Liederschatz, 1738.

1. { O that I had a thousand voices! A mouth to speak with thousand tongues! }
 { Then, with a heart His praise re-joice, Would I proclaim in grateful songs, }

To all wher-ev - er I should be, What 'tis the Lord has done for me.

2 O that my voice might high be sounding,
 Far as the widely distant poles;
 My blood be quick with rapture bounding,
 Long as its vital current rolls:
 And every pulse thanksgiving raise,
 And every breath, a hymn of praise!

6 Who grants immortal hopes to bless me?
 Who, but Thyself, O God of love?
 Who guards my way lest fears oppress me?
 'Tis Thou, Lord God of hosts above.
 And when my sins Thy wrath provoke,
 Thy patience, Lord, forbears the stroke.

3 Ye trees!—your growth His seasons nourish,
 Now wave and rustle to His praise!
 Ye flowerets fair!—so soon to perish,
 Your forms with beauty He arrays;
 Let all your bloom now vocal be,
 And join the song of praise with me!

7 Why not then, with a faith unbounded,
 For ever in His love confide?
 Why not, with earthly griefs surrounded,
 Rejoicing, still in hope abide;
 Until I reach that blissful home
 Where doubts and sorrows never come?

4 And yet should universal nature
 Hear and obey my earnest call,
 Should I have aid from every creature,
 The strength would still be far too small,
 His greater wonders to unfold,
 Which all around me I behold.

8 For all Thy goodness I'll extol Thee,
 While yet my tongue has strength to move;
 First object of my love enroll Thee,
 Until my heart forget to love.
 When feeble lips no voice can raise,
 My dying sighs shall murmur praise.

5 Dear Father, endless praise I render,
 For soul and body strangely joined:
 I praise Thee, Guardian kind and tender,
 For all the noble joys I find
 So richly spread on every side,
 And freely for my use supplied.

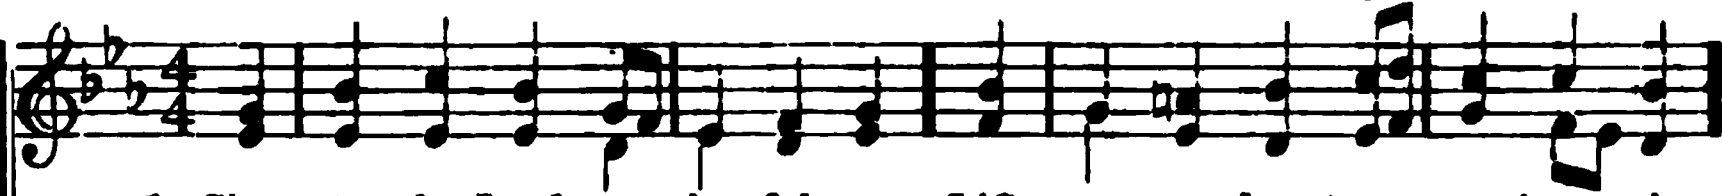

9 Accept, O Lord, I now implore Thee,
 The meagre praise I give below:
 In heaven I better will adore Thee,
 When I an angel's strength shall know:
 There would I lead the sacred choir,
 And raise their hallelujahs higher!

611 SING TO THE LORD. L. M. D.

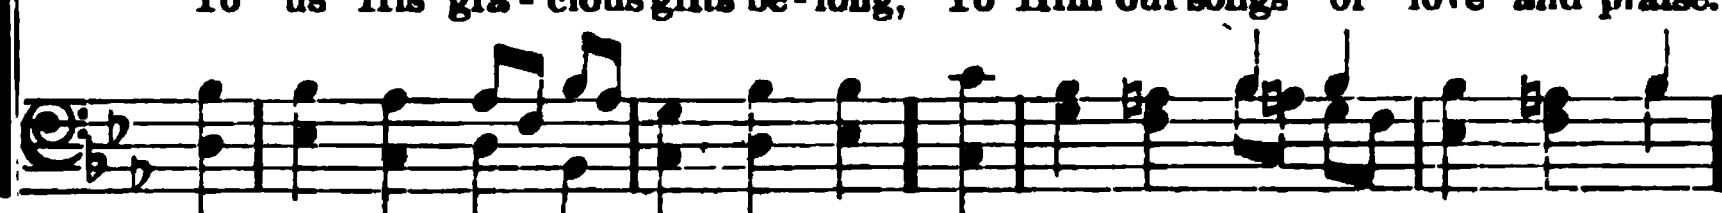

Sir Joseph Barnby, 1890.

1. Sing to the Lord a joy-ful song, Lift up your hearts, your voices raise ;

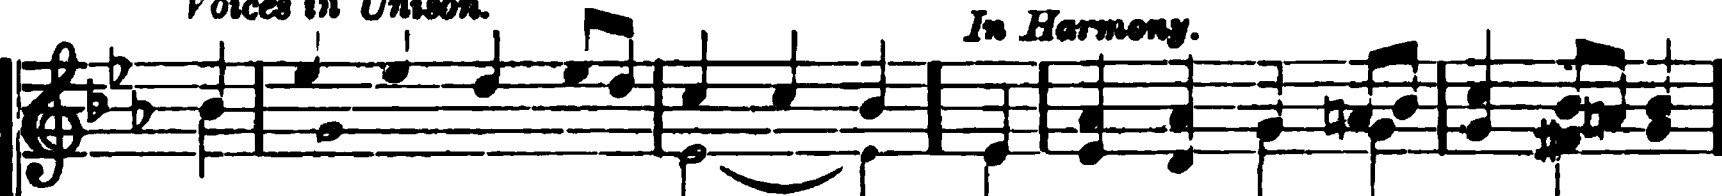

To us His gra-cious gifts be-long, To Him our songs of love and praise.

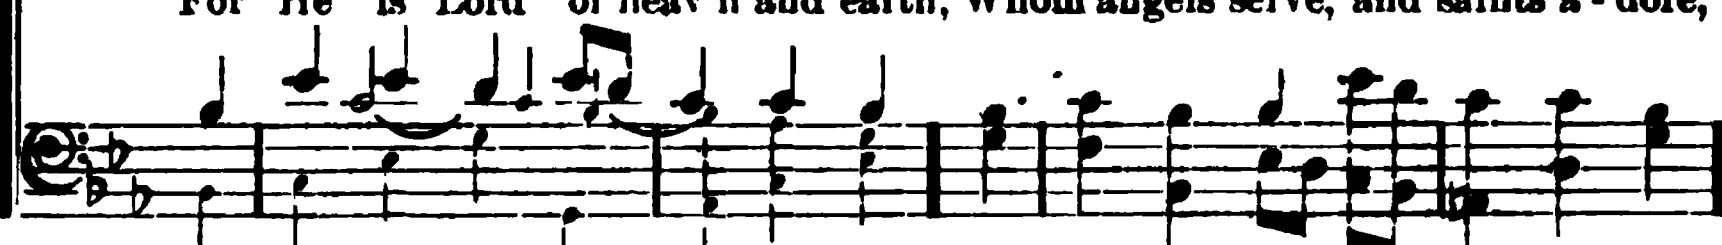

Voices in Unison.

In Harmony.

For He is Lord of heav'n and earth, Whom angels serve, and saints a-dore,

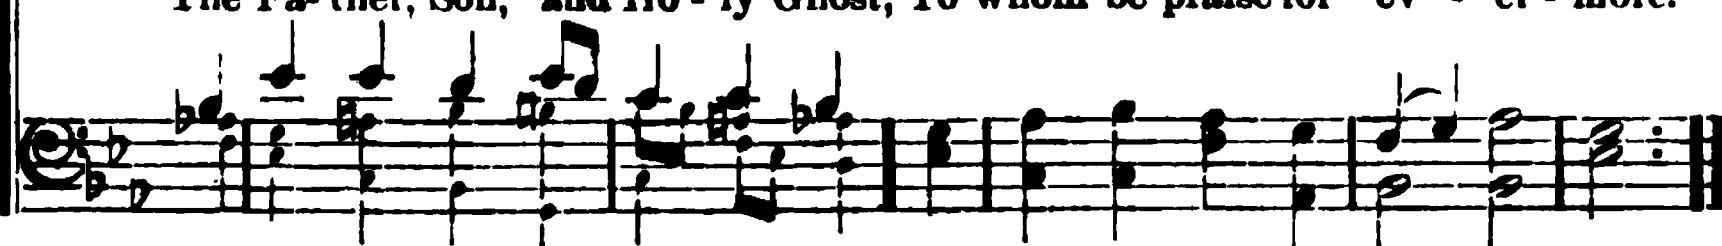

Voices in Unison.

In Harmony.

The Fa-ther, Son, and Ho-ly Ghost, To whom be praise for ev-er-more.

2 For life and love, for rest and food,
For daily help and nightly care,
Sing to the Lord, for He is good,
And praise His Name, for it is fair.
For He is Lord of heaven and earth,
Whom angels serve, and saints adore,
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
To whom be praise for evermore.

3 For strength to those who on Him wait,
His truth to prove, His will to do,
Praise ye our God, for He is great ;
Trust in His Name, for it is true.

For He is Lord of heaven and earth,
Whom angels serve, and saints adore,
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
To whom be praise for evermore.

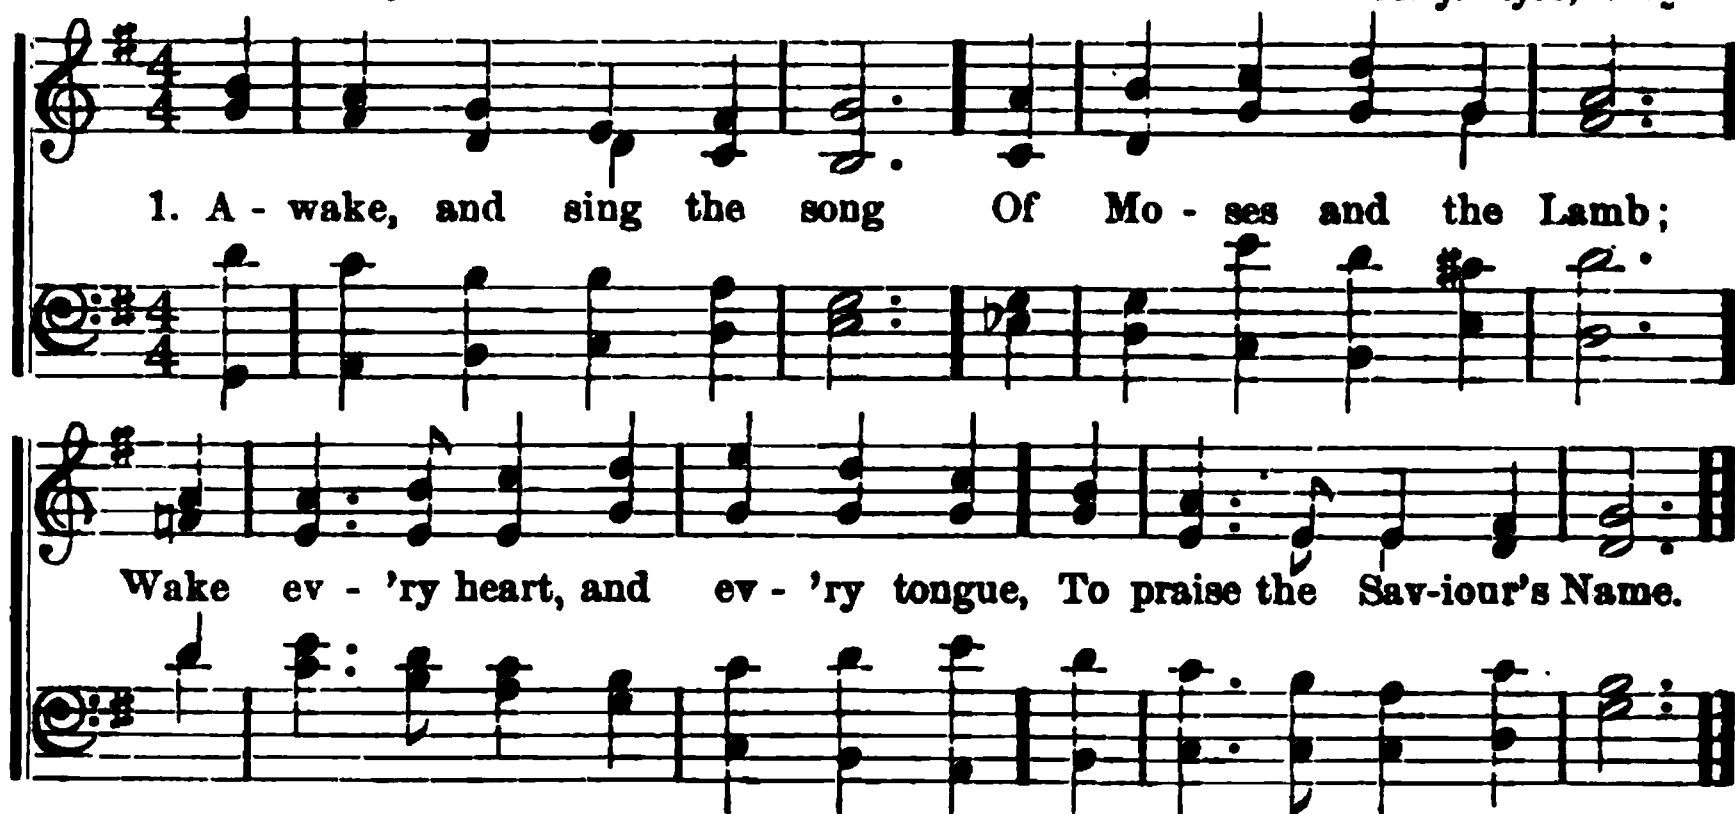

4 For life below, with all its bliss,
And for that life, more pure and high,
That inner life which over this
Shall ever shine, and never die,
Sing to the Lord of heaven and earth,
Whom angels serve, and saints adore,
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
To whom be praise for evermore.

- 2 Sing, till we feel our heart
Ascending with our tongue;
Sing, till the love of sin depart;
And grace inspire our song.
- 3 Sing, on your heavenly way,
Ye ransomed sinners, sing;
Sing on, rejoicing every day
In Christ, the heavenly King.
- 4 Soon shall we hear Him say,
"Ye blessed children, come!"
Soon will He call us hence away
To our eternal home.
- 5 There shall our raptured tongue
His endless praise proclaim,
And sweeter voices tune the song
Of Moses and the Lamb.

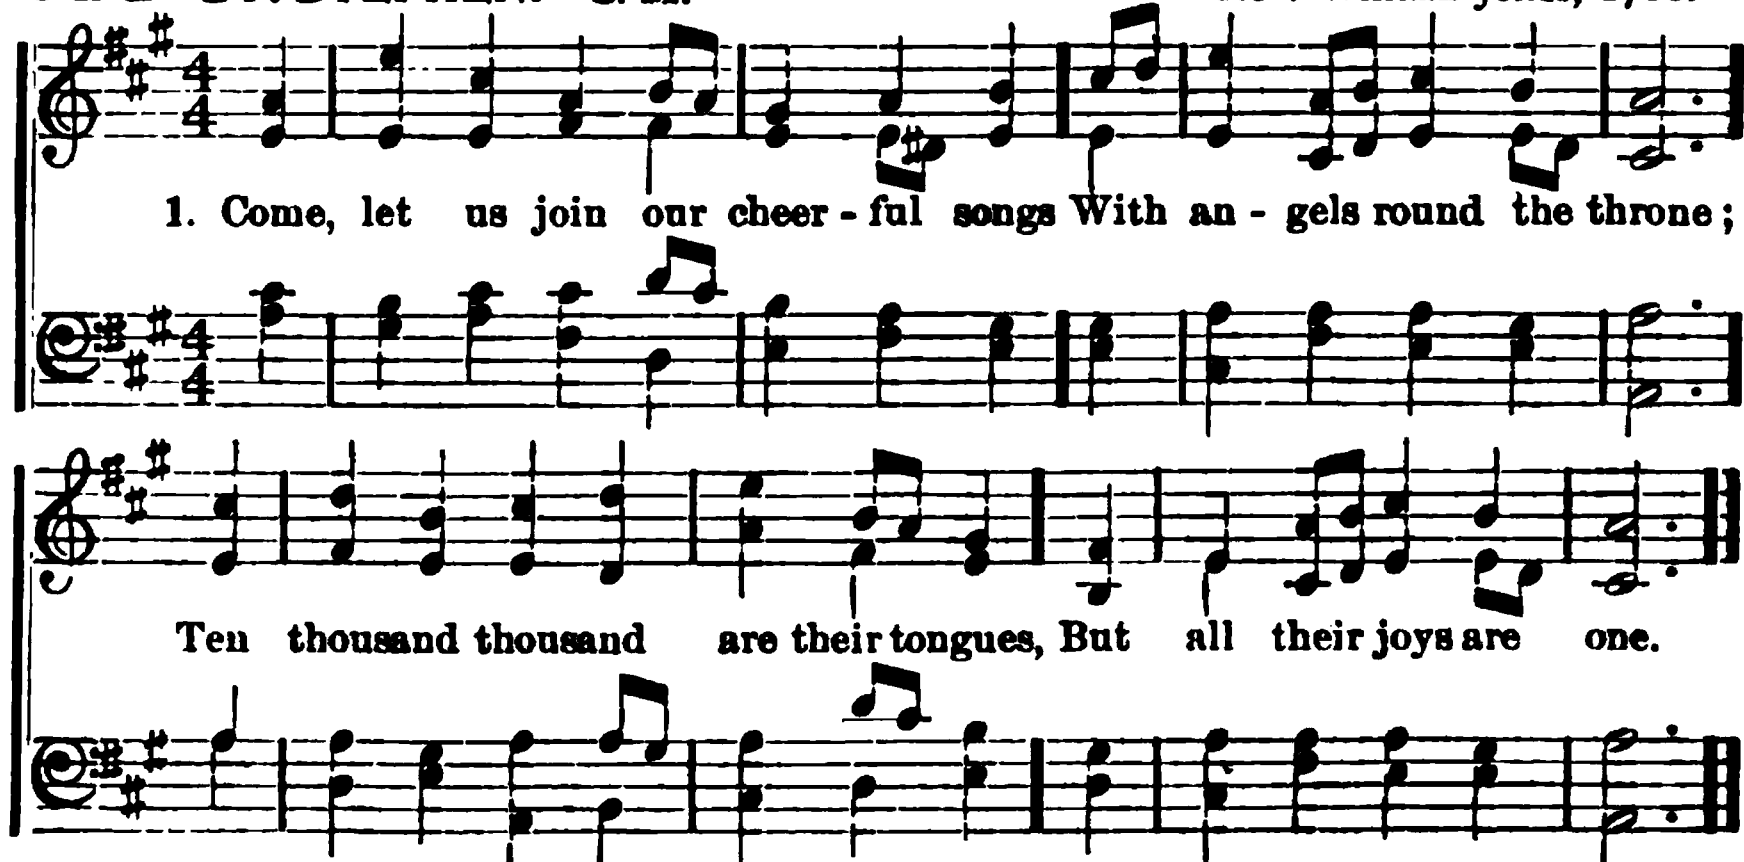

Rev. William Hammond, 1745.

- 1 With joy we lift our eyes
To those bright realms above,
That glorious temple in the skies,
Where dwells eternal Love.
- 2 Before Thy throne we bow,
O Thou almighty King;
Here we present the solemn vow,
And hymns of praise we sing.
- 3 While in Thy house we kneel,
With trust and holy fear,
Thy mercy and Thy truth reveal,
And lend a gracious ear.
- 4 Lord, teach our hearts to pray,
And tune our lips to sing;
Nor from Thy presence cast away
The sacrifice we bring.

For the love which from our birth O - ver and a - round us lies,
rit. Christ our God, to Thee we raise This our hymn of grate - ful praise.

2 For the wonder of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower,
Sun and moon, and stars of light,
Christ our God, to Thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

3 For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above,
For all gentle thoughts and mild:
Christ our God, to Thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

4 For Thy Church, that evermore
Lifteth holy hands above,
Offering up on every shore
Her pure sacrifice of love:
Christ our God, to Thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

5 For Thyself, best Gift Divine!
To our race so freely given,
For that great, great love of Thine,
Peace on earth, and joy in heaven;
Christ our God, to Thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

 With heart, and hands, and voices,
 Who wondrous things hath done,
 In whom His world rejoices;
 Who from our mother's arms
 Hath blessed us on our way
 With countless gifts of love,
 And still is ours to-day.
- 2 O may this bounteous God
 Through all our life be near us,
 With ever joyful hearts
 And blessed peace to cheer us;
 To keep us in His grace,
 And guide us when perplexed,
 And free us from all ills
 In this world and the next.
- 3 All praise and thanks to God,
 The Father, now be given,
 The Son, and Him who reigns

For His mercies still endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

3 Did the solid earth ordain

4 He, with all-commanding might,
Filled the new-made world with light
For His mercies still endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

5 He His chosen race did bless

2 Heaven and earth must pass away ;
Songs of praise shall crown that day :
God will make new heavens and earth ;
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.
And can man alone be dumb,
Till that glorious kingdom come?
No; the Church delights to raise
Psalms, and hymns, and songs of praise.

3 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice,
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.
Borne upon their latest breath,
Songs of praise shall conquer death ;
Then amidst eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ.

Ancient of eternal days !
Sounded through the wide creation
Be Thy just and lawful praise.

4 For Thy Providence, that governs
Through Thine empire's wide domain
Wings an angel, guides a sparrow :
Blessed be Thy gentle reign.

3 For the grandeur of Thy nature,
Grand beyond a seraph's thought ;
For created works of power,
Works with skill and kindness wrought ;

5 But Thy rich, Thy free Redemption,
Bright, though veiled in darkness long,
Thought is poor, and poor expression :
Who can sing that wondrous song !

All to ransom guilty captives !
Flow, my praise, for ever flow.

And hymn His praises in the sight

Which shines and loiters never,
Reminds us of some earnest saint
Whose life is bright forever.

6 So tending heavenward, Lord, may we Soon meet Thee to part never,
And all Thy matchless beauty see,
And taste Thy love forever.

7 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,

From man and from the angel host
Be praise and glory ever.

Hymns of the Church, 1869.

1. { Lord, with glow - ing heart I'd praise Thee For the bliss Thy love be-stows ; }
 { For the pardoning grace that saves me, And the peace that from it flows ; }

Help, O God, my weak en - deav - or, This dull soul to rap - ture raise ;

Thou must light the flame, or nev - er Can my soul be warmed to praise.

2 Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
 Wretchèd wanderer, far astray ;
 Found thee lost, and kindly brought thee
 From the paths of death away ;
 Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
 Him who saw thy guilt-born fear,
 And, the light of hope revealing,
 Bade the blood-stained cross appear.

3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
 Vainly would my lips express :
 Low before Thy footstool kneeling,
 Deign Thy suppliant's prayer to bless ;
 Let Thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
 Love's pure flame within me raise ;
 And, since words can never measure,
 Let my life show forth Thy praise.

Francis S. Key, 1823.

624 CANONBURY. L. M.

2 He saw me ruined in the fall,
 Yet loved me notwithstanding all,
 And saved me from my lost estate,
 His loving-kindness is so great.

3 Through mighty hosts of cruel foes,
 Where earth and hell my way oppose,
 He safely leads my soul along,
 His loving-kindness is so strong.

4 Often I feel my sinful heart
 Prone from my Jesus to depart ;
 And though I oft have Him forgot,
 His loving-kindness changes not.

5 So when I pass death's gloomy vale,
 And life and mortal powers shall fail,
 O may my last expiring breath
 His loving-kindness sing in death.

6 Then shall I mount, and soar away
 To the bright world of endless day ;
 There shall I sing, with sweet surprise,
 His loving-kindness in the skies.

- 2 When anxious cares would break my rest,
And griefs would tear my throbbing breast,
Thy tuneful praises, raised on high,
Shall check the murmur and the sigh.
- 3 When death o'er nature shall prevail,
And all its powers of language fail,
Joy through my swimming eyes shall break,
And mean the thanks I cannot speak.
- 4 But O, when that last conflict's o'er,
And I am chained to flesh no more,
With what glad accents shall I rise,
To join the music of the skies!
- 5 The cheerful tribute will I give,
Long as a deathless soul can live,
A work so sweet, a theme so high,
Demands, and crowns eternity!

Rev. Philip Doddridge, 1735.

- 1 My God, my King, Thy various praise
Shall fill the remnant of my days;
Thy grace employ my humble tongue,
Till death and glory raise the song.
- 2 The wings of every hour shall bear
Some thankful tribute to Thine eye;
And every setting sun shall see
New works of duty, done for Thee.
- 3 Let distant times and nations raise
The long succession of Thy praise;
And unborn ages make my song
The joy and labor of their tongue.
- 4 But who can speak Thy wondrous deeds?
Thy greatness all our thoughts exceeds:
Vast and unsearchable Thy ways,—
Vast and immortal be Thy praise.

2 Praise ye the Lord, for all His loving kindness,

3 Praise ye Jehovah, Source of every blessing
Before His gifts earth's richest boons are dim ;
Resting in Him, His peace and joy possessing,
All things are ours, for we have all in Him.

4 Praise ye the Father, God the Lord who gave us,

Pure and ho - ly love un - bound-ed Fills His ten - der heart and kind ;

All who tru - ly serve Him find Rest by God's strong arm sur-round-ed.

Heav'n and earth may not en-dure But God's love is ev - er sure.

2 E'en the Son He loved so dearly
 Died that we through Him might live,
 Was e'er love like His, who merely Lived His life in love to give?
 Holy Spirit, teach and guide me,
 Fill my heart with loving faith ;
 Faith can break the power of death,
 Hell itself shall not deride me.
 Heaven and earth may not endure,

3 Praise thou the Lord, who hath made thee in wisdom abounding,
Who doth restore thee, with kindness thy pathway surrounding;
In thy distress
Hath not the God of all grace
Spread out His wings to preserve thee?

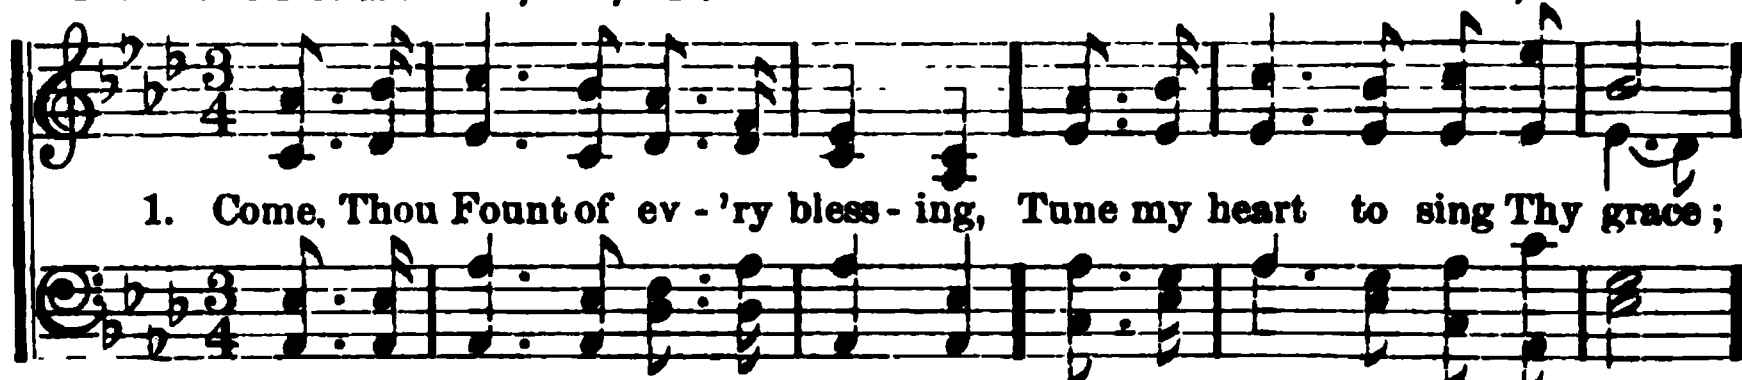

4 Praise thou the Lord, who hath blessed thine own station and calling
While from the heavens His showers of mercy are falling;
Think thou thereon,
What the Almighty hath done,
How doth His mercy run toward thee!

5 Praise thou the Lord, yea, let all that within me is praise Him,

1. When in the hour of ut-most need We know not where to look for aid;

When days and nights of anx-ious tho't Nor help nor coun-sel yet have brought:

IN WAR AND NATIONAL TROUBLE.

651 MENDON. L. M.

German Melody: arr. by S. Dyer, 1824.

1. O Lord of hosts, Al-might-y King, Be-hold the sac - ri - fice we bring:
To ev-'ry arm Thy strength impart; Thy Spir-it shed thro' ev - 'ry heart.

2 Wake in our breasts the living fires,
The holy faith that warmed our sires:
Thy hand hath made our nation free;
To die for her is serving Thee.

3 Be Thou a pillared flame to show
The midnight snare, the silent foe;
And when the battle thunders loud,
Still guide us in its moving cloud.

4 God of all nations, Sovereign Lord,
In Thy dread Name we draw the sword,
We lift the starry flag on high
That fills with light our stormy sky.

5 From treason's rent, from murder's stain,
Guard Thou its folds till peace shall reign,
Till fort and field, till shore and sea,
Join our loud anthem,—Praise to Thee.

Oliver Wendell Holmes, 1861.

1 Kingdoms and thrones to God belong;
Crown Him, ye nations, in your song;
His wondrous names and powers rehearse;
His honors shall enrich your verse.

2 He shakes the heavens with loud alarms;
How terrible is God in arms!
In Israel are His mercies known,
Israel is His peculiar throne.

3 Proclaim Him King, pronounce Him blest;
He's your defense, your joy, your rest;
When terrors rise, and nations faint,
God is the strength of every saint.

JEHOSHAPHAT. L. M.

2 Then this our comfort is alone,
That we may meet before Thy throne,
And cry, O faithful God, to Thee
For rescue from our misery:

3 To Thee may raise our hearts and eyes,
Repenting sore with bitter sighs,
And seek Thy pardon for our sin,
And respite from our griefs within.

4 For Thou hast promised graciously
To hear all those who cry to Thee,
Through Him whose Name alone is great,
Our Saviour and our Advocate.

5 And thus we come, O God, to-day,
And all our woes before Thee lay;
For tried, afflicted, lo! we stand,
Peril and foes on every hand.

6 Ah, hide not from our sins Thy face;
Absolve us through Thy boundless grace;
Be with us in our anguish still,
Free us at last from every ill.

7 That so with all our hearts may we
Once more with joy give thanks to Thee,
And walk obedient to Thy word,
And now and ever praise the Lord.

1. E - ter-nal Source of ev - 'ry joy, Well may Thy praise our lips em - ploy

While in Thy tem - ple we ap - pear, Whose goodness crowns the circling year.

2 Wide as the wheels of nature roll,
Thy hand supports and guides the whole,
The sun is taught by Thee to rise,
And darkness when to veil the skies.

4 Thy hand in autumn richly pours
Through all our coasts redundant stores;
And winters, softened by Thy care,
No more a face of horror wear.

3 The flowery spring, at Thy command,
Embalms the air and paints the land;
The summer rays with vigor shine,
To raise the corn and cheer the vine.

5 Seasons, and months, and weeks, and days,
Demand successive songs of praise;
Still be the cheerful homage paid,
With morning light and evening shade.

6 O, may our more harmonious tongue
In worlds unknown pursue the song;
And in those brighter courts adore,
Where days and years revolve no more!

(Or to St. George's, Windsor.)

2 On our field of grass and grain
 Send, O Lord, the kindly rain;
 O'er our wide and goodly land
 Crown the labors of each hand.
 Let Thy kind protection be
 O'er our commerce on the sea:
 Open, Lord, Thy bounteous hand,
 Bless Thy people, bless our land.

3 Let our rulers ever be
 Men that love and honor Thee;
 Let the powers by Thee ordained
 Be in righteousness maintained;
 In the people's hearts increase
 Love of piety and peace;
 Thus united we shall stand
 One wide, free, and happy land.

2 How blest Thy saints! how safely led!
 How surely kept! how richly fed!
 Saviour of all in earth and sea,
 How happy they who rest in Thee!

3 Thy hand sets fast the mighty hills,
 Thy voice the troubled ocean stills;
 Evening and morning hymn Thy praise,
 And earth Thy bounty wide displays.

4 The year is with Thy goodness crowned;
 Thy clouds drop wealth the world around;
 Through Thee the deserts laugh and sing,
 And nature smiles and owns her King.

5 Lord, on our souls Thy Spirit pour;

1. When spring unlocks the flowers To paint the laughing soil, When summer's balmy show-ers Re-fresh the mower's toil; When winter binds in fros-ty chains The fal-low and the flood, In God the earth re-joic-eth still, And owns her Maker good.

2 The birds that wake the morning,
And these that love the shade;
The winds that sweep the mountain,
Or lull the drowsy glade;
The sun that from the amber bower
Rejoiceth on his way;
'The moon and stars their Maker's Name
In silent pomp display.

3 Shall man, the lord of nature,
Expectant of the sky,
Shall man, alone unthankful
His little praise deny?

No, let the year forsake his course,
The seasons cease to be,
Thee, Father, must we always love,—
Creator, honor Thee!

4 The flowers of spring may wither,
The hope of summer fade;
The autumn droop in winter,
The birds forsake the shade;
The winds be lulled, the sun and moon
Forget their old decree;
But we in nature's latest hour,
O Lord, will cling to Thee!

2 From night to day, from day to night,
The dawning and the dying light
Lectures of heavenly wisdom read;
With silent eloquence they rise
Our thoughts to our Creator's praise,
And neither sound nor language need.

3 Yet their divine instructions run
Far as the journeys of the sun,
And every nation knows their voice;
The sun, like some young bridegroom drest,
Breaks from the chambers of the east,
Rolls round and makes the earth rejoice.

Thine is the har-vest, Thine the seed, The fresh and fad-ing year.

2 Our hope, when autumn winds blew wild,
We trusted, Lord, with Thee:
And now that spring has on us smiled,
We wait on Thy decree.

3 The former and the latter rain,
The summer sun and air,
The green ear, and the golden grain,
All Thine, are ours by prayer.

4 Thine too by right, and ours by grace,
The wondrous growth unseen,
The hopes that soothe, the fears that brace,
The love that shines serene.

5 So grant the precious things brought forth
By sun and moon below,
That Thee in Thy new heavens and earth
We never may forego.

1. With songs and honors sounding loud, Address the Lord on high : Over the heav'ns He spreads His cloud,
D.S.—He makes the grass the mountains crown,

FINE. D.S.

And wa-ters veil the sky. He sends His show'rs of blessings down, To cheer the plains be-low ;
And corn in val-leys grow.

2 His steady counsels change the face
Of the declining year ;
He bids the sun cut short his race,
And wintry days appear.
His hoary frost, His fleecy snow,
Descend and clothe the ground ;
The liquid streams forbear to flow,
In icy fetters bound.

3 He sends His word and melts the snow,
The fields no longer mourn ;
He calls the warmer gales to blow,
And bids the spring return.
The changing wind, the flying cloud,
Obey His mighty word :
With songs and honors, sounding loud,
Praise ye the sovereign Lord.

1. Our year of grace is wearing to its close, Its autumn storms are lowering from the sky: Shine on us with Thy light, O God most high; A - bid with us wher-e'er our pathway goes, Our Guide in toil, our Guardian in re - pose.

2 All through the months hath beamed Thy cheering light,
From Bethlehem's Day-star waxing ever on;
Through every cloud Thy blessed Sun hath shone:
Earth may be dark to them that walk by sight,
But for Thy Church the day is always bright.

3 Light us in life, that we may see Thy will,
The track Thy hand hath ordered for our way;
Light us when shadows gather o'er our day;
Shine on us in that passage lone and chill,
And then our darkness with Thy glory fill.

4 Praise be to God from earth's remotest coast,
From lands and seas, and each created race;
Praise from the worlds His hand hath launched in space;
Praise from the Church, and from the heavenly Host;
Praise to the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!

Rev. Henry Alford, 1868.

2 I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at His command,
And all the stars obey.

3 Lord! how Thy wonders are displayed
Where'er I turn mine eye!
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky!

4 There's not a plant or flower below
But makes Thy glories known;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow,
By order from Thy throne.

5 Creatures that borrow life from Thee
Are subject to Thy care;
There's not a place where we can flee,
But God is present there.

1. Praise to God, im - mor - tal praise, For the love that crowns our days,

Bounteous Source of ev - 'ry joy, Let Thy praise our tongues em - ploy.

2 Flocks that whiten all the plain ;
Yellow sheaves of ripened grain ;
Clouds that drop their fattening dews,
Suns that temperate warmth diffuse ;

3 All that spring with bounteous hand
Scatters o'er the smiling land ;
All that liberal autumn pours
From her rich o'erflowing stores ;—

4 These to Thee, my God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow ;
And for these my soul shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

5 Yet, should rising whirlwinds tear
From its stem the ripening ear ;
Should the fig-tree's blasted shoot
Drop her green untimely fruit ;

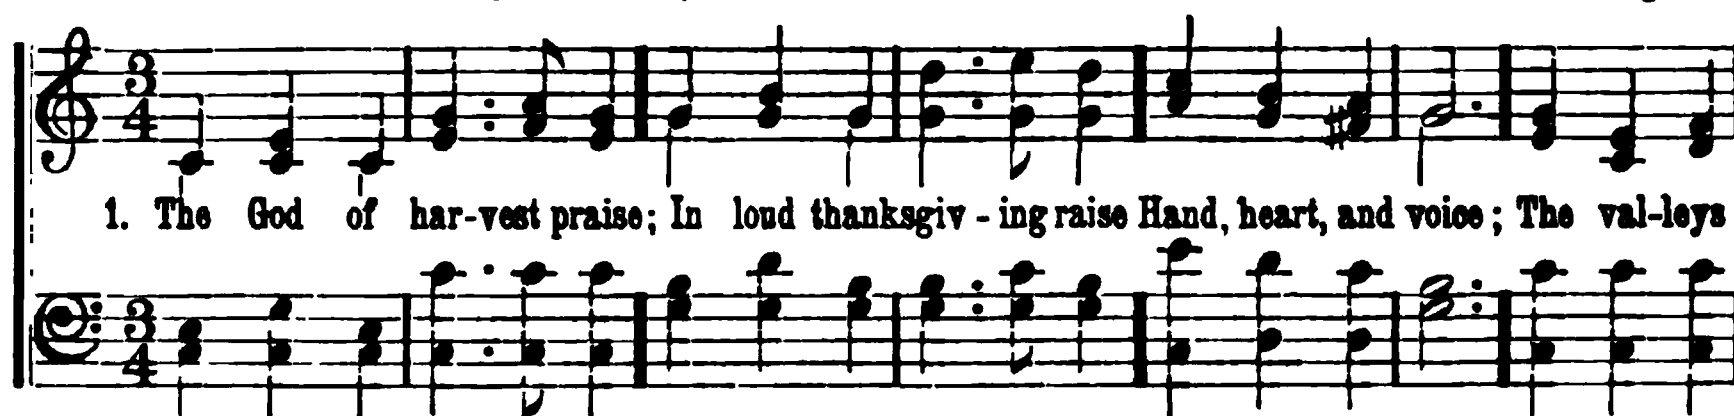

6 Should the vine put forth no more,
Nor the olive yield her store ;
Though the sickening flocks should fall,
And the herds desert the stall ;—

7 Yet to Thee my soul shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise ;
And, when every blessing's flown,
Love Thee for Thyself alone.

J. Coward, 1868.

1. Lord of the har-vest, Thee we hail! Thine an-cient promise doth not fail;
The vary-ing sea-sons haste their round; With goodness all our years are crown'd;
Our thanks we pay, This ho-ly day; O let our hearts in tune be found.

2 When spring doth wake the song of mirth,
When summer warms the fruitful earth,
When autumn yields its ripened grain,
Or winter sweeps the naked plain,
We still do sing
To Thee our King;
Through all their changes Thou dost reign.

3 But chiefly when Thy liberal hand
Bestows new plenty o'er the land,
When sounds of music fill the air,
As homeward all their treasures bear;
We too will raise
Our hymn of praise,
For we Thy common bounties share.

4 Lord of the harvest, all is Thine:
The rains that fall, the suns that shine,
The seed once hidden in the ground,
The skill that makes our fruits abound:
New every year,
Thy gifts appear;
New praises from our lips shall sound.

3 The God of harvest praise;
Hands, hearts, and voices, raise,
With sweet accord;
From field to garner throng,
Bearing your sheaves along,
And in your harvest song
Bless ye the Lord.

1. Sing to the Lord of har - vest, Sing songs of love and praise;
With joy - ful hearts and voic - es Your hal - le - lu - jahs raise:
By Him the roll - ing sea - sons In fruit - ful or - der move;
Sing to the Lord of har - vest A song of hap - py love.

2 By Him the clouds drop fatness,
The deserts bloom and spring,
The hills leap up in gladness,
The valleys laugh and sing:
He filleth with His fullness
All things with large increase,
He crowns the year with goodness,
With plenty and with peace.

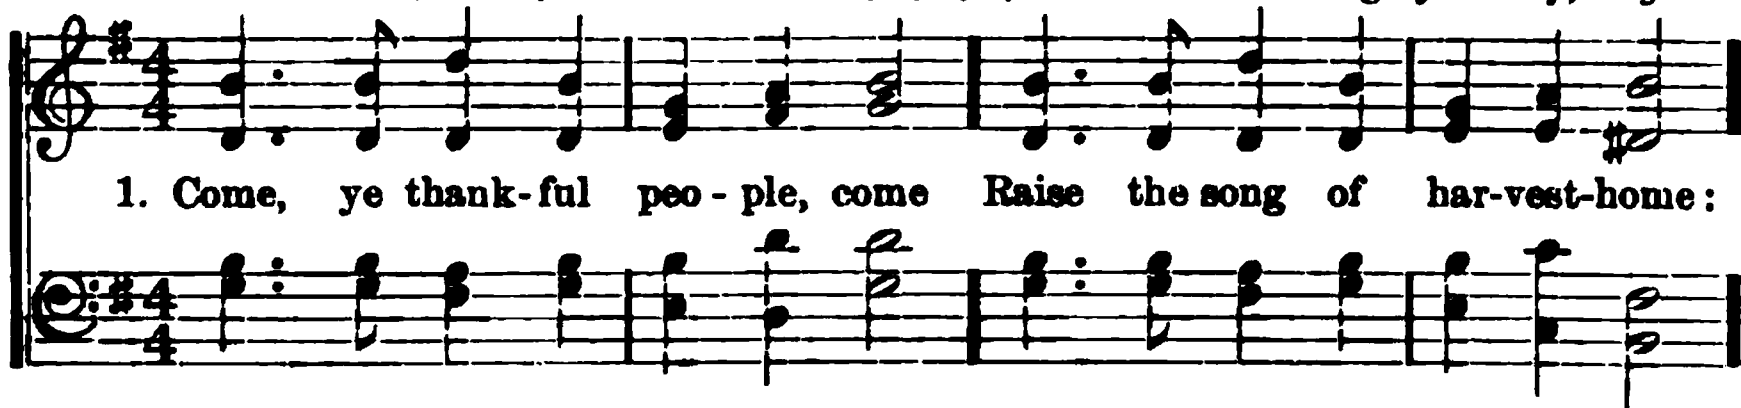

3 Heap on His sacred altar
The gifts His goodness gave,
The golden sheaves of harvest,
The souls He died to save:
Your hearts lay down before Him,
When at His feet ye fall,
And with your lives adore Him,
Who gave His life for all.

4 To God the gracious Father,
Who made us, "very good,"
To Christ, who, when we wandered,
Restored us with His blood,
And to the Holy Spirit,
Who doth upon us pour
His blessed dews and sunshine,
Be praise for evermore.

1. Come, ye thank-ful peo-ple, come Raise the song of har-vest-home:

All is safe-ly gath-ered in, Ere the win-ter storms be-gin;

God, our Mak-er, doth pro-vide For our wants to be sup-plied:

Come to God's own tem-ple, come; Raise the song of har-vest-home.

2 All the world is God's own field,
Fruit unto His praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown:
First the blade, and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear:
Lord of harvest, grant that we
Wholesome grain and pure may be.

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take His harvest home;
From His field shall in that day
All offences purge away;
Give His angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast,
But the fruitful ears to store
In His garner evermore.

4 Even so, Lord, quickly come
To Thy final harvest home;
Gather Thou Thy people in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin;
There for ever purified,
In Thy presence to abide:
Come, with all Thine angels, come,
Raise the glorious harvest home.

John Stanley, 1770.

1. Good Lord, the val-leys laugh and sing, The plains stand thick with yel-low corn ;

The reap-ers make the ech-oes ring With joy-ous songs from ear-ly morn.

2 The sun shone forth in splendor bright,
And tinged the mountain-tops with gold;
The fields were flooded with his light,
And trees did all their buds unfold.

5 Lord, in Thy holy Name we raise,
With thankful heart and grateful tongue
Our tribute of adoring praise,
Our due and joyful harvest song.

3 Thou gavest us refreshing showers,
That shook their treasures o'er the land,
Till blossom'd all the earth with flowers,
And hills rejoiced on every hand.

6 For all things magnify Thy love,
The genial winds, the gentle rain,
Clouds dropping fatness from above,
The blade, the ear, the golden grain.

4 Thy love has given our harvest-store,
And scattered blessings far and wide;
Thy hand has filled our garner-floor,
And all our harvest wants supplied.

7 O Thou, who givest daily bread,
And givest it in plenteous store,
Let all our hungering souls be fed
With bread of life for evermore.

Sir Joseph Barnby, 1890.

1. Lord of the har-vest! once a-gain; We thank Thee for the rip-ened grain;

For crops safe car-ried, sent to cheer Thy servants thro' an-oth-er year;

HARVEST.

For all sweet, ho - ly tho'ts supplied By seed-time and by har - vest - tide.

2 The bare dead grain in autumn sown,
Its robe of vernal green puts on;
Glad from its wintry grave it springs,
Fresh garnished by the King of kings.
So, Lord, to those who sleep in Thee
Shall new and glorious bodies be.

3 Nor vainly of Thy word we ask
A lesson from the reaper's task;
So shall Thine angels issue forth;
The tares be burnt; the just of earth,
Playthings of sun and storm no more,
Be gathered to their Father's store.

4 Daily, O Lord, our prayers be said,
As Thou hast taught, for daily bread;
But not alone our bodies feed;
Supply our fainting spirits' need!
O Bread of Life! from day to day,
Be Thou their Comfort, Food, and Stay!

1. What our Fa-ther does is well; Bless-ed truth His children tell! Though He send, for plen-ty want,

Tho' the har-vest-store be scant, Yet we rest up - on His love, Seeking bet-ter things a - bove.

2 What our Father does is well:
Shall the wilful heart rebel?
If a blessing He withhold
In the field, or in the fold,
Is He not Himself to be
All our store 'eternally?

3 What our Father does is well:
Though He sadden hill and dell,
Upward yet our praises raise
For the strength His word supplies;
He has called us sons of God,
Can we murmur at His rod?

4 What our Father does is well:
May the thought within us dwell;
Though no milk nor honey flow
In our barren Canaan now,
God can save us in our need,
God can bless us, God can feed.

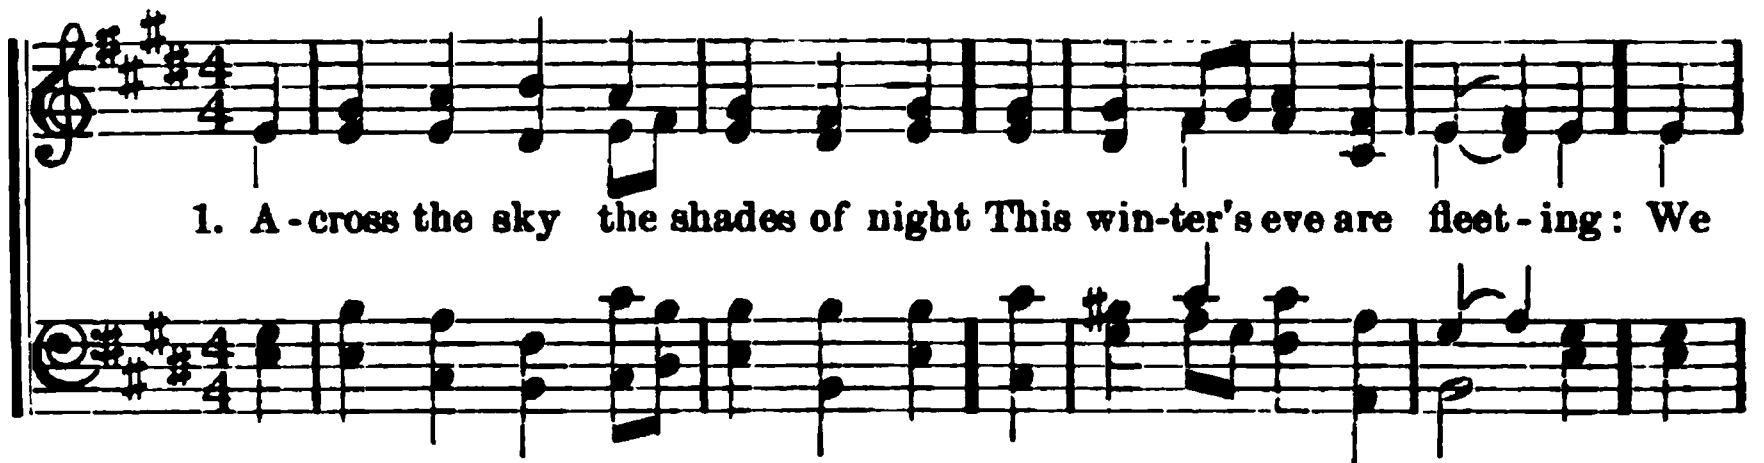

5 Therefore unto Him we raise
Hymns of glory, songs of praise;
To the Father and the Son,
And the Spirit Three in One,
Honor, might, and glory be
Now and through eternity.

1. A-cross the sky the shades of night This win-ter's eve are fleet-ing: We deck Thine altar, Lord, with light, In sol-emn worship meeting: And as the year's last hours go by, We lift to Thee our earnest cry, Once more Thy love entreating.

2 Before Thee, Lord subdued we bow,
To Thee our prayers addressing;
Recounting all Thy mercies now,
And all our sins confessing;
Beseeching Thee, this coming year,
To hold us in Thy faith and fear,
And crown us with Thy blessing.

3 And, while we kneel, we lift our eyes
To dear ones gone before us,
Safe housed with Thee in Paradise:
Whose peace descendeth o'er us:
And beg of Thee, when life is past,
To re-unite us all, at last,
And to our lost restore us.

4 We gather up, in this brief hour,
The memory of Thy mercies:
Thy wondrous goodness, love, and power,
Our grateful song rehearses:
For Thou hast been our strength and stay,
In many a dark and dreary day
Of sorrow and reverses.

5 In many an hour, when fear and dread,
Like evil spells have bound us,
And clouds were gathering overhead,
Thy providence hath found us:
In many a night when waves ran high,
Thy gracious presence drawing nigh
Hath made all calm around us.

6 Thou, O great God, in years to come,
Whatever fate betide us,
Right onward through our journey home
Be Thou at hand to guide us;
Nor leave us till, at close of life,
Safe from all perils, toil, and strife,
Heaven shall unfold and hide us.

2 Lo! our sins on Thee we cast,
Thee, our perfect Sacrifice;
And, forgetting all the past,
Press towards our glorious prize.

3 Dark the future; let Thy light
Guide us, bright and morning Star:
Fierce our foes, and hard the fight;
Arm us, Saviour, for the war.

4 In our weakness and distress,
Rock of strength, be Thou our Stay;
In the pathless wilderness
Be our true and living Way.

5 Who of us death's awful road
In the coming year shall tread,
With Thy rod and staff, O God,
Comfort Thou his dying head.

6 Keep us faithful; keep us pure:
Keep us evermore Thine own:
Help, O help us to endure:
Fit us for the promised crown.

7 So within Thy palace gate
We shall praise, on golden strings,

Lord of lords, and King of kings.

Rev. Henry Downton, 1843.

1 Thou who roll'st the year around,
Crowned with mercies large and free,
Rich Thy gifts to us abound,
Warm our praise shall rise to Thee.

2 Kindly to our worship bow,
While our grateful thanks we tell,
That, sustained by Thee, we now
Bid the parting year—farewell!

3 All its numbered days are sped,
All its busy scenes are o'er,
All its joys for ever fled,
All its sorrows felt no more.

4 Mingled with the eternal past,
Its remembrance shall decay;
Yet to be revived at last
At the solemn judgment-day.

5 All our follies, Lord, forgive!
Cleanse us from each guilty stain;
Let Thy grace within us live,
That we spend not years in vain.

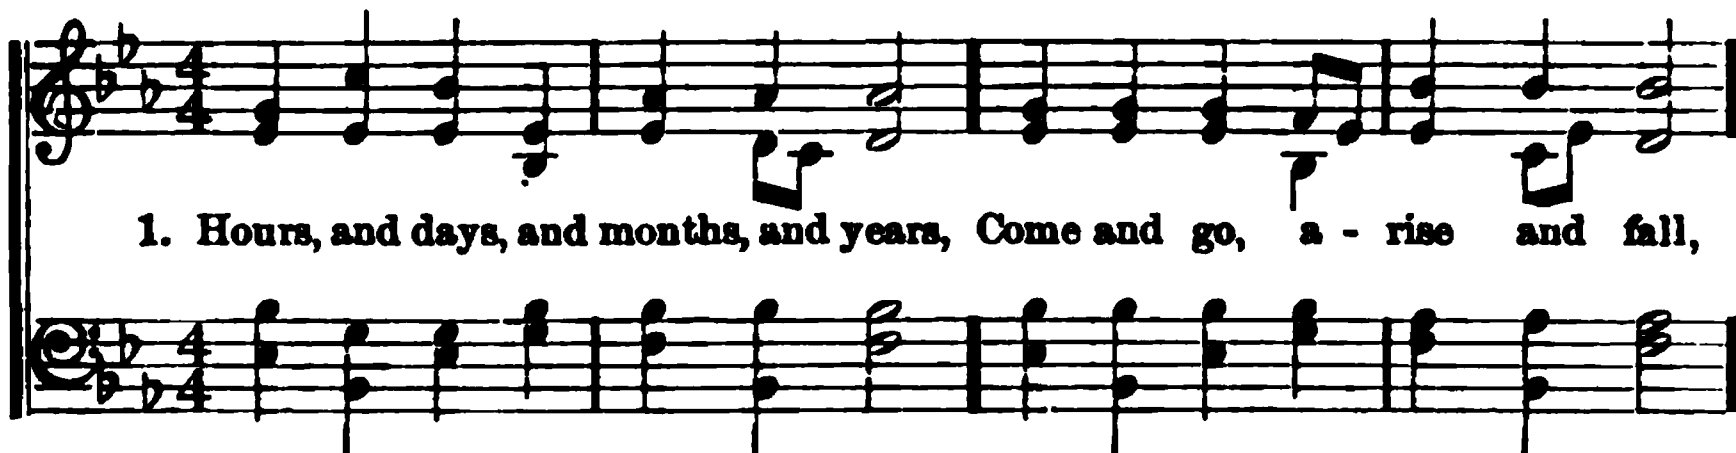

6 Then, when life's last eve shall come,
Happy spirits, may we fly
To our everlasting home,
To our Father's house on high!

676 THE NEW YEAR. 6. 5. 6. 5. 12 1.

Arthur H. Mann, 1885.

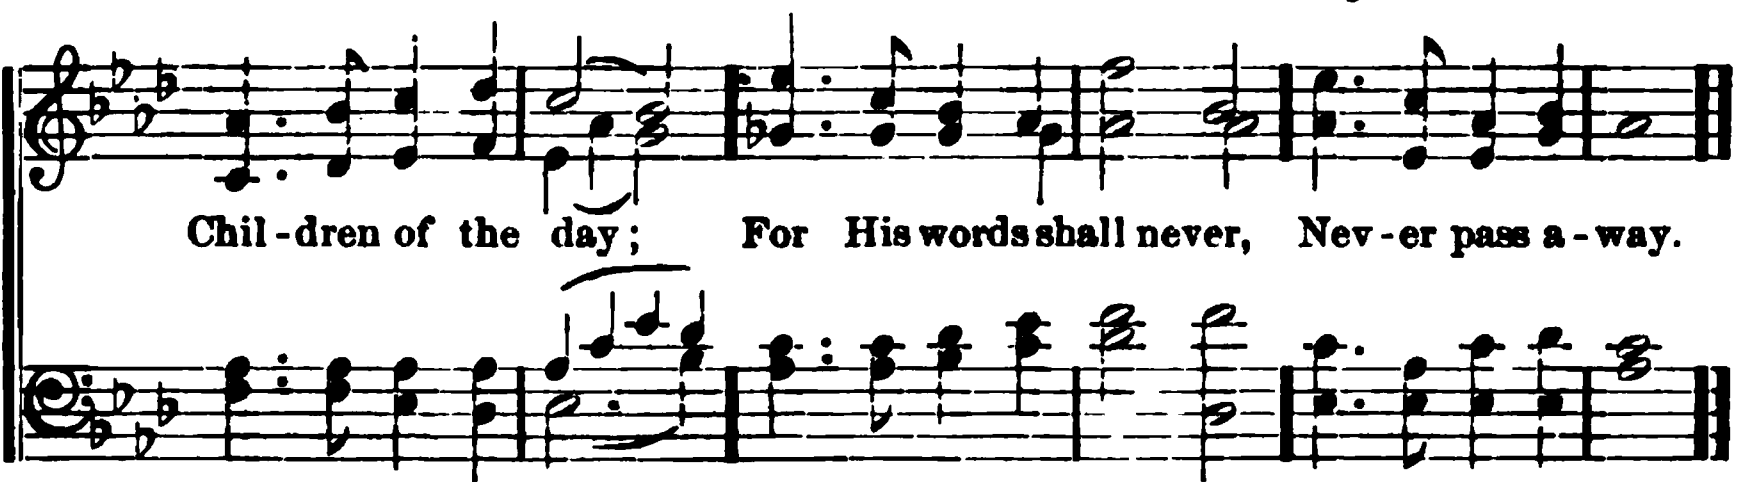

1. Standing at the por-tal Of the opening year, Words of com-fort meet us,

Hush-ing ev-ery fear; Spok - enthro' the si-lence By our Fa-ther's voice,

Tender, strong, and faithful, Mak-ing us re-joice. Onward, then, and fear not,

Chil-dren of the day; For His words shall never, Nev-er pass a-way.

2 "I, the Lord, am with thee,
Be thou not afraid;
I will help and strengthen,
Be thou not dismayed.
Yea, I will uphold thee
With My own right hand;
Thou art called and chosen
In My sight to stand."
Onward, etc.

3 For the year before us,
O what rich supplies!
For the poor and needy
Living streams shall rise;

For the sad and sinful
Shall His grace abound;
For the faint and feeble
Perfect strength be found.
Onward, etc.

4 He will never fail us,
He will not forsake;
His eternal covenant
He will never break.
Resting on His promise,
What have we to fear?
God is all-sufficient
For the coming year.
Onward, etc.

- 2 The parted year had wingèd feet;
The Saviour still doth stay:
The new year comes; but, Spirit sweet,
Thou goest not away.
- 3 Our hearts in tears may oft run o'er;
But, Lord, Thy smile still beams:
Our sins are swelling evermore,
But pardoning grace still streams.
- 4 Lord, from this year more service win,
More glory, more delight:
O make its hours less sad with sin,
Its days with Thee more bright.
- 5 Then we may bless its precious things
If earthly cheer should come,
Or gladsome mount on angel wings
If Thou wouldst take us home.
- 6 O golden then the hours must be;
The year must needs be sweet;
Yes, Lord, with happy melody
Thine opening grace we greet.

Thomas H. Gill, 1855.

- 1 Our God, our Help in ages past,
Our Hope for years to come,
Our Shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal Home;
- 2 Under the shadow of Thy throne,
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.
- 3 Before the hills in order stood,
-Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.
- 4 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.
- 5 Our God, our Help in ages past,
Our Hope for years to come,
Be Thou our Guard while troubles last,
And our eternal Home!

1. Great God, we sing that might-y hand, By which support - ed still we stand; The opening

THE NEW YEAR.

2 By day, by night, at home, abroad,
Still we are guarded by our God;
By His incessant bounty fed,
By His unerring counsel led.

3 With grateful hearts the past we own;
The future, all to us unknown,
We to Thy guardian care commit,
And peaceful leave before Thy feet.

4 In scenes exalted or depressed,
Be Thou our Joy, and Thou our Rest!
Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adored through all our changing days.

5 When death shall interrupt these songs,
And seal in silence mortal tongues,
Our Helper, God, in whom we trust,
In better worlds, our souls shall boast.

Rev. Philip Doddridge, 1755.

2 Jesus, for Thy love most tender,
On the cross for sinners shown,
We would praise Thee, and surrender
All our hearts to be Thine own:
With so blest a Friend provided,
We upon our way would go,
Sure of being safely guided,
Guarded well from every foe.

3 Every day will be the brighter
When Thy gracious face we see;
Every burden will be lighter
When we know it comes from Thee.
Spread Thy love's broad banner o'er us,
Give us strength to serve and wait,
Till the glory breaks before us
Through the City's open gate.

1. House of our God, with hymns of glad-ness ring, While all our lips and hearts His prais-es sing; The o-pening year His mer-cies shall pro-claim, And all its days shall cel-e-brate His Name.

- 2 Ye angel choirs on high, whose dwelling-place
Shines with the glory of His unveiled face,
Through your immortal life, as love still grows,
Tell of His goodness, which no ending knows.
- 3 O Earth, enlightened by His rays Divine,
Stored by His hand with corn and oil and wine,
Crowned with His goodness, let thy nations raise
From shore to shore the song of ceaseless praise.
- 4 O Church, His chosen dwelling and delight,
Graven on His hands, and precious in His sight,
Sing the deep marvels of that boundless grace
Which shies on thee the brightness of His face.
- 5 Burst into praise, my soul; and evermore
Through changing life thy changeless God adore:
He is thy Trust, thy Refuge, and thy Fear;
Strong in His strength, begin the new-born year.

race have run, Nev-er more to meet us here. Fixed in an e-ter-nal state, lon-ger wait, But how lit-tle, none can know.

2 As the winged arrow flies
Speedily the mark to find;
As the lightning from the skies
Darts and leaves no trace behind;
Swiftly thus our fleeting days
Bear us down life's rapid stream:
Upward, Lord, our spirits raise,
All below is but a dream.

3 Spared to see another year,
Let Thy blessing meet us here;
Come, Thy dying work revive:
Bid Thy drooping garden thrive:

Sun of Righteousness, arise!
Warm our hearts and bless our eyes;
Let our prayer Thy pity move,
Make this year a time of love.

4 Thanks for mercies past receive,
Pardon of our sins renew;
Teach us henceforth how to live,
With eternity in view:
Bless Thy word to old and young,
Fill us with a Saviour's love;
When our life's short race is run,
May we dwell with Thee above.

German, 1540.

1. O Je-sus, Lord of heavenly grace, Thou Brightness of Thy Father's face,
Thou Fountain of e-ter-nal light, Whose beams disperse the shades of night.

2 Come, holy Sun of heavenly love,
Send down Thy radiance from above;
And to our inmost hearts convey
The Holy Spirit's cloudless ray.

3 May He our actions deign to bless,
And loose the bonds of wickedness;
From sudden falls our feet defend,
And guide us safely to the end.

4 May faith, deep rooted in the soul,
Subdue our flesh, our minds control:

May guile depart, and discord cease,
And all within be joy and peace.

5 O hallowed thus be every day!
Let meekness be our morning ray,
And faithful love our noonday light,
And hope our sunset, calm and bright.

6 O Christ, with each returning morn,
Thine image to our hearts is borne:
O may we ever clearly see
Our Saviour and our God in Thee!

2 Let Thy grace, like morning dew,
 Fall on hearts in Thee confiding;
 Thy sweet comfort, ever new,
 Fill our souls with strength abiding;
 And Thy quickening eyes behold
 Thy dear fold.

4 Thou who hast gone up on high,
 Grant that when Thy trumpet soundeth,
 When with glory, in the sky,
 Thee the cloud of saints surroundeth,
 We may stand among Thine own,
 Round Thy throne.

3 Give the flame of love, to burn
 Till the bands of sin it breaketh,
 Till, at each new day's return
 Purer light my soul awaketh;
 O, ere twilight come, let me
 Rise to Thee.

5 Lead us to the golden shore,
 O Thou rising Sun of Morning,
 Lead where tears shall flow no more,
 Where all sighs to songs are turning,
 Where Thy glory sheds alway

2 Still the greatness of Thy love
Daily doth our sins remove;
Daily, far as east from west,
Lifts the burden from the breast;
Gives unbought, to those who pray,
Strength to stand in evil day.

3 Let our prayers each morn prevail,
That these gifts may never fail;
And, as we confess the sin
And the tempter's power within,
Feed us with the Bread of Life,
Fit us for our daily strife.

4 As the morning light returns,
As the sun with splendor burns,
Teach us still to turn to Thee,
Ever blessed Trinity,
With our hands our hearts to raise,
In unfailing prayer and praise.

2 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

3 If, on our daily course, our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

4 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we ought to ask;
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

5 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love,
Fit us for perfect rest above,
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

All day I hear re - sound - ing A voice with sil - ver tone,

Which speaks of grace a - bound - ing Through God's e - ter - nal Son.

2 A deep and heavenly feeling
Oft seizes on my breast,
Ah! here is balm for healing,
Here only is true rest!
Though fortune should bereave me
Of all I love the best,
If Christ His love still leave me,
I freely give the rest.

3 To win this precious treasure
And matchless pearl, I would Give honor, wealth, and pleasure,
And every earthly good;
I gladly would surrender
The dearest thing which might Obscure my Sun's bright splendor,
And rob me of His light.

4 I know no life divided,
O Lord of life! from Thee;
In Thee is life provided
For all mankind and me.
I know no death, O Jesus
Because I live in Thee:
Thy death it is which frees us
Thy death eternally.

5 I fear no tribulation,
Since, whatsoe'er it be,
It makes no separation
Between my Lord and me.
If Thou, my God and teacher,
Vouchsafe to be my own,
Though poor, I shall be richer
Than monarch on his throne.

6 If, while on earth I wander,
My heart is light and blest,
Ah! what shall I be yonder
In perfect peace and rest?
O blessed thought in dying!
We go to meet the Lord,
Where there shall be no sighing,
A kingdom our reward.

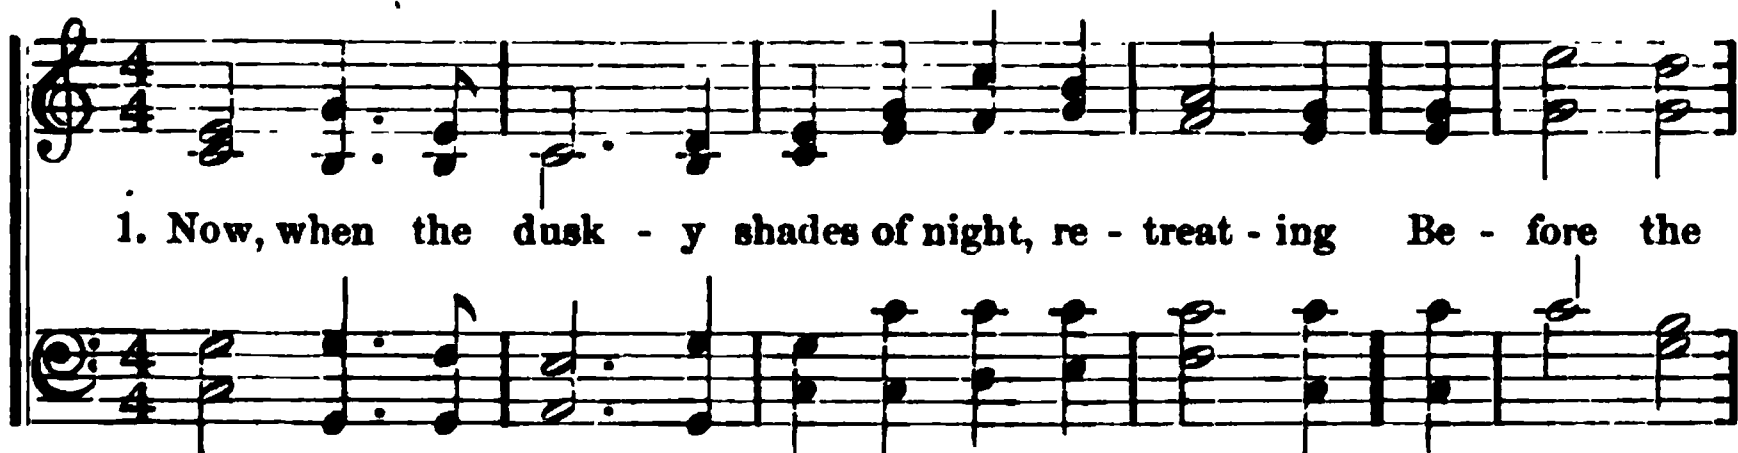

7 Lord, with this truth impress me,
And write it on my heart,
To comfort, cheer and bless me,
That Thou my Saviour art;
Without Thy love to guide me,
I should be wholly lost;
The floods would quickly hide me,
On life's wide ocean tossed.

sun's red ban-ner, swift - ly flee; Now, when the ter - rors of the dark are fleet - ing, O Lord, we lift our thank-ful hearts to Thee:

2 To Thee, whose word, the fount of light unsealing,
When hill and dale in thickest darkness lay,
Awoke bright rays across the dim earth stealing,
And bade the even and morn complete the day.

3 Look from the tower of heaven, and send to cheer us
Thy light and truth, to guide us onward still;
Still let Thy mercy, as of old, be near us,
And lead us safely to Thy holy hill.

4 In vain to labor, unless Thou be with him,
Man goeth forth through all the weary day;
In vain his strife, in vain his toil unceasing,
Unless Thy staff bring comfort on his way.

5 Thou, who hast made the north and south, watch o'er us;
Thou, in whose Name the lonely ones rejoice,
Still let Thy cloudy pillar glide before us,
Still let us listen for Thy warning voice.

6 So, when that morn of endless light is waking,
And shades of evil from its splendours flee,
Safe may we rise, the earth's dark breast forsaking,
Through all the long bright day to dwell with Thee.

| 2 Thy precious time misspent redeem;
Each present day thy last esteem;
Improve thy talent with due care;
For the great day thyself prepare. | 1 Forth in Thy Name, O Lord, I go,
My daily labor to pursue,
Thee, only Thee, resolved to know,
In all I think, or speak; or do. |
| 3 By influence of the light Divine
Let thy own light to others shine;
Reflect all heaven's propitious rays
In ardent love and cheerful praise. | 2 The task Thy wisdom hath assigned
O let me cheerfully fulfill;
In all my works Thy presence find,
And prove Thy good and perfect will. |
| 4 Wake and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long, unwearied, sing
High praises to th' eternal King. | 3 Preserve me from my calling's snare,
And hide my simple heart above;
Above the thorns of choking care,
The gilded baits of worldly love. |
| 5 All praise to Thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me whilst I slept:
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake. | 4 Thee may I set at my right hand,
Whose eyes mine inmost substance see,
And labor on at Thy command,
And offer all my works to Thee. |
| 6 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite. | 5 Give me to bear Thy easy yoke,
And every moment watch and pray;
And still to things eternal look,
And hasten to Thy glorious day: |
| 7 Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sheds on our path the glow of day;
Star of our hope, Thy softened light
Cheers the long watches of the night.
- 3 Our midnight is Thy smile withdrawn;
Our noontide is Thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow arch, Thy mercy's sign;
All, save the clouds of sin, are Thine.

- 4 Lord of all life, below, above,
Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Before Thy ever-blazing throne
We ask no lustre of our own.
- 5 Grant us Thy truth to make us free,
And kindling hearts that burn for Thee,
Till all Thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heavenly flame.

And, without weariness or rest,
Round the whole earth he flies and shines.
- 3 O, like the sun, may I fulfill
The appointed duties of the day;
With ready mind and active will
March on and keep my heavenly way!

- 4 But I shall rove, and lose the race,
If God, my Sun, should disappear,
And leave me in this world's wide maze,
To follow every wandering star.

And then receive me to Thy bliss:
All my desires and hopes beside
Are faint and cold compared with this.

Come to Him who made this splendor; See thou ren-der All thy fee - ble pow'rs can pay.

2 Pray that He may prosper ever
Each endeavor,

 Who from ill doth set me free;
 Free from danger, anguish, woe,
 Free from the infernal foe.

3 Let the night of my transgression
 With night's darkness pass away:
 Jesus, into Thy possession
 I resign myself to-day.
 In Thy wounds I find relief
 From my greatest sin and grief.

4 Grant that I may rise this morning,
 From the lethargy of sin;
 So my soul, through Thy adorning,
 Shall be glorious within;
 And I, at the judgment day,
 Shall not be a cast-away.

5 Let my life and conversation
 Be directed by Thy word;
 Lord, Thy constant preservation
 To Thy erring child afford.
 Nowhere but alone in Thee,
 From all harm can I be free.

6 Wholly to Thy blest protection
 I commit my heart and mind
 Mighty God! to Thy direction
 Wholly may I be resigned.
 Lord, my Shield, my Light Divine,
 O accept, and own me Thine!

7 Lord, to me Thine angel sending,

To His fair home on high!

3 How sweet, through long-remembered years,
His mercies to recall,
And pressed with wants and grief and fears,
To trust His love for all!

5 Calmly the day forsakes our heaven
To dawn beyond the west;
So let my soul in life's last even
Retire to glorious rest.

1. When the day of toil is done, When the race of life is run,
Fa - ther, grant Thy wea - ried one Rest for ev - er - more.

704

7. 7. 7. 5.

2 When the strife of sin is stilled,
When the foe within is killed,
Be Thy gracious word fulfilled,—
"Peace for evermore."

3 When the darkness melts away
At the breaking of the day,
Bid us hail the cheering ray,—
Light for evermore.

4 When the heart by sorrow tried
Feels at length its throbs subside,
Bring us, where all tears are dried,
Joy for evermore.

5 When for vanished days we yearn,
Days that never can return,
Teach us in Thy love to learn
Love for evermore.

6 When the breath of life is flown,
When the grave must claim its own,
Lord of life, be ours Thy crown,—
Life for evermore.

Rev. John Ellerton, 1865.

1 Jesus, Shepherd of the sheep,
Who Thy Father's flock dost keep,
Safe we wake and safe we sleep,
Guarded still by Thee.

2 In Thy promise firm we stand,
None can pluck us from Thy hand,
Speak—we hear—at Thy command,
We will follow Thee.

3 By Thy blood our souls were bought,
By Thy life salvation wrought,
By Thy light our feet are taught,
Lord, to follow Thee.

4 Father, draw us to Thy Son;
We with joy will follow on,
Till the work of grace is done,
And from sin set free—

5 We in robes of glory dressed,
Join the assembly of the blest,
Gathered to eternal rest,
In the fold with Thee.

1. When, streaming from the east-ern skies, The morn-ing light sa - lutes mine eyes.

EVENING.

O Sun of right-eous-ness Di-vine, On me with beams of mer-cy shine,
Chase the dark clouds of guilt a-way, And turn my dark-ness in-to day.

2 As every day, Thy mercy spares,
Will bring its trials and its cares,
O Saviour, till my life shall end,
Be Thou my Counselor and Friend;
Teach me Thy precepts all Divine,
And be Thy great example mine.

3 When each day's scenes and labors close,
And wearied nature seeks repose,
With pardoning mercy richly blest,

Guard me, my Saviour, while I rest;
And as each morning's sun shall rise,
O lead me onward to the skies!

4 And at my life's last setting sun,
My conflicts o'er, my labors done,
Jesus, Thy heavenly radiance shed,
To cheer and bless my dying bed;
Then from death's gloom my spirit raise,
To see Thy face and sing Thy praise.

William Shrubsole, 1813.

Sir Joseph Barnby, 1866.

1. The day is past and gone, The even-ing shades ap-pear;
O may we all re-mem-ber well The night of death draws near!

2 We lay our garments by,
Upon our beds to rest;
So death will soon disrobe us all
Of what we here possessed.

3 Lord, keep us safe this night,
Secure from all our fears;
May angels guard us while we sleep,
Till morning light appears.

4 And when we early rise,
And view the unwearied sun,
May we set out to win the prize,
And after glory run.

5 And when our days are past,
And we from time remove,
O may we in Thy bosom rest,
The bosom of Thy love!

1. This night, O Lord, we bless Thee For Thy protecting care, And, ere we rest, ad - dress Thee In low-ly, fer-vent prayer: From e - vil and temp-ta - tion De - fend us thro' the night, And round our hab-i - ta - tion Be Thou a wall of light.

2 On Thee our whole reliance
From day to day we cast,
To Thee, with firm affiance,
Would cleave from first to last;
To Thee, through Jesus' merit,
For needful grace we come,
And trust that Thy good Spirit
Will guide us safely home.

3 What may be on the morrow
Our foresight cannot see;
But be it joy or sorrow,
We know it comes from Thee.
And nothing can take from us,
Where'er our steps may move,
The staff of Thy sure promise,
The shield of Thy true love.

EVENING.

With my heart of unbelief,
I, who am of sinners chief,
Lift to Thee mine eye.
- 3 Foes without and fears within,
With no plea Thy grace to win,
But that Thou canst save from sin,
To Thy cross I fly.
- 4 Others, long in fetters bound,
There deliverance sought and found,

Hear the voice of mercy sound;
Surely so may I.

Save me, or I die.

- 2 As Christ upon the Cross
His head inclined,
And to His Father's hands
His parting soul resigned,
- 3 So now herself my soul
Would wholly give
Into His sacred charge,
In whom all spirits live;
- 4 So now beneath His eye
Would calmly rest,
Without a wish or thought
Abiding in the breast,

5 Save that His will be done,
Whate'er betide—
Dead to herself, and dead
In Him to all beside.

6 Thus would I live: yet now
Not I, but He,
In all His power and love,
Henceforth alive in me.

One Lord Divine,
May I be ever His,
And He for ever mine.

- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou who changest not, abide with me.
- 3 Come not in terrors, as the King of kings,
But kind and good, with healing in Thy wings;
Tears for all woes, a heart for every plea:
Come, Friend of sinners, thus abide with me!
- 4 I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me.
- 5 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless:
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.
- 6 Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies:
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee:
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

1. Sav - iour, breathe an eve-ning bless-ing Ere re - pose our spir - its seal.

Sin and want we come con-fess-ing; Thou canst save and Thou canst heal.

Though the night be dark and drea - ry, Dark-ness can - not hide from Thee,

Thou art He who, nev - er wea - ry, Watch - est where Thy peo - ple be.

2 Though destruction walk around us,
Though the arrow past must fly,
Angel guards from Thee surround us;
We are safe if 'Thou art nigh.
Should swift death this night o'ertake us,
And our couch become our tomb,
May the morn in heaven awake us,
Clad in bright and deathless bloom.

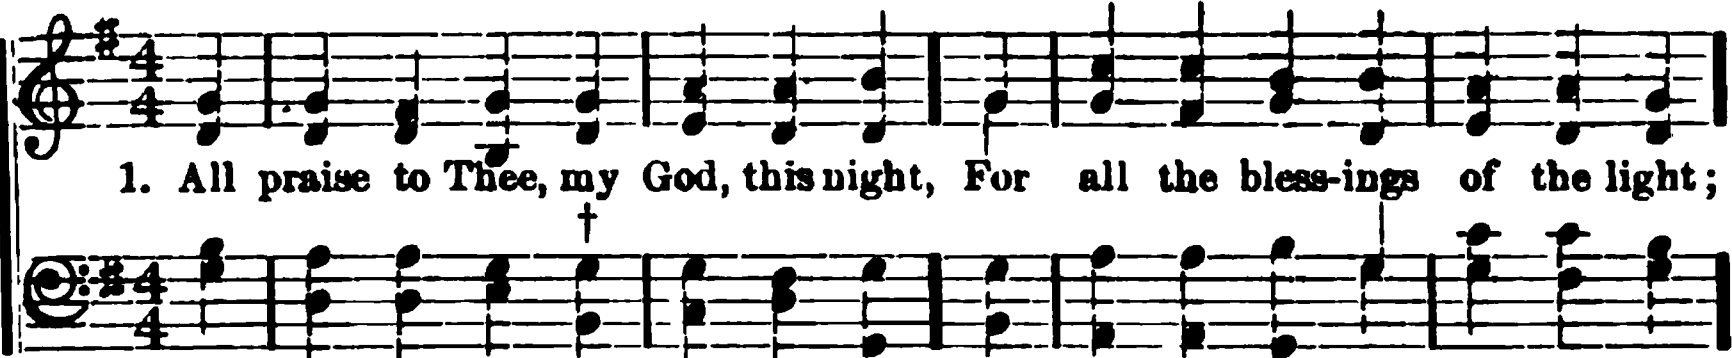

3 Father, to Thy holy keeping
Humbly we ourselves resign;
Saviour, who hast slept our sleeping,
Make our slumbers pure as Thine;
Blessed Spirit, brooding o'er us,
Chase the darkness of our night,
Till the perfect day before us
Breaks in everlasting light.

† At this note the Tenor takes up the melody of the Soprano.

Keep me, O keep me, King of kings, Be-neath Thy own al-might-y wings.

(Or to Quebec.)

2 Forgive me, Lord, for Thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done ;
That with the world, myself, and Thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

4 O may my soul on Thee repose,
And with sweet sleep mine eyelids close ;
Sleep that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed ;
To die, that this vile body may
Rise glorious at the awful day.

5 When in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts supply ;
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.

6 O when shall I, in endless day
For ever chase dark sleep away,
And hymns with the supernal choir
Incessant sing, and never tire !

1. The day is past and o - ver; All thanks, O Lord, to Thee!

I pray Thee now that sin - less The hours of dark may be.

O Je - sus, keep me in Thy sight And save me thro' the com - ing night!

2 The joys of day are over;
I lift my heart to Thee,
And ask Thee, that offenceless
The hours of dark may be.
O Jesus, make their darkness light,
And save me through the coming night!

3 The toils of day are over;
I raise the hymn to Thee,
And ask that free from peril
The hours of fear may be.
O Jesus, keep me in Thy sight,
And guard me through the coming night!

4 Lighten mine eyes, O Saviour;
Or sleep in death shall I,
And he, my wakeful tempter,
Triumphantly shall cry
"He could not make their darkness light,
Nor guard them through the hours of night."

5 Be Thou my soul's preserver,
O God, for Thou dost know
How many are the perils
Through which I have to go.
Lover of men, O hear my call,
And guard and save me from them all!

2 Our life is but an autumn day,
Its glorious noon how quickly past !
Lead us, O Christ, Thou living way,
Safe home at last,

3 O by Thy soul-inspiring grace
Uplift our hearts to realms on high ;
Help us to look to that bright place
Beyond the sky.

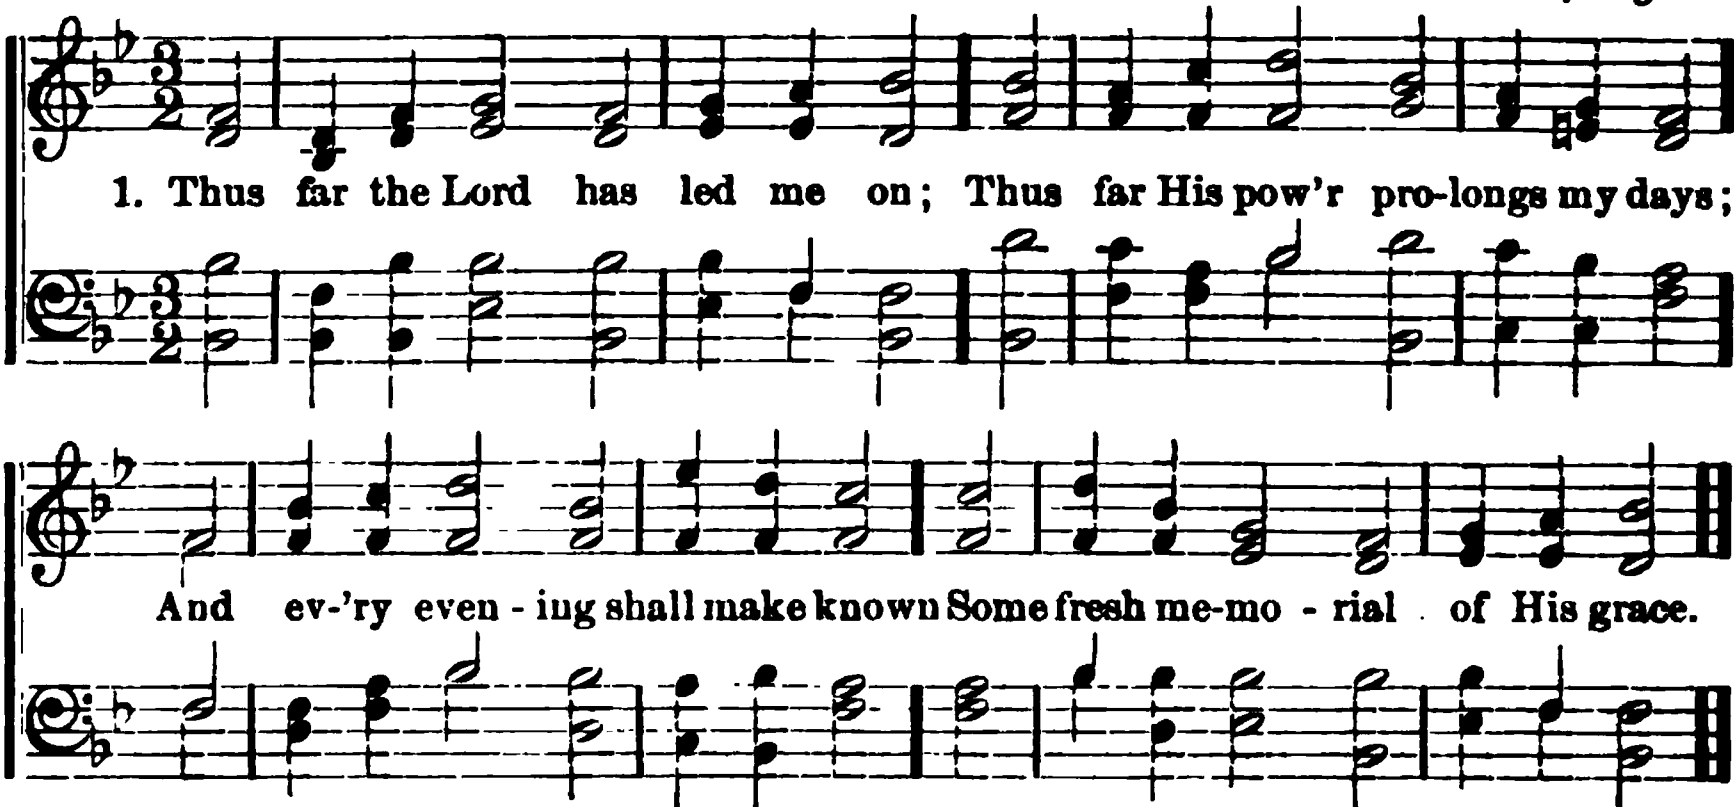

4 Where light and life and joy and peace
In undivided empire reign,
And thronging angels never cease
Their deathless strain ;

5 Where saints are clothed in spotless white,
And evening shadows never fall,
Where Thou, eternal Light of light,
Art Lord of all.

1. Thus far the Lord has led me on ; Thus far His pow'r pro-longs my days ;

And ev'-ry even - ing shall make known Some fresh me-mo - rial of His grace.

2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I perhaps am near my home ;
But He forgives my follies past,
And gives me strength for days to come.

3 I lay my body down to sleep ;
Peace is the pillow for my head,
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.

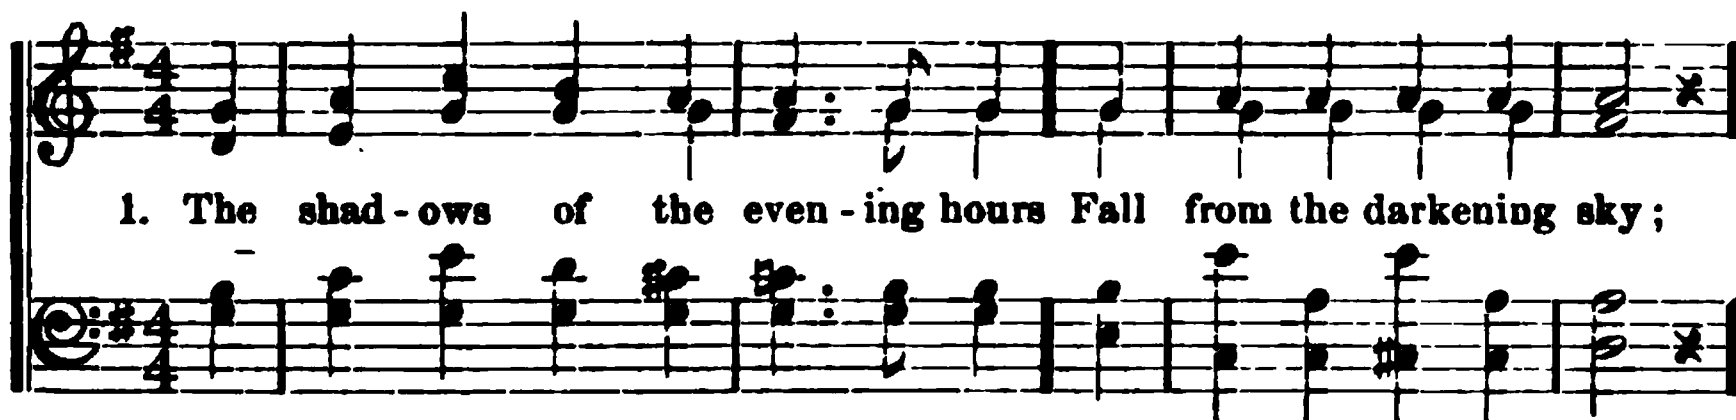

4 Faith in His Name forbids my fear ;
O may Thy presence ne'er depart ;
And, in the morning, make me hear
The love and kindness of Thy heart.

5 Thus, when the night of death shall come,
My flesh shall rest beneath the ground ;
And wait Thy voice to rouse my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.

1. The shad - ows of the even - ing hours Fall from the darkening sky ;

Up - on the fra - grance of the flow'rs The dew's of even - ing lie :

Be - fore Thy throne, O Lord of heav'n, We kneel at close of day ;

Look on Thy chil - dren from on high, And hear us while we pray.

2 The sorrows of Thy servants, Lord,
O do not Thou despise,
But let the incense of our prayers
Before Thy mercy rise.
The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls ;
With hopes of future glory chase
The shadows from our souls.

3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade ;
So fade within our heart
The hopes in earthly love and joy
That one by one depart.

Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
Within the heavens shine ;
Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heaven,
And trust in things Divine.

4 Let peace, O Lord, Thy peace, O God,
Upon our souls descend ;
From midnight fears and perils, Thou
Our trembling hearts defend :
Give us a respite from our toil,
Calm and subdue our woes :
Through the long day we labor, Lord,
O give us now repose.

- 2 Thy Name is blessed by countless numbers 4 And through the swell of chanting voices
In vaster worlds, unseen, unknown, The blended notes of age and youth,
Whose duteous service never slumbers, Thine ear discerns, Thy love rejoices,
In perfect love, and faultless tone. When hearts rise up to Thee in truth.
- 3 Yet Thou wilt not despise the weakest 5 O Light all clear! O Truth all holy!
Who here in spirit bend their knee: O boundless Mercy pardoning all!
Thy Christ hath said: "Thou Father seekest Before Thy feet, abashed and lowly,
For such as these to worship Thee." With one last prayer Thy children fall:—

And others worship here in turn,
O may we sing that song before Thee
Which none but Thy redeemed can learn!

Whispers, "Peace, be still ;"
Here the Holy Spirit
Broods, our souls to fill ;

Here the sin-distressed,
Find a place of refuge

3 Speak Thy word of mercy,
As we close this day,
Bid us go in gladness
On the heav'nward way ;

Keep us through the silence
Of the starry night,
Fit us for the labors
Of the morning light.

4 Then when time is over
All our conflicts past,

O may no earth-born cloud a-rise To hide Thee from Thy serv-ant's eyes.

2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast.

3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without Thee, I cannot live ;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.

4 If some poor wandering child of Thine

Till morning cometh, watch, O Master, o'er us ;
In soul and body Thou from harm defend us,
Thine angels send us.

Safe in Thy care may I repose,

- 2 Our changeful lives are ebbing to an end;
Onward to darkness and to death we tend:
O Conqueror of the grave, be Thou our Guide,
Be Thou our Light in death's dark eventide;
Then in our mortal hour will be no gloom,
No sting in death, no terror in the tomb.
- 3 Thou, who in darkness walking didst appear
Upon the waves, and Thy disciples cheer,
Come, Lord, in lonesome days, when storms assail,
And earthly hopes and human succors fail;
When all is dark, may we behold Thee nigh,
And hear Thy voice, "Fear not, for it is I."

4 The weary world is mouldering to decay,
 Its glories wane, its pageants fade away :

2 What though the day should break,
 The shadows flee,
 Thy leave Thou shalt not take,
 I'll cleave to Thee :
 Thy touch my powers may numb,
 Till, halting, I succumb,
 But till Thy Name I know,
 I will not let Thee go.

3 What marks are these I see,
 Upon Thy brow !
 O Man of Calvary,
 I read Thee now :
 I read Thy lineage well :
 Make Jacob, Israël !
 My suit till Thou bestow,
 I will not let Thee go.

4 The cross Thou did'st endure,
 The cup, the shame ;
 Ah, yes, I'm doubly sure,

 The Rod, that smote death's sea,
 Thy blessing floods me so,
 O Lord ! I let Thee go !

sweet Thy mer-cy send us, Ho-ly dreams and hopes attend us, This live-long night.

2 And when morn again shall call us

1. He giv-eth His be-lov-ed sleep To soothe the wea-ry brain;

EVENING.

2 How many wake to watch and weep!
Sad eyes they cannot close;
Billows of sorrow o'er them sweep,
In vain they woo repose.

4 So through the shadows of the night
Within His arms we rest;
And when returns the morning light
We wake upon His breast.

3 But we lie down in perfect peace,
All well 'twixt us and God;
Guarded by love that cannot cease,
Love high and deep and broad.

5 Lord, in the last long deathly sleep,
When friends shall close our eyes,
Do Thou Thy children safely keep
Until the Day-spring rise.

6 And when th' eternal morn shall break,
And dreary shadows flee,
May we from that calm slumber wake,
To find ourselves with Thee.

2 Through night's curtains round us closing,
Seen of Thee is our reposing.
Trustful then, though all unworthy,
Weary we lie down before Thee.

4 Grant to those in pain that languish
Sleep to lull the sense of anguish;
Give to those in sorrow waking
Sleep to soothe the heart's sore aching.

3 Let Thine angels without number,
Watch around our beds of slumber;
Guard from spirits of perdition,
Guilty thought and evil vision.

5 Thou that ever wakeful livest,
Sleep to Thy beloved givest;
Nightly from our cares release us,
Till we fall asleep in Jesus.

- 3 O blessed house, where little children, tender,
Are laid upon Thy heart, with hands of prayer,
Thou Friend of children, who wilt freely render
To them more than a mother's loving care,
Where round Thy feet they gather, to Thee cling,
And hear Thy loving voice most willingly,
And in their songs, Thy hearty praises ring,
Rejoicing thus, O blessed Lord, in Thee.

That all their works are done within Thy sight,
In all their works with holy zeal are glowing
To do alone what Thou esteemest right ;
As Thy true servants, who are Thy delight,
In meekness willing, by that love constrained
Which shows, in all its works, the least, the bright
How in small things great faith may be maintained.

From all I love, enjoy, and see;
When a faint chill steals o'er my heart, voice; Lord Je - sus, it was Thou, The sun has set long since, the storms be - gin; 'Tis time for Thee, my Sav-iour, O come in.

2 Come even now! But think not here to find
A lodging, Lord, and converse to Thy mind;
The lamp burns low; the heart is chill and pale,
Wet through the broken casement pours the gale.

3 Alas! ill-ordered shows the dreary room;
The household staff lies heaped amidst the gloom
The table empty stands, the couch undrest:
Ah! what a welcome for th' eternal Guest!

4 Yet welcome, welcome now; this doleful scene
Is e'en itself my cause to hail Thee in;
This dark confusion e'en at once demands
Thine own bright presence, Lord, and ordering hands.

5 I seek no more to alter things, to mend,
Before the coming of so great a Friend;
All were at best unseemly; and 'twere ill
Beyond all else to keep Thee waiting still.

6 Then as Thou art, all holiness and bliss,
Come in and see my chamber as it is;
I bid Thee welcome boldly, in the name
Of Thy great glory, and my want and shame.

7 Come, not to find, but make, this troubled heart
A dwelling worthy of Thee as Thou art;
To chase the gloom, the terror, and the sin,
Come, all Thyself, yea come, Lord Jesus, in!

1. Thou knowest, Lord, the wea-ri-ness and sor-row Of the sad heart that comes to Thee for rest; Cares of to-day, and bur-deus of to-mor-row,

Bless-ings im-plored, and sins to be con-fest; We come be-fore Thee at Thy gra-cious word, And lay them at Thy feet: Thou knowest, Lord.

2 Thou knowest all the past; how long and blindly
On the dark mountains the lost wand'rer strayed;
How the Good Shepherd followed, and how kindly
He bore it home, upon His shoulders laid;
And healed the bleeding wounds, and soothed the pain,
And brought back life, and hope, and strength again.

3 Thou knowest all the present; each temptation,
Each toilsome duty, each foreboding fear;
All to each one assigned, of tribulation,
Or to belovèd ones, than self more dear;
All pensive mem'ries, as we journey on,
Longings for vanished smiles and voices gone.

FOR THE SICK AND AFFLICTED.

4 Thou knowest all the future; gleams of gladness
By stormy clouds too quickly overcast;
Hours of sweet fellowship and parting sadness,
And the dark river to be crossed at last.
Oh, what could hope and confidence afford
To tread that path, but this? Thou knowest, Lord.

5 Thou knowest, not alone as God, all-knowing;
As Man, our mortal weakness Thou hast proved;
On earth, with purest sympathies o'erflowing,
O Saviour, Thou hast wept, and Thou hast loved;
And love and sorrow still to Thee may come,
And find a hiding-place, a rest, a home.

6 Therefore we come, Thy gentle call obeying,
And lay our sins and sorrows at Thy feet;
On everlasting strength our weakness staying,
Clothed in Thy robe of righteousness complete:
Then rising and refreshed we leave Thy throne,
And follow on to know as we are known.

2 Smooth let it be or rough,
It will be still the best;
Winding or straight, it leads
Right onward to Thy rest.

3 I dare not choose my lot;
I would not, if I might;
Choose Thou for me, my God,
So shall I walk aright.

4 The kingdom that I seek
Is Thine; so let the way
That leads to it be Thine,
Else I must surely stray.

5 Take Thou my cup, and it
With joy or sorrow fill,
As best to Thee may seem;
Choose Thou my good and ill.

6 Choose Thou for me my friends,
My sickness or my health;
Choose Thou my cares for me,
My poverty or wealth.

7 Not mine, not mine the choice,
In things or great or small;
Be Thou my Guide, my Strength,
My Wisdom, and my All.

2 Leave it with God, who feedeth the sparrow,
Chooseth for thee, the path that is narrow;
Hearseth the prayer, muttered, unspoken;
Healeth with balm the heart that is broken;
Leave it with God, etc.

3 Leave it with God, for He is still near thee
Tell Him thy grief, He's waiting to hear thee,
Taker of gifts, as well as the Giver;
Leave it with God, sure He will deliver.
Leave it with God, etc.

4 Leave it with God: thy losses, thou'lt gain them;
Things that perplex thee, He will explain them,
He is a Father, watchful and tender;

Upon the lonely deep
Our Guard, when on the silent deck
The mighty watch we keep.

'Mid rising winds, we hear
The multitude of waters surge;
For Thou, O God, art near.

3 The calm, the breeze, the gale, the storm,
The ocean and the land,
All, all are Thine, and held within
The hollow of Thy hand.

4 As when on blue Gennesareth
Rose high the angry wave,
And Thy disciples quailed in dread,
One word of Thine could save;

5 So when the fiercer storms arise
From man's unbridled will,
Be Thou, Lord, present in our hearts
To whisper, "Peace, be still."

To guard our native shore,
And shot and shell are answering
The booming cannon's roar;

Till war and dangers cease,
Defend the right, put up the sword,
And through the world make peace.

Ere now our school we end,
For this Thy day the best of days,
Jesus, the children's Friend.

2 Lord, graft Thy word in every heart
Our souls from sin defend,
That we from Thee may ne'er depart
Jesus, the children's Friend.

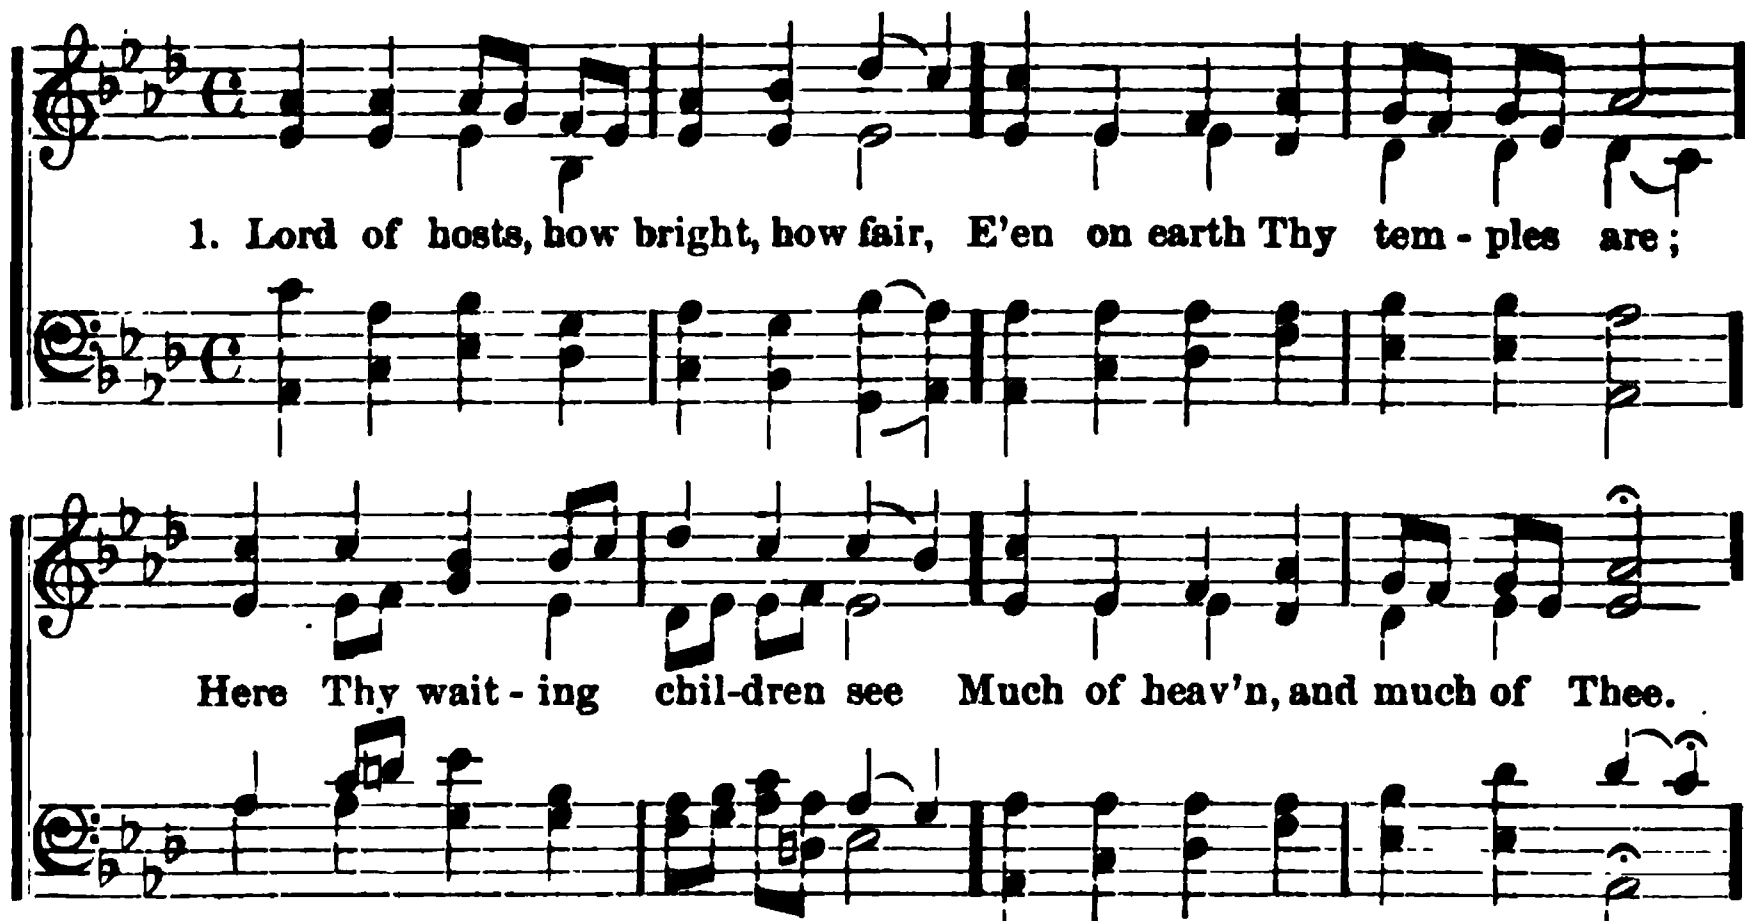

3 Lord, bless our homes, and give us grace
Thy Sabbaths so to spend,
That we in heaven may find a place,
With Thee, the children's Friend.

1. Lord of hosts, how bright, how fair, E'en on earth Thy tem - ples are ;

Here Thy wait - ing chil-dren see Much of heav'n, and much of Thee.

- 2 From Thy gracious presence flows
Bliss that softens all our woes ;
While Thy Spirit's holy fire
Warms our hearts with pure desire.
- 3 Here we supplicate Thy throne ;
Here, Thy pardoning grace is known ;

- Here, we learn Thy righteous ways,
Taste Thy love, and sing Thy praise.
- 4 Thus with prayer, and hymns of joy,
We the happy hours employ ;
Love, and long to love Thee more,
Till from earth to heaven we soar.

1. Come, Christian chil-dren, come and raise Your voice with one ac - cord ;

Come, sing in joy - ful songs of praise The glo - ries of your Lord.

- 2 Sing of the wonders of His love,
And loudest praises give
To Him who left His throne above,
And died that you might live.
- 3 Sing of the wonders of His truth,
And read in every page
The promise made to earliest youth,
Fulfilled to latest age.

- 4 Sing of the wonders of His power,
Who with His own right arm
Upholds and keeps you hour by hour,
And shields from every harm.
- 5 Sing of the wonders of His grace ;
Who made and keeps you His,
And guides you to the heavenly place
At His right hand in bliss.

1. Blest day of God, most calm and bright, The first and best of days;
The toil - er's rest, the saint's de-light, A day of joy and praise.

2 My Saviour's face did make thee shine,
His rising did thee raise;
This made thee heavenly and Divine
Beyond all other days.

3 The first-fruits do a blessing prove
To all the sheaves behind;
And they, that do a Sabbath love,
A happy week shall find.

4 My Lord on thee His Name did fix,
Which makes thee rich and gay;
Amid His golden candlesticks
My Saviour walks this day.

5 This day must I 'fore God appear,
For, Lord, this day is Thine:
O let me spend it in Thy fear,
The day shall then be mine.

1. God is in heav - en. Can He hear A lit - tle prayer like mine?
Yes, that He can; I need not fear; He'll lis - ten un - to mine.

2 God is in heaven. Can He see
When I am doing wrong?
Yes, that He can; He looks at me
All day and all night long.

3 God is in heaven. Would He know
If I should tell a lie?
Yes, though I said it very low,
He'd hear it in the sky.

4 God is in heaven. Does He care
Or is He good to me?
Yes; all I have to eat or wear,
'Tis God that gives it me.

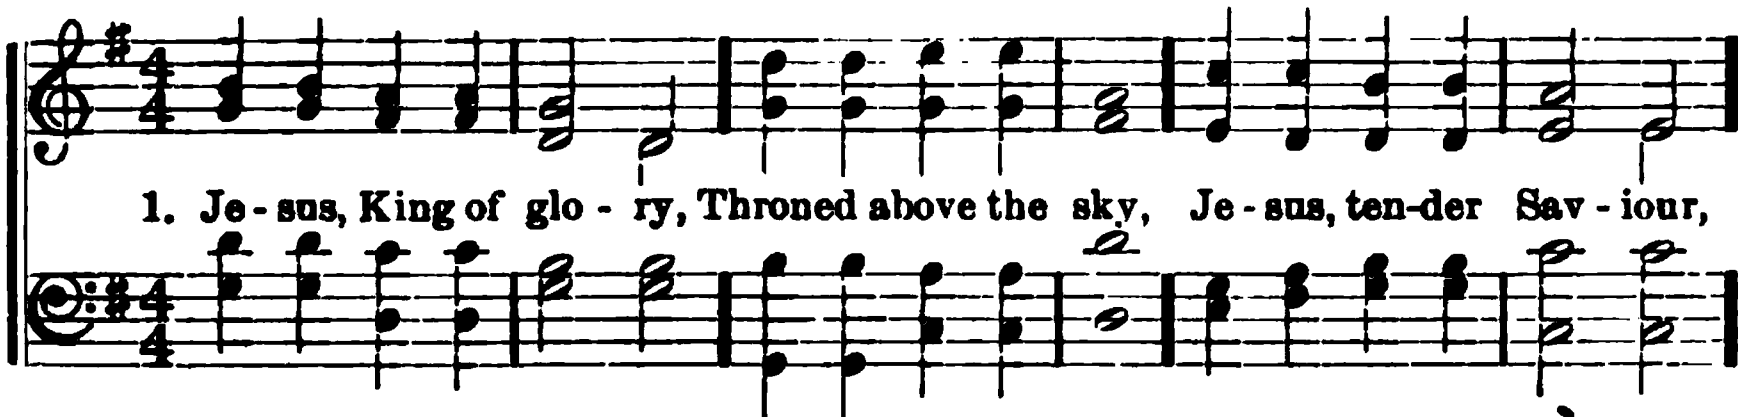

5 God is in heaven. May I pray
To go there when I die?
Yes; love Him, seek Him, and one day
He'll call me to the sky.

2 But God from infant tongues
On earth receiveth praise,
We then our cheerful songs
In sweet accord will raise.
Hallelujah,
We too will sing
To God our King;
Hallelujah.

3 O blessèd Lord, Thy truth
To us Thy babes impart,
And teach us in our youth
To know Thee as Thou art.

Hallelujah,
Then shall we sing
To God our King;
Hallelujah.

4 O may Thy holy word
Spread all the world around:
And all with one accord
Uplift the joyful sound,
Hallelujah,
All then shall sing
To God their King;
Hallelujah.

Ten thousand voices seem to cry, God made us all, and God is good.

2 The sun that keeps his trackless way,
And downward pours his golden flood,
Night's sparkling hosts all seem to say
In accents clear that God is good.

3 The merry birds prolong the strain,
Their song with wary spring renewed;
And balmy air, and falling rain,
Each softly whispers, God is good.

4 I hear it in the rushing breeze;
The hills that have for ages stood,

The echoing sky and roaring seas,
All swell the chorus, God is good.

5 Yes, God is good, all nature says,
By God's own hand with speech endured;
And man, in louder notes of praise,
Should sing for joy that God is good.

6 For all Thy gifts we bless Thee, Lord,
But chiefly for our heavenly food,
Thy pardoning grace, Thy quick'ning word,
These prompt our song that God is good.

1. Thy word is like a gar - den, Lord, With flow - ers bright and fair;

And ev - 'ry one who seeks may pluck A love - ly rose - gay there.

2 Thy word is like a deep, deep mine;
And jewels rich and rare
Are hidden in its mighty depths
For every searcher there.

3 Thy word is like a starry host;
A thousand rays of light
Are seen, to guide the traveller,
And make his pathway bright.

4 Thy word is like a glorious choir,
And loud its anthems ring;
Though many tongues and parts unite
It is one song they sing.

5 Thy word is like an armory,
Where soldiers may repair,
And find for life's long battle-day
All needful weapons there.

6 O may I love Thy precious word,
May I explore the mine,
May I its fragrant flowers glean,
May light upon me shine!

7 O may I find my armor there,
Thy word my trusty sword!
I'll learn to fight with every foe

1. There's a Friend for lit - tle chil - dren A - bove the bright blue sky,

A Friend who nev - er chang - es, Whose love will nev - er die ;

Our earth - ly friends may fail us, And change with changing years,

This Friend is al - ways wor - thy Of that dear Name He bears.

2 There's a rest for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
Who love the blessed Saviour,
And to the Father cry ;
A rest from ev'ry turmoil,
From sin and sorrow free,
While ev'ry little pilgrim
Shall rest eternally.

3 There's a home for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
Where Jesus reigns in glory,
A home of peace and joy ;
No home on earth is like it,
Nor can with it compare ;
For ev'ry one is happy,
Nor could be happier there.

4 There's a song for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
A song that will not weary,
Though sung continually ;
A song which even angels
Can never, never sing ;
They know not Christ as Saviour,
But worship Him as King.

5 There's a crown for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
And all who look for Jesus
Shall wear it by and by ;
All, all above is treasured,
And found in Christ alone :
Lord, grant Thy little children
To know Thee as their own.

Tell me the old, old story:
"Christ Jesus makes thee whole."

2 I love to tell the story ;
More wonderful it seems
Than all the golden fancies
Of all our golden dreams.
I love to tell the story,
It did so much for me ;
And that is just the reason
I tell it now to thee.
I love to tell, etc.

3 I love to tell the story ;
'Tis pleasant to repeat
What seems, each time I tell it,
More wonderfully sweet.

I love to tell the story,
For some have never heard
The message of salvation
From God's own holy word.
I love to tell, etc.

4 I love to tell the story ;
For those who know it best
Seem hungering and thirsting
To hear it, like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory,
I sing the new, new song,
'Twill be the old, old story
That I have loved so long.
I love to tell, etc.

2 He came down to earth from heaven,
Who is God and Lord of all,
And His shelter was a stable
And His cradle was a stall:
With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

3 And, through all His wondrous childhood,
He would honor and obey,
Love, and watch the lowly maiden
In whose gentle arms He lay:
Christian children all must be
Mild, obedient, good as He.

4 For He is our childhood's pattern;
Day by day like us He grew;
He was little, weak, and helpless,
Tears and smiles like us He knew:
And He feeleth for our sadness,
And He shareth in our gladness.

5 And our eyes at last shall see Him,
Through His own redeeming love;
For that Child so dear and gentle
Is our Lord in heaven above:
And He leads His children on
To the place where He is gone.

6 Not in that poor lowly stable,
With the oxen standing by,
We shall see Him, but in heaven,
Set at God's right hand on high:
When like stars His children crowned,
All in white shall wait around.

2 We sing the holy Jesus;
No taint of sin defiled
The Babe of David's city,
The pure and stainless Child;
O teach us, blessed Saviour,
Thy heavenly grace to seek;
And let our whole behaviour,
Like Thine, be mild and meek.

3 We sing a lowly Jesus;
No kingly crown He had;
His heart was bowed with anguish,
His face was marred and sad;
In deep humiliation
He came, His work to do:
Lord of our salvation,
Let us be humble too.

4 We sing a mighty Jesus,
Whose voice could raise the dead;
The sightless eyes He opened,
The famished souls He fed:
Thou camest to deliver
Mankind from sin and shame!
Redeemer and Life-giver,
We praise Thy holy Name.

5 We sing a coming Jesus;
The time is drawing near
When Christ with all His angels
In glory shall appear:
Lord, save us, we entreat Thee,
In this Thy day of grace,
That we may gladly meet Thee,
And see Thee face to face.

2 Heard you never of the story
 How they crossed the desert wild,
 Journeys on by plain and mountain,
 Till they found the holy Child?
 How they opened all their treasure,
 Kneeling to that infant King;
 Gave the gold and fragrant incense,
 Gave the myrrh in offering?

 Was the bright and morning Star?
 He who came to light the Gentiles,
 And the darkened isles afar?

1 Heavenly Father, send Thy blessing
 On Thy children gathered here;
 May they all, Thy Name confessing,
 Be to Thee forever dear;
 May they be like Joseph, loving,
 Dutiful, and chaste, and pure;
 And their faith, like David, proving,
 Steadfast unto death endure.

2 Holy Saviour, who in meekness
 Didst vouchsafe a child to be,
 Guide their steps and help their weakness,
 Bless and make them like to Thee.

Bear Thy lambs when they are weary
 In Thine arms and at Thy breast;
 Through life's desert, dry and dreary
 Bring them to Thy heavenly rest.

3 Spread Thy golden pinions o'er them,
 Holy Spirit from above;
 Guide them, lead them, go before them,
 Give them peace, and joy, and love:
 Temples of Thy glorious Godhead,
 May they with Thy presence shine,
 And immortal bliss inherit,
 And for evermore be Thine.

Hosanna now be heard;
Let little infants now be taught
To lisp that lovely word.

And spread from plain to plain,
While louder, sweeter, clearer still,
Woods echo to the strain.

Till morn to eve, and noon to night,
And heaven to earth, reply.

Hosanna to our King;

- 1 Let children hear the mighty deeds,
Which God performed of old;
Which in our younger years we saw,
And which our fathers told.

And we'll convey His wonders down,
Through every rising race.

Their hope securely stands,

But practice His commands.

The sweetness is from Thee.

5 And when, dear Saviour, I kneel down,
Morning and night, to prayer,
Something there is within my heart
Which tells me, Thou art there.

6 Yes, when I pray, Thou prayest, too;
Thy prayer is all for me:
But when I sleep, Thou sleepest not,
But watchest patiently.

Rev. Frederick Faber, 1849. ab. and alt.

1 O God of Bethel, by whose hand
Thy people still are fed;
Who through this weary pilgrimage
Hast all our fathers led:

2 Our vows, our prayers, we now present
Before Thy throne of grace:
God of our fathers, be the God
Of their succeeding race.

3 Through each perplexing path of life
Our wandering footsteps guide;
Give us each day our daily bread,
And raiment fit provide.

4 O spread Thy covering wings around,
Till all our wanderings cease,
And at our Father's loved abode
Our souls arrive in peace.

5 Such blessings from Thy gracious hand
Our humble prayers implore;
And Thou shalt be our chosen God,
Our Portion evermore.

So frequently in prayer;
Alone upon the mountain top,
He met His Father there.

I never, never find
That He, though persecuted, was
To any one unkind.

2 O Jesus, we would praise Thee
With songs of holy joy;
For Thou on earth didst sojourn
A pure and spotless boy.
Make us like Thee, obedient,
Like Thee from sin-stains free,
Like Thee in God's own temple,
In lowly home like Thee.

3 O Jesus, we would praise Thee,
The lowly maiden's son:
In Thee all gentlest graces
Are gathered into one.

O give that best adornment
That Christian child can wear,
The meek and quiet spirit
Which shone in Thee so fair!

4 O Lord, with voices lifted
We sing our songs of praise;
Be Thou the light and pattern
Of all our childhood's days;
And lead us ever onward,
That while we stay below,
We may, like Thee, O Jesus,
In grace and wisdom grow.

Each whisper of Thy word,
Like him to answer at Thy call,
And to obey Thee first of all.

4 O give me Samuel's heart,
A lowly heart, that waits
Where in Thy house Thou art,
Or watches at Thy gates;
By day and night, a heart that still Moves at the breathing of Thy will.

2 Great God, who with a Father's love
Dost watch o'er all created things,
And gath'rest all, below, above,
Beneath the shadow of Thy wings;
Protect, we pray Thee, now, and bless
Thy children who are fatherless.

3 Thou hearest still the eagle's cry,
And notest e'en a sparrow's fall,
Thy list'ning ear doth heed on high,
And hearken to the raven's call;
Then, heav'nly Father, hear and bless
Thy children who are fatherless.

4 Come, heav'nly Father, come to-day,
For we Thy children come to Thee,
And Thou wilt never say us, nay,
If come we in humility;
New-born in Thee, O Father, bless
Thy children who are fatherless.

5 Cast forth upon the barren strand
Of this lone world, to Thee we fly;
In faith and hope, we fain would stand
Beneath Thy shelt'ring arm for aye;
Stretch forth Thy hand, and pitying bless
Thy children who are fatherless.

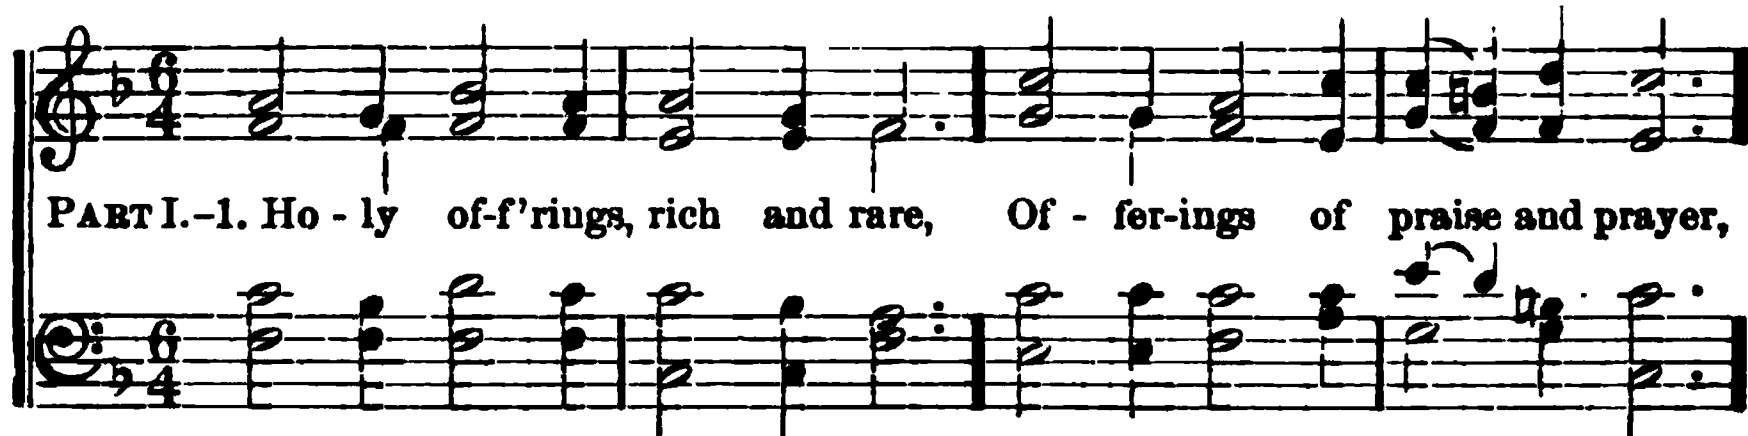

6 And may we all with joyful mind
Our hearts as living off'rings bring,
The first-fruits of our life, to find
A Father in our heav'nly King;
And learn in life and death to bless
Thee, "Father of the fatherless."

PART I.-1. Ho - ly of-f'riings, rich and rare, Of - fer-ings of praise and prayer,

Pur - er life and pur - pose high, Clasp - ed hands, up - lift - ed eye,

Low - ly acts of ad - o - ra - tion To the God of our sal - va - tion—

On His al - tar laid we leave them ; Christ, present them ! God, re - ceive them !

PART II.

- 2 Promises in sorrow made,
Left, alas ! too long unpaid ;
Fervent wishes, earnest thought,
Never into action wrought—
Long withheld, we now restore them
On Thy holy altar pour them :
There in trembling faith to leave them,
Christ, present them ! God, receive them !
- 3 Vows and longings, hopes and fears,
Broken-hearted sighs and tears,
Dreams of what we yet might be
Could we cling more close to Thee,
Which, despite of faults and failings,
Help Thy grace in its prevailings—
On Thine altar laid we leave them :
Christ, present them ! God, receive them !

PART III.

- 4 Pleasant food and garb of pride,
Put for conscience' sake aside ;
Lawful luxury foregone
To relieve some little one
Loved of Christ, by Him befriended,
And for His dear love attended—
On Thine altar laid we leave them :
Christ, present them ! God, receive them !
- 5 Loveless life and joyless mood,
Chill of cold ingratitude,
When the world doth Christ betray
Following too far away,
Sins which in the daily trial
Lead too often to denial,
Help, O help us to outlive them :
Christ, atone for ! God, forgive them !

OFFERINGS.

PART IV.

6 Brighter joys and tenderer tears,
Fonder faith, more faithful fears,
Lowlier penitence for sin,
More of Christ our souls within;
Love which, when its life was newer,
Burnt within us deeper, truer—
Lost too long, while we deplore them,
Jesus, plead for! God, restore them!

7 Beamings of the gentle face,
Overflowing gifts of grace,
More of that deep consciousness
Of a changeless will to bless,
Which bestows the best assurance
Of Eternal Love's endurance—
Lost too often, we deplore them;
Jesus, plead for! God, restore them!

PART V.

8 Homage of each humble heart
Ere we from Thy house depart;
Worship fervent, deep and high,
Adoration, ecstasy;
All that childlike love can render
Of devotion true and tender—
On Thine altar laid we leave them:
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

9 To the Father, and the Son,
And the Spirit, Three in One,
Though our mortal weakness raise
Off'rings of imperfect praise,
Yet with hearts bowed down most lowly,
Crying, holy! holy! holy!
On Thine altar laid we leave them:
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

1. Thy boun - ties, gra - cious Lord, With grat - i - tude we own;

We bless Thy prov - i - den - tial grace Which showers its bless - ings down.

2 With joy the people bring
Their offerings round Thy throne;
With thankful souls behold we pay
A tribute of Thine own.

3 Let a Redeemer's blood
Diffuse its virtues wide;
Hallow and cleanse our every gift
And all our follies hide.

4 O may this sacrifice
To Thee, the Lord, ascend,
An odor of a sweet perfume,
Presented by His hand.

Laying a Corner Stone.

814 DULCE CARMEN. 8. 7. 8. 7. D.

Christian Gregor, 1784.
Arr. by Ernst I. Erbe, 1895.

1. { In the Name which earth and heav-en Ev - er wor-ship, praise and fear, }
{ Fa - ther, Son and Ho - ly Spir - it, Shall a house be build-ed here; }

Here with pray'r its deep foun - da - tions, In the faith of Christ, we lay,

Trust - ing by His help to crown it With the top-stone in its day.

2 Here as in their due succession
Stone on stone the workmen place,
Thus, we pray, unseen but surely,
Jesus, build us up in grace;
Till, within these walls completed,
We complete in Thee are found;
And to Thee, the one Foundation,
Strong and living stones, are bound.

3 Fair shall be Thine earthly temple:
Here the careless passer-by
Shall bethink him, in its beauty,
Of the holier House on high;
Weary hearts and troubled spirits
Here shall find a still retreat;
Sinful souls shall bring their burden
Here to the Absolver's feet.

4 Yet with truer, nobler beauty,
Lord, we pray, this house adorn,
Where Thy Bride, Thy Church redeemèd,
Robes her for her marriage morn;

Clothed in garments of salvation,
Rich with gems of heavenly grace,
Spouse of Christ, arrayed and waiting
Till she may behold His face.

5 Here in due and solemn order
May her ceaseless pray'r arise;
Here may strains of holy gladness
Lift her heart above the skies;
Here the word of life be spoken;
Here the child of God be sealed;
Here the Bread of Heav'n be broken,
"Till He come," Himself revealed.

6 Praise to Thee, O Master-Builder,
Maker of the earth and skies;
Praise to Thee, in whom Thy temple
Fitly framed together lies;
Praise to Thee, eternal Spirit,
Binding all that lives in one:
Till our earthly praise be ended,
And th' eternal song begun!

Rev. John Ellerton, 1871.

LAYING A CORNER STONE.

815 CANTIONALE. L. M.

Gotha, 1651.

- 2 Grant that all we, who here to-day
Rejoicing this foundation lay,
May be in very deed Thine own,
Built on the precious Corner-stone.
- 3 Endue the creatures with Thy grace,
That shall adorn Thy dwelling-place;
The beauty of the oak and pine,
The gold and silver, make them Thine.
- 4 To Thee they all belong; to Thee
The treasures of the earth and sea;

- And, when we bring them to Thy throne,
We but present Thee with Thine own.
- 5 The heads that guide endue with skill,
The hands that work preserve from ill,
That we, who these foundations lay,
May raise the topstone in its day.
- 6 But now and ever, Lord, protect
The temple of Thine own elec;
Be Thou in them, and they in Thee,
O ever-blessèd Trinity!

Dedication of a Church.

816 YORK. C. M.

Scotch Psalter, 1615.

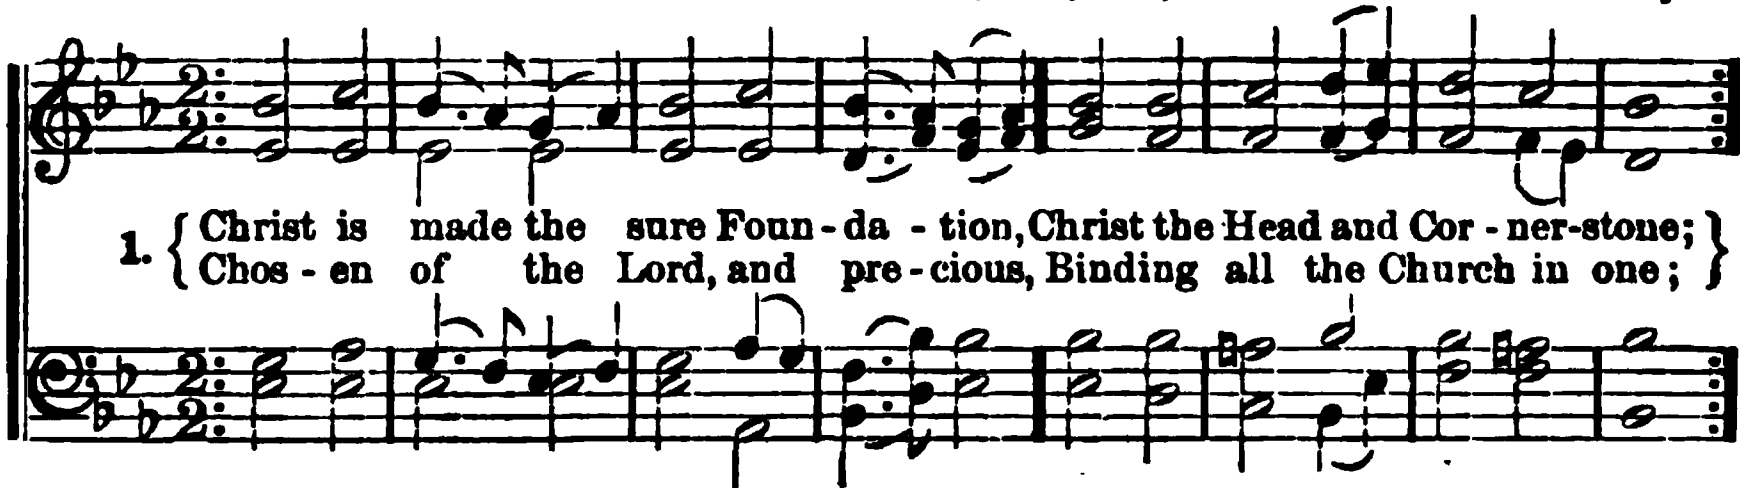

- 2 Lord, from Thine inmost glory send,
Within these walls t' abide,
The peace that dwelleth without end
Serenely by Thy side.
- 3 May erring minds, that worship here,
Be taught the better way;

- And they who mourn, and they who fear,
Be strengthened as they pray.
- 4 May faith grow firm, and love grow warm,
And pure devotion rise,
While, round these hallowed walls, the storm
Of earth-born passion dies.

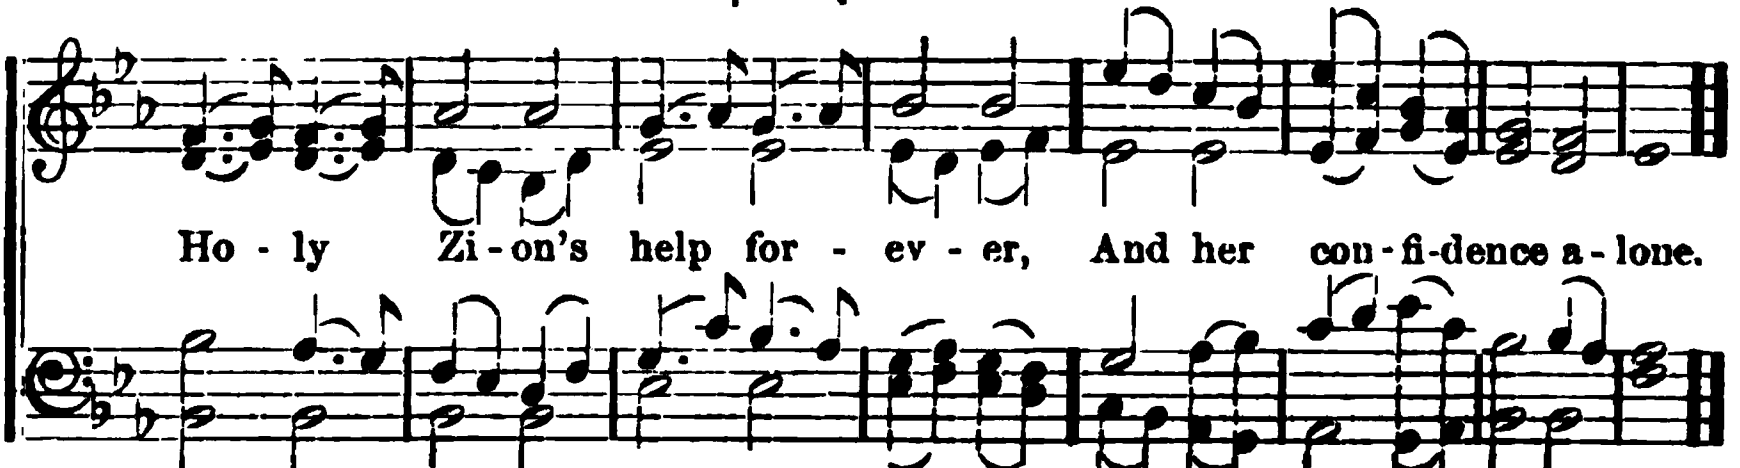

DEDICATION OF A CHURCH.

817 SICILIAN MARINERS HYMN. 8. 7. 8. 7. 8. 7.

Sicilian Melody.

1. { Christ is made the sure Foun-da-tion, Christ the Head and Cor-ner-stone; }
 { Chos-en of the Lord, and pre-cious, Binding all the Church in one; }

Ho-ly Zi-on's help for-ev-er, And her con-fi-dence a-lone.

2 All that dedicated City,
 Dearly loved of God on high,
 In exultant jubilation
 Pours perpetual melody;
 God the One in Three adorning
 In glad hymns eternally;

3 To this temple, where we call Thee,
 Come, O Lord of hosts, to-day:
 With Thy wonted loving-kindness,

Hear Thy people as they pray;
 And Thy fullest benediction
 Shed within its walls away.

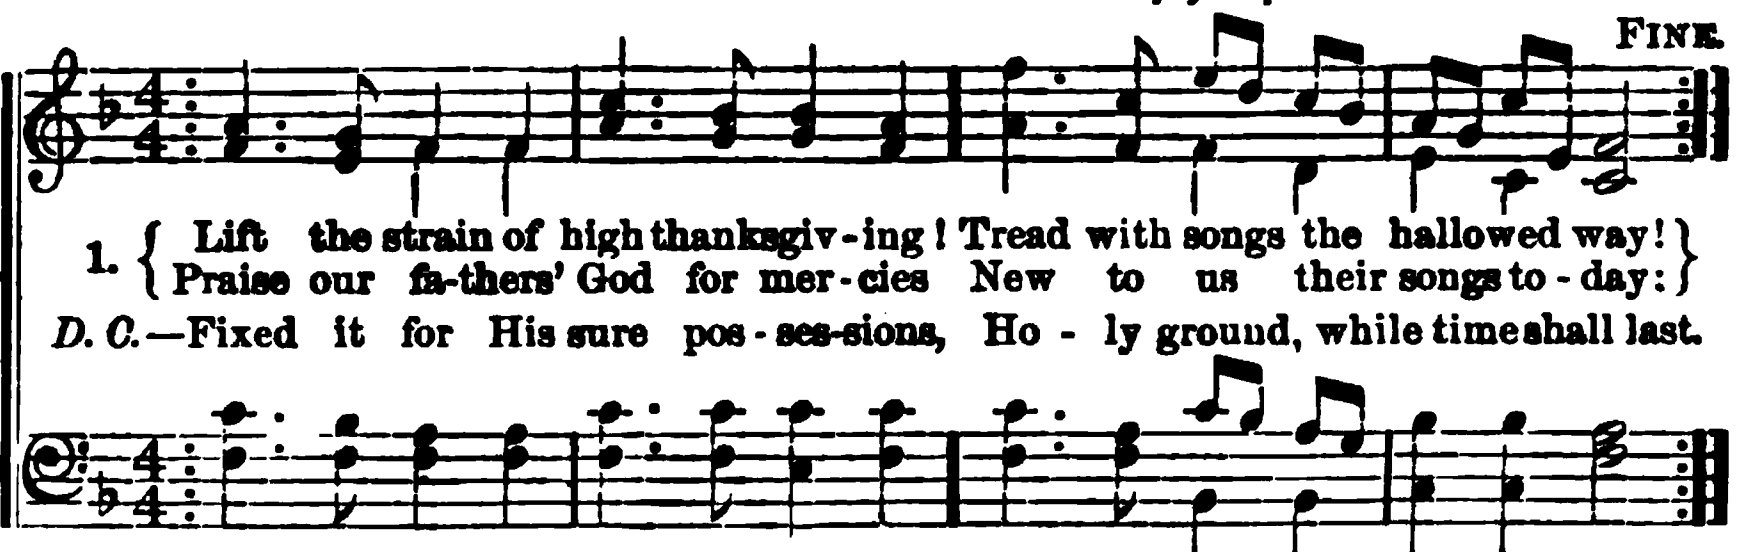

4 Here vouchsafe to all Thy servants
 What they ask of Thee to gain,
 What they gain from Thee forever
 With the blessed to retain
 And hereafter in Thy glory
 Evermore with Thee to reign.

Dedication of Church Bells.

819 BELFRY. 8. 7. 8. 7.

Robert Jackson, 1885.

2 For His praise we meekly lay them
As a gift beneath His throne;
All their sweet and noblest music
Shall resound for Him alone.

3 Faithful men afar shall listen,
'Mid their daily toil or rest,
While the melody shall bid them
Love the Church where all are blest.

4 Earth's rejoicings, bright and holy,
Shall be signed with joyful peal;
And the music from the steeple
Shall our faith and love reveal.

5 They who languish, sick and lonely,
Shall be minded, as they sigh,
Of the Church's one communion,
God's true home and family.

6 When the spirits of the faithful
Pass away to light and peace;
Solemn tones shall then forewarn us,
Soon our life and work must cease.

7 May these loud and well-tuned voices,
Pealing forth in grand accord,
List our hearts through joy and sorrow
To Thy throne, most gracious Lord.
Rev. W. B. Smith, 1882.

818 EMERALD. 8. 7. 8. 7. D.

2 When the years had wrought their changes
He, our own unchanging God,
Thought of this His habitation,
Looked on His decayed abode;
Heard our pray'r's, and helped our counsels
Blessed the silver and the gold,
'Till once more His house is standing
Firm and stately as of old.

3 Ent'ring then Thy gates with praises,
Lord, be ours Thine Israel's prayer:
"Rise into Thy place of resting,
Show Thy promised presence there!"
Let the gracious word be spoken
Here, as once on Zion's height,
"This shall be My rest forever,
This My dwelling of delight."

4 Fill this latter house with glory
Greater than the former knew;
Clothed with righteousness its priesthood,
Guide us all to rev'rence true;
Let Thy Holy One's anointing
Here its sev'nfold blessing shed;
Spread for us the heav'nly banquet,
Satisfy Thy poor with bread.

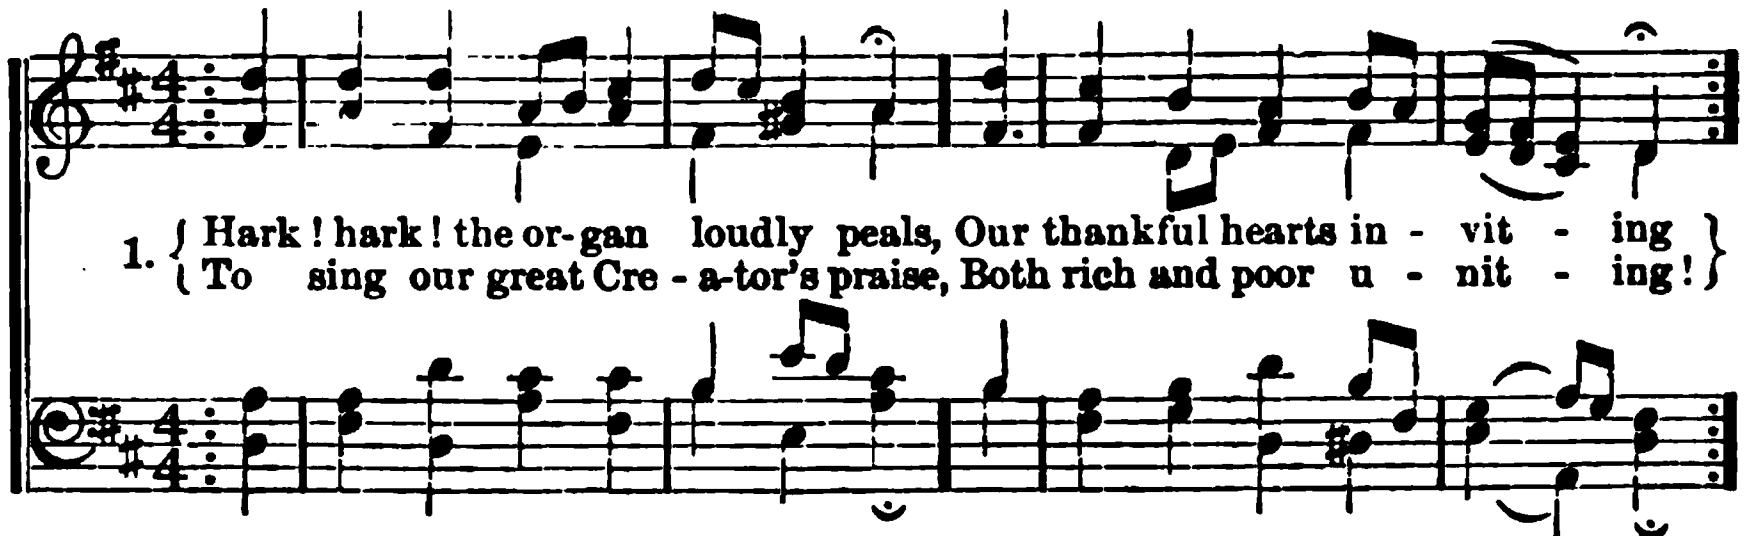

5 Praise to Thee, almighty Father,
Praise to Thee, eternal Son,
Praise to Thee, all-quick'ning Spirit,
Ever blessed Three in One:
Threefold Pow'r and Grace and Wisdom,
Molding out of sinful clay,
Living stones for that true temple
Which shall never know decay.

Ye heav'ns and earth, re - joice! And ev - 'ry heart and voice Your joy - ous

2 Hark! hark! the organ loudly peals,
 Our thankful hearts inviting
 To sing the praise of Christ our King
 Both rich and poor uniting!
 Who left His throne on high,
 And lowly came to die,
 That we from earth might rise
 To realms beyond the skies,
 And live with Him forever.

3 Hark! hark! the organ loudly peals,
 Our thankful hearts inviting
 To sing the Holy Spirit's praise,
 Both rich and poor uniting!
 Who bids us flee from sin,
 And makes us pure within,
 Till, warmed with heavenly love,
 We yearn to sing above
 Glad songs of praise for ever!

4 Hark! hark! the organ loudly peals,
 Our thankful hearts inviting
 To high upraise our songs of praise,
 Both rich and poor uniting!
 To God the Father, Son,
 And Spirit, Three in One,
 Till soaring higher and higher,
 We join the heavenly choir
 Before His throne for ever!

1. O Thou, in whom Thy saints re - pose, When life's brief con - flict finds its close; Be - hold us met be - fore Thy face

To hal - low this their rest - ing place: Safe are the souls whom

Thou dost keep, And safe - ly here their dust shall sleep.

(Or to Melita.)

2 Thou knowest, Lord,—for Thou hast wept
Beside the tomb where Lazarus slept,—
What tears must flow, what hearts must bleed,
When here we sow the precious seed:
Thou still rememb'rest, on Thy throne,
Thy garden grave and sealèd stone.

3 Bid then Thy hosts encamp around
This chosen spot of holy ground:
Here let calm hope with memory dwell,
And faith of heavenly comfort tell:
No thought of ill, no footstep rude
Profane the sacred solitude.

4 Here when Thy mourners shall repair
In lonely grief and trembling prayer,
Lift Thou sad hearts and streaming eyes
To those fair glades of Paradise,
Where safe within the guarded gate
Thy ransomed souls in patience wait.

5 And when the valley, thick with corn,
Shall laugh to see Thy harvest-morn,
Here may the angel-reapers find
Full many a sheaf for Thee to bind,
And in Thy golden garner store,
Our fruit of tears for evermore.

1. Guide me, O Thou great Je - ho-vah, Pil-grim thro' this bar-ren land;

I am weak, but Thou art might-y; Hold me with Thy powerful hand;

Bread of heav-en! Bread of heav-en! Feed me now and ev - er-more.

2 Open now the crystal fountain
Whence the healing waters flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through;
Strong Deliverer! Strong Deliverer!
Be Thou still my Strength and Shield!

3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Bear me through the swelling current,
Land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises! Songs of praises!
I will ever give to Thee.

(Or to Ratisbon.)

2 Heav'nward still, my soul, ascend!
Thou art one of heaven's creations
Earth can ne'er give aim or end
Fit to fill thy aspirations;
And a heav'n-enlightened mind
Ever, turns, its Source to find.

3 Heav'nward still! God calls to me,
In His word so loudly speaking;
Glimpses in that word I see
Of the home I'm ever seeking;
While my heart that call attends,
Still to heav'n my path ascends.

4 Heav'nward still, when life shall close,
Death to my true home shall guide me:
Then, triumphant o'er my woes,
Lasting bliss shall God provide me.
Christ Himself the way has led;
Joyful in His steps I tread.

5 Still then heav'nward! heav'nward still!
This shall be my watchword ever;
Heav'n's delights my heart shall fill,
Chasing joys that filled it never.
Heav'nward still my tho'ts shall run,
Till the gate of heav'n is won.

1. My life is but a pil-grim-age; A trav-'ler to my fa-ther-land,

I seek the Cit - y with foun-da - tion, Whose Builder, Mak-er, is my God;

And gain-ing there my blest a - bode, Would ev - er sing His great sal - va - tion.

My life is here a pil-grim-age, I'm trav'ling to my fa - ther - land.

2 The hours of life's uncertain day
Haste on without a moment's stay,
And, when once gone, are gone for ever;
They bear me to eternity;
Lord Jesus, give me eyes to see!
Whate'er I need to know discover!
Nor let earth's vain delusions hide
Thee from my sight, my only Guide!

3 No journey is without its cares;
Life's journey too the spirits wears;
It is not all a path of roses,
The road is narrow, foes are strong,
And oft entice me to the wrong;
The tangled thorn my way opposes;
O'er trackless wilds I'm forced to go,
And, groping, toil my passage through.

4 At times to me the Sun is bright,
That Sun that sheds its gracious light,
Alone to bless the pure in spirit:
Then comes the roaring, raging storm,
So loud, terrific its alarm,
So dark I cannot help but fear it:
But when I think of joys above,
My terror yields its place to love.

5 Thou, Jesus, once a pilgrim too,
Wilt prove Thyself a Helper true,
Of all my anxious cries, a Hearer,
Thy warning word in mind I'll keep,
And, by Thy guidance, every step
Shall bring me to salvation nearer.
My life and strength are waning fast,
Lord, with Thy consolations haste!

6 That I may grow in holiness,
With stronger faith my spirit bless,
And thus of stumbling make me heedful.
I daily fall—help me to rise,
And, by each fall, yet more to prize
Thy helping hand, so often needful:
While in this darkened soul of mine,
Thy beams of mercy brighter shine.

7 My lot is here with strangers thrown,
And by the world I'm little known;
But there friends wait with joy to meet me:
And there, with those I love the most,
I'll join in song the angel-host,
Whose glories with their welcome greet me.
My Saviour come! no more delay!
And thither bear my soul away!

2 Here I must toil and travail
Oft weary and opprest,
But there my God shall lead me
For everlasting rest.

3 There still my thoughts are dwelling,
'Tis there I long to be;
Come, Lord, and call Thy servant
To blessedness with Thee!

4 Come, bid my toils be ended,
Let all my wanderings cease;
Call from the wayside lodging
To the sweet home of peace!

5 There I shall dwell forever,
No more a stranger guest,
With all Thy blood-bought children,
In everlasting rest:

The pilgrim's conflicts o'er,
All earthly griefs behind us,
Eternal joys before.

PART I.-1. Forward! be our watch-word, Steps and voices joined; Seek the things before us,

Not a look be-hind. Burns the fi-ery pil-lar At our ar-my's head;

Who shall dream of shrink-ing, By our Cap-tain led? Forward thro' the des-ert,

Thro' the toil and fight! Jor-dan flows be-fore us; Zi-on beams with light,

2 Forward, when in childhood
Buds the infant mind;
All through youth and manhood,
Not a thought behind:
Speed through realms of nature,
Climb the steps of grace;
Faint not, till in glory
Gleams our Father's face.
Forward, all the life-time,
Climb from height to height,
Till the head be hoary,
Till the eve be light.

3 Forward, flock of Jesus,
Salt of all the earth;
Till each yearning purpose
Spring to glorious birth:
Sick, they ask for healing,
Blind, they grope for day;

Pour upon the nations
Wisdom's loving ray.
Forward, out of error,
Leave behind the night;
Forward, through the darkness
Forward, into light!

4 Glories upon glories
Hath our God prepared,
By the souls that love Him
One day to be shared:
Eye hath not beheld them,
Ear hath never heard;
Nor of these hath uttered
Thought or speech a word.
Forward, marching eastward
Where the heaven is bright,
Till the veil be lifted,
Till our faith be sight.

1 Far o'er yon horizon
Rise the city towers,
Where our God abideth;
That fair home is ours:
Flash the streets with jasper,
Shine the gates with gold:
Flows the gladdening river
Shedding joys untold:
Thither, onward thither,
In Jehovah's might:
Pilgrims to your country,
Forward into light!

2 Into God's high temple
Onward as we press,
Beauty spreads around us,
Born of holiness;
Arch, and vault, and carving,
Lights of varied tone;
Softened words and holy,
Prayer and praise alone:
Every thought upraising
To our city bright,
Where the tribes assemble
Round the throne of light!

3 Naught that city needeth
Of these aisles of stone:
Where the Godhead dwelleth,
Temple there is none:
All the saints that ever
In these courts have stood,
Are but babes, and feeding
On the children's food.
On through sign and token,
Stars amidst the night;
Forward through the darkness,
Forward into light!

4 To the Father's glory
Loudest anthems raise:
To the Son and Spirit
Echo songs of praise:
To the Lord Jehovah,
Blesséd Three in One.
Be by men and angels
Endless honor done.
Weak are earthly praises,
Dull the songs of night:
Forward into triumph,
Forward into light.

Precious fruit will thus be given,
Through an influence all Divine.

Let no fears thy soul annoy;

Thou shalt reap the fruits of joy.

2 O Christ, He is the fountain,
The deep, sweet well of love;
The streams on earth I've tasted,
More deep I'll drink above;
There to an ocean fulness
His mercy doth expand,
And glory,—glory dwelleth
In Emmanuel's land.

3 With mercy and with judgment
My web of time He wove,
And aye the dews of sorrow
Were lusted by His love;

I'll bless the hand that guided,
I'll bless the heart that planned,
When throned where glory dwelleth,
In Emmanuel's land

4 The bride eyes not her garment,
But her dear Bridegroom's face;

Not at the crown He giveth,
But on His pierced hand:
The Lamb is all the glory
Of Emmanuel's land.

 In the hour when death draws near,
 Suffer not our hearts to languish,
 Suffer not our souls to fear:
 And, when mortal life is ended,
 Bid us on Thy bosom rest;
 Till, by angel-bands attended,
 We awake among the blest.

1. A few more years shall roll, A few more sea-sons come,
And we shall be with those that rest A-sleep with-in the tomb:
Then, O my Lord, pre-pare My soul for that great day;
O wash me in Thy pre-cious blood, And take my sins a-way.

- 2 A few more storms shall beat
On this wild rocky shore,
And we shall be where tempests cease,
And surges swell no more:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that calm day;
O wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.
- 3 A few more struggles here,
A few more partings o'er,
A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day;
O wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

- 4 A few more Sabbaths here
Shall cheer us on our way,
And we shall reach the endless rest,
The eternal Sabbath-day:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that sweet day;
O wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.
- 5 'Tis but a little while,
And He shall come again
Who died that we might live, who lives
That we with Him may reign:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that glad day;
O wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

2 Arise, arise, good Christian,
 Let right to wrong succeed;
 Let penitential sorrow
 To heavenly gladness lead;
 To light that hath no evening,
 That knows no moon nor sun,
 The light so new and golden,
 The light that is but one.

3 Far, far, as we have wandered,
 And deep as is our fall,
 His mercies never fail us,
 Who freely pardons all;
 Who bids His grace abounding
 Love's mightiness display,
 And David's royal fountain
 Purge every sin away.

4 O home of fadeless splendor,
 Of flowers that bear no thorn,
 Where they shall dwell as children
 Who here as exiles mourn:
 'Midst power that knows no limit,
 Where wisdom has no bound,
 Where rests a peace untroubled,
 Peace holy and profound!

5 There grief is turned to pleasure;
 Such pleasure as below
 No human voice can utter,
 No human heart can know;
 Strive, man, to win that glory;
 Toil, man, to gain that light;
 Send hope before to grasp it,
 Till hope be lost in sight.

(Or to Langran.)

- 2 Thoughts of His love—the root of every grace
Which finds in this poor heart a dwelling-place,
The sunshine of my soul, than day more bright,
And my calm pillow of repose by night.
- 3 Thoughts of His sojourn in this vale of tears—
The tale of love unfolded in those years
Of sinless suffering and of patient grace,
I love again, and yet again, to trace.
- 4 Thoughts of His glory—on the cross I gaze,
And there behold its sad yet healing rays:
Beacon of hope, which, lifted up on high,
Illumes with heavenly light the tear-dimmed eye.
- 5 Thoughts of His coming; for that joyful day
Impatient hope I watch and wait and pray;
The dawn draws nigh, the midnight shadows flee
O what a sunrise will that advent be!

My thoughts and meditations are so sweet
Of Him on whom I lean, my Strength and Stay,
I can forget the sorrows on the way!

- 2 If life be long, I will be glad
That I may long obey;
If short, yet why should I be sad
To end my toilsome day.
- 3 Come, Lord, when grace has made me meet
Thy blessed face to see:
For if Thy work on earth be sweet,
What will Thy glory be?
- 4 Then shall I end my sad complaints,
And weary, sinful days,
And join with the triumphant saints
That sing Jehovah's praise.

The eye of faith is dim;
But 'tis enough that Christ knows all,

- 2 Call it not death, where life is all-pervading:
For when has ceased this frail and fleeting breath,
And "all things" are made "new," and are unfading—
In heaven above—"there shall be no more death."
- 3 Call it not death: it brings a radiant morrow,
A morrow free from trouble, loss, or care;
For those who sleep in Christ there's "no more sorrow"
But cloudless joy, and pleasures true and rare!
- 4 Call it not death: for saints who pass its portal
Shall be "with Christ," where there is "no more pain;"
The ransomed victor, robed in life immortal,
Can never suffer nor be sick again.
- 5 Call it not death: it is but the unveiling,
In regions "where there shall be no more night"—
The passing into love and joy unfailing—
The full "inheritance of saints in light."
- 6 Call it not death: how blest is their condition,
How far beyond all restlessness or doubt,
Who serve the Lord in jubilant fruition,—
Who "see His face," and "shall go no more out."

His calm almighty voice,
Stronger than death shall say
Awake,—arise,—rejoice.

2 O Father, cover all my sins
With Jesus' merits, who alone
The pardon that I covet wins,
And makes His long-sought Rest my own.
My God, for Jesus' sake I pray
Thy peace may bless my dying day.

3 Then death may come or tarry yet;
I know in Christ I perish not.
He never will His own forget;

He gives me robes without a spot.
My God, for Jesus' sake I pray
Thy peace may bless my dying day.

4 And thus I live in God at peace,
And die without a thought of fear,
Content to take what God decrees,
For through His Son my faith is clear;
His grace shall be in death my stay.
And peace shall bless my dying day.

2 Life's dream is past,
All its sin, its sadness;
Brightly at last
Dawns a day of gladness:
Under thy sod,
Earth, receive our treasure,
To rest in God,
Waiting all His pleasure.

3 Though we may mourn
Those in life the dearest,
They shall return,
Christ, when Thou appearest:
Soon shall Thy voice
Comfort those now weeping,
Bidding rejoice
All in Jesus sleeping.

No more of leaguered camp,
And cry of night-alarm,
And need of ready lamp:
And yet how nearly had he failed,
How nearly had that foe prevailed!

3 The lamb is in the fold
In perfect safety penned:
The lion once had hold,

But One came by with wounded side,
And for the sheep the Shepherd died.

2 If, cleaving to that darling dust,
In fond distress ye lie,
Rise, and with joy and reverence view
A heavenly Parent nigh.

3 Though, your young branches torn away,
Like withered trunks ye stand,
With fairer verdure shall ye bloom,
Touched by the Almighty's hand.

4 I'll give the mourner, saith the Lord,
In my own house a place;
No names of daughters nor of sons
Could yield so high a grace.

5 We welcome, Lord, those rising tears,
Through which Thy face we see;
And bless those wounds which through our
Prepare a way for Thee. [hearts

1 'Tis Jesus speaks: I fold, says He,
These lambs within my breast;
Protection they shall find in Me,
In Me be ever blest.

2 Death may the bands of life unloose,
But can't dissolve My love;
Millions of infant souls compose
The family above.

3 Their feeble frames My power shall raise
And mould with heavenly skill;
I'll give them tongues to sing My praise,
And hands to do My will.

4 His words the happy parents hear,
And shout with joy Divine,
O Saviour, all we have and are
Shall be forever Thine!

1. Gen-tle Shepherd, Thou hast stilled Now Thy lit-tle lamb's long weeping:

Ah how peace-ful, pale, and mild, In its nar-row bed 'tis sleep-ing!

And no sigh of an-guish sore Heaves that lit-tle bo-som more.

2 In this world of care and pain,
Lord, Thou wouldst no longer leave it;
To the sunny, heavenly plain
Thou dost now with joy receive it;
Clothed in robes of spotless white,
Now it dwells with Thee in light.

3 Ah, Lord Jesus, grant that we
Where it lives may soon be living,
And the lovely pastures see
That its heavenly food are giving;
Then the gain of death we prove,
Though Thou take what most we love.

Tho' death's lingering night may start Many a ques-tion in my heart.

2 Christ is risen from the dead,
"Thou shalt rise too," saith the Saviour;
Of what should I be afraid?
I with Him shall live for ever:
Shall I fear then? Can the Head
Rise and leave the members dead?

3 Hope's strong chain around me bound,
Still shall twine my Saviour grasping:
And my hand of faith be found
As death left it, Jesus clasping:
Death itself shall never part
Mine and my Redeemer's heart.

4 God Himself in that blest place,
Shall a glorious body give me;
I shall see His blissful face,

To His heavens He will receive me,
To His joyful presence raise
Ever upon Christ to gaze.

5 Then these eyes my Lord shall know,
My Redeemer and my Brother,
In His love my soul shall glow,—
I myself, and not another!
Then from this rejoicing heart,
Every weakness shall depart.

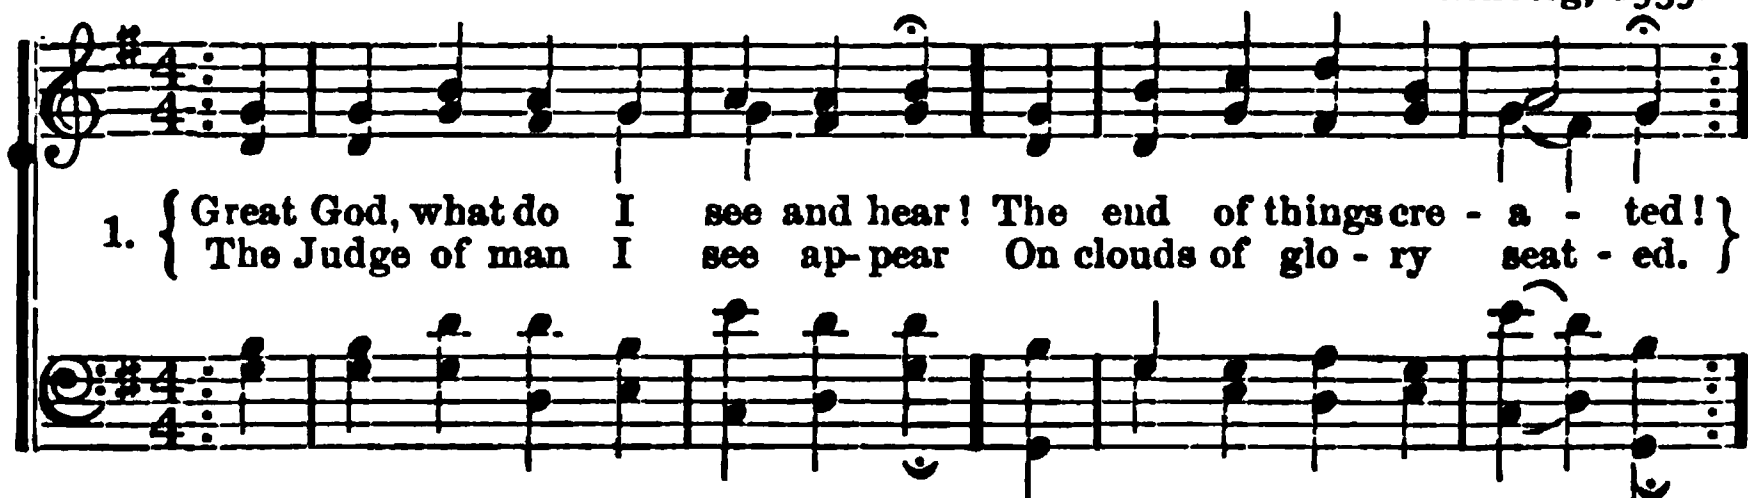

6 Let us raise our souls above
Pleasures in which earth delighteth;
Give our hearts to Him in love
To whom death so soon uniteth;
Thither oft in spirit flee
Where we would forever be!

 { The Judge of man I see ap - pear On clouds of glo - ry seat - ed. }

The trum - pet sounds: the graves re - store The dead which they con - tained be - fore; Pre - pare, my soul, to meet Him.

868 8. 7. 8. 7. 8. 8. 7.

- 2 The dead in Christ shall first arise,
At the last trumpet's sounding,
Caught up to meet Him in the skies,
With joy their Lord surrounding;
No gloomy fears their souls dismay;
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet Him.
- 3 But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
Behold His wrath prevailing,
For they shall rise, and find their tears
And sighs are unavailing;
The day of grace is past and gone;
Trembling they stand before the throne,
All unprepared to meet Him.
- 4 O Christ, who diedst and yet dost live,
To me impart Thy merit;
My pardon seal, my sins forgive,
And cleanse me by Thy Spirit.
Beneath Thy Cross I view the day
When heaven and earth shall pass away,
And thus prepare to meet Thee.

V. 1, Barth Ringwaldt, 1585.
V. 2-4, Rev. William B. Collyer, 1812.

- 1 When all with awe shall stand around
To hear their doom allotted,
O may my worthless name be found
In the Lamb's book unblotted!
Grant me a firm, unshaken faith;
For Thou, my Saviour, by Thy Death,
Hast purchased my salvation.
- 2 Before Thou shalt as Judge appear,
Plead as my Intercessor;
And on that awful day declare
That I am Thy confessor.
Then bring me to that blessed place
Where I may see, with open face,
The glory of Thy kingdom.
- 3 O Jesus! shorten the delay,
And hasten Thy salvation,
That we may see that glorious Day
Produce a new creation;
Lord Jesus, come, our Judge and King!
Come, change our mournful notes, to sing
Thy praise for ever. Amen.

The ar - mies of the ran-somed saints Throng up the steps of light:

'Tis fin-ished, all is fin - ished, Their fight with death and sin:

Fling o - pen wide the gold - en gates, And let the vic - tors in.

2 What rush of Hallelujahs
Fills all the earth and sky!
What ringing of a thousand harps
Bespeaks the triumph nigh!
O day, for which creation
And all its tribes were made;
O joy, for all its former woes
A thousand fold repaid!

3 O then what raptured greetings
On Canaan's happy shore;
What knitting severed friendships up,
Where partings are no more!
Then eyes with joy shall sparkle,
That brimmed with tears of late;
Orphans no longer fatherless,
Nor widows desolate.

4 Bring near Thy great salvation,
Thou Lamb for sinners slain;
Fill up the roll of Thine elect,
Then take Thy power and reign:
Appear, Desire of nations,
Thine exiles long for home;
Show in the heaven Thy promised sign;
Thou Prince and Saviour, come.

1. "For - ev - er with the Lord!" A - men! so let it be!

Life from the dead is in that word, 'Tis im - mor - tal - i - ty.

2 Here, in the body pent,
Absent from Him I roam,
Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.

3 My Father's house on high,
Home of my soul, how near
At times, to faith's foreseeing eye,
Thy golden gates appear!

4 Ah! then my spirit faints
To reach the land I love,
The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above!

5 "Forever with the Lord!"
Father, if 'tis Thy will,

The promise of that faithful word
E'en here to me fulfill.

6 Be Thon at my right hand,
Then can I never fail;
Uphold Thou me, and I shall stand;
Fight, and I must prevail.

7 So when my latest breath
Shall rend the veil in twain,
By death I shall escape from death,
And life eternal gain.

8 Knowing as I am known,
How shall I love that word,
And oft repeat, before the throne,
"Forever with the Lord!"

1. I'm but a stranger here, Heav'n is my home; Earth is a des-ert drear, Heav'n is my home. Dan-ger and sor-row stand Round me on ev-'ry hand, Heav'n is my fa-ther-land, Heav'n is my home.

2 What though the tempest rage,
Heav'n is my home;
Short is my pilgrimage,
Heav'n is my home.
And time's wild wintry blast
Soon will be over-past;
I shall reach home at last,
Heav'n is my home.

3 There, at my Saviour's side,
Heav'n is my home;
I shall be glorified,
Heav'n is my home.

There are the good and blest,
Those I love most and best;
And there I too shall rest,
Heav'n is my home.

4 Therefore I murmur not,
Heav'n is my home;
Whate'er my earthly lot,
Heav'n is my home.
And I shall surely stand
There at my Lord's right hand;
Heav'n is my fatherland,
Heav'n is my home.

2 When shall these eyes thy heaven-built
And pearly gates behold? [walls
Thy bulwarks with salvation strong,
And streets of shining gold?

3 There happier bowers than Eden's bloom,
Nor sin nor sorrow know:
Blest seats! thro' rude and stormy scenes
I onward press to you.

4 Why should I shrink at pain and woe,
Or feel at death dismay?

I've Canaan's goodly land in view,
And realms of endless day.

5 Apostles, martyrs, prophets, there
Around my Saviour stand;
And soon my friends in Christ below
Will join the glorious band.

2 There is a home for weary souls
By sin and sorrow driven;
When tossed on life's tempestuous shoals,
Where storms arise, and ocean rolls,

There, rays Divine disperse the gloom:
Beyond the confines of the tomb
Appears the dawn of heaven.

2 O happy retribution!
Short toil, eternal rest;
For mortals and for sinners
A mansion with the blest!

3 And now we fight the battle,
But then shall wear the crown
Of full and everlasting
And passionless renown;

4 And now we watch and struggle,
And now we live in hope,
And Zion in her anguish
With Babylon must cope;

5 But He, whom now we trust in,
Shall then be seen and known;
And they that know and see Him
Shall have Him for their own.

6 The morning shall awaken,
And shadows shall decay,
And each true-hearted servant

1 The Homeland! O, the Homeland!
The land of souls free-born!
No gloomy night is known there,
But aye the fadeless morn:
I'm sighing for that Country,
My heart is aching here;
There is no pain in Homeland,
To which I'm drawing near.

2 My Lord is in the Homeland,
With angels bright and fair;
No sinful thing nor evil,
Can ever enter there;

The music of the ransomed
Is ringing in my ears,
And when I think of Homeland,
My eyes are wet with tears.

3 For loved ones in the Homeland
Are waiting me to come
Where neither death nor sorrow
Invades their holy home:
O dear, dear native Country!
O rest and peace above!
Christ, bring us all to Homeland
Of His eternal love.

Thy streets with emeralds blaze,
The sardius and the topaz

2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

4 O could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
With unbecclouded eyes;

3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.

5 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

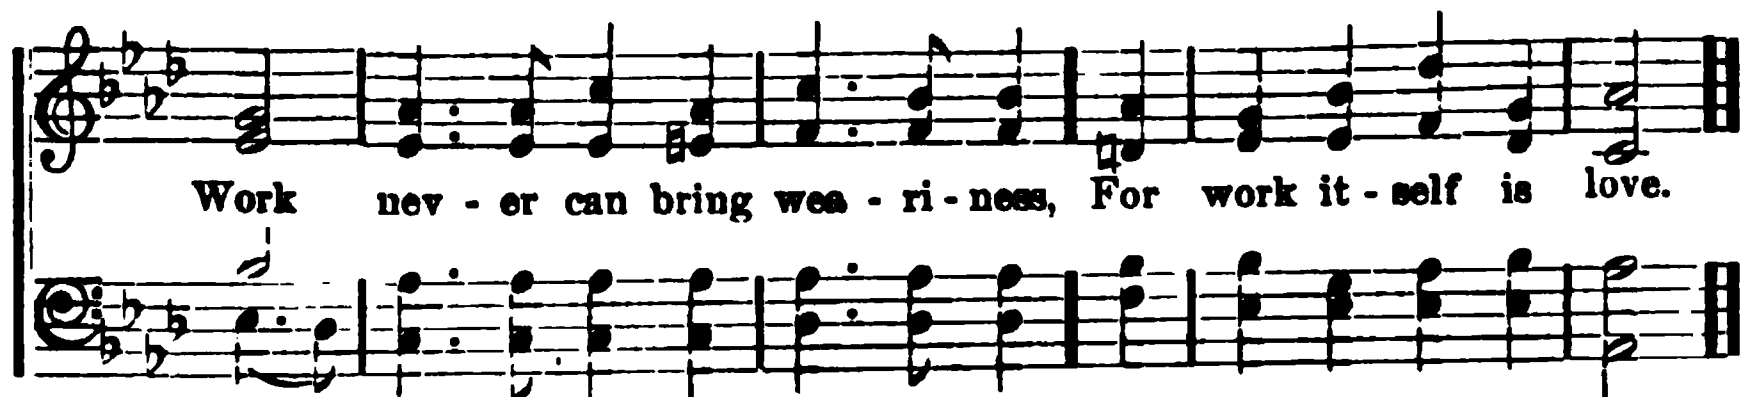

Rev. Isaac Watts, 1707.

887 KNOLLIS. S. M.

Sir John Goss, 1875.

1. There is no night in heav'n; In that blest world a - bove

Work nev - er can bring wea - ri - ness, For work it - self is love.

2 There is no grief in heaven;
For life is one glad day;
And tears are of those former things
Which all have passed away.

4 There is no death in heaven;
For they who gain that shore
Have won their immortality,
And they can die no more.

3 There is no sin in heaven;
Behold that blessed throng—
All holy is their spotless robe,
All holy is their song.

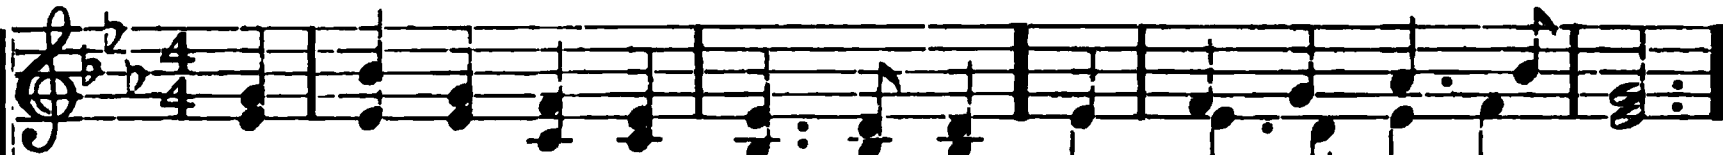

5 Lord Jesus, be our Guide;
O lead us safely on,
Till night and grief and sin and death
Are past and heaven is won!

THE LIFE EVERLASTING.

888 PARADISE. 8. 6. 8. 6. 6. 6. 6. 6.

H. Smart, 1868.

1. O Par - a - dise, O Par - a - dise, Who doth not crave for rest?

Who would not seek the hap - py land Where they that loved are blest;

Where loy - al hearts and true, Stand ev - er in the light,

All rap - ture thro' and thro', In God's most ho - ly sight?

2 O Paradise, O Paradise,
The world is growing old;
Who would not be at rest and free
Where love is never cold?
Where loyal hearts, etc.

3 O Paradise, O Paradise,
'Tis weary waiting here;
We long to be where Jesus is,
To feel, to see Him near;
Where loyal hearts, etc.

4 O Paradise, O Paradise,
We long to sin no more;
We long to be as pure on earth
As on thy spotless shore;
Where loyal hearts, etc.

5 O Paradise, O Paradise,
We greatly long to see
The special place my dearest Lord
Is destining for me;
Where loyal hearts, etc.

6 O Paradise, O Paradise,
We shall not wait for long;
E'en now the loving ear may catch
Faint fragments of thy song;
Where loyal hearts, etc.

7 Lord Jesus, King of Paradise,
O keep us in Thy love,
And guide us to that happy land
Of perfect rest above,
Where loyal hearts, etc.

906 DOMINUS REGNAVIT.

Sir John Goss, 1800-1880.

- 1 The Lord is King, the earth may be | glad there- | of: || Yea, the multitude of the isles | may be | glad there- | of.
- 2 Clouds and darkness are | round a- | bout Him: || Righteousness and judgment are the habi- | ta-tion | of His | throne.
- 3 The heavens de- | clared His | righteousness; || And all the | people have | seen His | glory.
- 4 Zion heard of it | and re- | joiced; || And the daughters of Judah were glad because | of Thy | judgments, O | Lord.
- 5 There is sprung up a light | for the | righteous: || And joyful gladness for | such · as are | true- — | hearted.

THE FIRST SUNDAY IN ADVENT.

THE EPISTLE. Rom. xiii. 11-14.

And this, knowing the season, that now it is high time for you to awake out of sleep: for now is salvation nearer to us than when we first believed. The night is far spent, and the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in revelling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and jealousy. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xxi. 1-9.

And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and came unto Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, saying unto them, Go into the village that is over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me. And if any one say aught unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them. Now this is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

Tell ye the daughter of Zion,
Behold, thy King cometh unto thee,
Meek, and riding upon an ass,
And upon a colt the foal of an ass.

And the disciples went, and did even as Jesus appointed them, and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their garments; and he sat thereon. And the most part of the multitude spread their garments in the way; and others cut their branches from the trees, and spread them in the way. And the multitude that went before him, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.

THE SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT.

THE EPISTLE. Rom. xv. 4-13.

For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that through patience and through comfort of the scriptures we might have hope. Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ Jesus: that with one accord ye may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, even as Christ also received you, to the glory of God. For I say that Christ hath been made a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm the promises given unto the fathers, and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written,

Therefore will I give praise unto thee among the Gentiles,
And sing unto thy name.

And again he saith,

Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

And again,

Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles;
And let all the people praise him.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

And again, Isaiah saith,

There shall be the root of Jesse,

And he that ariseth to rule over the Gentiles;

On him shall the Gentiles hope.

Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Ghost.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xxi. 25-36.

And there shall be signs in sun and moon and stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the billows; men fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for the powers of the heavens shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. But when these things begin to come to pass, look up, and lift up your heads; because your redemption draweth nigh.

And he spake to them a parable: Behold the fig tree, and all the trees: when they now shoot forth, ye see it and know of your own selves that the summer is now nigh. Even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all things be accomplished. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

But take heed to yourselves, lest haply your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day come on you suddenly as a snare: for so shall it come upon all them that dwell on the face of the earth. But watch ye at every season, making supplication, that ye may prevail to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

THE THIRD SUNDAY IN ADVENT.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Cor. iv. 1-5.

Let a man so account of us, as of ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Here, moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self. For I know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord. Wherefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall each man have his praise from God.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xi. 2-10.

Now when John heard in the prison the works of the Christ, he sent by his disciples, and said unto him, Art thou he that cometh, or look we for another? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Go your way and tell John the things which ye do hear and see: the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good tidings preached to them. And blessed is he, whosoever shall find none occasion of stumbling in me. And as these went their way, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken with the wind? But what went ye out for to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft raiment are in kings' houses. But wherefore went ye out? to see a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. This is he, of whom it is written,

Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,

Who shall prepare thy way before thee.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY IN ADVENT.

THE EPISTLE. Phil. iv. 4-7.

Rejoice in the Lord alway: again I will say, Rejoice. Let your forbearance be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. In nothing be anxious; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE GOSPEL. St. John i. 19-28.

And this is the witness of John, when the Jews sent unto him from Jerusalem priests and Levites to ask him, Who art thou? And he confessed, and denied not; and he confessed, I am not the Christ. And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elijah? And he saith, I am not. Art thou the prophet? And he answered, No. They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said Isaiah the prophet. And they had been sent from the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said unto him, Why then baptizest thou, if thou art not the Christ, neither Elijah, neither the prophet? John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: in the midst of you standeth one whom ye know not, even he that cometh after me, the latchet of whose shoe I am not worthy to unloose. These things were done in Bethany beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD, OR BIRTHDAY OF CHRIST, COMMONLY CALLED CHRISTMAS-DAY.

THE EPISTLE. Tit. ii. 11-14.

For the grace of God hath appeared, bringing salvation to all men, instructing us, to the intent that, denying ungodliness and wordly lusts, we should live soberly and righteously and godly in this present world; looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a people for his own possession, zealous of good works.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke ii. 1-14.

Now it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from Cæsar Augustus, that all the world should be enrolled. This was the first enrollment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria. And all went to enroll themselves, every one to his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David; to enroll himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him, being great with child. And it came to pass, while they were there, the days were fulfilled that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock. And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: for there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this is the sign unto you; Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying,

Glory to God in the highest,

And on earth peace among men in whom he is well pleased.

ST. STEPHEN'S DAY, OR SECOND CHRISTMAS-DAY.

THE EPISTLE. Acts vi. 8-15; vii. 1. 2. 51-59.

And Stephen, full of grace and power, wrought great wonders and signs among the people. But there arose certain of them that were of the synagogue called the synagogue of the Libertines, and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and Asia, disputing with Stephen. And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spake. Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and seized him, and brought him into the council, and set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak words against this holy place, and the law: for we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered unto us. And all that sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

And the high priest said, Are these things so? And he said, Brethren and fathers, hearken.

Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute? and they killed them which shewed before of the coming of the Righteous One; of whom ye have now become betrayers and murderers; ye who received the law as it was ordained by angels, and kept it not.

Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed upon him with one accord; and they cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. And they stoned Stephen, calling upon the Lord, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke II. 15-20.

And it came to pass, when the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger. And when they saw it, they made known concerning the saying which was spoken to them about this child. And all that heard it wondered at the things which were spoken unto them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken unto them.

THE SUNDAY AFTER CHRISTMAS-DAY.

THE EPISTLE. Gal. iv. 1-7.

But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant, though he is lord of all; but is under guardians and stewards until the term appointed of the father. So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the rudiments of the world: but when the fullness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, that he might redeem them which were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba, Father. So that thou art no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir through God.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke II. 33-40.

And his father and his mother were marveling at the things which were spoken concerning him; and Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the falling and rising up of many in Israel; and for a sign which is spoken against; yea and a sword shall pierce through thine own soul; that thoughts out of many hearts may be revealed. And there was one, Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, and she had been a widow even for fourscore and four years), which departed not from the temple, worshipping with fasting and supplications night and day. And coming up at that very hour, she gave thanks unto God, and spake of him to all them that were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. And when they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

And the child grew, and waxed strong, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

THE CIRCUMCISION OF CHRIST. NEW YEAR'S DAY.

THE EPISTLE. Gal. iii. 23-29.

But before faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. So that the law hath been our tutor to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a tutor. For ye are all sons of God, through faith, in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ did put on Christ. There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female: for ye all are one man in Christ Jesus. And if ye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, heirs according to promise.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke ii. 21.

And when eight days were fulfilled for circumcising him, his name was called Jesus, which was so called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

THE SUNDAY AFTER NEW YEAR.

THE EPISTLE. Tit. iii. 4-8.

But when the kindness of God our Saviour, and his love toward man, appeared, not by works done in righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy he saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost, which he poured out upon us richly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Faithful is the saying.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. ii. 13-23.

Now when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. And he arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt; and was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt did I call my son. Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had carefully learned of the wise men. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

A voice was heard in Ramah,

Weeping and great mourning,

Rachel weeping for her children;

And she would not be comforted, because they are not.

But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel; for they are dead that sought the young child's life. And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee, and came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, that he should be called a Nazarene.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE EPIPHANY, OR THE MANIFESTATION OF CHRIST TO THE GENTILES.

THE EPISTLE. Isaiah LX. 1-6.

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people; but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. And the gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side. Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee. The multitudes of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the Lord.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. II. 1-12.

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we saw his star in the east, and are come to worship him. And when Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ should be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written by the prophet,

And thou Bethlehem, land of Judah,
Art in no wise least among the princes of Judah
For out of thee shall come forth a governor,
Which shall be shepherd of my people Israel.

Then Herod privily called the wise men, and learned of them carefully what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search out carefully concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and worship him. And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

THE FIRST SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY.

THE EPISTLE. Rom. xii. 1-5.

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And be not fashioned according to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but so to think as to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to each man a measure of faith. For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members have not the same office: so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and severally members one of another.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke II. 41-52.

And his parents went every year to Jerusalem at the feast of the pass-over. And when he was twelve years old, they went up after the custom of the feast; and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and his parents knew it not; but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey; and they sought for him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance: and when they found him not, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking for him. And it came to pass, after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions: and all that heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. And when they saw him, they were astonished: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I sought thee sorrowing. And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be in my Father's house? And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them. And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth; and he was subject unto them: and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and men.

THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

THE EPISTLE. Rom. xii. 6-16.

And having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; or ministry, let us give ourselves to our ministry; or he that teacheth, to his teaching; or he that exhorteth, to his exhorting: he that giveth, let him do it with liberality; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. In love of the brethren be tenderly affectioned one to another; in honour preferring one another; in diligence not slothful; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing stedfastly in prayer; communicating to the necessities of the saints; given to hospitality. Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse not. Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with them that weep. Be of the same mind one toward another. Set not your mind on high things, but condescend to things that are lowly.

THE GOSPEL. St. John ii. 1-11.

And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: and Jesus also was bidden, and his disciples, to the marriage. And when the wine failed, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. And Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come. His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. Now there were six waterpots of stone set there after the Jews' manner of purifying, containing two or three firkins apiece. Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the ruler of the feast. And they bare it. And when the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants which had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast calleth the bridegroom, and saith unto him, Every man setteth on first the good wine; and when men have drunk freely, then that which is worse: thou hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of his signs did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY.

THE EPISTLE. Rom. xii. 16-21.

Be not wise in your own conceits. Render to no man evil for evil. Take thought for things honorable in the sight of all men. If it be possible, as much as in you lieth, be at peace with all men. Avenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance belongeth unto me; I will recompense, saith the Lord. But if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him to drink; for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. viii. 1-13.

And when he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. And behold, there came to him a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

And when he was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, and saying, Lord, my servant lieth in the house sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. And he saith unto him, I will come and heal him. And the centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but only say the word, and my servant shall be healed. For I also am a man under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. And when Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And I say unto you, that many shall come from the east and the west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven: but the sons of the kingdom shall be cast forth into the outer darkness: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And the servant was healed in that hour.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY.

THE EPISTLE. Rom. xiii. 8-10.

Owe no man anything, save to love one another: for he that loveth his neighbour hath fulfilled the law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not covet, and if there be any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: love therefore is the fulfillment of the law.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. viii. 23-27.

And when he was entered into a boat, his disciples followed him. And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the boat was covered with the waves; but he was asleep. And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Save, Lord; we perish. And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. And the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?

THE FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY.

THE EPISTLE. Col. III. 12-17.

Put on therefore, as God's elect, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving each other, if any man have a complaint against any; even as the Lord forgave you, so also do ye: and above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to the which also ye were called in one body; and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts unto God. And whatsoever ye do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xiii. 24-30.

Another parable set he before them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man that sowed good seed in his field: but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares also among the wheat, and went away. But when the blade sprang up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. And the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it tares? And he said unto them, An enemy hath done this. And the servants say unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he saith, Nay; lest haply while ye gather up the tares, ye root up the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into the barn.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY.

THE EPISTLE. 2. Peter i. 16-21.

For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: and this voice we ourselves heard come out of heaven, when we were with him in the holy mount. And we have the word of prophecy made more sure; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts: knowing this first, that no prophecy of scripture is of private interpretation. For no prophecy ever came by the will of man: but men spake from God, being moved by the Holy Ghost.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xvii. 1-9.

And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart: and he was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his garments became white as the light. And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah talking with him. And Peter answered, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, I will make here three tabernacles; one for thee and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. While he was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. And Jesus came and touched them and said, Arise, and be not afraid. And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, save Jesus only.

And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen from the dead.

THE SUNDAY SEPTUAGESIMA, OR THIRD SUNDAY BEFORE LENT.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Cor. ix. 24-27 and x. 1-5.

Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? Even so run, that ye may attain. And every man that striveth in the games is temperate in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, as not uncertainly; so fight I, as not beating the air: but I buffet my body, and bring it into bondage: lest by any means, after that I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

For I would not, brethren, have you ignorant, how that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; and did all eat the same spiritual meat; and did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them: and the rock was Christ. Howbeit with most of them God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xx. 1-16.

For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing in the marketplace idle; and to them he said, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing; and he saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard. And when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and pay them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received every man a penny. And when they received it, they murmured against the householder, saying, These last have spent but one hour, and thou hast made them equal to us, which have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat. But he answered and said to one of them, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny? Take up that which is thine, and go thy way; it is my will to give unto this last, even as unto thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? or is thine eye evil, because I am good? So the last shall be first, and the first last.

THE SUNDAY SEXAGESIMA, OR THE SECOND SUNDAY BEFORE LENT.

THE EPISTLE. 2. Cor. xi. 19-33 and xii. 1-9.

For ye bear with the foolish gladly, being wise yourselves. For ye bear with a man, if he bringeth you into bondage, if he devoureth you, if he taketh you captive, if he exalteth himself, if he smiteth you on the face. I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet whereinsoever any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I more; in labours more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day have I been in the deep; in journeyings often, in perils of rivers, in perils of robbers, in perils from my countrymen, in perils from the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; in labour and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. Beside those things that are without, there is that which presseth upon me daily, anxiety for all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is made to stumble, and I burn not? If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things that concern my weakness. The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, he who is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not. In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes, in order to take me: and through a window was I let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

I must needs glory, though it is not expedient; but I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I know not; or whether out of the body, I know not; God knoweth), such a one caught up even to the third heaven. And I know such a man (whether in the body, or apart from the body, I know not; God knoweth), how that he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. On behalf of such a one will I glory: but on mine own behalf I will not glory, save in my weaknesses. For if I should desire to glory, I should not be foolish; for I shall speak the truth: but I forbear, lest any man should account of me above that which he seeth me to be, or heareth from me. And by reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations—wherefore, that I should not be exalted overmuch, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, that I should not be exalted overmuch. Concerning this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. And he hath said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my weakness, that the strength of Christ may rest upon me.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke viii. 4-15.

And when a great multitude came together, and they of every city resorted unto him, he spake by a parable: The sower went forth to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden under foot, and the birds of the heaven devoured it. And other fell on the rock; and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. And other fell amidst the thorns; and the thorns grew with it, and choked it. And other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit a hundred-fold. As he said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

And his disciples asked him what this parable might be. And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to the rest in parables; that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. And those by the way side are they that have heard; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. And those on the rock are they which, when they have heard, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among the thorns, these are they that have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. And that in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and bring forth fruit with patience.

THE SUNDAY QUINQUAGESIMA, OR THE NEXT SUNDAY BEFORE LENT.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Cor. xiii. 1-13.

If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. And if I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing. Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not provoked, taketh not account of evil; rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but rejoiceth with the truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Love never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part: but when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child: now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things. For now we see in a mirror, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I have been known. But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xviii. 31-43.

And he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written by the prophets shall be accomplished unto the Son of man. For he shall be delivered up unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shamefully entreated, and spit upon: and they shall scourge and kill him: and the third day he shall rise again. And they understood none of these things; and this saying was hid from them, and they perceived not the things that were said.

And it came to pass, as he drew nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging: and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant. And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me. And they that went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

THE FIRST DAY OF LENT, COMMONLY CALLED ASH-WEDNESDAY.

THE EPISTLE. Joel II. 12-19.

Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: and rend your heart and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the Lord your God? Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

Then will the Lord be jealous for his land, and pity his people. Yea, the Lord will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. vi. 16-21.

Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen of men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash thy face: that thou be not seen of men to fast, but of thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall recompense thee.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust doth consume, and where thieves break through and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also.

THE FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT, INVOCAVIT.

THE EPISTLE. 2. Cor. vi. 1-10.

And working together with him we intreat also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain (for he saith,

At an acceptable time I hearkened unto thee,

And in a day of salvation did I succour thee:

behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation): giving no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our ministration be not blamed; but in everything commending ourselves, as ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings, in pureness, in knowledge, in longsuffering, in kindness, in the Holy Ghost, in love unfeigned, in the word of truth, in the power of God; by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, by glory and dishonour, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor; yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. iv. 1-11.

Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he afterward hungered. And the tempter came and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, command that these stones become bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Then the devil taketh him into the holy city; and he set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and saith unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written,

He shall give his angels charge concerning thee:

And on their hands they shall bear thee up,

Lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Jesus said unto him, Again it is written, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. Again, the devil taketh him unto an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; and he said unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth him; and behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

THE SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT, REMINISCERE.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Thess. iv. 1-7.

Finally then, brethren, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as ye received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, even as ye do walk,—that ye abound more and more. For ye know what charge we gave you through the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye abstain from fornication; that each one of you know how to possess himself of his own vessel in sanctification and honour, not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles which know not God; that no man transgress, and wrong his brother in the matter: because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we forwarned you and testified. For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xv. 21-28.

And Jesus went out thence, and withdrew into the parts of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanitish woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us. But he answered and said, I was not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. But she came and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. And he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread and cast it to the dogs. But she said, Yea, Lord: for even the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it done unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was healed from that hour.

THE THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT, OCULI.

THE EPISTLE. Ephes. v. 1-9.

Be ye therefore imitators of God, as beloved children; and walk in love, even as Christ also loved you, and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for an odour of a sweet smell. But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becometh saints; nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which are not befitting: but rather giving of thanks. For this ye know of a surety, that no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, which is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no man deceive you with empty words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the sons of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them; for ye were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord: walk as children of light (for the fruit of the light is in all goodness and righteousness and truth).

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xi. 14-28.

And he was casting out a devil which was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb man spake; and the multitudes marvelled. But some of them said, By Beelzebub the prince of the devils casteth he out the devils. And others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven. But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. And if Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils by Beelzebub. And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. But if I by the finger of God cast out devils, then is the kingdom of God come upon you. When the strong man fully armed guardeth his own court, his goods are in peace: but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh away from him his whole armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. The unclean spirit when he is gone out of a man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will turn back unto my house whence I came out. And when he is come, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more evil than himself; and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first.

And it came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck. But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT, LAETARE.

THE EPISTLE. Gal. iv. 21-31.

Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the freewoman. Howbeit the son by the handmaid is born after the flesh; but the son by the freewoman is born through promise. Which things contain an allegory: for these women are two covenants; one from mount Sinai, bearing children unto bondage, which is Hagar. Now this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to the Jerusalem that now is: for she is in bondage with her children. But the Jerusalem that is above is free which is our mother. For it is written,

Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not;

Break forth and cry, thou that travailest not:

For more are the children of the desolate than of her which hath the husband.

Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are children of promise. But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so is it now. Howbeit what saith the scripture? Cast out the handmaid and her son: for the son of the handmaid shall not inherit with the son of the freewoman. Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the freewoman.

THE GOSPEL. St. John vi. 1-15.

After these things Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. And a great multitude followed him, because they beheld the signs which he did on them that were sick. And Jesus went up into the mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. Now the passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude cometh unto him, saith unto Philip, Whence are we to buy bread, that these may eat? And this he said to prove him: for he himself would know what he would do. Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little. One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two fishes: but what are these among so many? Jesus said, Make the people sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. Jesus therefore took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to them that were set down; likewise also of the fishes as much as they would. And when they were filled, he saith unto his disciples, Gather up the broken pieces which remain over, that nothing be lost. So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which remained over unto them that had eaten. When therefore the people saw the sign which he did, they said, This is of a truth the prophet that cometh into the world.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

Jesus therefore perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again into the mountain himself alone.

THE FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT, JUDICA.

THE EPISTLE. Hebr. ix. 11-15.

But Christ having come a high priest of the good things to come, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling them that have been defiled, sanctify unto the cleanness of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish unto God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? And for this cause he is the mediator of a new covenant, that a death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, they that have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

THE GOSPEL. St. John viii. 46-59.

Which of you convicteth me of sin? If I say truth, why do ye not believe me? He that is of God heareth the words of God: for this cause ye hear them not, because ye are not of God. The Jews answered and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil? Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye dishonour me. But I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my word, he shall never see death. The Jews said unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my word, he shall never taste death. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead; whom makest thou thyself? Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing: it is my Father that glorifieth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God; and ye have not known him: but I know him; and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be like unto you, a liar: but I know him, and keep his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day; and he saw it, and was glad. The Jews therefore said unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am. They took up stones therefore to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple.

THE SUNDAY NEXT BEFORE EASTER, PALMARUM.

THE EPISTLE. Phil. ii. 5-11.

Have this mind in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, counted it not a prize to be on an equality with God, but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men; and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, becoming obedient even unto death, yea, the death of the cross. Wherefore also God highly exalted him, and gave unto him the name which is above every name; that in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven and things on earth and things under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

(FOR THE GOSPEL SEE THE FIRST SUNDAY IN ADVENT).

THE HOLY THURSDAY.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Cor. xi. 23-32.

For I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, how that the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was betrayed took bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, This is my body, which is for you: this do in remembrance of me. In like manner also the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood: this do, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. But let a man prove himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. For he that eateth and drinketh, eateth and drinketh judgment unto himself, if he discern not the body. For this cause many of you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep. But if we discerned ourselves, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.

THE GOSPEL. St. John xiii. 1-15.

Now before the feast of the passover, Jesus knowing that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end. And during supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came forth from God, and goeth unto God, riseth from supper, and layeth aside his garments; and he took a towel, and girded himself. Then he poureth water into the bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. So he cometh to Simon Peter. He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt understand hereafter. Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, if I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him, He that is bathed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. For he knew him that should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

So when he had washed their feet, and taken his garments, and sat down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? Ye call me, Master, and, Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, the Lord and the Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye also should do as I have done to you.

THE GOOD FRIDAY.

THE EPISTLE. Isaiah lxi. 13-lxii, 12.

Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted, and extolled, and be very high. As many were astonished at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men. So shall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider. Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed? For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to his slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken. And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand. He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors, and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

THE GOSPEL. St. John xix. 1-42.

Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and arrayed him in a purple garment; and they came unto him, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck him with their hands. And Pilate went out again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him out to you, that ye may know that I find no crime in him. Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold, the man! When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take him yourselves, and crucify him: for I find no crime in him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. When Pilate therefore heard this saying, he was the more afraid; and he entered into the palace again, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore saith unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to release thee, and have power to crucify thee? Jesus answered him, Thou wouldest have no power against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath greater sin. Upon this Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou release this man, thou art not Cæsar's friend: every one that maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar. When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment-seat at a place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. Now it was the Preparation of the passover: it was about the sixth hour. And he saith unto the Jews, Behold, your King! They therefore cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar. Then therefore he delivered him unto them to be crucified.

They took Jesus therefore: and he went out, bearing the cross for himself, unto the place called The place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew Golgatha: where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title therefore read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and in Latin, and in Greek. The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but, that he said, I am King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore one to another, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith,

They parted my garments among them,

And upon my vesture did they cast lots.

These things therefore the soldiers did. But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold, thy son? Then saith he to the disciple, Behold, thy mother? And from that hour the disciple took her unto his own home.

After this Jesus, knowing that all things are now finished, that the scripture might be accomplished, saith, I thirst. There was set there a vessel full of vinegar: so they put a sponge full of the vinegar upon hyssop, and brought it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

The Jews therefore, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a high day) asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him: but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: howbeit one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came out blood and water. And he that hath seen hath borne witness, and his witness is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may believe. For these things came to pass, that the scripture might be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

And after these things Joseph of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore and took the body. And there came also Nicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pound weight. So they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb wherein was never a man yet laid. There then because of the Jews' Preparation (for the tomb was nigh at hand) they laid Jesus.

EASTER SUNDAY.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Cor. v. 6-8.

Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened. For our passover also hath been sacrificed, even Christ: wherefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

THE GOSPEL. St. Mark xvi. 1-8.

And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, they come to the tomb when the sun was risen. And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the tomb? and looking up, they see that the stone is rolled back: for it was exceeding great. And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they were amazed. And he saith unto them, Be not amazed: ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, which hath been crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold, the place where they laid him! But go, tell his disciples and Peter, He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you. And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them: and they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

EASTER MONDAY.

THE EPISTLE. Acts x. 34-41.

And Peter opened his mouth, and said,

Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him. The word which he sent unto the children of Israel, preaching good tidings of peace by Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all)—that saying ye yourselves know, which was published throughout all Judæa, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; even Jesus of Nazareth, how that God anointed him with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom also they slew, hanging him on a tree. Him God raised up the third day, and gave him to be made manifest, not to all the people, but unto witnesses that were chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xxiv. 13-35.

And behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was threescore furlongs from Jerusalem. And they communed with each other of all these things which had happened. And it came to pass, while they communed and questioned together, that Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. But their eyes were holden that they should not know him. And he said unto them, What communications are these that ye have one with another, as ye walk? And they stood still, looking sad. And one of them, named Cleopas, answering said unto him, Dost thou alone sojourn in Jerusalem and not know the things which are come to pass there in these days? And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people: and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. But we hoped that it was he which should redeem Israel. Yea and beside all this, it is now the third day since these things came to pass. Moreover certain women of our company amazed us, having been early at the tomb; and when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive. And certain of them that were with us went to the tomb, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not. And he said unto them, O foolish men, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! Behoved it not the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory? And beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they were going: and he made as though he would go further. And they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is now far spent. And he went in to abide with them. And it came to pass, when he had sat down with them to meat, he took the bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight. And they said one to another, Was not our heart burning within us, while he spake to us in the way, while he opened to us the scriptures? And they rose up that very hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. And they rehearsed the things that happened in the way, and how he was known to them in the breaking of the bread.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EASTER, QUASIMODOGENITI.

THE EPISTLE. 1. John v. 4-10.

For whatsoever is begotten of God overcome the world: and this is the victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith. And who is he that overcome the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and with the blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is the truth. For there are three who bear witness, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and the three agree in one. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for the witness of God is this, that he hath borne witness concerning his Son. He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in him: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he hath not believed in the witness that God hath borne concerning his Son.

THE GOSPEL. St. John xx. 19-31.

When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And when he had said this, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the Lord. Jesus therefore said to them again, Peace be unto you: as the Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: whose soever sins ye forgive, they are forgiven unto them; whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.

And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. Jesus saith unto him, Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

Many other signs therefore did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye may have life in his name.

THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EASTER, MISERICORDIAS DOMINI.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Peter ii. 21-25.

For hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: who his own self bare our sins in his body upon the tree, that we, having died unto sins, might live unto righteousness; by whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were going astray like sheep; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

THE GOSPEL. St. John x. 12-18.

I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd layeth down his life for the sheep. He that is a hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and the wolf snatcheth them, and scattereth them: he fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am a good shepherd; and I know mine own,

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

and mine own know me, even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and they shall become one flock, one shepherd.

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER, JUBILATE.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Peter ii. 11-20.

Beloved, I beseech you as sojourners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; having your behaviour seemly among the Gentiles; that, wherein they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

Be subject to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme; or unto governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evil-doers and for praise to them that do well. For so is the will of God, that by well-doing ye should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bond-servants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is acceptable, if for conscience toward God a man endureth griefs, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if, when ye sin, and are buffeted for it, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye shall take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

THE GOSPEL. St. John xvi. 16-23.

A little while, and ye behold me no more; and again a little while, and ye shall see me. Some of his disciples therefore said one to another, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while and ye behold me not; and again a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father? They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? We know not what he saith. Jesus perceived that they were desirous to ask him, and he said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, A little while, and ye behold me not, and again a little while, and ye shall see me? Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for the joy that a man is born into the world. And ye therefore now have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one taketh away from you. And in that day ye shall ask me nothing.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER, CANTATE.

THE EPISTLE. James i. 17-21.

Every good gift and every perfect boon is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, neither shadow that is cast by turning. Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

Ye know this, my beloved brethren. But let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath: for the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. Wherefore putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

THE GOSPEL. St. John xvi. 5-15.

But now I go unto him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? But because I have spoken these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go, I will send him unto you. And he, when he is come, will convict the world in respect of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: of sin, because they believe not on me; of righteousness, because I go to the Father, and ye behold me no more; of judgment, because the prince of this world hath been judged. I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he shall guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from himself; but what things soever he shall hear, these shall he speak: and he shall declare unto you the things that are to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall take of mine, and shall declare it unto you. All things whatsoever the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he taketh of mine, and shall declare it unto you.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER, ROGATE.

THE EPISTLE. James i. 22-27.

But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deluding your own selves. For if any one is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a mirror: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth away, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But he that looketh into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and so continueth, being not a hearer that forgetteth, but a doer that worketh, this man shall be blessed in his doing. If any man thinketh himself to be religious, while he bridleth not his tongue but deceiveth his heart, this man's religion is vain. Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

THE GOSPEL. St. John xvi. 23-30.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, If ye shall ask anything of the Father, he will give it you in my name. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name; ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be fulfilled.

These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: the hour cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but shall tell you plainly of the Father. In that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you; for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from the Father. I came out from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go unto the Father. His disciples say, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb. Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest from the God.

THE ASCENSION-DAY.

THE EPISTLE. Acts i. 1-11.

The former treatise I made, O Theophilus, concerning all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, until the day in which he was received up, after that he had given commandment through the Holy Ghost unto the apostles whom he had chosen: to whom he also shewed himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing unto them by the space of forty days, and speaking the things concerning the kingdom of God: and, being assembled together with them, he charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, said he, ye heard from me: for John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

They therefore, when they were come together, asked him, saying, Lord, dost thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know times or seasons, which the Father hath set within his own authority. But ye shall receive power, when the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be my witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa and Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they were looking stedfastly into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye looking into heaven? this Jesus, which was received up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye beheld him going into heaven.

THE GOSPEL. St. Mark. xvi. 14-20.

And after these things he was manifested in another form unto two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country. And they went away and told it unto the rest; neither believed they them.

And afterward he was manifested unto the eleven themselves as they sat at meat; and he upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned. And these signs shall follow them that believe: in my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall in no wise hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken unto them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed.

THE SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER, EXAUDI.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Peter iv. 7-11.

Be ye therefore of sound mind, and be sober unto prayer: above all things being fervent in your love among yourselves; for love covereth a multitude of sins: using hospitality one to another without murmuring: according as each hath received a gift, ministering it among yourselves, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God; if any man speaketh, speaking as it were oracles of God; if any man ministereth, ministering as of the strength which God supplieth; that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, whose is the glory and the dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

THE GOSPEL. St. John xv. 26-xvi. 4.

But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall bear witness of me: and ye also bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be made to stumble. They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the hour cometh, that whosoever killeth you shall think that he offereth service unto God. And these things will they do, because they have not known the Father, nor me. But these things have I spoken unto you, that when their hour is come, ye may remember them, how that I told you. And these things I said not unto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

WHIT-SUNDAY, PENTECOST.

THE EPISTLE. Acts ii. 1-3.

And when the day of Pentecost was now come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly there came from heaven a sound as of the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them tongues parting asunder, like as of fire; and it sat upon each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven. And when this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speaking in his own language. And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilæans? And how hear we, every man in our own language, wherein we were born? Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, in Judæa and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia, in Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and sojourners from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we do hear them speaking in our tongues the mighty works of God. And they were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying one to another, What meaneth this? But others mocking said, They are filled with new wine.

THE GOSPEL. St. John xiv. 23-31.

If a man love me, he will keep my word: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. He that loveth me not keepeth not my words: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me.

These things have I spoken unto you, while yet abiding with you. But the Comforter, even the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said unto you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful. Ye heard how I said to you, I go away, and I come unto you. If ye loved me, ye would have rejoiced, because I go unto the Father: for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe. I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world cometh: and he hath nothing in me; but that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

WHIT-MONDAY.

THE EPISTLE. Acts x. 42-48.

And he charged us to preach unto the people, and to testify that this is he which is ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To him bear all the prophets witness, that through his name every one that believeth on him shall receive remission of sins.

While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell upon all them which heard the words. And they of the circumcision which believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, Can any man forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

THE GOSPEL. St. John iii. 16-21.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him. He that believeth on him is not judged; he that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light is come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. For every one that doeth ill hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, lest his works should be reproved. But he that doeth the truth cometh to the light, that his works may be made manifest, that they have been wrought in God.

TRINITY SUNDAY.

THE EPISTLE. Rom. xi. 33-36.

O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past tracing out! For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again? For of him, and through him, and unto him, are all things. To him be the glory for ever. Amen.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE GOSPEL. St. John iii. 1-15.

Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: the same came unto him by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these signs that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born anew. The wind bloweth, where it listeth, and thou hearest the voice thereof, but knowest not whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou the teacher of Israel, and understandest not these things? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and bear witness of that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. If I told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall you believe, if I tell you heavenly things? And no man hath ascended into heaven, but he that descended out of heaven, even the Son of man, which is in heaven. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth may in him have eternal life.

THE FIRST SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. 1. John iv. 16-21.

God is love; and he that abideth in love abideth in God, and God abideth in him. Herein is love made perfect with us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as he is, even so are we in this world. There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath punishment; and he that feareth is not made perfect in love. We love, because he first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, cannot love God whom he hath not seen. And this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God love his brother also.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xvi. 19-31.

Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, faring sumptuously every day: and a certain beggar named Lazarus was laid at his gate, full of sores, and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table; yea, even the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels into Abraham's bosom: and the rich man also died, and was buried. And in Hades he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am in anguish in this flame. But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things: but now here he is comforted, and thou art in anguish. And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, and they which would pass from hence to you may not be able, and that none may cross over from thence to us. And he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house; for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. But Abraham saith, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one go to them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, if one rise from the dead.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. 1. John iii. 12-18.

Marvel not, brethren, if the world hateth you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. Hereby know we love, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But who hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how doth the love of God abide in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue; but in deed and truth.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xiv. 16-24.

A certain man made a great supper; and he bade many: and he sent forth his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready. And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a field, and I must needs go out and see it: I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. And the servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and blind and lame. And the servant said, Lord, what thou didst command is done, and yet there is room. And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house may be filled. For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Peter v. 6-11.

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; casting all your anxiety upon him, because he careth for you. Be sober, be watchful: your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom withstand stedfast in your faith, knowing that the same sufferings are accomplished in your brethren who are in the world. And the God of all grace, who called you unto his eternal glory in Christ, after that ye have suffered a little while, shall himself perfect, stablish, strengthen you. To him be the dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xv. 1-10.

Now all the publicans and sinners were drawing near unto him for to hear him. And both the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

And he spake unto them this parable, saying, What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and his neighbors, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say unto you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine righteous persons, which need no repentance.

Or what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she find it? And when she hath found it, she calleth together her friends and neighbours, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I have lost. Even so, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Rom. viii. 18-23.

For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the Glory which shall be revealed to us-ward. For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only so, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for our adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke vi. 36-42.

Be ye merciful, even as your Father is merciful. And judge not, and ye shall not be judged: and condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: release, and ye shall be released: give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, shall they give into your bosom. For with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again.

And he spake also a parable unto them, Can the blind guide the blind? shall they not both fall into a pit? The disciple is not above his master: but every one when he is perfected shall be as his master. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me cast out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

THE FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Peter iii. 8-15.

Finally, be ye all likeminded, compassionate, loving as brethren, tenderhearted, humbleminded: not rendering evil for evil, or reviling for reviling; but contrariwise blessing; for hereunto were ye called, that ye should inherit a blessing. For, he that would love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile: And let him turn away from evil, and do good; Let him seek peace, and pursue it. For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears unto their supplication: But the face of the Lord is upon them that do evil. And who is he that will harm you, if ye be zealous of that which is good? But and if ye should suffer for righteousness' sake, blessed are ye: and fear not this fear, neither be troubled; but sanctify in your hearts Christ as Lord.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke v. 1-11.

Now it came to pass, while the multitude pressed upon him and heard the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret; and he saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the multitudes out of the boat. And when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answered and said, Master, we toiled all night, and took nothing: but at thy word I will let down the nets. And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes; and their nets were breaking; and they beckoned unto their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he was amazed, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken; and so were also James and John, sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And when they had brought their boats to land, they left all, and followed him.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Rom. vi. 8-11.

Or are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. For if we have become united with him by the likeness of his death, we shall be also by the likeness of his resurrection; knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away, that so we should no longer be in bondage to sin; for he that hath died is justified from sin. But if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him: knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death no more hath dominion over him. For the death that he died, he died unto sin once: but the life that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Even so reckon ye also yourselves to be dead unto sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. v. 20-26.

I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment: but I say unto you, that every one who is angry with his brother shall be in danger of the judgment; and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of the hell of fire. If therefore thou art offering thy gift at the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee, leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art with him in the way; lest haply the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the last farthing.

THE SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Rom. vi. 19-23.

I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye presented your members to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness unto sanctification. For when ye were servants of sin, ye were free in regard of righteousness. What fruit then had ye at that time in the things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end eternal life. For the wages of sin is death; but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

THE GOSPEL. St. Mark viii. 1-9.

In those days, when there was again a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and if I send them away fasting to their home,

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

they will faint in the way; and some of them are come from far. And his disciples answered him, Whence shall one be able to fill these men with bread here in a desert place? And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they say, Seven. And he commandeth the multitude to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he brake, and gave to his disciples, to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. And they had a few small fishes: and having blessed them, he commanded to set these also before them. And they did eat, and were filled: and they took up, of broken pieces that remained over, seven baskets. And they were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

THE EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Rom. viii. 12-17.

So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh: for if ye live after the flesh, ye must die; but if by the spirit ye mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. For ye received not the spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified with him.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. vii. 15-23.

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves. By their fruits ye shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but the corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Therefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by thy name, and by thy name cast out devils, and by thy name do many mighty works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

THE NINTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Cor. x. 6-13.

Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. Neither be ye idolators, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt the Lord, as some of them tempted, and perished by the serpents. Neither murmur ye, as some of them murmured, and perished by the destroyer. Now these things happened unto them by way of example; and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages are come. Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. There hath no temptation taken you but such as man can bear: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation make also the way of escape, that ye may endure it.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xvi. 1-9.

And he said also unto the disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was wasting his goods. And he called and said unto him, What is this that I hear of thee? render the account of thy stewardship; for thou canst be no longer steward. And the steward said within himself, What shall I do, seeing that my lord taketh away the stewardship from me? I have not strength to dig; to beg I am ashamed. I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. And calling to him each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? And he said, A hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bond, and sit down quickly and write fifty. Then said he to another, And how much owest thou. And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. He saith unto him, Take thy bond, and write fourscore. And his lord commended the unrighteous steward because he had done wisely: for the sons of this world are for their own generation wiser than the sons of light. And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends by means of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when it shall fail, they may receive you into the eternal tabernacles.

THE TENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Cor. xii. 1-11.

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. Ye knew that when ye were Gentiles ye were led away unto those dumb idols, howsoever ye might be led. Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking in the Spirit of God saith, Jesus is anathema; and no man can say, Jesus is Lord, but in the Holy Spirit.

Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. And there are diversities of ministrations, and the same Lord. And there are diversities of workings, but the same God, who worketh all things in all. But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit to profit withal. For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom; and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit: to another faith, in the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, in the one Spirit; and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits: to another divers kinds of tongues; and to another the interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh the one and the same Spirit, dividing to each one severally even as he will.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xix. 41-49.

And when he drew nigh, he saw the city and wept over it, saying, If thou hadst known in this day, even thou, the things which belong unto peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, when thine enemies shall cast up a bank about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall dash thee to the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

And he entered into the temple, and began to cast on them that sold, saying unto them, It is written, And my house shall be a house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of robbers.

And he was teaching daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the principal men of the people sought to destroy him: and they could not find what they might do; for the people all hung upon him, listening.

THE ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Cor. xv. 1-10.

Now I make known unto you, brethren, the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye received, wherein also ye stand, by which also ye are saved; I make known, I say, in what words I preached it unto you, if ye hold it fast, except ye believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which also I received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried; and that he hath been raised on the third day according to the scriptures; and that he appeared to Cephas; then to the twelve; then he appeared to above five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, but some are fallen asleep; then he appeared to James; then to all the apostles; and last of all, as unto one born out of due time, he appeared to me also. For I am the least of the apostles,

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not found vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xviii. 9-14.

And he spake also this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and set all others at nought: Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week; I give tithes of all that I get. But the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote his heart, saying, God, be merciful to me a sinner. I say unto you, This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; but he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

THE TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. 2. Cor. iii. 4-9.

And such confidence have we through Christ to Godward; not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; who also made us sufficient as ministers of a new covenant: not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. But if the ministration of death, written, and engraven on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly upon the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which glory was passing away: how shall not rather the ministration of the spirit be with glory? For if the ministration of condemnation is glory, much rather doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

THE GOSPEL. St. Mark vii. 31-37.

And again he went out from the borders of Tyre, and came through Sidon unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of Decapolis. And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to lay his hand upon him. And he took him aside from the multitude privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue; and looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphata, that is, Be opened. And his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain. And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it. And they were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh even the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

THE THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Gal. iii. 15-22.

Brethren, I speak after the manner of man: Though it be but a man's covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed, no one maketh it void, or addeth thereto. Now to Abraham were the promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, and to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. Now this I say: A covenant confirmed beforehand by God, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the promise of none effect. For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but God hath granted it to Abraham by promise. What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law. Howbeit the scripture hath shut up all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke x. 23-37.

And turning to the disciples, he said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: for I say unto you, that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not.

And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And he said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour? Jesus made answer and said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho; and he fell among robbers, which both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance a certain priest was going down that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And in like manner a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion, and came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on them oil and wine; and he set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, I, when I come back again, will repay thee. Which of these three, thinkest thou, proved neighbour unto him that fell among the robbers? And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. And Jesus said unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Gal. v. 16-24.

But I say, Walk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; that ye may not do the things that ye would. But if ye are led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, secrecy, enmities, strife, jealousies, wraths, factions, divisions, heresies, envyings, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I forewarn you, even as I did forewarn you, that they which practise such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are of Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with the passions and the lusts thereof.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xvii. 11-19.

And it came to pass, as they were on the way to Jerusalem, that he was passing through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off: and they lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go and shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, with a loud voice glorifying God; and he fell upon his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering said, Were not the ten cleansed? but where are the nine? Were there none found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger? And he said unto him, Arise, and go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Gal. v. 25-vi. 10.

If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us also walk. Let us not be vainglorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

Brethren, even if a man be overtaken in any trespass, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of meekness; looking to thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. For if a man thinketh himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. But let each man prove his own work, and then shall he have his glorying in regard of himself alone, and not of his neighbour. For each man shall bear his own burden.

But let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth unto the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. So then, as we have opportunity, let us work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the household of the faith.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. vi. 24-34.

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other: or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment? Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto his stature? And why are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Be not therefore anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

THE SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Ephes. iii. 13-21.

Wherefore I ask that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which are your glory.

For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled unto all the fulness of God.

Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus unto all generations for ever and ever. Amen.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke vii. 11-17.

And it came to pass soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain; and his disciples went with him, and a great multitude. Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold there was carried out one that was dead, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, we had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. And he came nigh and touched the bier: and the bearers stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother. And fear took hold of all: and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet is arisen among us: and, God hath visited his people. And this report went forth concerning him in the whole of Judæa, and all the region round about.

THE SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Ephes. iv. 1-6.

I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beseech you to walk worthily of the calling wherewith ye were called, with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as also ye were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xiv. 1-11.

And it came to pass, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching him. And behold, there was before him a certain man which had the dropsy. And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath, or not? But they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go. And he said unto them, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a well, and will not straightway draw him up on a sabbath day? And they could not answer again unto these things.

And he spake a parable unto those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out their chief seats; saying unto them, When thou art bidden of any man to a marriage feast, sit not down in the chief seat; lest haply a more honorable man than thou be bidden of him and he that bade thee and him shall come and say to thee, Give this man place; and then thou shalt begin with shame to take the lowest place. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when he that hath bidden thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have glory in the presence of all that sit at meat with thee. For every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

THE EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Cor. i. 4-9.

I thank my God always concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Jesus Christ; that in everything ye were enriched in him, in all utterance and all knowledge; even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: so that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye be un-reproveable in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, through whom ye were called into the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth xxii. 34-46.

But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, gathered themselves together. And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, Master, which is the great commandment in the law? And he said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second like unto it is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hangeth the whole law, and the prophets.

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, saying, What think ye of the Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David. He saith unto them, How then doth David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,

The Lord said unto my Lord,

Sit thou on my right hand,

Till I put thine enemies underneath thy feet?

If David then calleth him Lord, how is he his son? And no one was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

THE NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Ephes. iv. 22-23.

Put away, as concerning your former manner of life, the old man, which waxeth corrupt after the lusts of deceit; and that ye be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put on the new man, which after God hath been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

Wherefore, putting away falsehood, speak ye truth each one with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: neither give place to the devil. Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have whereof to give to him that hath need.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. ix. 1-8.

And he entered into a boat, and crossed over, and came into his own city. And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer; thy sins are forgiven. And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven; or to say, Arise, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins (then saith he to the sick of the palsy), Arise and take up thy bed, and go unto thy house. And he arose, and departed to his house. But when the multitudes saw it, they were afraid, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

THE TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Ephes. v. 15-21.

Look therefore carefully how he walk, not as unwise, but as wise; redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore be ye not foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And be not drunken with wine, wherein is riot, but be filled with the Spirit; speaking one to another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord; giving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God, even the Father; subjecting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xxii. 1-14.

And Jesus answered and spake again in parables unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a certain king, which made a marriage feast for his son, and sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the marriage feast: and they would not come. Again he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them that are bidden, Behold, I have made ready my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come to the marriage feast. But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise: and the rest laid hold on his servants, and entreated them shamefully, and killed them. But the king was wroth; and he sent his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they that were bidden were not worthy. Go ye therefore unto the partings of the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage feast. And those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was filled with guests. But when the king came in to behold the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding-garment; and he saith unto him, Friend, how comest thou in hither not having on a wedding-garment? And he was speechless. Then the king said to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and cast him out into the outer darkness; there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few chosen.

THE TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Ephes. vi. 10-17.

Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. Wherefore take up the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; withal taking up the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

THE GOSPEL. St. John iv. 46-54.

And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. Jesus therefore said unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will in no wise believe. The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die. Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. The man believed the word that Jesus spake unto him, and he went his way. And as he was now going down, his servants met him, saying, that his son lived. So he inquired of them the hour when he began to amend. They said therefore unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house. This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judæa into Galilee.

THE TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Phil. i. 3-11.

I thank my God upon all my remembrance of you, always in every supplication of mine on behalf of you all making my supplication with joy, for your fellowship in furtherance of the gospel from the first day until now; being confident of this very thing, that he which began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Jesus Christ: even as it is right for me to be thus minded on behalf of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in my bonds and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers with me of grace. For God is my witness, how I long after all in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; so that ye may approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto the day of Christ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xviii. 23-35.

Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would make a reckoning with his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents. But forasmuch as he had not wherewith to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And the lord of that servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt. But that servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him a hundred pence: and he laid hold on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay what thou owest. So his fellow-servant fell down and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay that which was due. So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were exceeding sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then the lord called him, and saith to him, Thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou besoughtest me: shouldest not thou also have had mercy on thy fellow-servant, even as I had mercy on thee? And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due. So shall also my heavenly Father do unto you, if ye forgive not every one his brother from your hearts.

THE TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Phil. iii. 17-21.

Brethren, be ye imitators together of me, and mark them which so walk even as ye have us for an example. For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is perdition, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things. For our citizenship is in heaven; from whence we also wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ; who shall fashion anew the body of our humiliation, that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working whereby he is able even to subject all things unto himself.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xxii. 15-22.

Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might ensnare him in his talk. And they send to him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, and carest not for any one: for thou regardest not the person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? They say unto him, Cæsar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's. And when they heard it, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

THE TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. Col. i. 9-14.

For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray and make request for you, that ye may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, to walk worthily of the Lord unto all pleasing, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, unto all patience and longsuffering with joy; giving thanks unto the Father, who made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the kingdom of the Son of his love; in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. ix. 18-26.

While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live. And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples. And behold, a woman, who had an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: for she said within herself, If I do but touch his garment, I shall be made whole. But Jesus turning and seeing her said, Daughter, be of good cheer; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour. And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute-players, and the crowd making a tumult, he said, Give place: for the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. But when the crowd was put forth, he entered in, and took her by the hand; and the damsel arose. And the fame hereof went forth into all that land.

THE TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Thess. iv. 13-18.

But we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that fall asleep; that ye sorrow not, even as the rest, which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also that are fallen asleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we that are alive, that are left unto the coming of the Lord, shall in no wise precede them that are fallen asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven, with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be caught up in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xxiv. 15-28.

When therefore ye see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let him that readeth understand), then let them that are in Judæa flee unto the mountains: let him that is on the housetop not go down to take out the things that are in his house: and let him that is in the field not return back to take his cloke. But woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on a sabbath: for then shall be great tribulation, such as hath not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ, or, Here; believe it not. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. Behold, I have told you beforehand. If therefore they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the wilderness; go not forth: Behold, he is in the inner chambers; believe it not. For as the lightning cometh forth from the east, and it is seen even unto the west; so shall be the coming of the Son of man. Wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

THE TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. 2. Peter iii. 3-14.

Know this first, that in the last days mockers shall come with mockery, walking after their own lusts, and saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. For this they wilfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth compacted out of water and amidst water, by the word of God; by which means the world then was, being overflowed with water, perished: but the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word, have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

But forget not this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but is longsuffering to you-ward, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works therein shall be burned up. Seeing that these things are thus all to be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy living and godliness, looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, by reason of which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for these things, give diligence that ye may be found in peace, without spot and blameless in his sight.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xxv. 31-46.

But when the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then shall he sit on the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all the nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as the shepherd separateth the sheep from the goats: and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: for I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in; naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or athirst, and gave thee drink? And when saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? And when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren, even these least, ye did it unto me. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels: for I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not. Then shall they also answer, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not unto one of these least, ye did it not unto me. And these shall go away into eternal punishment: but the righteous into eternal life.

THE TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Thess. v. 1-11.

But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that aught to be written unto you. For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. When they are saying, Peace and safety, then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall in no wise escape. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief: for ye are all sons of light, and sons of the day: we are not of the night nor of darkness; so then let us not sleep, as do the rest, but let us watch and be sober. For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night. But let us, since we are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. For God appointed us not unto wrath, but unto the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. Wherefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as also ye do.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xxv. 1-18.

Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were foolish, and five were wise. For the foolish, when they took their lamps, took no oil with them: but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. Now while the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. But at midnight there is a cry, Behold, the bridegroom! Come ye forth to meet him. Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are going out. But the wise answered, saying, Peradventure there will not be enough for us and you: go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went away to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage feast: and the door was shut. Afterward come also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not. Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour.

OTHER FESTIVALS GENERALLY OBSERVED BY THE EVANGELICAL CHURCH.

FESTIVAL OF REFORMATION, On Sunday Nearest October 31st.

THE EPISTLE. Gal. ii. 16-21.

Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, save through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a minister of sin? God forbid. For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a transgressor. For I through the law died unto the law, that I might live unto God. I have been crucified with Christ; yet I live; and yet no longer I, but Christ liveth in me: and that life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me. I do not make void the grace of God: for if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nought.

THE GOSPEL. St. John ii. 13-21.

And the passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. And he found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: and he made a scourge of cords, and cast all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables; and to them that sold the doves he said, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house a house of merchandise.

FESTIVAL OF HARVEST.

THE EPISTLE. Acts xiv. 15-17.

Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these vain things unto the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is: who in the generations gone by suffered all the nations to walk their own ways. And yet he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave you from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness.

THE EPISTLES AND GOSPELS.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xii. 13-21.

And one out of the multitude said unto him, Master, bid my brother divide the inheritance with me. But he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you? And he said unto them, Take heed, and keep yourselves from all covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully; and he reasoned within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have not where to bestow my fruits? And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater and there will I bestow all my corn and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, be merry. But God said unto him, Thou foolish one, this night is thy soul required of thee; and the things which thou hast prepared, whose shall they be? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

NATIONAL THANKSGIVING-DAY. Last Thursday in November.

THE EPISTLE. 1. Tim. ii. 1-8.

I exhort therefore, first of all, that supplications, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; for kings and all that are in high place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and gravity. This is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; who willeth that all men should be saved, and come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, one mediator also between God and men, himself man, Christ Jesus, who gave himself a ransom for all; the testimony to be borne in its own times; whereunto I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I speak the truth, I lie not), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

THE GOSPEL. Psalm cv. 40-45.

The people asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven. He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river. For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant. And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with gladness: And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people; that they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. Praise ye the Lord.

THE HISTORY OF THE PASSION OF JESUS CHRIST, OUR LORD,

As Recorded by the Four Evangelists.

Part First.—The Introduction.

Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. There they made him a supper in the house of Simon the leper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him. And as he sat at meat, there came Mary having an alabaster cruse of ointment of spikenard, very costly: and she brake the cruse, and poured it over his head, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the odor of the ointment. Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him: Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor! This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and having the bag took away what was put therein. And some of the other disciples, when they saw it, had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. And they murmured against her. But Jesus perceiving it said unto them, Let her alone; why trouble ye the woman? she hath wrought a good work on me. For ye have the poor always with you, and whenever ye will ye can do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she hath anointed my body aforehand for the burying. And verily I say unto you, Wheresoever the gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, that also which this woman hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her. ⁽¹⁾

On the next day a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took the branches of the palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried out, Hosanna, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel! And Jesus, having found an young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, bare witness, For this cause also the multitude went and met him, for that they heard that he had done his sign. The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Behold, how ye prevail nothing: lo, the world is gone after him. ⁽²⁾

Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover. And Jesus said unto his disciples, Ye know that after two days the feast of the Passover, and the Son of man is delivered up to be crucified. Then were gathered together the chief priests, and the elders of the people, unto the court of the high-priest, who was called Caiphas; and they took counsel together that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him. But they said, Not during the feast, lest a tumult arise among the people; for they feared the people. ⁽³⁾

THE HISTORY OF THE PASSION OF JESUS CHRIST, OUR LORD.

Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests and captains and communed with them how he might betray him unto them, and said: What are ye willing to give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And they weighed unto him thirty pieces of silver. And he consented, and sought opportunity to deliver him unto them in the absence of the multitude. ⁽¹⁾

Part Second.—The Last Supper of Jesus with His Disciples.

And on the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and make ready that thou mayest eat the passover? And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat. And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare? And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water, follow him into the house where he entereth in. And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples, where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he shall show you a large upper room furnished; there make ready. And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. ⁽²⁾

And in the evening he cometh with the twelve, and he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him. And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer! For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And he took the cup, gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: for I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. ⁽³⁾

And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. And he said unto them: The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors. But ye shall not be so; but he that is the greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is the chief, as he that doth serve. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth. Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me, that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. ⁽⁴⁾

Now Jesus knowing that his hour was come, that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end. And during supper the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came forth from God, riseth from supper, and layeth aside his garments; and he took a towel, and girded himself. Then he poureth water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. So he cometh to Simon Peter. He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt understand hereafter. Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith unto him, He that is bathed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. For he knew him that should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean. So when he had washed their feet, and taken his garments and sat down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? Ye call me, Master, and, Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, the Lord and the Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye also should do as I have done to you. Verily, verily, I say unto you, A servant is not greater than his lord; neither one that is sent is greater than he that sent him. If ye know these things, blessed are ye if ye do them. I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth my bread lifted up his heel against me. From henceforth I tell you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. ⁽¹⁾

When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. The disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake. And they were exceedingly sorrowful and began to say unto him every one, Is it I, Lord? And he said unto them, It is one of the twelve, he that dippeth with me in the disk. And as they were eating, Jesus took the bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave to them, saying, Take, eat; this is my body, which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it. This cup is the New Testament in my blood, which is shed for you and for many for the remission of sins; this do ye, as oft as you drink it, in remembrance of me, and they all drank of it. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom. ⁽²⁾

There was at the table reclining in Jesus' bosom one of his disciples whom Jesus loved. Simon Peter therefore beckoneth to him, and saith unto him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake. He leaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? Jesus therefore answereth, He it is, for whom I shall dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. And he said, For the son of man goeth, even as it is written of him: but woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had not been born. And Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Is it I, Rabbi? He saith unto him, Thou hast said. And after the sop, then entered Satan into him. Jesus therefore saith unto him, That thou doest, do quickly. Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor. He then, having received the sop, went immediately out; and it was night. ⁽³⁾

When therefore Judas was gone out, Jesus saith, Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him; if God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him. Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me, and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say unto you. A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow afterwards. Peter saith unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee even now? I will lay down my life for thee. Jesus answereth, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me? Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat; but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not; and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren. And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee both in prison and to death. And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, until thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. ⁽¹⁾

Part Third.—Christ's Agony at Gethsemane and Arrest.

And when they had sung a hymn and Jesus having spoken many things unto them (See St. John xiv-xvii.) he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, as was his custom unto the Mount of Olives. And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered. But after I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee. But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I. And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice! But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise! Likewise also said they all. ⁽²⁾

And he said unto them, When I sent you forth without purse, and wallet, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing. Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his wallet: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one. For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, and he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end. And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough. ⁽³⁾

Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, where was a garden, into the which he entered himself and his disciples. Now Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples. And when Jesus was at the place, he said unto them: Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder. Pray, that ye enter not into temptation! And he took with him Peter and James and John, the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be greatly amazed, and sore troubled. And he saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death; abide ye here, and watch with me. And he went forward a little, about a stone's cast; and he kneeled down, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; remove this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt. And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? Couldst thou not watch one hour? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy, neither wist they what to answer him. And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me; nevertheless, not my will, but thine, be done. And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him. And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it was great drops of blood falling down to the ground. And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, and said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise, let us be going, behold, he is at hand that doth betray me. ⁽⁴⁾

THE HISTORY OF THE PASSION

And straightway, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, having received the band of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches, with swords and staves, and went before them. Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were coming upon him, went forth, and saith unto them, Whom seek ye? They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, was standing with them. When therefore he said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground. Again therefore he asked them, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered, I told you that I am he; if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way, that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, Of those whom thou hast given me I lost not one. Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; hold him fast. And forthwith Judas came to Jesus, and said, Hail Master; and kissed him. And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore didst thou come, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? ⁽¹⁾

Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword? And one of them, Simon Peter, having a sword, smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. Now the servant's name was Malchus. And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed it. Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up again thy sword into its place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword; the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it? Thinkest thou that I cannot beseech my Father, and he shall even now send me more than twelve legions of angels? But how then shall the Scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be? ⁽²⁾

In that same hour Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and elders, which were come against him, Are ye come out, as against a robber, with swords and staves to seize me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me, but this is your hour, and the power of darkness. But all this was done, that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled. And a certain young man followed with him, having a linen cloth cast about him, over his naked body: and they lay hold on him; but he left the linen cloth and fled naked. ⁽³⁾

Part Fourth.—Jesus' Trial Before the Council.—Peter's Denial.

Then the band of soldiers and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, and led him away to Annas first; for he was father-in-law to Caiphas, which was the high priest that same year. Now Caiphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people. The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrines. Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort: and in secret I have said nothing. Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said. And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the highpriest so? Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? Annas therefore sent him bound unto Caiphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. ⁽⁴⁾

And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Now that disciple was known unto the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; but Peter was standing at the door without. So the other disciple, which was known unto the highpriest, went out and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not, and went in, and sat with the servants to see the end. And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals, for it was cold; and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself. There cometh one of the maids of the high priest; and when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him and said, Thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth. But he denied before them all, saying, I know not, neither understand I, what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew. ⁽¹⁾

Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death, but found none. For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together. At the last came two false witnesses, and said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, made with hands, and to build another within three days, made without hands. But neither so did their witness agree together. And the high priest stood up in the midst and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? But Jesus held his peace. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? I adjure thee by the living God that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. Jesus said unto him, Thou hast said: I am; nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy. What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death! ⁽²⁾

Now one of the servants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, saith to Peter, Did I not see thee in the garden with him? And another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him, for he is a Galilean. And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech betrayeth thee. Then began he to curse and swear, saying, I know not the man, of whom ye speak. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew the second time. And the Lord turned and looked upon Peter. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And Peter went out, and wept bitterly. ⁽³⁾

And the men that held Jesus mocked him, some began to spit in his face, and buffeted him; and they blindfolded him, beat him, and asked him, saying, Prophecy: who is he that struck thee? And many other things spake they against him, reviling him. ⁽⁴⁾

Now when the morning was come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death. ⁽⁵⁾

Then Judas, which betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying, I have sinned in that I betrayed innocent blood. But they said, What is that to us? see thou to that. And he cast down the pieces of silver, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood. And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was priced whom they of the children of Israel did price; and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me. ⁽⁶⁾

Part Fifth.—Trial Before Pilate.

And the whole company of them rose up, and bound Jesus and led him away from Caiphas unto the hall of judgment, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate, the governor; and it was early. ⁽¹⁾

And the Jews themselves entered not into the judgment hall, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the passover. Pilate therefore went out unto them, and saith, What accusation bring ye against this man? They answered and said unto him, If this man were not an evil-doer, we should not have delivered him up unto thee. Pilate therefore said unto them, Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should die. ⁽²⁾

And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this man perverting our nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, and saying that he himself is Christ a king. Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew! Thine own nation, and the chief priests, have delivered thee unto me. What hast thou done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all. ⁽³⁾

And when the chief priests and elders accused him of many things, he answered nothing. Then said Pilate unto him, Answerest thou nothing? Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? And he gave him no answer, not even a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly. ⁽⁴⁾

But they were the more urgent, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Judæa, and beginning from Galilee even unto this place. But when Pilate heard it, he asked whether the man were a Galilæan. And when he knew that he was of Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him unto Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem in these days. Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad, for he was of a long time desirous to see him, because he had heard concerning him; and he hoped to see some miracle done by him. And he questioned him in many words; but he answered him nothing. And the chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him. And Herod with his soldiers set him at nought, and mocked him, and arraying him in gorgeous apparel sent him back to Pilate. And Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day; for before they were at enmity between themselves. ⁽⁵⁾

And Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, and said unto them, Ye brought unto me this man, as one that perverteth the people: and behold, I, having examined him before you, found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: no, nor yet Herod: for he sent him back unto us; and behold, nothing worthy of death hath been done by him. I will therefore chastise him, and release him. ⁽⁶⁾

OF JESUS CHRIST, OUR LORD.

Now at the feast the governor was wont to release unto the people one prisoner, whom they would. And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas, lying bound with them that had made insurrection, men who in the insurrection had committed murder. And the multitude went up and began to ask him to do as he was wont to do unto them. But Pilate answered them, saying, Ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover, Who will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ, the King of the Jews? For he perceived that for envy the chief priests had delivered him up. And while he was sitting on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that righteous man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. ⁽¹⁾

Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded and stirred up the multitude, that they should ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. But the governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? But they cried out all together, saying, Away with this man and release unto us Barabbas! Now Barabbas was a robber. And Pilate spake unto them again, desiring to release Jesus, saith unto them, What then shall I do unto Jesus which is called Christ? They all cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him. I will therefore chastise him, and let him go. And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him: and the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed. ⁽²⁾

Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers led him away within the court, which is the Prætorium; and gathered unto him the whole band. And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe. And they plaited a crown of thorns and put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! And they spit upon him, and took the reed and smote him on the head. ⁽³⁾

Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him. Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man. When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid; and went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not to me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee? Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin. And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar!

When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he said unto the Jews, Behold your King! But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar. ⁽⁴⁾

When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person; see ye to it. Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. And Pilate, wishing to content the multitude released unto them Barabbas, that for insurrection and murder had been cast into prison, whom they asked for; but Jesus, when he had scourged him, he delivered up to their will to be crucified. ⁽¹⁾

Part Sixth.—Jesus Christ's Crucifixion and Death.

And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the robe, and put on him his garments, and led him away to crucify him. And he went out, bearing the cross for himself, unto the place called The Place of a Skull, which is called in Hebrew Golgatha. And when they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus; him they compelled, to go with them, that he might bear his cross, and laid the cross on him. ⁽²⁾

And there followed him a great multitude of the people, and of women who bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. For behold, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the breasts that never gave suck. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. For if they do these things in the green tree, what shall be done in the dry.

And there were also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death. ⁽³⁾

And when they were come unto a place called Golgatha, they gave him wine to drink mingled with myrrh; and when he tasted it, he would not drink it and received it not. ⁽⁴⁾

There they crucified him and with him two robbers, one on the right hand, and one on the left, and Jesus in the midst: And it was the third hour, that they crucified him, ⁽⁵⁾

And Jesus said, FATHER, FORGIVE THEM; FOR THEY KNOW NOT WHAT THEY DO. ⁽⁶⁾

The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also a coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore one to another, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my garments among them, And upon my vesture did they cast lots, These things therefore the soldiers did. And they sat and watched him there. ⁽⁷⁾

And they set up over his head his accusation. And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross; and the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title then read many of the Jews; for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek and Latin. Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written I have written. ⁽⁸⁾

And the people stood beholding. And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ha! thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself, and come down from the cross. In like manner also the chief priests mocking him among themselves with the scribes said, He saved others; himself he cannot save. If this is the Christ of God, his chosen, the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe. He trusteth on God; let him deliver him now, if he desireth him; for he said, I am the Son of God. ⁽¹⁾

And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, Art not thou the Christ? Save thyself and us. But the other answered, and rebuking him said, Dost thou not even fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. And he said, Jesus, remember me when thou comest in thy kingdom. And he said unto him, VERILY I SAY UNTO THEE, TO-DAY SHALT THOU BE WITH ME IN PARADISE. ⁽²⁾

But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, WOMAN, BEHOLD, THY SON! Then saith he to the disciple, BEHOLD, THY MOTHER! And from that hour the disciple took her unto his own home. ⁽³⁾

And it was now about the sixth hour, and a darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour, the sun's light failing. And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, ELI, ELI, LAMA SABACHTHANI? that is to say, MY GOD, MY GOD, WHY HAST THOU FORSAKEN ME? And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elijah. ⁽⁴⁾

After this Jesus, knowing that all things are now finished, that the scripture might be accomplished, saith, I THIRST. Now there was set there a vessel full of vinegar; and one ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him. ⁽⁵⁾

When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is FINISHED!

And Jesus cried again with a loud voice, and said, FATHER, INTO THY HANDS I COMMEND MY SPIRIT! And having said this, he bowed his head, and yielded up his spirit. ⁽⁶⁾

And behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake; and the rocks were rent; and the tombs were opened; and many bodies of the saints that had fallen asleep were raised; and coming forth out of the tombs after his resurrection they entered into the holy city and appeared unto many. ⁽⁷⁾

Now the centurion which stood by over against him, and they that were with him watching Jesus, when they saw the earth quake, and the things that were done and that he so gave up his ghost, feared exceedingly and glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man, Truly this was the Son of God! And all the multitudes that came together to this sight, when they beheld the things that were done, returned smiting their breasts, ⁽⁸⁾

And all his acquaintance and the women that followed him from Galilee and ministered unto him, stood afar off, seeing these things. Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the Less, and of Joses, and Salome the mother of Zebedee's children, and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem. ⁽⁹⁾

The Jews therefore, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. Therefore the soldiers came, and brake the legs of the first, and the other which was crucified with him, but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs, but one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came out blood and water. And he that hath seen hath borne witness, and his witness is true: and he knoweth that he said true, that ye also may believe. For these things came to pass, that the scripture might be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced. ⁽¹⁾

Part Seventh.—Christ's Burial.

And when the even was now come, because it was the Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, there came a rich man from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, named Joseph, a counsellor of honorable estate. He was a good and righteous man and had not consulted to their counsel and deed, which had also awaited for the kingdom of God, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews. And he boldly went in unto Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion he asked him whether he had been any while dead. And when he learned it of the centurion, he commanded, that the corpse be granted to Joseph. And he bought a clean linen cloth and took down the body of Jesus. ⁽²⁾

And there came also Nicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pound weight. So they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. ⁽³⁾

Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb, Joseph's own new tomb, hewn out in the rock, where in never man before was laid. There laid they Jesus therefore, because of the Jews' preparation day, for the tomb was nigh at hand. And the women which had come with him out of Galilee and Mary Magdalene and Mary Jones, followed after and, sitting over against the sepulchre, beheld the sepulchre and how his body was laid. And Joseph rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments. And on the sabbath they rested according to the commandment, ⁽⁴⁾

Now on the next day that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees were gathered together unto Pilate, saying, Sir, we remember, that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I rise again. Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest haply his disciples come and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead; and the last error will be worse than the first. Pilate said unto them, Ye have a guard: go your way, make it as sure as ye can, So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, the guard being with them. ⁽⁵⁾

FORMS OF PRAYER

That may be used for Devotions at Home.

SUNDAY MORNING.

Almighty and everlasting God, Source of all being, and Fountain of all good; we Thy children, created by Thee, continually preserved by Thee, and indebted to Thee for all that we possess and all that we enjoy, would come before Thee this morning, to express our sense of Thy goodness to us, to acknowledge our dependence upon Thee, to adore Thy greatness, and commend ourselves to Thy care.

Glory be to Thy Name that Thou hast made us capable of holding communion with Thee, the Father of our spirits, and of receiving the revelations of Thy word and will. Glory be to thy name for the heavenly doctrines, precepts, and provinces of the gospel of Thy Son. We make it our earnest prayer to Thee, that our hearts be touched by its holy influences, that our characters may be formed by its spirit, that our lives may be governed by its laws. O guide us, we beseech Thee, in the ways of its truth to the everlasting home which it promises to the righteous.

Let our attendance this day on Thy public worship, and the services and instructions of Thy house, conduce to our spiritual improvement and our eternal good. Let us enter Thy gates with thanksgiving, and Thy courts with praise, and take with us our best affections and resolutions to the temple of the Lord. Let our prayers and meditations exalt and purify us, and assist us to discharge our duties in this life, and contribute to prepare us for that eternal world to which we are rapidly hastening.

Bless all who call upon Thy name this day. May they approach Thee in sincerity, humility and love. May all denominations of Christians, however divided in opinion, be joined together in the bond of peace and an earnest regard for the interests of true religion and virtue. We offer these our petitions in the Name of Jesus Christ, Thy well-beloved Son; ascribing to Thee, the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, all glory and honor, might, majesty and dominion, now and for evermore. Amen.

SUNDAY EVENING.

Our Father, who art in heaven; accept, we beseech Thee, our grateful acknowledgments for Thy goodness to us this day; for preserving our lives; for shielding us from danger; for supplying our daily bread; for permitting our attendance on the ordinances of Thy house. Let it not be in vain that those of us who have united with Thy people in public worship, have lifted up our thoughts to God, and listened to the voice of instruction. We fervently pray that whatever good impressions may have been made upon us may be durable; that whatever good resolutions we may have formed may be steadfastly kept; that the errors which we have confessed may be reformed; that every devout aspiration we may have breathed in the sanctuary, may be remembered in the world to guard us against temptation, and preserve us holy and undefiled. Help us all to set our affections on things above. Keep ever in our minds, a lively sense of our responsibility to Thee. May we constantly live as in Thy world, in Thy sight, as Thy subjects, Thy creatures, Thy children. Let it be our study at home and abroad, by day and night, to love and fear Thee as we ought, and to do those things which are well pleasing in Thy sight.

FORMS OF PRAYER THAT MAY BE USED

Enable us to become true followers of Thy Son Jesus Christ in all things; to clothe ourselves with His humility, purity and benevolence. Let Thy will, as it was His, be ours also. Like Him, may we go about doing good. May the contemplation of His character, and imitation of His example, bring us constantly nearer His own perfection, and to those mansions of everlasting happiness which He has promised to His disciples, and gone before to prepare for them.

Watch over us during the darkness of this night, and the defenceless hours of sleep; preserve us from all dangers; and bring us to the light of another morning more inclined to love Thee, and resolved to serve Thee, than we ever have been. Accept our evening sacrifice of prayer and praise, which we offer in the Name of Jesus Christ our most blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

MONDAY MORNING.

Great and glorious Lord our God; we, Thy servants, whom Thou hast brought to see the light of another morning, prostrate ourselves before Thee, and humbly acknowledge Thee as the God of our lives, and the Giver of all good. It is Thou who sustainest us in the defenceless hours of sleep, and when we awake we are still with Thee. Encompassed by the same care which guarded us by night, we go forth to the occupations of the day. O God, our trust is in Thee. Give us grace to perform our duty faithfully; to use this world as not abusing it; to hold fast our integrity as long as we live; to remember that Thou seest us always, and that we must render a final account of all that we do to Thee, the Witness and the Judge of men.

We thank Thee, O most merciful Father, for our domestic ties and family blessings. May we, the members of this household, mutually endeavor to discharge our several duties to each other with tenderness and fidelity. Let the gentle and pure spirit of the blessed Jesus possess our hearts, and influence our conduct. Let tranquility, harmony and love abide in our dwelling, and the voice of health and cheerfulness be continually heard in it. Wilt Thou extend Thy loving kindness to all our friends. Delight in their happiness here, and make them heirs of the inheritance of the saints in the future and eternal world.

O Thou, whose blessing is on the habitation of the just, let us be the joyful objects of that blessing, now and evermore. O God, hear us in Thy great mercy; pity our sins; and from our united hearts accept this tribute of devotion, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MONDAY EVENING.

O Thou who dwellest in the heavens, but whom the heaven of heavens cannot contain, unto Thee do we lift up our souls. Thou art never far from any of us, and we cannot flee from thy presence. If we say, the darkness shall hide us, soon the night shall be light about us; for the darkness and the light are both alike to Thee. Thou seest us at this moment, and discernest every thought and intention of our hearts. Thou art acquainted with all our ways, and there is not a word in our tongue, but lo, O Lord, Thou knowest it altogether. When discouraged by difficulties, let us look up to Thee from whom our help cometh; and when distressed by calamity, may we take refuge in Thy mercy, and find peace by staying our minds on the eternal One. Through life may we act always as seeing Him who is invisible. In death may we find our consolation in the presence of Him, who, when flesh and heart fail, will be the strength of our heart and our portion for ever.

FOR DEVOTIONS AT HOME.

Accept our thanks, most merciful Father, for Thy great goodness in bringing us to the close of another day, in the enjoyment of so many blessings. While we gratefully receive the gifts of Thy bounty, let us not incur the guilt of loving the creature more than the Creator, or of laying up treasure on earth to the neglect of our treasure in heaven; but help us so to pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not things eternal.

Graciously regard whatever of duty we have this day performed. Forgive whatever has been sinful in us. Let no evil come near us or our dwelling in the night; and bring us to the morning rejoicing still in Thy great goodness, and praising Thee, the Father of all mercies, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TUESDAY MORNING.

Almighty God, Maker of all things, whose we are, and on whom we entirely depend; we bless Thee that Thou hast kept us during the past night; that Thou hast refreshed us with grateful slumbers; that Thou hast preserved us from the dangers which walk in darkness, and hast opened our eyes on the light of another day. We acknowledge, O God, that these are but a small part of Thy mercies. Thou hast been always with us; Thou art continually doing us good. All the blessings which we enjoy, or have enjoyed, come down from Thee, the Father and Friend of all.

O teach us how to thank Thee as we ought; to show forth Thy praise not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to Thy service, and by walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days. Let us cherish that faith which is imbibed from a pure doctrine, and is manifested by a holy life. Let us cultivate that piety which deeply reverences and supremely loves a Being of infinite perfection, and which produces, as its natural fruit, a sincere love for all mankind. May every day of our lives be marked by some valuable improvement, some act of virtue, some victory over temptation and passion. May we be continually advancing nearer to perfection, to the moral likeness of our Saviour, and to Thy rest and happiness above.

O God, we look to Thee for Thy protection through this Day, keep us from danger, from sickness, and from falling into sin. Enable us to be useful to society, and to obtain the approbation of those whom we love. Let us especially conduct ourselves this day, and through all days, as to secure Thy favor which is life, and Thy loving kindness which is better than life. We ask all things in the Name, and as disciples of Thy beloved Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

TUESDAY EVENING.

Ever gracious and indulgent God, who hast brought us to the close of this day in safety and peace; we render Thee our devout thanksgivings for the mercies which we have experienced, and commend ourselves to Thy continued protection.

We therefore pray Thee, O Father, that above all things Thou wouldst assist us in loving and serving Thee. What our lot shall be, we leave to Thy wise providence; but O teach us, under all circumstances, to be grateful to Thee in prosperity, and resigned to Thy will in affliction and distress. Inspire our hearts with a purer love to Thee; enlighten our minds with heavenly wisdom; and make our desires conform themselves to Thy purposes. Let gratitude be the pervading disposition of our souls. May we always feel that we are Thy children; that we have received from Thee infinitely more than we deserve; and that the least return which we can make to Thee, is, to be contented and cheerful under Thy paternal government.

May our reverence for Thy will and commandments be displayed in our conduct toward our brethren of the human family; so that we may constantly regard them with feelings of pure benevolence, and do unto them as we should wish them to do unto us. Let us go to rest this night at peace with all mankind, and with bosoms free from all envy, hatred, malice and uncharitable-ness; and grant that we may rise up in the morning with a firm resolution to imitate Thee, according to the measure of our humble capacity, by doing good.

Hear, answer, forgive and accept us, O Father in heaven, for Thine infinite mercy's sake in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

O Thou infinite and eternal Spirit, by whose power the world in which we live, and the countless worlds by which we are surrounded, were created from nothing; by whose wisdom they and all that they contain are constantly directed; by whose goodness they are preserved in order, and filled with happiness and beauty; and without whose support, they would all return to the nothing, from which they came: we, Thy dependent offspring, humbly adore that power which displays itself so abundantly wherever we turn our eyes; we adore that wisdom which governs all things rightly, and we bless that goodness by which all things are blessed. We come to Thee this morning with the grateful acknowledgment of our dependence on Thy bounty and protection. We thank Thee for the gospel of Thy Son Jesus Christ; for the heavenly radiance which it has shed on the path of our duty, through the gloom of affliction, and on the bed of death. We thank Thee that it has enabled us to look beyond the bounds of mortality and time and defy the power of danger and death; and that it has promised to the faithful servants of God, and true disciples of Christ, those glorious rewards of a future life, which eye has never seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man conceived.

All is from Thee; all joy, all support, all improvement, all hope. O may we become worthy of Thy mercies, by receiving them as from Thee, and using them according to Thy will, by renouncing and avoiding all that is evil, and following after, and cleaving to all that is good; by living and dying in Thy fear and love. And when we come to die, may we be able to look back on a life not uselessly spent, and forward to a blessed immortality.

Hear us, O Father, in heaven where Thou dwellest, and accept us in the Name of Jesus Christ our Redeemer; as whose disciples we address Thee, and through whom we ascribe unto Thee everlasting honors. Amen.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

O God, the unchangeable and everlasting Fountain of life, perfection and happiness; we lift up our hearts unto Thee, the greatest, wisest and best of beings. Grant that we may increase in the knowledge of Thee, day by day; that we may constantly attain more pure and worthy conceptions of Thy nature and providence; that we may manifest a more becoming reverence for Thy perfections, and a truer concern for Thy honor and service.

O Thou who art love, and who dwellest in love, let us humbly imitate Thy constant and universal goodness. May we behave in our several stations with integrity and benevolence, and discover the real spirit of piety and goodness in all the relations of life. May we walk within our houses with perfect hearts; be affectionate and faithful to our friends, and just and kind to all men. May we put on the ornament of a meek, compassionate, forgiving spirit; and may every good and generous disposition be daily improving in our breasts, until we become fit for that happy kingdom, where love, and peace, and joy forever reign.

We also pray Thee, O God, to teach us in the knowledge and the government of ourselves: may we keep our hearts with all diligence, amidst all the trials and changes of the world; in prosperity may we be humble, temperate and charitable; in adversity may we be patient, and wholly resigned to Thy will.

O God, we pray Thee, to bless our country, our rulers, our friends, the churches of Christ, the ministers of religion, the instructors of youth, the rising generation, and all the means of establishing, preserving and diffusing the principles of liberty and virtue. Keep us this night by Thine almighty power; be always our Defender, Guide and Friend; and to Thee, the infinite and eternal God, we will ascribe continually all glory, honor, and praise, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THURSDAY MORNING.

O thou great Creator, Governor and Supporter of men; Thou dwellest in light, and art the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness or shadow of turning. Grateful for the care which Thou hast exercised over us during the night past, we would cheerfully submit ourselves to Thy guidance through the day upon which we have entered.

Thou prolongest our lives, that we may attain more and more to the true end of life. May this day witness some improvement in knowledge, piety and virtue. May it witness our diligence in that occupation to which Thou hast called us. We desire and purpose to keep our consciences void of offence, and to abstain from every action offensive to the eye of Divine purity; but the experience which we have had of our frailty, makes us diffident of our strength. Our confidence is in Thy power to strengthen our faith, invigorate our obedience, and cause us to run in the way of Thy commandments. We implore Thine aid, that we may walk before Thee this day, and all the days of our lives. Smile on our endeavors after improvement and usefulness; enable us to make every day some progress in a holy life; teach us to feel the uncertainty and value of our days on earth; and when they shall be numbered and finished, receive us into the light and bliss of Thy glorious presence, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THURSDAY EVENING.

O God, the Father of mercies, the God of love, and of all consolation; we thank Thee, that Thou hast created us in Thine own image; implanted in our hearts a sense of good and evil; and called us to the fear and love of Thee, the greatest and best of beings. We praise Thee for our continual support, and for all the comforts of our lives. Thou givest us health and fruitful seasons, and fillest our hearts with food and gladness. Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits.

Take us, merciful Father, under Thine almighty protection, through this night, and the remaining part of our lives; enable us, under all the changes of this world, to do that which is right in Thy sight. If, through Thy kind providence, we spend our days in prosperity, may we beware lest we forget Thee in our abundance. Under all the troubles of life, may the consolations of religion sustain our spirits; and in the hour of death, let Thy mighty power support us, and let Thy mercy, O God, be upon us. Command Thy blessing upon Thy servants, even life for evermore.

We pray unto Thee, O gracious God, in behalf of all our friends. Supply their wants out of the stores of Thy bounty; let Thy watchful providence evermore defend them from evil; and let Thy goodness and mercy follow them all the days of their lives.

We address our united devotions unto Thee, the Giver of all good things, in the Name and as the disciples of Jesus Christ; and now unto the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords, dwelling in the light to which no man can approach, whom no man hath seen or can see, be honor and power everlasting. Amen.

FRIDAY MORNING.

Almighty and everlasting God, in whom we live, and move, and have our being; we, Thy needy creatures, render Thee our humble praises, for Thy preservation of us from the beginning of our lives to this day. We thank Thee for refreshing us with the slumbers, and guarding us from the dangers of the past night. For all Thy mercies we bless and magnify Thy glorious Name; humbly beseeching Thee to accept this our morning sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving.

FORMS OF PRAYER THAT MAY BE USED

And since it is by Thy mercy, O gracious Father, that another day is added to our lives, we here dedicate both our souls and our bodies to Thee and Thy service in a sober, righteous and godly life; in which resolution do Thou, O merciful God, confirm and strengthen us; that as we grow in age, we may grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

In particular, we implore Thy grace and protection for the ensuing day. Keep us temperate in our meats and drinks, and diligent in our several callings. Grant us patience under any afflictions Thou shalt see fit to lay on us, and minds always contented with our present condition. Give us grace to be just and upright in all our dealings; quiet and peaceable; full of compassion; ready to do good unto all men, according to our abilities and opportunities. Direct us in all our ways, and prosper the works of our hands in the righteous business of our several stations. Defend us from all dangers and adversities; and be graciously pleased to take us, and all things belonging to us, under Thy fatherly care and protection. These things, and whatever else Thou shalt see necessary and convenient for us, we humbly beg in the Name and as the disciples of Jesus Christ, our blessed Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

FRIDAY EVENING.

Most merciful God, who art of purer eyes than to behold iniquity, and hast promised forgiveness to all who confess and forsake their sins; we come before Thee this evening in an humble sense of our unworthiness, acknowledging our transgressions of Thy righteous laws.

Reward all who have done us good, and pardon all those who have done or wish us evil, and give them repentance and better minds. Be merciful to all who are in trouble; and of Thine abundant goodness minister unto them according to their several necessities.

To our prayers, O Lord, we join our unfeigned thanks for all Thy mercies; for our being, our reason, and all other endowments and faculties of the soul and body; for our health, friends, food and raiment, and the other comforts and conveniences of life. Above all, we adore Thy mercy in sending Thy Son into the world to redeem us from sin and death, and to show us the Father. We bless Thee for Thy patience with us; for the assistance of Thy Holy Spirit; for Thy continual care and watchful providence over us through the whole course of our lives. We pray Thee to continue Thy blessings to us; and to give us grace to show our thankfulness in a sincere obedience to Thy laws.

We beseech Thee to protect us this night. Defend us from all dangers, and give us such refreshing sleep as may fit us for the duties of the following day. Make us ever mindful of the time when we shall lie down in the dust; and grant us grace always to live in such a state, that we may never be afraid to die; so that living and dying we may be Thine, and Thine for evermore. We ask all in the Name of Thy Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

SATURDAY MORNING.

O God, our Creator and heavenly Father, in whom we live and move and have our being; we, Thy needy creatures, render Thee our humble praises, for Thy preservation of us from the beginning of our lives to this day and especially for Thy watchful providence, that no disturbance hath come nigh us or our dwelling during the past night, but that we are brought in safety to the beginning of this day. We bless and magnify Thy glorious Name: humbly beseeching Thee to accept this our morning sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving for His sake, who lay down in the grave, and rose again for us, Thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ.

We would, O gracious Father, dedicate both our souls and our bodies to Thee and Thy service, in a sober, righteous, and godly life; in which resolution, do Thou, O merciful God, confirm and strengthen us; that, as we grow in age, we may grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

But O God, who knowest the weakness and corruption of our nature, and the manifold temptations which we daily meet with; we pray Thee to have compassion on our infirmities and to give us the assistance of Thy Holy Spirit; that we may be effectually restrained from sin and excited to our duty. Imprint upon our hearts a dread of Thy judgments, and a grateful sense of Thy goodness to us, as may make us both afraid and ashamed to offend Thee. Keep in our minds a lively remembrance of that great day, in which we must give an account of our thoughts, words and actions; and according to the works done in the body, be eternally rewarded or punished, by Him whom Thou hast appointed the Judge of the quick and the dead, Thy Son Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Direct us in all our ways, and prosper the works of our hands in the business of our several stations. Defend us from all dangers and adversities and take us under Thy fatherly care and protection. These things, and whatever Thou shalt see necessary to us, we humbly beg, through the merits and mediation of Thy Son Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

SATURDAY EVENING.

O God, who givest all things: to the stars their light, to the fountains their waters, to the earth its plants, to the fruits their flavor, to the flowers their fragrance, to all nature its abundance and beauty, to man health and reason and manifold bounties;—it is by Thee that we live, that we think, that we labor: may we not forget Him from whom cometh all blessing. O God, who faintest not, neither art weary; whose everlasting work is still fresh as Thy creative thought: we bless Thee for the pity of night and sleep, giving us the rest Thou never needest. We would close this week in Thy Name and retire this evening in peace and thankfulness, and commit the folded hours to Thee. Pity our weakness; and, for the sake of Jesus Christ, forgive us all our sins and numberless shortcomings. Thou knowest the secrets of our hearts. Create within us, O God, a clean heart, and renew a right spirit within us. Send Thy holy angels, spirits of light, that they may keep far from us all evil. Give repentance to the sinful, perseverance to the just, and peace to the sorrowful. O Lord, through toil and repose, save us from any fatal slumber of the spirit; and keep us through life to the holy vigils of love and service, as they that watch for Thy morning of eternity. Let our prayer rise to Thee, O God, and upon us let Thy blessings descend. Amen.

CHRISTMAS.

Glory in the highest heavens be to Thee, O God, who hast proclaimed peace on earth and good-will to men. Thanks for the glad tidings of great joy brought by Jesus Christ our Lord. We rejoice in the yearly celebration of the festival of Christmas and hail the morning that commemorates the birth of Him, who came to this world to redeem mankind from sin, from death and from hell. We adore, O most merciful God and heavenly Father, Thy providence in the coming of this messenger from heaven. Holy is the truth He taught, immortal the hope He inspires. Break our slumbers, and let the light of Christ search our souls and scatter our darkness. Revive the purity and deepen the power of the testimony of Thy church, and, through the dim of earthly interests and the storm of human passions, let it make the still small voice of Thy Spirit inly felt. Nearer and nearer may Thy kingdom come from age to age; meeting the face of the young as a rising dawn. May all people be filled with Christ's spirit of liberty, and ruled by His law of love. Let all superstition and wrong disappear before the religion which came down from heaven, bringing the best of gifts to men. May Thy grace abound and Thy saving truth reign over all nations and in all hearts; and to Thee be praise everlasting. Amen.

SYLVESTER.

O Thou in whose sight a thousand years are but a day and whose years are without beginning or end: we would raise our thoughts to the eternity in which Thou dwellest, and to those things which know no change from glory to glory.

FORMS OF PRAYER THAT MAY BE USED

We render Thee our sincere thanks for Thy word and its blessed truths conveyed to us, for its warnings, consolations, comforts and inspirations towards a better life given to all who would receive it in a faithful and upright heart. Receive the most humble and earnest returns of a glad and thankful heart for the blessings of nature and the blessings of grace, for health and wealth, for the help and support of every minute and the gifts of every day. What are we, O Lord, and what is our fathers' house, that Thou, O great and merciful God of men and angels, shouldst multiply upon us the proofs of Thy loving-kindness?

We mourn that the closing year, with its broken vows and lost opportunities, has so much to fill each of us with shame. May we confess our manifold sins and shortcomings with the earnest desire to forsake them all for ever. Blot out our iniquities through the blood of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ and grant us Thy Spirit, that we may realize that we truly are made partakers of the new and everlasting testament and the covenant of grace.

The departing year has carried hence the hopes and treasures of many hearts. Dear friends have disappeared, whose coming steps we shall hear no more. Bring home to us a sense of our mortality and the brevity of our earthly career. Made wiser by the solemn lessons of the past, may we henceforth walk more worthily of our vocation as children of God. Guide us through the perils of all coming time and at last, when we shall tread the verge of Jordan, may we turn to Thee as our Father and our best Friend and be made partakers of Thy everlasting kingdom of peace and glory, through the merits of our Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

NEW YEAR.

We bow before Thee, O Thou God of our lives, and seek Thy blessing. May the coming year prove a new year indeed, bringing new thoughts, new desires and better resolutions. Happy, thrice happy, will it be for us if it lead us into a new and divine life. Should it bring trial and sorrow, and take from us health and friends, still happy will it be, if, through Thy grace, we are enabled to use it well according to Thy holy word and will, making Jesus Christ, Thy beloved Son, our great and only example. O let not this year be marked by broken vows, by a sinful surrender of our souls to the tyranny of wicked passions, by indolence, and deadness of heart. But may it prove for ever memorable as a year in generous purposes and Christian deeds. By the Divine power of Thy holy Spirit may we convert all the changes of life into opportunities of grace; and so may we be raised above the power of time, and breathe the air of an eternal world, even while we sojourn in this vale of shadows. O may Thy word be our rod, and Thy Son our Guide, that we may dwell in Thy house for ever and ever. Amen.

GOOD FRIDAY.

Almighty God, we beseech Thee graciously to behold this Thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and to suffer death upon the cross. Thou hast not spared Thine only Son, but delivered Him up for us all, that He might bear our sins, that Thou mightest remove from us the power of the adversary and save us from everlasting death. Surely He hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows: He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities. All we like sheep have gone astray: and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

Help us so to remember and give thanks for our Lord's Passion that we may obtain remission of sin. May this holy season of Lent prompt us never to forget what our Saviour accomplished for us, when he languished on the cross and Himself tasted the awful agonies of death. May we thereby at all times be reminded of what we owe Him—a thankful heart and faithful love, true repentance of our sins and a life pleasing in His sight. In the duty of the day strengthen and sustain us; and, in the night of affliction and trouble,

FOR DEVOTIONS AT HOME.

may we look to Thee, beloved Saviour. Comfort us with the assurance that Thou wilt wipe away all tears from our eyes. And when we come to the dark valley of the shadow of death, be Thou our Guide and Comforter, and bring us to the regions of endless day. We commit ourselves entirely to Thy disposal; and whenever we enjoy or suffer, whether we live or die, may we be mercifully accepted at the throne of everlasting peace and glory. Amen.

EASTER.

Lord Jesus Christ, Thou invincible and almighty Victor over sin, death and hell, we give Thee thanks for Thy glorious resurrection, whereby Thou hast conquered death and hast brought unto light everlasting life. Thou art the almighty Lord and livest from eternity to eternity. Thou hast saved Thy people from death and redeemed it from hell. Death, where is thy sting? Hell, where is thy victory?

Thou hast destroyed death and wipest all tears from our eyes. Our hearts are filled with gladness and our soul exultingly blesses Thy Name. Thou truly art the resurrection and the life. Whosoever believeth in Thee, will live, even if he die. Thou art the life of the faithful, hence they can never die.

O blessed Lord, Thou camest forth like the beautiful dawn of morn. Now Thou impartest to Thy people Thy everlasting peace, which encompasseth all heavenly bounties,—the mercy of God, forgiveness of sins, righteousness, comfort, victory, eternal joy, eternal life. O may the sweet, comforting, living peace of Christ's resurrection permeate our hearts and fill our souls with joy.

Help us, dear Lord, to arise unto a new life in true repentance, forsaking the world and its vanity, and subduing all sinful inclination. Comfort us, when in sorrow and distress; and, on the final day, when the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, call forth our body through the power of Thy resurrection and grant us the awakening unto life everlasting, where every tear shall be found an orb of joy, and every sigh an inspiration of God. Amen.

ASCENSION.

Holy Jesus, our Lord and Saviour, ascended on high with the sound of trumpets, we extol Thee. After accomplishing the redemption of mankind, Thou didst return to Thy glory. All our foes are under Thy feet; Thou hast delivered us from them all. At the right hand of the majesty of God Thou pleadest for us. We rejoice since Thou hast said, "I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am, there ye may be also." We now know, that death to us is the gateway to heaven. Thou art crowned with honor and glory and hast laid up a crown of righteousness for those who love Thy coming. Thou hast come into Thy kingdom to rule over heaven and earth, in nature, grace and glory; and wilt say on that glorious day to come, to all the faithful, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

Blessed Redeemer, give us Thy Spirit; give us piety, chastity, meekness, humility, righteousness, the childhood of God, life, peace, and eternal happiness. Let us be where Thou art, draw us to Thee, bring us to the host of the angels and saints; may we see Thy glory. Teach us daily to strive after a spiritual ascension, to contemplate our future dwelling and to flee the world with its vanities, ways, and sins, so that, while we live, we live to Thee, and when we die, we die to Thee, O Lord. Amen.

WHITSUNDAY.

"I pour water upon the thirsty, and streams upon those who are dry; I will pour out my spirit upon the flesh, so that they grow as grass, and as the willows by the water's side." This gracious promise, dearest Jesus, Thou hast fulfilled at holy Whitsuntide, when through the gift of Thy holy Spirit, Thou didst enable Thy apostles to proclaim unto all people the forgiveness of sins in Thy blood, and salvation.

FORMS OF PRAYER THAT MAY BE USED FOR DEVOTIONS AT HOME.

O most precious Holy Spirit, enlighten our understanding to know Jesus Christ more thoroughly; sanctify our will to desire nothing but what is pleasing in Thy sight; give us courage and strength to walk in Thy ways, to withstand sin and to live as true children of God.

Thou Spirit of grace and prayer, of wisdom and love! Teach us to pray with fervor, to know the truth and to keep our hearts in the one thing needful,—the fear of the Lord. Pluck out of our hearts all wrath, obstinacy, envy, malice, and revenge. When the waters of distress beat over our head, and the waves of trial meet above us, be our comfort and strength. Help us to subdue the lusts of the flesh. May we grow in faith, truth, humility, hope and patience. Be our Teacher, and magnify Jesus within us; yea, help us by Thy power to call Jesus our Lord and Redeemer.

Cleanse us; give us pure hearts; expunge all impurities, evil passions, and the dominion of sin. Grant, that we may grow in all good things and bear much fruit. Remain with us in trouble and in death; cry out within us, "Abba, dear Father!"

Holy Spirit, enter into our poor, feeble hearts, there to live and to reign. Adorn us with Thy gifts; make us new, pure and lovely; teach us to appear before God in spirit and truth and to walk forever in Thy light. Amen.

PRAYERS,

WHICH MAY BE USED IN CELEBRATING HOLY COMMUNION.

A PRAYER FOR FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

“Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Thy loving-kindness; according to Thy tender mercies, blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.”

Holy Triune God, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, a sinner comes before Thy most holy face, and begs Thee earnestly and humbly for the forgiveness of his sins. Alas, my God! I have offended Thee in various ways, with evil thoughts, desires, words, and actions, and what I should have done, I have left undone. O Lord, Holy God! thereat I am greatly grieved, and all my soul deeply regrets it. By Holy Baptism Thou hast made me a member of Thy body; therefore I ought to hear Thy voice alone, and present my limbs as a living sacrifice, holy and well pleasing unto Thee. But O! what shall I say? I have listened to the voice of the world and of the flesh more than unto Thy voice, and have done so many things against Thy will. O the blindness of my heart! O the follies of my youth! If now Thou wilt enter into judgment with me, I am lost forever; for my conscience testifies against me, and my sins are more numerous than the sands of the sea. But, O Lord, have mercy upon me, according to Thy loving-kindness; do not account with me for the evil I have done, but give me credit for what Jesus Christ, my Saviour, has done for me; for the sake of Jesus, be merciful to me, a sinner. I will strive to lead a new and godly life; with the power of Thy Spirit, O merciful God, I will endeavor not to sin wantonly or wilfully against Thee. Amen.

GENERAL CONFESSION.

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, I a poor sinner acknowledge and bewail my manifold sins and wickedness, which I have from time to time committed by thought, word and deed, against Thy Divine Majesty, provoking against me most justly Thy wrath and indignation, in this world and in the world to come. I do earnestly repent, and am heartily sorry for these my misdoings, the remembrance of them is grievous unto me; the burden of them is intolerable. I have none other comfort or trust, than Thy grace, which aboundeth above my guilt, and the precious merits of our Lord Jesus Christ. Longing after this grace I say: Father, I have sinned against heaven and before Thee, and am no more worthy to be called Thy child; but I come at this time of grace to ask of Thee pardon and peace, new confidence towards Thee, and strength to lead a new and righteous life through Thy good and holy Spirit. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER THE CONFESSION.

My soul rejoiceth in Thee, O God of comfort and Father of mercy, that Thou hast sent into this world Thine only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, for a mediator and a sacrifice for our sins; and that Thou givest me a lively faith, whereby I am made partaker of such Thy benefits. Thou hast again assured me, Thy penitent child, of Thy pardoning love and grace; and hast brought nigh the comforts of the gospel of the crucified Saviour. I have anew promised and pledged allegiance to Thee and to my Redeemer. Strengthen and assist me, O Lord, now to walk in the light of Thy truth and in the way, which is pleasing in Thy sight. Thou knowest, O omniscient God, my weakness. Equip me with heavenly armor, to battle against the lusts of the flesh and the temptations of the world. Grant, that my devotion to Thee be true and sincere. May I watch and pray. Visit me with Thy blessing, while I partake of the Holy Supper, that I may grow in grace and knowledge of Thy Son, my Redeemer; and may lead a life of godliness, which has the promise of this world and the world to come. Amen.

A PRAYER BEFORE HOLY COMMUNION.

O most merciful God and Father, we beseech Thee, that Thou wilt be pleased in this Supper, in which we celebrate the glorious remembrance of the bitter death of Thy beloved Son Jesus Christ, to work in our hearts through the Holy Spirit, that we may daily more and more with true confidence give ourselves up unto Thy Son Jesus Christ; that our afflicted and contrite hearts, through the power of the Holy Ghost, may be fed and comforted with His true body and blood; yea, be truly united with Him, true God and man, that only heavenly bread: and that we may no longer live in our sins, but He in us, and we in Him, and thus truly be made partakers of the new and everlasting testament, and of the covenant of grace. Make us steadfast in faith, that we may not doubt but Thou wilt forever be our gracious Father, never more imputing our sins unto us, and providing us with all things necessary, as well for the body as the soul, as Thy beloved children and heirs. Grant us also Thy grace, that we may take upon us our cross cheerfully, deny ourselves, confess our Saviour, and in all tribulations, with uplifted heads expect our Lord Jesus Christ from heaven, where He will make our mortal bodies like unto His most glorious body, and take us unto Him in eternity. Amen.

ANOTHER.

O great and merciful God, who now callest us to Thy holy table, we humbly beseech Thee to make us partakers of the Divine vigor of the blood shed by our dearest Saviour for the forgiveness of our sins.

Out of Thy heavenly dwelling-place send us Thy light and truth, to lead us to Thy holy table, and give us the experience of Thy peace, and the grace of the Holy Ghost. Purify our hearts, so that we may offer ourselves to Him who gave Himself for us. Fill our souls more and more with repentance, faith, love, fervor, joyfulness and gratitude. We seek Thy face, O Lord, save Thy servants, who hope in Thee. Amen.

A PRAYER AFTER HOLY COMMUNION.

All-sufficient God, Thou chief good and greatest delight of all the pious! In Thee alone does our heart find its rest, and in Thy grace its highest joy. The world with all its glories is vanity. Sin with its brief pleasure produces disgust. Let us consider all things well, and not love the world, nor that which is in the world; the world passeth away with the pleasure thereof, the lust of the eye, the lust of the flesh, and the pride of life. Lord if we have but Thee, we have enough, though we have nothing in the world beside. Rest content, my soul, for the Lord is kind to thee. He has fed and refreshed thee at the table of His grace. O infinite Goodness! Therefore praise the Lord, O my soul, and what is in me praise His holy Name. Praise the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits. Preserve, great God, this peace in my heart, and continue to do good unto my soul. Fortify me and Thy children in all suffering by the comfort of the Holy Spirit. Our adversity, which is temporal and easy to bear, nevertheless produces a surpassing glory for us, who regard not the visible but the invisible. For what is visible is temporal, what is invisible is eternal. A time will come when Thou wilt bring all who love Thee to the place of perfect rest, there to behold Thy face in righteousness, and to be satisfied, awakened in Thy image. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

IN SICKNESS.

Almighty God, heavenly Father, since Thou hast said, "Call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me," therefore I call upon Thee in this my sickness and great distress, and beseech Thee, in the Name of Thy beloved Son Jesus Christ, that Thou wouldst not forsake me. If this sickness is not unto death, then, O Lord, help me to recover for Thy mercy's sake, that I may proclaim and praise the wonders of Thy power and continue to live in fear of Thee and be an instrument of Thy glory, by serving Thee faithfully and doing good in my generation.

Should it, however, please Thee in Thy unsearchable wisdom to call me away from this world of trouble and sorrow, even so, my God and Father, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Visit me, O Lord, with Thy salvation, that I may willingly submit myself to Thy will. Deliver me in Thy good appointed time from my bodily pain and eventually save my soul. Keep me steadfast in Christian faith. Allow me never to forsake Thee, so that at the end of my days my soul may be received into those heavenly habitations, where the spirits of those who sleep in the Lord Jesus enjoy perpetual rest and felicity. Grant this, O Father, for the sake of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost in eternity. Amen.

ANOTHER.

Merciful God and gracious Father! Behold me on this bed of sickness, unable to rise. It has pleased Thee to deprive me of health, and send this illness upon me;—Thy will be done! Give me patience to bear all without murmurs or discontent. In my better days Thou hast often gladdened my heart, why should I not now endure in patience? God is good; He chides in moderation; His judgments cannot entirely forsake me. I have received good things at Thy hands, and Thou hast often refreshed me in my days of health; I will accept these days of suffering likewise, in Thy power and patience, and will humbly remember how many happy hours the Lord has given me, compared to which these short intervals of suffering are insignificant. I know, my God, that Thou art loving and gracious; therefore, Thou wilt not impose more upon me than I can bear.

My God, here I am; do with me as Thou wilt; let me fully understand Thy counsel, which is, that this disease shall be as a fire to destroy the impurities that taint my soul; as a call to prayer for the forgiveness of all my sins, for the sake of Jesus; as a voice commanding me to put my house in order, and to prepare for death, the grave, and eternity. Make me fitting to please Thee in Thy heavenly mansion, for I know, that these temporal sorrows are to be succeeded by surpassing glory. Therefore, be quiet, my soul; why art thou cast down and why art thou so disquieted within me? Hope in God for I shall yet praise Him who is the health of my countenance and my God. In Him I trust alone, He will do all things well, He will advance my welfare. For God forsaketh none of those who put their trust in Him; though things look strange and doubtful, never give way to dread and doubts. Thou shalt be astonished to see how God will deliver Thee. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

A THANKSGIVING FOR A CONVALESCENT.

"Behold thou art made whole; sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee." "Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the Most High."

Almighty and gracious God! I come before Thy holy face, and thank Thee for having raised me up from my bed of sickness. I still think of the hours of anguish, of the sorrowful nights, of the great danger, which beset me. But lo, Thy mighty hand has raised me from my couch: Thou hast set me on my feet again, and enabled me to go out and come in. Thy grace has transformed my complaints into rejoicing. Lord, Lord! Thou hast done great things for me, therefore I am glad; Thy love and mercy have helped me to this hour.—Whosoever serveth God will be comforted after affliction, and released from trouble; and after chastisement he will find grace; for Thou, O God, dost not rejoice in our perdition; after the storm Thou permittest the sun again to shine; after the weeping and wailing Thou dost overwhelm us with joy. This mercy and fatherly care I too have experienced in my sickness; therefore, while I live, I will proclaim before the great congregation, what Thou, almighty God, hast done for me. Thou hast blessed the medicine, assuaged my pains, given me strength to overcome my suffering, and sent days of refreshment after the wretched and weary nights. Therefore, praise the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me praise His holy Name; praise the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities, who healeth all thy diseases, who redeemeth thy life from destruction, who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies.

In my pain and sickness, I have discovered that silver and gold, honor and glory of the world, and even kind friends, did not avail to lift the cross from my shoulders, and if Thou hadst not helped me, I should have perished in my misery. Therefore, I will no longer strive after vain and fleeting things, but rejoice in Thee; I will avoid the sinful converse of the world, and cling to Thy altar, where is heard the voice of thanksgiving, and where Thy wonders are told; I will renounce ungodly things and wordly lusts, and live chaste, righteous and godly in this world, so that when Thou shalt come with my dying hour and the end of my life, I may be prepared to enter into the joys of heaven. Amen.

PRAYER IN THE HOUR OF DEATH.

Almighty and everlasting God, most merciful Father, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who art willing and able to fulfill all Thou hast said; Thy word is truth; in the beginning Thou hast promised Thy dear Son; He came and redeemed me from the devil, death, hell, and sin; afterwards Thou hast in Thy gracious Providence, given us for a greater security the sacraments of Holy Baptism and of the Lord's Supper; hast given His body and blood; and offerest through Him forgiveness of sins, eternal life, and a home in heaven. Into Thy hands, as into the hands of a faithful Creator and most merciful Saviour, I humbly commend my soul, beseeching Thee that it may be precious in Thy sight. Wash it, I pray Thee, in the blood of that immaculate Lamb that was slain to take away the sins of the world; that whatsoever defilements it may have contracted in the midst of this sinful world through the lusts of the flesh, and the wiles of Satan, being purged and done away, it may be presented pure and without spot before Thee, and receive life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ, Thine only Son, our Lord. Amen.

ANOTHER.

Merciful and loving God, Thou who dost not suffer men to die, and sayest, Come again, ye sons of men! Thou who dost draw Thy loved ones unto Thee by death, and givest them a share of the glory acquired for us by the bitter sufferings and death of Jesus! I am growing weaker; I must die; I must meet the Bridegroom; keep the light of Thy lamp fresh and burning. Not knowing my hour of death, I will resign myself into Thy hands in time and commend my soul to Thee. Cleanse my heart from all worldly and sinful thoughts; fill it with the Holy Ghost; help me to remember Jesus Christ and at all times to fix my eyes upon Him. When the hour of death arrives, keep me, if it is Thy holy will, from assaults, sad thoughts and acute pains, and leave me a sound mind to the last, ever conscious of Thy holy presence. By Thy grace, let me have joy in dying; let me look into the bliss of heaven, and give me to taste a few drops of the heavenly sweetness, so that I may depart this life in gladness and comfort. To Thee I commend my soul when it leaves the body; O take it into Thy hands; cover it with Thy righteousness, and lead it into the joys of heaven. I also commend to Thee my body, resting in the ground; give it a gentle rest, until the last trumpet shall sound and call, "Arise ye dead, and come to judgment!" and then, in the Name of Jesus, let me joyfully arise and enter into eternal life. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

SHORT PRAYERS FOR THE DYING.

"Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit."

O gracious God, heavenly Father and Creator, in whose hands are the issues of life and death; Lord Jesus Christ, who hast redeemed me; Lord God, Holy Ghost, who hast brought me to the knowledge of Christ, my Saviour; Most Holy Triune God; I implore Thee for the forgiveness of my sins, for the comfort in my anguish, for the shortening of death's agony, for a peaceful end and life eternal,—all for Thy mercy's sake. Amen.

"God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him might not perish, but have everlasting life."

O dearest God and Father, let me depart hence gently and softly in Jesus; I know that Thou hast loved me, and given me Thy Son, in whom I have believed and will believe to the last moment of my life. O give me, through the Holy Ghost, the assurance that I shall not be lost! Strengthen my faith, that, what I have beheld, I may soon behold in the life eternal! O Jesus, stand by me, and do not forsake me. Amen.

"Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world."

Christ, Thou Lamb of God, that taketh away the sin of the world, have mercy upon me! Christ, Thou Lamb of God, that taketh away the sins of the world, leave me Thy temporal and eternal peace. Amen.

Services of the Churches.

PSALM 1. Beatus vir.

1. BLESSED is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

2. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law does he meditate day and night.

3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that bringeth forth its fruit in due season, whose leaf also doth not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

4. The wicked are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5. Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM 8. Domine, Dominus noster.

1. O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

2. Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine adversaries, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

3. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

4. What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

5. For thou hast made him but a little lower than the angels, and crownest him with glory and honor.

6. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

7. All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

8. The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

9. O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

PSALM 16. Conserve me, Domine.

1. PRESERVE me, O God, for in thee do I put my trust.

2. I have said unto the Lord, Thou art my Lord: I have no good beyond thee.

3. As for the saints that are in the earth, they are the excellent in whom is all my delight.

4. Their sorrows shall be multiplied that exchange the Lord for another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take their names upon my lips.

5. The Lord is the portion of my inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

6. The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

7. I will bless the Lord, who hath given me counsel: yea, my reins instruct me in the night seasons.

8. I have set the Lord always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

9. Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth, my flesh also shall retain hope.

10. For thou wilt not leave my soul in Sheol; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

11. Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; in thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

PSALMS, SELECTED FOR RESPONSIVE READING.

PSALM 19. Cœli enarrant.

1. THE heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament showeth his handywork.

2. Day unto day uttereth speech: and night unto night showeth knowledge.

3. There is no speech nor language: where their voice is not heard.

4. Their line is gone out through all the earth: and their words to the end of the world.

5. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun: which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course.

6. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7. The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

8. The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

9. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

10. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

11. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12. Who can understand his errors: clear thou me from secret faults.

13. Keep back Thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright and I shall be clear from great transgressions.

14. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight: O Lord, my Rock, and my Redeemer.

PSALM 23. Dominus regit me.

1. THE LORD is my Shepherd: I shall not want.

2. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

PSALM 32. Beati, quorum.

1. BLESSED is he whose transgression is forgiven: whose sin is covered.

2. Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity: and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3. When I kept silence: my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

4. For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer.

5. I acknowledged my sin unto thee: and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord: and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.

6. For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach unto him.

7. Thou art my hiding-place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou wilt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

8. I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will counsel thee with mine eyes upon thee.

9. Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding; whose trappings must be bit and bridle to hold them in, else they will not come near unto thee.

10. Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the Lord, mercy shall compass him about.

11. Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM 33. Exultate, justi, in Dominum.

1. REJOICE in the Lord, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.

PSALMS, SELECTED FOR RESPONSIVE READING.

2. Give thanks unto the Lord with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery of ten strings.

3. Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud noise.

4. For the word of the Lord is right; and all his work is done in faithfulness.

5. He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the loving-kindness of the Lord.

6. By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

7. He gathereth the waters of the sea together as a heap; he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

8. Let all the earth fear the Lord: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9. For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

10. The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the thoughts of the people of none effect.

11. The counsel of the Lord standeth fast for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

13. The Lord looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men.

14. From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

PSALM 39. Dixi, custodiam.

1. I SAID, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

2. I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred.

3. My heart was hot within me; while I was musing the fire kindled: then spake I with my tongue,

4. Lord, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am.

5. Behold, thou hast made my days as a handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity.

6. Surely every man walketh in a vain show: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not, who shall gather them.

7. And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

8. Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foolish.

9. I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.

10. Remove thy stroke away from me; I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.

11. When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity.

12. Hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

13. O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more.

PSALM 42.

Quemadmodum desiderat cervus.

1. AS the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

3. My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

4. When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude keeping holiday.

5. Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

6. O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar.

7. Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

8. Yet the Lord will command his loving-kindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

9. I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

PSALMS, SELECTED FOR RESPONSIVE READING.

10. As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

11. Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM 46. Deus noster refugium.

1. GOD is our refuge and strength: a very present help in trouble.

2. Therefore will we not fear, though the earth do change, and though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea;

3. Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled: though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

4. There is a river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God: the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

5. God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

6. The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

7. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

8. Come, behold the works of the Lord, what desolation he hath made in the earth.

9. He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

10. Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.

11. The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

PSALM 47. Omnes gentes, plaudite.

1. O CLAP your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

2. For the Lord Most High is terrible; he is a great King over all the earth.

3. He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.

4. He shall choose our inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob whom he loved.

5. God is gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound of a trumpet.

6. Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

7. For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

8. God reigneth over the nations: God sitteth upon his holy throne.

9. The princes of the people are gathered together to be the people of the God of Abraham: for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

PSALM 51.

Miserere mei Deus, secundum.

1. HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness: according to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

2. Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

3. For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

4. Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done that which is evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5. Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

6. Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

7. Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8. Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9. Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

10. Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

11. Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

12. Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free Spirit.

13. Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14. Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

15. O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

PSALMS, SELECTED FOR RESPONSIVE READING.

16. For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

17. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

18. Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19. Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

PSALM 57.

Miserere mei, Deus miserere.

1. BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I take my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

2. I will cry unto God Most High; unto God that performeth all things for me.

3. He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.

4. My soul is among lions: and I lie among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

5. Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be above all the earth.

6. They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves.

7. My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise.

8. Awake up; my glory; awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake right early.

9. I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

10. For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.

11. Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

PSALM 61.

Exaudi, Deus, deprecationem.

1. HEAR my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

2. From the end of the earth will I call unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

3. For thou hast been a refuge for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

4. I will dwell in thy tabernacle for ever: I will take refuge in the covert of thy wings.

5. For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

6. Thou wilt prolong the king's life: his years shall be as many generations.

7. He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare lovingkindness and truth, that they may preserve him.

8. So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

PSALM 65. Te decet hymnus, Deus.

1. PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2. O thou that hearest prayer: unto thee shall all flesh come.

3. Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

4. Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, the holy place of thy temple.

5. By terrible things wilt thou answer us in righteousness, O God of our salvation: thou art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea.

6. Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains: being girded with power.

7. Which stilleth the roaring of the seas: the roaring of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

8. They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

9. Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it; the river of God is full of water: thou providest them corn, when thou hast so prepared the earth.

10. Thou waterest her furrows abundantly; thou settlest the ridges thereof: thou makest it soft with showers; thou blessest the springing thereof.

11. Thou crownest the year with thy goodness: and thy paths drop fatness.

12. They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the hills are girded with joy.

13. The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn: they shout for joy, they also sing.

• PSALM 72. Deus, judicium.

1. GIVE the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

2. He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

3. The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the hills, in righteousness.

4. He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

5. They shall fear thee while the sun endureth, and so long as the moon, throughout all generations.

6. He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth.

7. In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace, till the moon be no more.

8. He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

9. They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust.

10. The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11. Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

12. For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; and the poor, that hath no helper.

13. He shall have pity on the poor and needy: and the souls of the needy he shall save.

14. He shall redeem their soul from oppression and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight.

15. And they shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba: and men shall pray for him continually, they shall bless him all day long.

16. There shall be abundance of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains: the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

17. His name shall endure forever; his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in him; all nations shall call him happy.

18. Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel: who only doeth wondrous things.

19. And blessed be his glorious name forever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen, and Amen.

PSALM 84. Quam dilecta tabernacula.

1. HOW amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts!

2. My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

3. Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young: even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

4. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee.

5. Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are the high ways of Zion.

6. Passing through the valley of Weeping they make it a place of springs; yea, the early rain covereth it with blessings.

7. They go from strength to strength: every one of them appeareth before God in Zion.

8. O Lord of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob.

9. Behold, O God, our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

10. For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11. For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

12. O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

PSALM 86. Inclina, Domine.

1. BOW down thine ear, O Lord, hear me: for I am poor and needy.

PSALMS, SELECTED FOR RESPONSIVE READING.

2. Preserve my soul; for I am godly:
O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

3. Be merciful unto me, O Lord: for unto thee do I cry all the day long.

4. Rejoice the soul of thy servant:
for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

5. For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive: and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

6. Give ear, O Lord, unto my prayer:
and attend to the voice of my supplications.

7. In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

8. There is none like unto thee among the gods, O Lord: neither are there any works like unto thy works.

9. All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O
Lord: and they shall glorify thy name.

10. For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

11. Teach me thy way, O Lord: I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

12. I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

13. For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my heart from the lowest pit.

14. O God, the proud are risen up against me: and the congregation of violent men have sought after my soul,
and have not set thee before them.

15. But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

16. O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me: give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thine handmaid.

17. Show me a token for good; that they which hate me see it, and be ashamed: because thou, Lord, hast hol-pen me, and comforted me.

PSALM 90. Domine, refugium.

1. LORD, thou hast been our dwell-ingplace in all generations.

2. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

3. Thou turnest man to destruction:
and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

4. For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

5. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

6. In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7. For we are consumed by thine anger: and in thy wrath are we troubled.

8. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee: our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9. For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we bring our years to an end as a tale that is told.

10. The days of our years are three-score years and ten; or even by reason of strength fourscore years: yet is their pride but labor and sorrow; for it is soon gone, and we fly away.

11. Who knoweth the power of thine anger, and thy wrath according to the fear that is due unto thee?

12. So teach us to number our days:
that we may get us a heart of wisdom.

13. Return, O Lord, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

14. O satisfy us in the morning with thy mercy: that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15. Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us: and the years wherein we have seen evil.

16. Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

17. And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us;
yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

PSALM 91. Qui habitat.

1. HE that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in whom I trust.

3. For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

4. He shall cover thee with his pinions, and under his wings shalt thou take refuge: his trust shall be thy shield and buckler.

PSALMS, SELECTED FOR RESPONSIVE READING.

5. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

7. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

8. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

9. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation;

10. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy tent.

11. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

12. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble: I will deliver him, and honor him.

16. With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

PSALM 92. Bonum est confiteri.

1. IT is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High;

2. To show forth thy lovingkindness in the morning: and thy faithfulness every night.

3. With an instrument of ten strings, and with the psaltery: with a solemn sound upon the harp.

4. For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

5. How great are thy works, O Lord, thy thoughts are very deep.

6. A brutish man knoweth not: neither doth a fool understand this.

7. When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish: it is that they shall be destroyed forever;

8. But thou, O Lord, art on high for evermore.

9. For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish: all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

10. But my horn hast thou exalted like the horn of the wild ox: I am anointed with fresh oil.

11. Mine eye also hath seen my desire on mine enemies: and mine ears have heard my desire of the evil-doers that rise up against me.

12. The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13. They that are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God.

14. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;

15. To show that the Lord is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM 95. Venite, exultemus.

1. O COME, let us sing unto the Lord: let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation.

2. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

3. For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

4. In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the heights of the hills are his also.

5. The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land.

6. O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the Lord our Maker.

7. For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To-day, O that ye would hear his voice!

8. Harden not your heart, as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the wilderness:

9. When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work.

10. Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

11. Wherefore whom I swear in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest.

PSALM 97. Dominus regnavit.

1. THE Lord reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad.

2. Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgment are the foundation of his throne.

3. A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his adversaries round about.

4. His lightnings lightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.

5. The hills melted like wax at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6. The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people have seen his glory.

7. Ashamed be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: worship him, all ye gods.

8. Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of thy judgments, O Lord.

9. For thou, Lord, art most high above all the earth: thou art exalted far above all gods.

10. O ye that love the Lord, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

11. Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

12. Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous; and give thanks to his holy name.

PSALM 98. Cantate Domino.

1. O SING unto the Lord a new song; for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.

2. The Lord hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the nations.

3. He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

4. Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth, break forth and sing for joy, yea, sing praises.

5. Sing praises unto the Lord with the harp: with the harp, and the voice of melody.

6. With trumpets and sound of cornet: make a joyful noise before the King, the Lord.

7. Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof: the world, and they that dwell therein.

8. Let the floods clap their hands, let the hills sing for joy together before the Lord: for he cometh to judge the earth.

9. With righteousness shall he judge the world: and the people with equity.

PSALM 103. Benedic, anima mea.

1. BLESS the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3. Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

4. Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

5. Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6. The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

7. He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

8. The Lord is full of compassion and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

9. He will not always chide; neither will he keep his anger forever.

10. He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us after our iniquities.

11. For as the heaven is high above the earth: so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12. As far as the east is from the west: so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

13. Like as a father pitieth his children: so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

14. For he knoweth our frame: he remembereth that we are dust.

15. As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

16. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone: and the place thereof shall know it no more.

17. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him: and his righteousness unto children's children;

18. To such as keep his covenant: and to those that remember his commandments to do them:

20. Bless the Lord, ye, his angels, ye mighty in strength: that fulfill his word, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

21. Bless ye the Lord, all ye his hosts: ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

22. Bless the Lord, all ye his works in all places of his dominion: bless the Lord, O my soul.

PSALM 104. Benedic, anima mea.

1. BLESS the Lord, O my soul: O Lord my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honor and majesty;

2. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain;

3. Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: who maketh the clouds his chariot; who walketh upon the wings of the wind;

4. Who maketh winds his messengers: his ministers a flaming fire;

5. Who laid the foundations of the earth: that it should not be moved forever.

6. Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a vesture: the waters stood above the mountains.

7. At thy rebuke they fled: at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

8. They went up by the mountains; they went down by the valleys unto the place which thou hadst founded for them.

9. Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; that they turn not again to cover the earth.

10. He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the mountains.

11. They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses quench their thirst.

12. By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches.

13. He watereth the mountains from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

14. He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth;

15. And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

16. The trees of the Lord are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted;

17. Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

18. The high mountains are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for the conies.

19. He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth his going down.

20. Thou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

21. The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.

22. The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

23. Man goeth forth unto his work and to his labor until the evening.

24. O Lord, how manifold are thy works, in wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of thy riches.

25. Yonder is the sea, great and wide, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26. There go the ships; there is leviathan, whom thou hast made to play therein.

27. These wait all upon thee: that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.

28. That thou givest unto them they gather, thou openest thine hand, they are satisfied with good.

29. Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

30. Thou sendest forth thy Spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the ground.

31. The glory of the Lord shall endure forever: the Lord shall rejoice in his works.

32. Who looketh on the earth, and it trembleth: he toucheth the mountains, and they smoke.

33. I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

34. Let my meditation be sweet unto him; I will rejoice in the Lord.

35. Let sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more: bless the Lord, O my soul. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM 107. Confitemini Domino.

1. O GIVE thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever.

2. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the adversary;

3. And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

4. They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way; they found no city of habitation.

5. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

6. Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7. He led them also by a straight way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

8. Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

9. For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with good.

10. Such as sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron;

11. Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contended the counsel of the Most High:

12. Therefore he brought down their heart with labor; they fell down, and there was none to help.

13. Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

14. He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

15. Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

16. For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

17. Fools, because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

18. Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

19. Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

20. He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

21. Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

22. And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with singing.

II.

23. THEY that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

24. These see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep.

25. For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26. They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul melteth away because of trouble.

27. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end.

28. Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

29. He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

30. Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

31. Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

32. Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the seat of the elders.

33. He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into a thirsty ground.

34. A fruitful land into a salt desert, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

35. He turneth the wilderness into a pool of water, and dry land into watersprings.

36. And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation.

37. And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.

38. He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

39. Again, they are minished and brought low through oppression, trouble and sorrow.

40. He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

PSALMS, SELECTED FOR RESPONSIVE READING.

41. Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock.

42. The upright shall see it, and be glad, and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

43. Whoso is wise, and give heed to these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the Lord.

PSALM 111. Confitebor tibi.

1. I WILL give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

2. The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3. His work is honorable and glorious: and his righteousness endureth forever.

4. He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

5. He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

6. He hath showed his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7. The works of his hands are verity and judgment; all his commandments are sure.

8. They stand fast forever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.

9. He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant forever: holy and reverend is his name.

10. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth forever.

PSALM 115. Non nobis, Domine.

1. NOT unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory: for thy mercy and for thy truth's sake.

2. Wherefore should the nations say: Where is now their God?

3. But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he pleased.

4. Their idols are silver and gold: the work of men's hands.

5. They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not;

6. They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not;

7. They have hands, but they handle not; feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat.

8. They that make them are like unto them: yea, every one that trusteth in them.

9. O Israel, trust thou in the Lord: he is their help and their shield.

10. O house of Aaron, trust in the Lord: he is their help and their shield.

11. Ye that fear the Lord, trust in the Lord: he is their help and their shield.

12. The Lord hath been mindful of us; he will bless us: he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron.

13. He will bless them that fear the Lord: both small and great.

14. The Lord shall increase you more and more: you and your children.

15. Blessed are ye of the Lord: which made heaven and earth.

16. The heavens are the heavens of the Lord: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

17. The dead praise not the Lord, neither any that go down into silence.

18. But we will bless the Lord from this time forth and for evermore. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM 119. Beati immaculati.

1. BLESSED are they that are upright in the way: who walk in the law of the Lord.

2. Blessed are they that keep his testimonies; that seek him with the whole heart.

3. Yea, they do no unrighteousness; they walk in his ways.

4. Thou hast commanded us thy precepts, that we should observe them diligently.

5. O that my ways were established: to observe thy statutes!

6. Then shall I not be ashamed: when I have respect unto all thy commandments.

7. I will praise thee with uprightness of heart: when I shall learn thy righteous judgments.

8. I will observe thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly.

III. In quo corrigit.

9. WHEREWITHAL shall a young man cleanse his way: by taking heed thereto according to thy word.

10. With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

PSALMS, SELECTED FOR RESPONSIVE READING.

11. Thy word have I hid in my heart: that I might not sin against thee.

12. Blessed art thou, O Lord: teach me thy statutes.

13. With my lips have I declared: all the judgments of thy mouth.

14. I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

15. I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

16. I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

III. Retribue servo tuo.

17. DEAL bountifully with thy servant, that I may live, so will I observe thy word.

18. Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

19. I am a sojourner in the earth: hide not thy commandments from me.

20. My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times.

21. Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, which do wander from thy commandments.

22. Remove from me reproach and contempt; for I have kept thy testimonies.

23. Princes also sat and talked against me: but thy servant did meditate in thy statutes.

24. Thy testimonies are my delight, and my counsellors.

PSALM 121. Levavi oculos.

1. I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the mountains: from whence shall my help come?

2. My help cometh from the Lord: which made heaven and earth.

3. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

4. Behold, he that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5. The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

6. The sun shall not smite thee by day: nor the moon by night.

7. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

8. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in: from this time forth, and for evermore.

PSALM 122. Lætatus sum.

1. I WAS glad when they said unto me: Let us go into the house of the Lord.

2. Our feet shall stand within thy gates: O Jerusalem.

3. Jerusalem, that art builded as a city that is compact together:

4. Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, for a testimony unto Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord.

5. For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.

6. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

7. Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

8. For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

9. For the sake of the house of the Lord our God I will seek thy good.

PSALM 139. Domine, probasti.

1. O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me.

2. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising; thou understandest my thought afar off.

3. Thou searchest out my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

4. For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.

5. Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

7. Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

8. If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in Sheol, behold, thou art there.

9. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

10. Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

11. If I say, Surely the darkness shall overwhelm me, then the night shall be night about me.

12. Even the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

PSALMS, SELECTED FOR RESPONSIVE READING.

13. For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

14. I will give thanks to thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

15. My frame was not hidden from thee, when I was made in secret: and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16. Thine eyes did see mine unperfect substance: and in thy book all my members were written: which day by day were fashioned: when as yet there was none of them.

17. How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

18. If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19. Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, ye blood-thirsty men.

20. For they speak against thee wickedly: and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

21. Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

22. I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

23. Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts;

24. And see if there be any way of wickedness in me: and lead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM 141. Domine, clamavi.

1. LORD, I cry unto thee: make haste unto me, and consider my voice, when I cry unto thee.

2. Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

3. Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips.

4. Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.

5. Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

6. When their judges are overthrown in stormy places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.

7. Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.

8. But mine eyes are unto thee, O God the Lord: in thee is my trust; leave not my soul destitute.

9. Keep me from the snares which they have laid me, and the traps of the workers of iniquity.

20. Let the wicked fall into their own nets, and let me ever escape them.

PSALM 145. Exaltabo te, Deus.

1. I WILL extol thee, my God, O King: and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

2. Every day will I bless thee: and I will praise thy name for ever.

3. Great is the Lord and highly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable.

4. One generation shall laud thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

5. Of the glorious majesty of thine honor, and of thy wondrous works, will I meditate.

6. And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness.

7. They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness: and shall sing of thy righteousness.

8. The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and great to mercy.

9. The Lord is good to all, and his tender mercies are over all his works.

10. All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord; and thy saints shall bless thee.

11. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;

12. To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.

13. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

14. The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

15. The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season.

16. Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

PSALMS, SELECTED FOR RESPONSIVE READING.

17. The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and gracious in all his works.

18. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

19. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

20. The Lord preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy.

21. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

PSALM 147. Laudate Dominum.

1. PRAISE ye the Lord: for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant; and praise is comely.

2. The Lord doth build up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

3. He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

4. He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

5. Great is our Lord, and mighty in power: his understanding is infinite.

6. The Lord upholdeth the meek: he bringeth the wicked down to the ground.

7. Sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving: sing praise upon the harp unto our God:

8. Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

9. He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.

10. He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

11. The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

12. Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion.

13. For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee.

14. He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

15. He sendeth out his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

16. He giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoar frost like ashes.

17. He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

18. He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

19. He showeth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

20. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM 150. Laudate Dominum.

1. PRAISE ye the Lord. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

2. Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.

3. Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp.

4. Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

5. Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.

6. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.

INDEX OF HYMNS.

	Hymn.
A few more years shall roll.....	885
A lamb goes uncomplaining forth.....	150
A mighty Fortress is our God.....	279
A pilgrim and a stranger	826
A pilgrim through this lonely world	182
Abide with me, fast falls the eventide...	710
Abide with me, O blessed Saviour.....	557
Abide with us, our Saviour	29
Above, below, where'er I gaze	45
Above the clear, blue sky.....	764
According to Thy gracious word.....	410
Across the sky the shades of night.....	670
Ah, how shall fallen man	87
Alas, and did my Saviour bleed.....	157
All glory be to God on high.....	1
All glory, praise and honor.....	776
All hail the power of Jesus' Name.....	207
All is o'er, the pain, the sorrow.....	171
All my heart this day rejoices.....	110
All people that on earth do dwell.....	6
All praise to Thee, eternal Lord.....	106
All praise to Thee, my God, this night..	712
All that I was, my sin, my guilt.....	86
Almighty God, Thy word is cast.....	80
Almighty God, whose only Son.....	281
Am I a soldier of the cross.....	559
Amid life's wild commotion	183
And is the time approaching.....	820
And now the wants are told.....	88
Angels holy, high and lowly	606
Angels from the realms of glory.....	104
Angels, roll the rock away.....	176
Another six day's work is done.....	843
Approach, my soul, the mercy-seat.....	454
Arm of the Lord, awake, awake.....	821
Arm these Thy soldiers, mighty Lord...	887
Around the throne of God in heaven....	806
Around the throne of God the hosts an- gelic	80
Art thou weary, art thou languid.....	450
As a bird in meadows fair.....	796
As pants the wearied hart for cooling springs	28
As the sun doth daily rise.....	694
As with gladness, men of old.....	120
Ask ye what great thing I have.....	522
Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep.....	853
Assembled at Thy great command.....	819
At the Lamb's high feast we sing.....	400
At the Name of Jesus	218
At Thy feet, our God and Father.....	680
Awake, and sing the song.....	612
Awake, glad soul, awake, awake.....	191
Awake, my soul, and with the sun.....	689
Awake, my soul, in joyful lays.....	624
Awake, my soul, stretch every nerve....	560
Awake, Thou Spirit, who didst fire.....	872
Before Jehovah's awful throne.....	4
Before the day draws near its ending...	721
Before the throne of God above.....	205
Behold, a Stranger's at the door.....	445
Behold the Lamb of God.....	159
Behold the Master passeth by.....	126

	Hymn.
Behold, the shade of night is now re- ceding	696
Beneath our feet and o'er our head.....	848
Beneath the cross of Jesus.....	488
Beyond, beyond that boundless sea.....	40
Beyond the smiling and the weeping....	847
Beyond these chilling winds and gloomy skies.....	876
Blessed Jesus at Thy word.....	18
Blessed Saviour, Thee I love.....	148
Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power	682
Blest be the tie that binds.....	264
Blest day of God, most calm, and bright	761
Blest is the man whose softening heart..	288
Bread of the world, in mercy broken...	403
Break, new-born year, on glad eyes break	677
Breast the wave Christian	569
Brief life is here our portion.....	879
Brightest and best of the sons of the morning	118
Brightly gleams our banner.....	804
By Christ redeemed, in Christ restored.	406
By cool Siloam's shady rill.....	788
Call it not death: it is but life beginning	854
Call Jehovah thy salvation.....	589
Call them in, the poor, the wretched....	284
Calm me, my God, and keep me calm...	436
Cast thy bread upon the waters.....	294
Cast thy burden on the Lord	590
Change is our portion here.....	842
Children of the heavenly King.....	268
Christ above all glory seated.....	208
Christ by heavenly hosts adored.....	655
Christ for the world we sing.....	541
Christ is made our sure Foundation	817
Christ is our Corner-stone.....	17
Christ the life of all the living.....	158
Christ the Lord is risen again.....	175
Christ the Lord is risen today.....	181
Christian, dost thou see them.....	568
Christian, seek not yet repose.....	568
Christians, awake, salute the happy morn	114
Clothed in Thy righteousness.....	509
Come, all ye saints of God.....	476
Come, Christian children, come and raise	760
Come, gracious Saviour, manifest Thy glory	800
Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove..	242
Come, Holy Ghost, Creator, come.....	280
Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove.....	243
Come in, O come, the door stands open now	738
Come, labor on.....	529
Come, let us join our cheerful songs....	614
Come, let us join our friends above.....	269
Come, Lord, and tarry not.....	220
Come, my soul, thou must be waking...	698
Come, my soul, thy suit prepare.....	416
Come, O come, Thou quickening Spirit.	283
Come, praise your Lord and Saviour....	790
Come, pure hearts, in sweetest measures	829

Come, Thou Almighty King.....	8
Come, Thou Fount of every blessing....	684
Come, Thou long-expected Jesus.....	100
Come, Thou, O come, sweetest and kind- liest.....	286
Come, Thou Saviour of our race.....	95
Come to the morning prayer.....	420
Come to the wedding, Jesus, Friend Divine.....	754
Come unto me, ye weary.....	148
Come, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish.....	442
Come, ye saints, look here and wonder.	185
Come, ye thankful people, come.....	666
Come, ye that know and fear the Lord..	52
Comfort, comfort ye my people.....	96
Commit thou all thy griefs.....	595
Conquering Prince and Lord of glory...	196
Crown Him with many crowns.....	200
Daily, daily sing the praises.....	877
Days and moments quickly flying.....	671
Day-spring of eternity.....	684
Dear Christian people, all rejoice.....	84
Dear Jesus, ever at my side.....	785
Dear Refuge of my weary soul.....	437
Dear Saviour we are Thine.....	884
Deck thyself, my soul, with gladness...	399
Depth of mercy, can there be.....	460
Do not I love Thee, O my Lord.....	501
Dread Majesty above.....	62
Earth has many a noble city.....	121
Earth has nothing sweet or fair.....	528
Earth with her ten thousand flowers....	58
Emmanuel, we sing Thy praise.....	112
Enthroned on high, Almighty Lord.....	245
Ere yet the dawn has filled the skies...	177
Eternal Father, strong to save.....	751
Eternal Source of every joy.....	658
Eternal Spirit, God of truth.....	228
Eternal Spirit, we confess.....	241
Every morning mercies new.....	686
Fairest Lord Jesus.....	144
Far o'er yon horizon.....	830
Father, again in Jesus' Name we meet..	15
Father, in Thy mysterious presence kneeling.....	734
Father of all from land and sea.....	282
Father of heaven, who hast created all.	379
Father of heaven, whose Love profound	254
Father of mercies, bow Thine ear.....	869
Father of mercies, in Thy word.....	830
Father, Son and Holy Spirit.....	381
Father, whate'er of earthly bliss.....	824
Fierce was the wild billow.....	129
Fling out the banner, let it float.....	312
For all the saints, who from their labor's rest.....	270
For help, O whither shall I flee.....	459
For the beauty of the earth.....	615
For the mercies of the day.....	364
For thee, O dear, dear country.....	881
For Thy mercy and Thy grace.....	672
Forever to behold Him shine.....	508
Forever with the Lord.....	870
Forth in Thy name, O Lord, I go.....	690
Forward! be our watchward.....	829
Fountain of good, to own Thy love.....	496
From all that dwell below the skies.....	8
From every stormy wind that blows....	421
From Greenland's icy mountains.....	804
From heaven above to earth I come....	111
From the cross the blood is falling....	170
From the eastern mountains.....	119

	HYMN.
Gentle Shepherd, Thou hast stilled.....	864
Gently, Lord, O gently lead us.....	834
Glorious things of Thee are spoken.....	257
Glory be to God on high.....	619
Glory be to God, the Father.....	24
Glory to God on high.....	9
Go, labor on; spend and be spent.....	549
Go to dark Gethsemane.....	151
God be with you till we meet again.....	810
God bless our native land.....	645
God calling yet! shall I not hear.....	446
God is in heaven. Can He hear?.....	762

Hail, tranquil hour of closing day.....	701
Hallelujah, fairest morning.....	348
Hallelujah, hearts to heaven.....	189
Happy the souls to Jesus joined.....	266
Hark, hark, my soul! angelic songs....	875
Hark! hark! the organ loudly pealing..	820
Hark! my soul, it is the Lord.....	448
Hark! ten thousand harps and voices...	201
Hark! the glad sound, the Saviour comes	101
Hark! the herald-angels sing.....	108
Hark! the song of Jubilee.....	309
Hark! the sound of holy voices.....	272
Hark! the voice of Jesus crying.....	277
Haste, traveler, haste! the night comes on.....	449
Hark! what mean those holy voices....	103
He comes, no royal vesture wearing....	97
He giveth His beloved sleep.....	730
He is coming, He is coming.....	223
He that goeth forth with weeping.....	831
Head of the Church triumphant.....	280
Hear us, Thou that broodest.....	231
Hear what God the Lord hath spoken...	258
Heaven and earth and sea and air.....	60
Heavenly Father, send Thy blessing....	780
Heavenward still our pathway tends....	823
Here I can firmly rest.....	596
Here is my heart.....	388
Here, O my Lord, I see Thee face to face	896

Stars of the morning, so gloriously bright	82
Still by constant love surrounded.....	558
Still will we trust, though earth seem dark and dreary.....	594
Still with Thee, O my God.....	84
Strive, when thou of God art called.....	565
Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear.....	723
Supreme in wisdom and in power.....	46
Sweet evening-star, whose blessings fall	737
Sweet is the work, my God, my King...	841
Sweet is Thy mercy, Lord.....	418
Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go.....	28
Sweet the moments, rich in blessing....	164
Take me, O my Father, take me.....	467
Take my life and let it be.....	582
Take up the cross, the Saviour said.....	448
Tarry with me, O my Saviour.....	739
Teach me, O Lord, Thy holy way.....	535
Tell me the old, old story.....	768
Ten thousand times ten thousand.....	869
Thank and praise Jehovah's Name.....	43
The Church has waited long.....	221
The Church's one Foundation.....	256
The day is done; night's welcome rest is sweet.....	702
The day is gently sinking to a close.....	727
The day is past and gone.....	706
The day is past and over.....	714
The day, O Lord, is spent.....	699
The day of praise is done.....	863
The day of resurrection.....	187
The fields are all white.....	801
The God of harvest praise.....	663
The golden gates are lifted up.....	202
The head, that once was crowned.....	204
The heavens declare Thy glory, Lord...	818
The Homeland, O the Homeland.....	890
The hours of day are over.....	718
The King of love my Shepherd is.....	585
The Lord be with me everywhere.....	749
The Lord be with us as we bend.....	85
The Lord, how wondrous are His ways..	51
The Lord is King, lift up thy voice.....	75
The Lord Jehovah reigns.....	16
The Lord my pasture shall prepare.....	71
The Lord my Shepherd is.....	592
The Lord will come and not be slow....	289
The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting	880
The morning bright with rosy light.....	757
The morning light is breaking.....	806
The radiant morn hath passed away.....	715
The roseate hues of early dawn.....	827
The Sabbath-day has reached its close..	859
The saints of God, their conflict past....	274
The sands of time are sinking.....	882
The shadows of the evening hours.....	717
The Son of God goes forth to war.....	542
The spacious firmament on high.....	64
The Spirit breathes upon the word.....	831
The strife is o'er, the victory won.....	180
The sun is sinking fast.....	709
The swift declining day.....	700
The voice that breathed o'er Eden.....	753
The way is long and dreary.....	453
The wise may bring their learning.....	789
The world is very evil.....	886
Thee we adore, eternal Lord.....	5
Thee will I love, my Strength, my Tower	499
There is a blessed home.....	885
There is a book, who runs may read....	823
There is a fold, whence none can stray..	873
There is a fountain filled with blood....	472
There is a green hill far away.....	778
There is a happy land.....	807
There is a land of pure delight.....	886
There is an eye, that never sleeps.....	423
There is an hour of peaceful rest.....	874
There is no night in heaven.....	887

	HYMN.
There's a fight to be fought, there's a work to be done.....	572
There's a friend for little children.....	767
There's a wideness in God's mercy.....	452
Thine are all the gifts, O Lord.....	286
Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love..	362
Thine forever, God of love.....	383
This child we dedicate to Thee.	377
This day at Thy creating word.....	340
This is my body, which is given for you.	411
This is the day of light.....	349
This is the day the Lord hath made.....	354
This night, O Lord, we bless Thee.....	707
Those eternal bowers.....	883
Thou art my Hiding-place, O Lord.....	570
Thou art the Way, to Thee alone.....	181
Thou grace Divine, encircling all.....	55
Thou knowest, Lord, the weariness and sorrow.....	744
Thou, Lord, art Love; and everywhere.	33
Thou, Lord, of all the parent art.....	87
Thou shalt rise, my dust, thou shalt arise	865
Thou to whom the sick and dying.....	741
Thou, who didst on Calvary bleed.....	708
Thou, who roll'st the year around.....	673
Thou, whose almighty word.....	317
Through all the changing scenes of life.	573
Through every age, eternal God.....	86
Through good report and evil.....	539
Through the day Thy love has spared us	725
Through the night of doubt and sorrow.	273
Thus far the Lord has led me on.....	716
Thy bounties, gracious Lord.....	813
Thy kingdom come, O Lord.....	822
Thy way, not mine, O Lord.....	745
Thy way, O God, is in the sea.....	73
Thy will be done, I will not fear.....	597
Thy word is like a garden, Lord.....	766
Till He come — O let the words.....	471
'Tis finished; so the Saviour cried.....	167
'Tis Jesus speaks; I fold, says He.....	883
'Tis midnight, and on Olive's brow.....	154
To Calvary, Lord, in spirit now.....	156
To David's Son Hosanna!.....	800
To Him who for our sins was slain.....	607
To our Redeemer's glorious Name.....	216
To Thee, O dear, dear Saviour.....	525
To Thee, our God we fly.....	649
To Thy pastures, fair and large.....	880
To Thy temple I repair.....	367
Trim the lamp, the light is fading.....	720
Triumphant Zion, lift thy head.....	261
True Bread of life, in pitying mercy given	413
Unveil thy bosom faithful tomb.....	852
Up to the Lord, that reigns on high.....	76
Upon the gospel's sacred page.....	335
Upward where the stars are burning....	884
Vainly, through night's weary hours....	740
Wake, awake, for night is flying.....	217
Walk in the light, so shalt thou know....	417
Watchman, tell us of the night.....	308
We come, Lord, to Thy feet.....	756
We give immortal praise.....	250
We give Thee but Thine own.....	295
We march, we march to victory.....	808
We plough the fields and scatter.....	803
We sing a loving Jesus.....	773
We would see Jesus, for the shadows lengthen.....	494
Wearied with earthly toil and care.....	852
Wearied of earth and laden with my sin...	462
Welcome happy morning.....	174
Welcome, sweet day of rest.....	345
Welcome Thou Victor in the strife,	192
What grace, O Lord, and beauty shone.	130
What laws, my blessed Saviour, hast Thou broken.....	152
